FOR CLASSIFIED ADS PHONE GRANT 5400

WEATHER — Showers and warmer today. Showers, cooler tomorrow.

Only Pittsburgh Newspaper Printing International News Service Dispatches.

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

VOL. 11—NO. 57 30 PAGES TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1932 THREE CENTS

WALL ST. CLOSE

SACCO JUDGE ESCAPES AS BOMB RAZES HOME

Today

Wheat for China.
Mussolini's New Plan.
Ruining an Old Name.
Twenty Millions Death Tax.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

PRESIDENT HOOVER is conferring with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to find some way of financing the sale of 15,000,000 bushels of wheat to China. China offers to buy the wheat. The question is, whence is the money to come?

In view of the fact that millions are starving in China, some way of shifting the wheat from our surplus into starving Chinese stomachs should be found.

We managed to send ten thousand million dollars to Europeans, killing each other, and we shall not get that money back.

If we sent fifteen million bushels of wheat to starving Chinese men, women and children, Providence and the farmers certainly would applaud, even if we never got the cash.

MR. KNICKERBOCKER, studying Europe, sends extremely interesting information to Cyrus H. K. Curtis about Mussolini's plans.

He grabs the depression situation by the horns and not gently. There is trouble with the big bank. The Italian government takes charge of it. There is trouble with big industries. Mussolini's government also takes charge of them.

MUSSOLINI IS doing in the name of conservatism, capitalism and monarchial government what Stalin is doing for Russia in the name of Communism, Marxism and Sovietism.

Both apparently believe that something better than hit-or-miss individual initiative and free competition are needed.

Our best minds will watch the programs carefully.

THE ANCIENT market city of Nizhni-Novgorod has been renamed "Gorki," in honor of the distinguished Russian writer.

Maxim Gorki's genius deserves any reasonable honor, but Nizhni-Novgorod does not deserve to lose its ancient, romantic name, and Gorki probably will be first to protest against the change.

To Nizhni-Novgorod's great fair traders came from all over Mongolia and Russia. There, the strange creature, Ivan the Terrible, inflicted some of his worst brutalities on men and women, including nuns.

IT WAS BAD enough to take from St. Petersburg the name of the czar who created the city and the power of modern Russia, and name it for Lenin.

To rechristen ancient Nizhni-Novgorod is as bad as it would be to rename Venice "Lagoonville" or rechristen the Taj-Mahal, "My Best Girl."

TO DO a thing well always pays. Attend to your business ably and your business will attend to you.

Dr. John T. Dorrance, able head of a great canned soup company, who recently died, evidently knew how to make good soup and sell it. The state of Pennsylvania will collect $20,000,000 as taxes on the property that he left. But taxing a man's success so heavily after death, when the government takes half he earns while he lives, seems a little greedy.

BECAUSE BRITAIN'S government "gave in," approving a compromise on the privilege of India's "untouchables," Gandhi has ended his fast.

He took nourishment at 6:30 a. m. yesterday (eastern standard time) for the first time in six days and five hours.

For a man wasted to a shadow by habitual semi-starvation, such a fast must mean serious shortening of life. There is no doubt that Gandhi would have starved himself to death. The wise British know when to give way.

GEN. VON SEECKT, called the "most famous German military strategist," says that since the other nations will not disarm, Germany will bring herself up to full military strength and "there is no force on earth that can prevent Germany from becoming a great military power."

That is true; one victory means nothing. France lost in 1870 and won in 1918. Germany lost in 1918 and inevitably will be making another attempt to wipe that out, and take back Alsace and Lorraine before the century is half ended, UNLESS human beings suddenly become enlightened and refer national quarrels, as they now refer personal quarrels, to a legal decision.

NOT LONG ago human beings of high position thought it beneath their dignity to refer a quarrel to anything or anybody except their swords. Duels, miniature wars, decided who was right.

Cardinal Richelieu did a great deal to discourage that. Some way should be found to discourage the international murdering, the wholesale duels called "war."

AT ABOUT fifty many men lose courage. At that age courage should increase, for if you have gone through life's troubles for fifty years you should be able to cover the rest of the ground.

But, it does not work in that way. Two middle-aged men killed themselves in New York yesterday. One, George F. Eiseman fifty, jumped from the sixteenth floor of a hotel. Another, Isidor Dubinsky, younger, jumped from the forty-second floor of another building.

Why not wait and see what

(Continued on Page Two, Col. One.)

Bombed, Unhurt

JUDGE WEBSTER THAYER

Judge Thayer, 74-year-old jurist who presided at the trial of Sacco and Vanzetti, unhurt today as his home was bombed.

COYNE PARTNER ON HEALY BOND

Louis Schwartz, business partner of Senator James J. Coyne, is the new bondsman for Constable John Healy, recently accused of encouraging the booze and numbers rackets in the Nineteenth Ward, it was learned today.

Schwartz is also the owner of the property in Forbes street which houses the Monaca Club—across from Oakland Police Station. Judge Frank P. Patterson two weeks ago pointed out that the Monaca Club, said to be one of the city's biggest speakeasies, was operating gambling games openly.

Schwartz is vice president of the Oakland Real Estate Company, of which Coyne is president. He said today that, while his company sells surety bonds, the bond he had posted for Healy and the bonds he had posted in other instances were simply examples of friendship and without profit.

The bond Schwartz posted for Healy was not on the Monaca property, but on a garage at 5156 Penn avenue.

Roxie Long, 44 Sought By Court

Bench warrants for arrest of Roxie Long and 44 others indicted last week by the Federal grand jury at Erie on charges of conspiracy to violate the National prohibition act, were issued by Judge Nelson McVicar in Federal Court this afternoon. They will be required to post bond pending trial.

Graf Over Spain On Return Flight

HAMBURG, Germany, Sept. 27. (AP.)—The Hamburg-American Line announced today that the German dirigible Graf Zeppelin, on its way to Pernambuco, Brazil, passed Malaga, Spain, at 7:20 a. m. today, flying against a headwind.

Crew That Rescued Hutchinsons Strikes

ABERDEEN, Scotland, Sept. 27. —(AP.)—The crew of the trawler Lord Talbot, which rescued the "flying Hutchinsons" in Greenland, were reported today to have gone on strike, claiming a bonus from the owners for the rescue.

Many Die as Hurricane Batters San Juan

DAVIS CASH TERMED GIFT

BOMB HOME OF SACCO JUDGE

Debris Pins Wife, Maid, As Thayer Escapes; District Rocked

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The home of Judge Webster Thayer, who presided at the celebrated case of the anarchists, Sacco and Vanzetti, who were executed for murder in 1927, was destroyed by a terrific explosion shortly before dawn today.

Judge Thayer, although virtually covered by debris, escaped uninjured and, although visibly shaken, walked unaided from the house to offer what assistance he could to firemen and investigators. Mrs. Thayer, who was buried in wreckage, was taken to a hospital where she was treated for lacerations and shock, while a maid, Miss Joan Ashe, was treated at a hospital for shock.

DEFIES ENEMIES

Judge Thayer first said:

"I should hate to believe that because a man does his duty before mankind and God his penalty is this."

A little later, in a slightly more smiling manner, he commented:

"They can't kill me that easily."

Immediately afterward authorities in Boston and its suburbs placed uniformed and plain clothed guards around the homes of many persons who were involved in the Sacco-Vanzetti prosecution. These included the home of A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard University, on the Harvard campus. President Lowell was on of a committee of three appointed by the then Gov. Alvan T. Fuller to determine whether the anarchists had had a fair trial. The committee found that the evidence warranted a verdict of guilty.

Gov. Joseph B. Ely, upon hearing the news, hastened here immediately from his home in Westfield after issuing a statement in which, by implication, he attrib-

(Continued on Page Two, Col. Two.)

Mrs. Borah Gains In Life Struggle

BOISE, Ida., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Hope for the recovery of Mrs. William E. Borah was increased here today by successive physicians' bulletins indicating she was slowly gaining in the struggle against psittacosis, or parrot fever.

Improvement was noted through yesterday and at midnight Dr. Ralph Falk reported she had maintained her gains against the disease though her heart muscles still were weak.

Long's Brother Out; Differed With Huey

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 27. —(INS.)—Earl K. Long doesn't see eye to eye on political matters with his famous brother, Huey Long, so Earl is out of a job today.

Gov. O. K. Allen, Huey Long's right-hand man, today removed the Senator's brother as attorney for the New Orleans inheritance tax collector and appointed former Gov. O. H. Simpson to the post.

Missing Wife Returns, Denies She Saw Pastor

WASHINGTON, Pa., Sept. 27.—The return of Mrs. Arabella Glessner, 43, mother of two, to her home in Berlin, Somerset County, today was met with the announcement here that the Rev. Carl Whipple, 36, who disappeared from the home of his wife's parents here, has not been heard from.

Mrs. Glessner disappeared from the home of Mrs. Thomas Dirbin, 217 East Maiden street, on August 15, following a visit. The next day Mr. Whipple, an unordained Methodist Episcopal minister, left. Whipple formerly had been a pastor at Berlin, and occupied a part of the Glessner home.

Today in Berlin, Mrs. Glessner said she had been in Youngstown with her daughter, Ruth, 8, and did not know that her absence had caused any concern. She said she had not seen Mr. Whipple since she left Washington. She said she had been with strangers in Youngstown, and refused to reveal the street address.

Mrs. Thomas Durbin said her daughter had not heard from Mr. Whipple since he disappeared, and the return of Mrs. Glessner also was unknown to her.

AIR MAIL PILOT CRASHES IN FOG

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Paul Reeder, 26, pilot on a Newark-Cleveland west-bound air mail plane, fell out of the burning cockpit of the ship after crashing into the side of Snowshoe Mountain, four miles from this place, early today in a fog. He suffered only minor cuts.

Bellefonte airport officials hurried to salvage the plane and save the mail, but could not immediately locate the wreckage. Reeder's 900-pound mail cargo is believed to have been destroyed.

Paul Reeder was among the pilots assigned to the search for Thomas P. Nelson, former airmail "buddy" of Col. Charles Lindbergh, when Nelson was lost over the "hell stretch," near Clarion, in December, 1929. He was among the first to reach Chagrin Falls, O., after farmers found Nelson's body and his wrecked plane there.

PICTURE ON PAGE 12.

Argument Ends With Suicide in West End

Marshall Werner, 28, of 1005 Harker street, West End, fired a bullet into his head and fell dead at the feet of his wife, Jane, during an argument in their home last night, according to the coroner's report. The quarrel began when Werner returned home intoxicated, the report stated. Suddenly, Werner drew a revolver and fired the shot before his wife could frustrate the attempt.

In Today's Sun-Telegraph

	Page
"Valentine" (serial)	28
Bugs Baer	17
Claude G. Bowers	30
Bridge Lessons	13
Arthur Brisbane	1
Comics	28, 29
Dr. Copeland	13
Cross-Word Puzzle	29
Editorial	30
Finance	24, 25, 26
B. C. Forbes	25
Mark Hellinger	11
Magazine, Fiction	13
O. O. McIntyre	30
Paris Fashions	20
Pattern	9
Radio	15
Ripley	22
Will Rogers	17
Helen Rowland	30
Mark Shields	17
Society, Clubs	20, 21
Sports	22, 23, 24
Stage, Screen	10, 11
Walter Winchell	10

MANY KILLED IN SAN JUAN HURRICANE

Thousands Homeless As Terrific Gale Battles City

SAN JUAN, P. R., Sept. 27. (AP.)—At least 30 persons are known to have been killed in a terrific hurricane which struck this city last night.

The full force of a 120-mile wind struck before midnight and lashed the city until 2:30 this morning, causing property damage even greater than that left in the wake of the disastrous 1928 blow.

The death toll mounted as reports from other outlying districts came in. The little town of Carolina reported 10 dead. A native of Caguas was electrocuted by a live wire.

Hundreds were injured and thousands were left homeless. Most of the dead, the first reports indicated, were in smaller outlying towns, such as Barrios, Sabanallana, Catano and Rio Piedras.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

Here in the city the loss of life was materially reduced by the police who took the precaution of rounding up hundreds of women and children, removing them from their homes and placing them for safety in the more substantial church and school buildings.

The villages, consisting for the most part of flimsy homes, had no such protection. Even in San Juan, homes by the hundred were unroofed and torrents of rain poured in.

First reports gave the following death toll:

Barrios 14 dead; Sabanallana, 4; Catano, 2; Rio Piedras, 10.

Various reports from the last named town placed the death toll there as high as 40, with seven members of one family killed in their home. Rio Piedras is about five miles east of San Juan, directly in the path of the storm. The unsubstantial native dwellings stood exposed on the hillsides.

COMMUNICATION CUT OFF

The weather bureau estimated the storm had struck with its greatest force along the northeastern half of the island, from Fajardo on the east to the Arecibo on the northwest. Light, telephone and gas services here were cut off today and no communication with other parts of the island was possible.

During the height of the storm the anemometer at the Weather Bureau blew away and the wind gauge tower crumpled.

The barometer fell to 28.95 at 1 a. m. The Weather Bureau offi-

(Continued on Page Two, Col. Six.)

Carpenter Killed On Birthday by Fall

Andrew Chesmark was dead today in his Tarentum home where yesterday a cake with candles had been prepared by his wife and children in honor of his forty-second birthday. Shortly before the celebration was to have begun, Chesmark, a carpenter, fell 60 feet and was killed while at work in the New Kensington plant of the Aluminum Company of America.

Rocket Breakdown Cancels Lunar Trip

PILLAU, Silesia, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—The plan of Prof. Max Winkler, German scientist, to project a rocket to the moon was indefinitely postponed today when a cylinder being filled with liquid methane cracked under the terrific pressure. Prof. Winkler had planned to launch his rocket tonight.

Winston Churchill Taken to Hospital

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Winston Churchill, recently reported convalescing from an illness contracted during a trip aboard, had a relapse today and was taken from his home to a hospital.

A Kiss or a Sock?

MRS. MARIE S. WILLIAMS . . . SUING FOR A DIVORCE TODAY

Mrs. Williams, 25 and comely, 1213 Brownsville road, who testified today in Judge Gardner's divorce court that Husband George, when she asked him for a kiss, retorted: "I'll sock you in the nose" —and once did, she added. This is a Sun-Telegraph picture.

CUBAN LEADER ASSASSINATED

By CLIFFORD H. GALLOWAY
International News Service.

HAVANA, Sept. 27.—Clemente Vasquez Bello, president of the Cuban Senate, was assassinated today by a gang of gunmen who opened fire upon him with a machine gun as he was entering his home in Country Club Park.

Bello, who was also president of the Liberal party, was a close personal friend of President Gerardo Machado and one of the foremost political figures in the country.

It was through Bello's efforts that President Machado decided to remain in office in June of last year after having written and signed his resignation.

Dr. Maits Seriously Ill With Pleurisy

Dr. C. B. Maits, city health director, was reported seriously ill with an attack of pleurisy today. A bad case of hay fever, in August and early this month, is blamed for the pleurisy. Dr. Maits was reported to be in no immediate danger.

PRESIDENTIAL POLL

Latest tabulations in the Hearst newspapers' nation-wide presidential poll are published today on Page 4.

DENIED KISS, WIFE SUES

When she asked him for a kiss, Mrs. Marie S. Williams, 25, of 1213 Brownsville road, testified today, her husband, George, whom she is suing for divorce, retorted:

"I'll sock you in the nose."

He struck her, the wife testified, and she called in a physician to treat her injury.

Mrs. Williams, attractive and modishly attired, told Judge S. H. Gardner they were happy for a while after their marriage, December 1, 1927, but that later her husband remained out late at nights and became infatuated with another woman.

She said she pleaded with him to give up the "other woman." He did for four days, the wife declared, but returned to her.

The couple separated September 10, 1931. Cruelty is charged. The suit was not contested.

AIDE TELLS OF $70,000 PRESENT

Cites Loan of $30,000 Without Interest In Moose Deal

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A $70,000 gift and a $30,000 loan without interest, today were offered as the explanation for $100,000 traced into the accounts of United States Senator James J. Davis at the "lottery" trial of the director general of the Loyal Order of Moose.

The government charges the $100,000 was part of $173,000 obtained by Davis from the proceeds of two "lottery" charity balls.

Fred W. Jones, financial agent for Davis, today testified regarding the $100,000 which was used to reduce a $150,000 note indorsed by the defendant.

Jones testified that after he and Joseph Jenkins had purchased the contract for organizing the Moose from Davis for $600,000 in August, 1930, they found that the membership drive was suffering from the effect of the charity ball campaign.

GIFT TO DEPARTMENT

The charity ball was promoted through the "propagation department" of the Moose, headed by Theodore Miller and Bernard C. McGuire, both of whom are under indictment.

Jones testified that Miller made a gift of $70,000 from the "propagation department" on January 6, 1931, to the "organization department" because of the effect that promoting the charity ball was having on the drive for new members.

Jones said that Miller also gave a loan of $30,000 to the "organization department" and didn't want any interest.

This $100,000 was used, Jones, said, to pay off part of a loan on a $150,000 note guaranteed by Davis.

Another transaction involving $40,000, alleged to be part of the $173,000 "lottery profits" made by Davis, was next taken up by Jones.

CASH DEPOSITED HERE

Jones testified that Miller, shortly after the 1931 charity ball drawing, asked him to accept $50,000 from the "propagation department."

Jones said he told Miller he

(Continued on Page Two, Col. Seven.)

2 of 3 Rockview Fugitives Caught

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Sept. 27.—(AP.) — Two escaped prisoners from Rockview Penitentiary were captured yesterday at Stormstown.

The men, Jesse Aschcroft and Walter Gordon, Negroes, who escaped Friday night, emerged from a woods and asked a farmer for work. He laid aside his job of cutting corn to telephone the penitentiary. One man, Frank Scott, still is missing.

Wife Joins Killefer At Butler Hospital

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 27.—William (Bill) Killefer, manager of the St. Louis Browns, today was prepared for a long stay in the Butler Hospital, the result of a broken leg suffered yesterday when his auto was wrecked. Mrs. Killefer arrived from West Chester to be near the former Philly star, battery mate of the great Grover Cleveland Alexander.

Hoover Sees Country's Need as 'Good New Joke'

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—President Hoover believes one of the country's needs is a "good, new joke," and he would like to hear it himself.

He gave his views in a letter congratulating Joe Weber and Lew Fields on the jubilee anniversary of their appearance in vaudeville, celebrated at a dinner in the Hotel Astor. As published today it read in part:

"I do, indeed, believe that such an evening would be as beneficial to me as would the invention of a resoundingly good, new joke to the whole country.

"I cannot be present at the golden jubilee banquet, but I will be obliged if you will express my hearty congratulations to the honored guests and my wishes for an evening of joyous laughter and good fellowship to their hosts."

Pitt Admits Lone Rebel As 7,000 Sign Pledge

Of 7,000 students registered at the University of Pittsburgh, only one refused to sign the pledge of allegiance to nation, state and university, it was revealed today.

The lone "conscientious objector" was permitted to register. He wrote a long letter setting forth his reasons for not signing, the contents of which was not disclosed, according to John Weber, Pitt business manager.

He in turn received a letter urging co-operation from Dean L. P. Sieg, of the college.

COLORADO GIVES DEMOCRATS LEAD IN U. S. SENATE

EDITOR NAMED TO WATERMAN VACANCY

Gov. Adams' Selection Upsets Majority Of G. O. P.

DENVER, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Democrats outnumbered Republicans by one today in the United States Senate with the appointment of Walter Walker, Grand Junction newspaper publisher, to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Senator Charles W. Waterman.

On the roster of the Upper House now are 48 Democrats, 47 Republicans and one Farmer-Labor member.

Appointment of Walker by Gov. William H. Adams yesterday was not unexpected.

TERM IN DISPUTE

Colorado political circles were still uncertain today whether the recently retired chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee would serve in the Lame Duck session of Congress, which convenes in December, or whether he will serve only until a successor to Waterman is chosen at the general election November 8. Waterman's term expires March 4.

Colorado election laws make no provision for the nomination of candidates in circumstances of this nature. Gov. Adams said he has received widely varying advice on the matter. He declared his appointment was made to fill the vacancy as provided by the law and that the term of office is for others to determine.

ACTIVE IN PARTY

Walker has long been active in the Democratic party in the state, was a delegate to the last three national conventions and was chairman of the Colorado delegation at the Chicago convention in June. He served as state chairman for two years, retiring voluntarily last week. He has been a confidant and adviser of Gov. Adams.

The new senator was born in Marion, Ky., April 3, 1883. In 1903 Walker went to Grand Junction and has been engaged in the newspaper business in that city ever since. He was married to Miss Kathie Wood, a Kentucky girl, in Louisville, Ky., November 2, 1903. The Walkers have one son, Preston, 20.

TOKIO DOUBTS CLUE TO FLIERS

TOKIO, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Government Aviation Bureau officials and the flight promoters expressed doubt today that mysterious radio messages reported by a Tacoma (Wash.) operator could produce clues indicating the whereabouts of the missing Japanese goodwill fliers.

Japanese aviation experts were still of the opinion that the three Japanese fliers were lost in the Kurile Islands Saturday after taking off from Samushiro beach for Nome, Alaska. The search is being concentrated in the middle of the Kuriles.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Radio messages of mysterious origin, reported by an amateur radio operator, today told of hearing from the three missing Japanese goodwill fliers some 24 hours after they should have landed at Nome, Alaska.

The calls came presumably from a vessel in the Pacific.

Today

(Continued from Page One.)

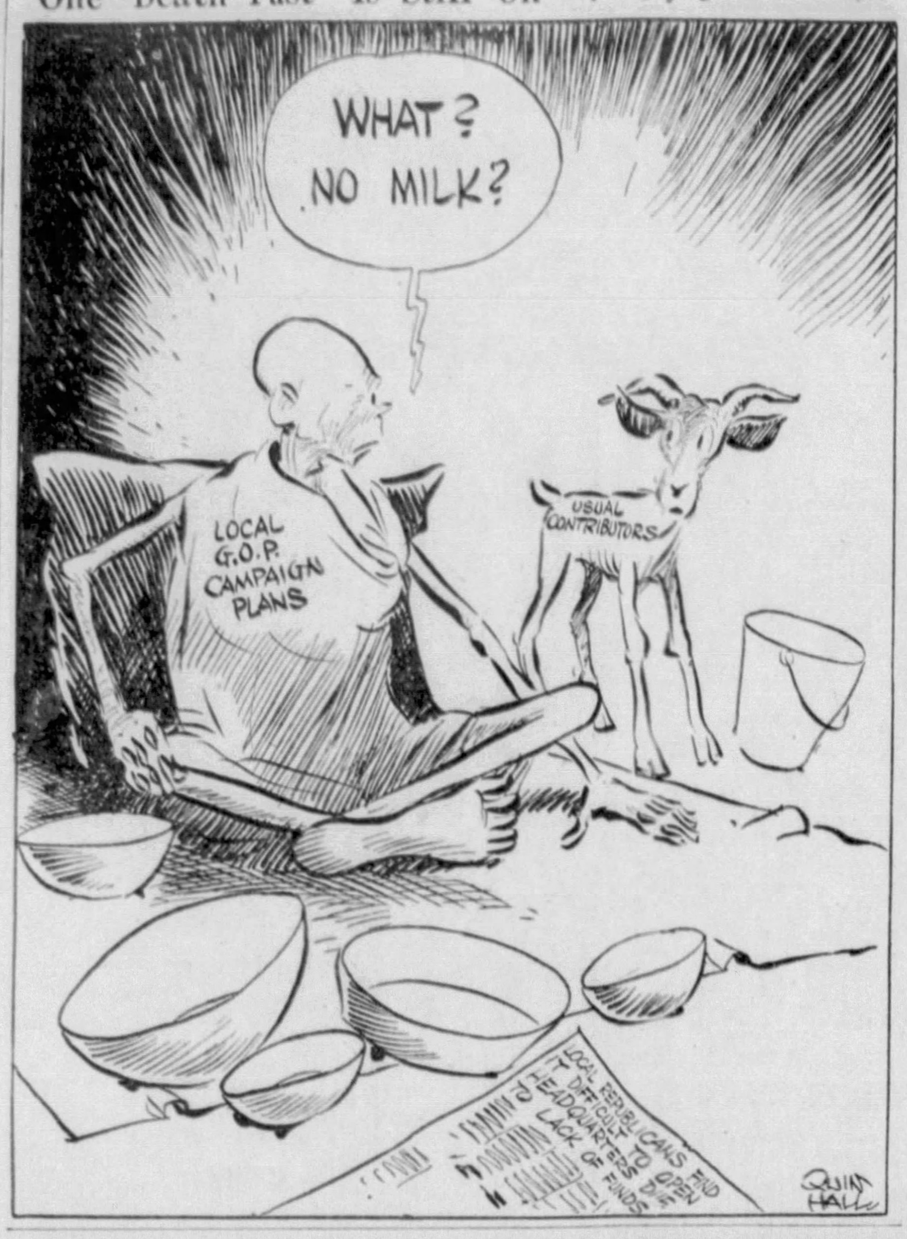
will happen? Napoleon thought of suicide, before his name was known. What interesting days he would have missed.

DE VALERA, president of the Irish Free State, presiding over the League of Nations general assembly, says strange things. Instead of calling the League perfect, he said it stood under suspicion, "a defendant at the bar of public opinion." He also demanded that the League deal with all alike, weak little nations, or powerful big nations.

De Valera takes the League too seriously if he thinks it will talk to Japan or Italy as it talks to Austria, and other countries hamstrung by the treaty of Versailles.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

One 'Death Fast' Is Still On -:- By QUIN HALL



WHAT?
NO MILK?
LOCAL G.O.P. CAMPAIGN PLANS
USUAL CONTRIBUTORS
LOCAL REPUBLICANS FIND IT DIFFICULT TO OPEN HEADQUARTERS DUE TO LACK OF FUNDS
QUIN HALL

SACCO JUDGE'S HOME BOMBED

(Continued from Page One.)

uted the explosion to bombers and promised every resource of the state "to apprehend the culprits."

BOMBERS BLAMED

State and local police assigned to the investigation worked immediately upon the supposition that bombers were responsible, recalling that the home of Lewis McHardy, a juror in the Sacco-Vanzetti case, in Milton, was destroyed by a bomb in 1927 in the early morning hours, the family barely escaping with their lives.

The Thayer home was wrecked, a garage at the rear was demolished and homes for several hundred yards surrounding it were shaken severely. A neighbor told police she saw an automobile stop near the Thayer home shortly before the explosion. A man got out, walked to the rear of the Thayer home, returned and sped away, she said.

William G. Thompson, one of the counsel for Sacco and Vanzetti, interviewed in Boston, said he could not agree with what he assumed would be the general conclusion that the destruction was the work of anarchists. He said:

"In the course of five or six years of work on the case I became acquainted with innumerable persons, including some anarchists, who were the real friends of Sacco and Vanzetti. Not one was a person capable of such an act as this."

Second Bomb Clue To Chicago Blast

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Discovery of another bomb following information received in an anonymous telephone message, gave police new hope today they may be able to find the terrorists who recently bombed the home of Judge John P. McGoorty.

The bomb was found last night in the rear of a reputed beer flat after an unidentified man telephoned the police.

Asks $300 a Year To Be Executioner

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—William S. Gilbert wants to save the state some money. He wrote Gov. Moore he would serve as the state's executioner for $300 a year. He estimated the present executioner received $175 for each execution.

Walker Sails Home On New Italian Ship

GENOA, Italy, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Carrying a distinguished passenger list, including former Mayor James J. Walker, of New York, the new Italian liner, Rex, sailed today for New York on its maiden voyage.

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.
Vol. XI—No. 57.
Tuesday, September 27, 1932.
Published evening and Sunday at the office of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, Telegraph Square, Pittsburgh, Pa. Price: Daily, 3 cents; Sunday, 10 cents.
Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Pittsburgh, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

CRISP ELEVATED TO TARIFF POST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—President Hoover today appointed Representative Charles R. Crisp (Dem.), of Georgia, to the Tariff Commission, filling the vacancy created several days ago by the death of Lincoln Dixon.

A statement from the White House pointed out that the Tariff Commission is a bi-partisan body, of which not more than three of the six members can be members of the same political party.

The appointment of Crisp, it was explained, will preserve the bi-partisan character of the commission.

Crisp, acting chairman of the Ways and Means Committee during the last session, recently was defeated by Gov. Russell, of Georgia, in the primary race for a Senate seat.

Accused of Slaying In 1923, Man Caught

MARTINS FERRY, O., Sept. 27.—George Yankovich, accused of murdering his wife at Crabapple nine years ago, today was en route from Chicago to St. Clairsville, having been arrested in the former city.

HOOVER FIGHTS RAIL WAGE CUT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—President Hoover has launched efforts for postponement until after next January 1 of all further railway wage reduction talk.

Secretary Doak, after a conference with the Chief Executive, issued a statement saying Mr. Hoover had conferred with leading railroad presidents and with representatives of organized railway labor in an effort to defer discussions of an additional 10 per cent wage reduction until "the negotiations could be based on a better realization of the actual circumstances existing."

More than a score of representatives of the Railway Labor Executives' Association last week called upon the President in a body, asking that the administration intervene in their behalf. Mr. Hoover's answer was not made public at that time.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The Herald Tribune says that Calvin Coolidge, in accepting the chairmanship of the nonpartisan railroad commission today or Wednesday, will be joined by Alfred E. Smith, Bernard M. Baruch, Clark Howell and Alexander Legge.

Senator Thomas Ill From Influenza

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Senator John Thomas, Idaho's junior representative in the upper house of Congress, will be confined to his home in Gooding for two or three weeks as a result of an attack of influenza, his physician reported here today.

ROOSEVELT BIDS FOR LIBERAL SUPPORT

Democrats Represent Progressives, He Tells West

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service.

EN ROUTE WITH GOV. ROOSEVELT, LAMY, N. M., Sept. 27.—Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt made a frank bid for the Progressive vote of the Southwest today as he traveled eastward.

To a crowd of several thousand people here the Democratic nominee declared that "there is not room in this country for two parties, both conservative." And he asserted that the Democratic party is the progressive party of the country.

Senator Bronson H. Cutting, Republican, who has bolted the Republican organization in this state, was among those who greeted Gov. Roosevelt here.

RESULTS FORECAST

Speaking from an improvised platform at the rear of his train, Gov. Roosevelt said he had been greatly impressed by improving Democratic prospects across the country, and added:

"We are going to get results now, and we are very certain that in these days the Democratic party is the progressive party. Our party represents liberal ideals, and I am convinced that there is not room in this country for two parties, both conservative.

"We are going to reconstruct our government in this country. And when I go to Washington next March it will be to seek a wider prosperity—a prosperity that will apply to every section and to all classes."

Gov. Roosevelt made a stop of half an hour at this point in his return trip eastward. The Democratic state convention was being held at Santa Fe, 15 miles away, and most of the convention moved down to Lamy to see the head of the national ticket.

Gov. Roosevelt assumed the role of a master of ceremonies and introduced a number of notables to the audience.

INTRODUCES CUTTING

There was great applause when he introduced Senator Cutting. Cutting declined to speak. Others introduced by Gov. Roosevelt from the platform included Senator Bratton (Dem.), of New Mexico; Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana; Senator Key Pittman, of Nevada; Senator John S. Cohen, of Georgia.

In his speech here, Gov. Roosevelt went further than he has gone elsewhere in his frank appeal for the support of the western Progressives.

The Democratic party, he asserted with emphasis, is "the liberal party" of the country. He invited attention to the platform, and asked his audience to compare it with the Republican platform. There, he said, was proof, if proof were needed, that the Democrats represent the liberal point of view in the country.

The Roosevelt special left Lamy shortly after 10 o'clock, northward bound for Colorado.

Hoover's Knowledge Praised by Capper

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—President Hoover's knowledge of world affairs and of those of this country probably is surpassed by no other American, Senator Arthur Capper, of Kansas, declared in a nationwide radio address here last night.

When millions of people were out of work last winter and foreign countries withdrew more than two billion dollars gold bullion from this country, President Hoover was one of the few leaders that did not lose their heads, Senator Capper said.

'So I'm for Roosevelt!'

WILLIAM TURNER GEN. BUTLER

Gen. Smedley Darlington Butler pictured last night as he explained to Wilkinsburg's Burgess Turner just why as a Republican he preferred as president Gov. Roosevelt instead of Mr. Hoover. He's a Roosevelt campaigner. This is a Sun-Telegraph picture.

MANY KILLED IN HURRICANE

(Continued from Page One.)

ces were flooded this morning and employes were wading in barefoot to try and rescue records and instruments from the building.

The residence of Gov. James R. Beverley, La Fortaleza, suffered greatly from floods. Many doors and windows were broken.

HOMES BATTERED

Many of the doors and windows which residents rushed to board up yesterday when first warnings of the storm were issued were crashed in today. Large store windows were broken in, admitting the fury of the storm to these buildings as well as to the homes.

The New York-Puerto Rico steamer Borinquen, which was due to leave last night for Santo Domingo city, remained in port.

Gov. Beverley's secretary summoned the Governor's committee to meet at the earliest possible moment to make provision for relief if it should be needed. The National Guard troops were standing by, waiting for a summons, as was the Red Cross.

Frederick Krug, manager of the Puerto Rico Railway Light and Power Company, said the company's steam plant in San Juan was intact and before daylight workmen started clearing and repairing the power lines.

STORM HEADS FOR HAITI

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Reports of the Weather Bureau here indicated this morning that the storm which struck Porto Rico last night would pass along the north coast of Santo Domingo and Haiti some time today.

DAVIS' MONEY TERMED GIFT

(Continued from Page One.)

would rather take $40,000 as a gift and apply the other $10,000 on the $30,000 loan previously made to the organization department by Miller.

Charles J. Margiotti, chief counsel for the defense, asked:

"What was that $40,000 gift for?"

"Miller said it was for the help provided by the organization department in the work on the charity balls and as compensation for the loss in new members suffered by the department."

The witness said the $40,000 was deposited in the organization department's account in the Fidelity Trust Company, of Pittsburgh. Later, he and Jenkins divided it, Jones testified.

Jones testified that Davis never received a package of ball tickets addressed to him in Pittsburgh. Jones said he receipted for the package but the Senator was not in the city.

OUTLINES DUTIES

Under cross-examination by Assistant United States Attorney Louis M. Treadwell, Jones testified he still held power of attorney for Senator Davis. His duties included issuing personal checks, making deposits and paying personal bills of Davis, the witness said.

Jones testified that he still drew checks against the "organization department" when there was a deficit in the Davis account.

The government prosecutor asked the witness if the "oral agreement" by which the Davis contract with the Moose for organization rights was purchased had been made public.

Jones said he did not know of anyone being told of it, although Jenkins became known as the director of the organization department in 1930.

The defense claims that $200,000 of the $600,000 purchase price on the contract had been paid to date.

JUDGE EXPLAINS RULING

Federal Judge Frank J. Coleman told the jury today that his denial of the motion to dismiss the indictments in no way touched on the guilt or innocence of Davis.

During argument on the defense motions, Judge Coleman said that from the evidence to date "the jury would be justified in believing that Davis, almost inevitably, knew that the alleged lottery tickets were to be shipped on a nation-wide scale.

The Judge asserted that newspapers had not printed what led up to this statement and that the remarks might be misconstrued, if read by a juror.

Judge Coleman made his ruling on the motions while the jury was absent.

BUTLER LAUDED FOR ATTACKS ON HOOVER

Wilkinsburg, Clairton Cheer When General Boosts Roosevelt

In two speeches last night on behalf of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for the presidency, Gen. Smedley D. Butler excoriated the involving of the United States in foreign entanglements which he said inevitably lead to war.

Butler spoke first in Clairton to a crowd of 1,200, and later in Wilkinsburg, where the high school auditorium was crowded.

At both meetings the retired Marine general championed payment of the bonus to World War veterans, and arraigned the Hoover administration for using federal troops to eject the bonus army from Washington. A Republican, he was repeatedly cheered as he urged the election of Roosevelt, whom he said he had known 20 years, and whose principles of government he advised for the welfare of the rank and file of citizens of the country.

BUTLER STILL 'DRY'

Butler recalled that he was defeated as a candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination last spring, running as a dry, and said he had not changed his ideas on the prohibition subject. He said:

"Both these fellows (Roosevelt and Hoover) are wet, and I prefer the one who has the courage to say so."

He scored the Hoover administration policy on foreign debts, and the use of Marines to protect investments which he claimed were often used to defraud the buying public in bond sales. He denied that the veterans in asking for the bonus, were Treasury raiders.

He said:

"Why not do as we have done with Europe? Don't call the bonus a payment, call it a loan, and then forget all about it, interest and principal, the way the big bankers are asking us to forget the foreign debts. They say it would break us to give $2,000,000,000 to the veterans, but we lent $10,000,000,000 to foreign governments and are not charging them a cent.

BANK, RAILROAD LOANS

"They call the veterans Treasury raiders. They didn't call Charlie Dawes a raider when he got $50,000,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for his bank in Chicago. They can't find money for the soldiers, but they can find money for the Pennsylvania Railroad to build freight cars, when there are 375,000 freight cars already idle on tracks in Pennsylvania.

"The big fellows tell us gleefully that during August there was a $9,000,000,000 increase in the value of stocks on the New York Exchange. Why can't we have two billion of that for the soldiers?

"If the cost of government must be reduced, let Mr. Hoover do it in some of the departments which cost so much more than when he became President. Attorney General Mitchell, who seems to be using his time to accuse American citizens, World War veterans, has a department costing 160 per cent more than when he went in.

BOLT FROM HOOVER

"Republicans who think like I do are not running away from the Republican party. But we are running away from such Republican leadership as we find in Mr. Hoover. I know the other man, Roosevelt, and I know he has a high conception of the responsibilities of the government to all the people of the country."

Butler left last night for his home near Philadelphia. He will make more speeches on behalf of Roosevelt in the state, and may be used by the Democratic National Committee for a speaking tour in the West.

Prior to Butler's speech at the Wilkinsburg meeting the four Democratic candidates for the Legislature in the Tenth District spoke, attacking public utilities, and promising legislation for their regulation if elected.

Cause of Duquesne Man's Death Probed

Deputy Coroner James Carroll was to examine the body of William Getaski, 50, of 657 Ohio street, Duquesne, who died Saturday, presumably of burns, following funeral services today in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Duquesne.

Relatives informed Coroner W. J. McGregor they were not satisfied as to the cause of death.

PRESIDENT HOOVER LAYING POSTAL CORNERSTONE

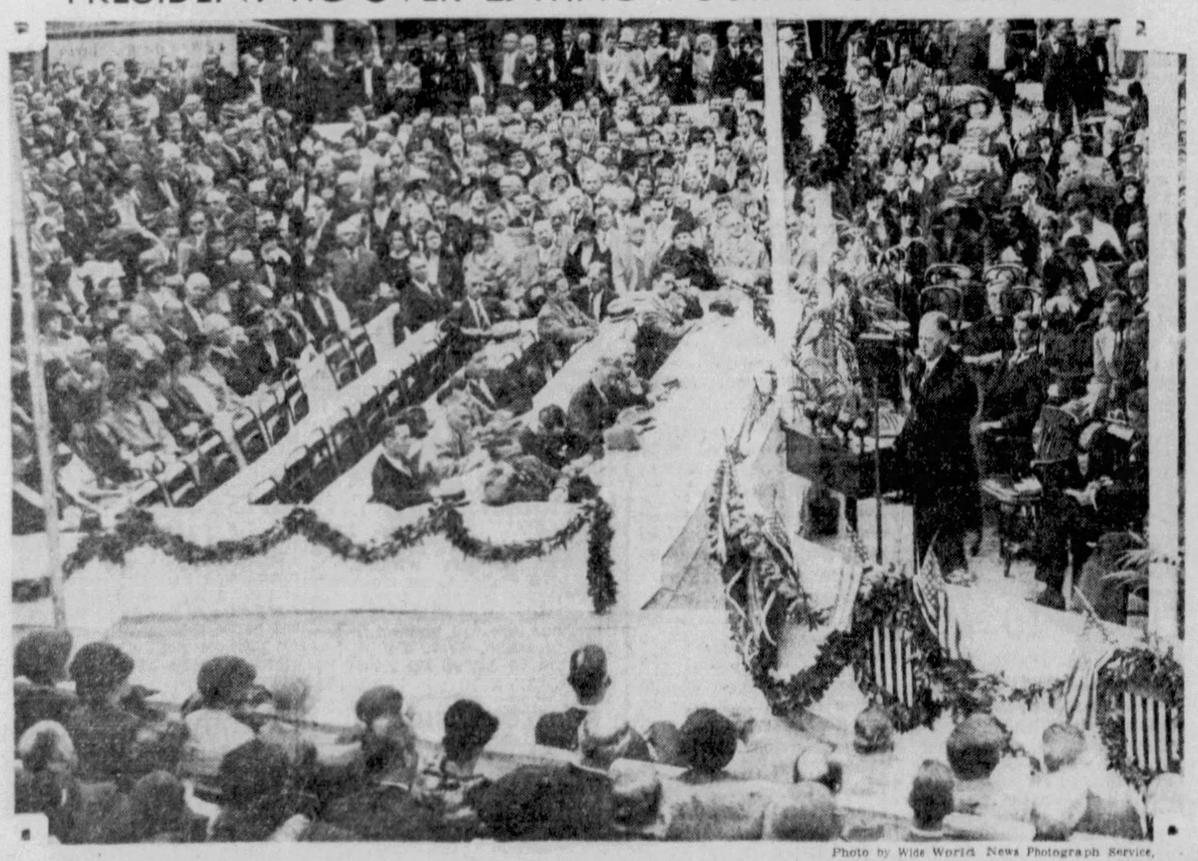


Photo by Wide World News Photograph Service.

PRESIDENT HOOVER SPEAKING AFTER LAYING THE STONE FOR THE NEW U. S. POSTOFFICE BUILDING AT WASHINGTON

Britain Backing Helen In Tilt With Carol

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(Universal.)—The British royal family, according to the London Daily Herald, appears to have taken sides in the long-standing dispute between King Carol II, of Rumania, and Princess Helene, who divorced him.

The Daily Herald today will state that the quarrel between Carol and Helene over the future of their son, Crown Prince Michael, has broken out again.

The princess, according to the newspaper, wants Michael to remain in Britain for schooling and later to enter the British navy, and in this wish is supported by the British royal family. Carol is said to want Michael to return to Rumania to remain under his father's tutelage.

Ingersoll Riches Shrink; Fought to Clear Wife

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(Universal.)—Robert H. Ingersoll, famous as the "Dollar Watch Man" and once reputed to be worth $5,000,000, left a total estate of $257,295 on his death in 1928, it was learned today, after an accounting was filed in Surrogate's Court.

One unfortunate blow after another has depleted the estate until all Ingersoll had left was real estate in Michigan, a citrus plantation in Florida, some timberlands in Idaho and the household effects in his apartment at 55 Park avenue.

It was in this apartment that Ingersoll's beautiful 36-year-old wife killed herself after shooting her admirer, Wallace MacLean Probasco, in 1926.

Ingersoll spent the last two years of his life trying to clear the name of his wife, but failed to convince authorities she was blameless in the tragedy.

How much this fight cost was not shown in the accounting, but it did show Ingersoll had scarcely a cent in ready cash or securities left on his death.

GANDHI EATS AS TAGORE SINGS OF VICTORY FOR MASSES

TEMPLES OPEN TO OUTCAST FOLLOWERS

Mahatma Celebrates Birthday, Conquest Over British

By C. S. DE ANDRADE
International News Service.

POONA, Sept. 27.—Impressive scenes were enacted here today when Mahatma Gandhi, who broke his seven-day "fast unto death" yesterday after achieving the crowning triumph of his career, ate a meager breakfast in Yeravda Jail.

Weak and emaciated from his ordeal, through which he forced the British government to grant Hindu Untouchables joint political representation, the Mahatma took a small quantity of orange juice in the presence of the famous Indian poet, Rabindranath Tagore, and scores of admirers.

ADMIRERS SING, PLAY

While Gandhi sipped the liquid, the crowd of friends sat about him, joyful because their idol seemed sure to recover. Many carried musical instruments, which they played as Gandhi took nourishment. All joined in song.

Then the Mahatma was given medical treatment while Tagore chanted holy verses.

While the Mahatma received the ministrations of the circle in the jail yard, Hindus throughout India rejoiced at the news their "holy man" had broken his fast and would probably recover.

In the wave of enthusiasms that gripped the nation the Hindu temples, closed for hundreds of years, were thrown open to these depressed peoples, for years regarded as the "gutter-snipes" of humanity.

GANDHI HAPPY

Gandhi himself was jubilant. He said:

"The cause was worth the agony of body and soul I passed through, he said.

"The sacrificial fire, once lighted, shall not be put out while the slightest trace of untouchability remains to plaugue the Hindu faith."

At noon, Gandhi increased his diet, taking grapefruit with sugar. Tomorrow, he said, he will add barley water and a small amount of whey as his condition improves.

Doctors attending him reported he was progressing well and that no complications had set in.

According to the Hindu calendar, today was Gandhi's birthday. He celebrated it by receiving many visitors who brought him gifts of flowers and fruit.

FIREMAN SEEKS WRIT IN OUSTER

A writ of mandamus will be sought against the Civil Service Commission in an effort to compel it to give consideration to the records of various men in the fire department before approving the dismissal of Delos G. Harvey, city fireman, who was discharged in the recent city shakeup.

This decision was announced by Attorney Alexander P. Lindsay, counsel for six discharged city firemen, following a conference with his clients today.

Action on the cases of the five other men will be held up pending a decision on the points of law involved in the Harvey case.

The decision of the commission in the Harvey case, last Friday, placed complete authority in the Public Safety Director. Lindsay said:

"The Civil Service Commission seems to serve no other purpose than to protect the Mayor's policies."

Reed to Open Penna. Drive for Democrats

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Former United States Senator James A. Reed, Missouri, will open the Democratic campaign in Pennsylvania at a mass meeting here Thursday.

At the same time, Lawrence H. Rupp, Democratic candidate for United States Senator, will speak. Reports here are to the effect that Reed is expected to rip into the G. O. P. organization of Philadelphia when he opens the rally.

Bomb-Ripped Charleroi Building

THE BRICK APARTMENT BUILDING SHATTERED, CRACKED BY EXPLOSION EARLY TODAY

MRS. WINSHIP BERTHA CHARLES, JR. CHARLES WINSHIP

The Winships, pictured after the explosion, in which flying debris struck and cut 14-month-old Bertha's head as she slept in her little crib early today. These are Sun-Telegraph pictures.

PARENTS BALK ELOPEMENT

There were no wedding bells for Dorothy Young, high school girl, and James Hoffmann, 21, unemployed baker, both of Youngstown, O., today. Instead both were held in Morals Court pending the arrival of the girl's parents.

They were arrested last night at 3434 Forbes street, where Hoffmann had rented an apartment, pending the opening of the marriage license office today. They came by bus from Youngstown yesterday afternoon.

In Morals Court today, Hoffmann said he and the girl had told his aunt, who resides in Oakland, of their intentions after they arrived here. Word was flashed back to Youngstown to the girl's parents and local police gathered in the young couple. Hoffman said he had boarded at the girl's home for the past two months.

CO-EDS INJURED BUGGY RIDING

CORVALLIS, Ore., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Buggy riding days have returned to campuses of state colleges in Oregon under a ban on student-operated motor cars, bringing an unexpected demonstration here of what a traffic accident was like in the "gay 90's."

Out for a ride in the Lambda Chi Alpha "hack" were two co-eds, Billie Cupper, of Salem, and Betty Lueddemann, of Portland, and Ray Labbe, of Portland, and Chris Siegenthaler, of Linnton. All were students at Oregon State. There hove in sight the Kappa Sigma "rig."

Down the city street the two raced. Nellie, drawing the Lambda Chi carriage, swerved and the vehicle crashed into the curb, crushing a front wheel. The co-eds were thrown out and suffered severe bruises. No one else was injured.

Motoring Students Have Higher Grades

GRANVILLE, O., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The automobile as an aid to education has friends in the faculty of Denison University here. Statistics of the college showed today that men students who drove cars on the campus last year made grades 26 per cent higher than the average of students who walked.

$50,000 Loot Taken In Vault Robbery

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The gunmen who recently rifled the safe deposit vault of Koch & Co. in South Halsted street obtained loot of $49,950 in cash bonds and jewelry, it was revealed today in a report submitted by investigators to Police Commissioner James P. Allman. Ten members of two families were held prisoners by the robbers.

Automatic Bookkeeping Vetoed by County

Electricity will not be substituted for politics in the Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes, at least until it has been thoroughly demonstrated as a money saver, at the expense of companies which might want to supply mechanical bookkeeping machines.

It was revealed at the meeting of County Commissioners today that a concern was about to install a machine for the Fourteenth Ward, at a cost of $700. The company was to be notified not to install the machine, until at least it was certain that the demonstration was at the expense of the company, and not the county.

Chairman C. C. McGovern said:

"There was a man at my house at 11 p. m. last night. I'm going to use an ammonia gun on the next one. I'm not in favor of paying for demonstrations."

The mechanical bookkeeping system, electrically operated, aimed to simplify the work in the tax division, has been under discussion.

The new system is supposed to index listing all assessed properties and, by a series of perforations in the cards, to assemble the various property cards of each taxable. There would be electrical connections to the treasurer's and controller's offices and the result recorded in each simultaneously. It was said new laws would have to be enacted before the system could be adopted.

U. S. BALLOON WINS IN EUROPE

WARSAW, Poland, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The United States Navy balloon participating in the Gordon Bennett cup race landed at 10 a. m. today close to the town of Wasjule, near Vilna, on the Polish-Latvian frontier.

The exact distance it had traveled from Basel, where the race started, had not been computed, but it appeared virtually certain that the Navy bag had won the race and the cup. The Navy balloon won last year's American national race also.

The other American entry, the Goodyear 8, reported it had landed near Kaunas, Lithuania, at 8 a. m. today.

All other balloons, representing European countries, landed yesterday.

SEEKS DIVORCE FOR DESERTION

Mrs. Mary G. Wattles, of 432 Denniston avenue, testified today in her divorce suit against G. Warren Wattles, former jeweler, that four years ago when she returned from Atlantic City, where she was injured, she found her husband had packed up and left home to live in a hotel.

He continued to support her and paid her maid's wages until last February 15, when he discontinued payments, the wife testified before Judge S. H. Gardner. He sold his jewelry business and at present is a city employe, she said. They were married October 21, 1896. Desertion is charged.

THE WEATHER

Local Forecast.

Showers tonight and probably Wednesday morning; slightly warmer tonight. Cooler Wednesday.

Hourly Temperatures.

12 midnight	59	9 a. m.	65
1 a. m.	59	10 a. m.	67
2 a. m.	60	11 a. m.	67
3 a. m.	60	12 noon	68
4 a. m.	60	1 p. m.	69
5 a. m.	60	2 p. m.	70
6 a. m.	61	3 p. m.	71
7 a. m.	62
8 a. m.	64

Sunrise today .. 6:12 Sunset today ... 6:09

Observations for the 24 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning:

Time.	Temp.	Hum.	Wind.	Weather.
8 a. m.	62	86	S-9	Cloudy

Temperature and Precipitation.

	1931	1930	1929	1928	1927	1926	1925	1924
High.	60	64	76	60	81	57	79	59
Low.	52	49	68	43	55	47	55	59
Mean.	56	56	72	52	68	52	72	64
Precip	.14	.00	.01	.00	.00	.00	.03	.01

Bulletin.

Observations taken by the United States Weather Bureau. The morning temperature readings were taken at 8 o'clock. The lowest temperature is for 12 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning. Precipitation is for 24 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning.

Station.	8 am.	Temp.	Pre-cip.	Station.	8 am.	Temp.	Pre-cip.
Atlanta.	58	56	.01	Louisville	66	66	.08
Atl City.	66	62	.00	Lynchbg.	58	54	.16
Bismarck	36	32	.00	Memphis.	72	70	.46
Boise.	50	48	.00	Miami.	82	80	.00
Boston .	58	54	.00	Montgmy	68	68	.00
Buffalo.	62	58	.01	Nashville	64	64	1.02
Chooga.	62	60	.12	New Orl.	76	74	.20
Chicago.	60	60	.14	New York	58	54	.04
Cincinn.	66	62	.42	Oklahoma	54	54	.06
Cleveld.	62	58	.40	Omaha .	44	44	.02
Cimbus.	62	60	.22	Pkrsburg	62	60	.04
Denver.	42	40	.00	Parry Sd	60	58	.42
Des Mes	46	46	.01	Pdelphia.	56	56	.30
Detroit.	62	60	.42	PITTSBG	62	58	.02
Duluth .	44	44	.10	St Louis.	66	64	.54
Elkins .	58	54	.12	St Paul.	46	46	.10
Harrisbg	58	54	.52	S L City	54	52	.00
Helena .	40	40	.00	San Ant.	70	70	.00
Huron .	36	36	.00	San Fran	58	58	.00
Indapolis	66	64	1.14	Seattle .	54	54	.00
Jsonville	78	74	.30	Tampa .	76	72	.00
Kan City	52	52	.32	Washgtn.	58	58	.22
Little Rk	70	68	.02	Winnipeg.	34	32	.26
Los Ang	62	62	.00	YstonePk	32	30	.00

Weather Conditions.

A trough of low pressure extends from Western Ontario southwestward over the Middle Mississippi Valley to Southern Texas, with the center north of Lake Superior, while high pressure areas overlie the Atlantic Coast states, the western plains, the Central Rocky Mountains and the Far Northwest. Rain has fallen over most of the eastern half of the country during the last 24 hours and continues this morning at scattered places. It has been mostly light, but was in excess of one inch at Galveston, Corpus Christi, Nashville and Indianapolis. Temperatures are generally higher over the eastern states and the Far Northwest, and lower over the northern and western plains and the Central Rocky Mountains. Frosts occurred this morning from Nebraska northward into Mantoba, with freezing temperatures in portions of this district.

River Conditions.

Rain fell over the watersheds and continues at scattered places this morning. It was too light to affect the rivers. Stage at Franklin is minus 0.2 foot; Lock No. 7 (Mon.), 9.7; Pittsburgh, 10.8; Dam No. 4, 9.0; Dam No. 6, 7.3; Dam No. 10, 8.6, and Dam No. 12, 7.1. The dams are up.

SPITE BOMBING INJURES BABY, PERILS 11

Welfare Head Seen As Target for Blast at North Charleroi

CHARLEROI, Pa., Sept. 27.—A dynamite explosion early today ripped a ruinous route through a two-story apartment house in North Charleroi, and, of the 11 residents, only a baby was injured.

Six miles distant, in Monongahela, the echo was heard as the blast loosened the building from its foundations and shattered windows in many nearby homes.

JOBLESS BLAMED

The police believe the explosion may have been perpetrated by disgruntled unemployed who fancied they were entitled to more welfare relief. The director of the North Charleroi Welfare Association, 80-year-old C. B. Copeland, lives in the building. He was uninjured.

Only victim was 14-months-old Bertha Elizabeth Winship, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winship. She was cut in the head. Two baby brothers, Bobbie and Charles, 3, escaped injury.

FIRE CHIEF PERILED

The father of the children is the chief of the North Charleroi Volunteer Fire Department. Another resident, Raymond Yenney, is also a volunteer fireman.

Besides the Winship family and Yenney, other residents were George M. Dennis, a constable; Clarence Winship, Jessie Copeland and Mrs. R. H. Winship.

Damage was estimated at more than $5,000. The apartment house was located in Sheppard avenue.

CO-ED FINDS CAR WHEELS STOLEN

Adele Ash, pretty 19-year-old University of Pittsburgh sophomore, made her debut as a campus reporter today, but lost two automobile wheels in doing it.

Adele's introduction into the newspaper world was much more rapid than that of most co-eds. Yesterday she attended her first class in journalism, was given her first news assignment on the Pitt publication, and then found material for a story all within a period of four hours. But the story was about herself.

She was told to write about something interesting. Walking out of the Cathedral, just 10 minutes after parking her car along Fifth avenue, Adele found her story. The two front wheels on her car were missing.

Blonde Adele had to ride home. 5707 Bryant street, in a street car, and you may think she is pretty sad about the theft. But, you're wrong. She got her story.

Von Gronau Lands In Manila Bay

MANILA, P. I., Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Capt. Wolfgang Von Gronau, noted German aviator, landed today in Manila Bay after an uneventful hop from Hongkong on his round-the-world flight.

Navy planes escorted Von Gronau after his airship was sighted over Corregidor Island at the entrance of the harbor. The welcoming party included Capt. Russell Maughan, first man to fly across the United States from dawn to dusk.

Finds Husband on Ship

MISS HILDA VOLLKOMMER . . . EN ROUTE TO COAST WEDDING

Miss Vollkommer, 230 North Fairmount street, today on her way to San Francisco to become the bride of H. H. Barg, coast lumber baron, who she met on a trans-Atlantic ship two years ago.

7 AT COVERDALE ESCAPE BOMB

Seven persons were hurled from their beds early today by a dynamite explosion which wrecked the porch of the home of John Usnick, a coal miner, on Bethel road, near Coverdale. Shattering windows in the building, the blast wrecked furniture and damaged the basement of the Usnick home.

Usnick, his wife, three sons, John, Emile and Fred and two daughters, Margaret and Mrs. Mary Renton, were tossed from their beds, but escaped injury.

Constable Ben Smith, of Bethel Township, ascribed the blast as an aftermath of the strike in the Coverdale mine regions. He said the bomber is known by Mrs. Usnick.

The damage was estimated at $150.

2 Hospital Mystery Deaths Investigated

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 27.—Deaths of two women in Hamot Hospital under mysterious circumstances were being investigated today by Coroner W. G. Stroble. Mrs. Mae Williams, 23, of Little Hope, died today under circumstances that indicated poisoning. Mrs. Amy Johnson, 37, of Erie, died after physicians had been unable to diagnose her illness.

GIRL ARTIST IN SHIP ROMANCE

A romance that budded on board an ocean liner two years ago today was carrying a Pittsburgh designer across the continent to wed a San Francisco lumber baron. The girl is Hilda Vollkommer, artist, of 230 North Fairmount street, East End. The man is H. H. Barg. And the wedding will take place in San Francisco in October.

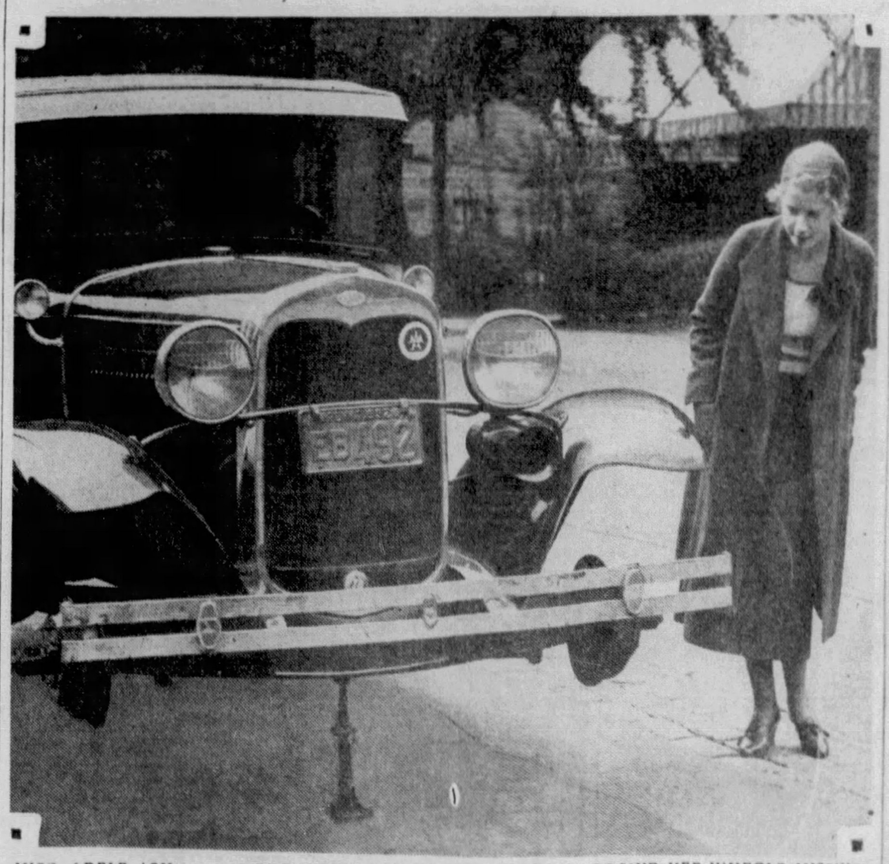
Europe-bound two years ago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josef Vollkommer, Miss Vollkommer met Barg. They said goodbye when the boat docked at Bremen. Several months later, on the return trip, Miss Vollkommer and Barg met again. They were engaged when they landed in New York.

An accomplished painter, Miss Vollkommer has been a designer of glassware, ceramics and silver for the past few years in her studio in the Investment Building. She is a graduate of Ursuline Academy and was a student of Carnegie Tech.

Baronetcy Conferred Upon London Mayor

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(Universal.)—King George conferred a baronetcy upon Sir Alfred Jenks, retiring Lord Mayor of London, and a knighthood upon his successor, Percy Walter Greenwood.

REPORTER, SHE FOUND HER STORY!



MISS ADELE ASH . . . . . SHE WENT OFF TO FIND A STORY, FOUND HER WHEELS MISSING

Miss Ash, 5703 Bryant street, Pitt co-ed who left her first journalism class with her first assignment as a "reporter," quickly found her story—the theft of the front wheels of her parked car, left standing on the street, on a small jack. This is a Sun-Telegraph picture.

INSULL OFFERS TO AID PROBE OF CRASH

Son Leaves U. S. As Ex-Utility King Faces Quiz

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—As several agencies of the state and federal governments were engaged today in searching the records of the bankrupt Insull investment trusts word came from Paris that Samuel Insull, deposed utility magnate, had expressed his willingness to return to the United States voluntarily to assist in the investigations.

Announcement was made yesterday that his son, Samuel Insull, Jr., who was president of the two investment trusts in which the losses of stockholders are expected to exceed $300,000,000, had left Chicago Saturday to visit his father and mother.

James Simpson, chairman of the board of Commonwealth Edison Company, one of the Insull operating concerns, said young Insull had taken a vacation on his recommendation.

SON ON WAY TO PARIS

Simpson said:

"He had been much concerned over the illness of his mother, and at my suggestion he is going to Paris to visit her. He left Saturday and will return in November."

Young Insull is vice chairman of the Commonwealth Edison Company and two other Chicago operating companies, as well as president of two of the investment trusts founded by his father.

Simpson said young Insull's trip was "purely a coincidence and certainly had no bearing on the investigations."

Mrs. Samuel Insull, Jr., and their young son, did not accompany her husband.

State's Attorney John A. Swanson planned to begin calling officials of four Insull companies to his office today for questioning about transactions which interested his investigators. The companies mentioned were the Insull Utility Investments, Inc., the Corporation Securities Company, the Middle West Utility Company, and the Mississippi Valley Utilities Investment Company.

U. S. AUDITS BOOKS

Samuel Insull, Jr., was president of the Corporation Securities Company and the Insull Utility Investments, Inc.

A staff of government auditors, assigned by United States District Attorney Dwight Green, were engaged in a general audit of the books of all Insull companies in receivership.

Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley, who adjudged the Insull Utility Investments, Inc., bankrupt, has summoned two officials of the concern to appear before him Thursday for questioning in civil proceedings to recover assets. They were P. J. McEnroe, vice president, and John F. O'Keefe, secretary.

CITY DEMANDS DOUGLAS PAY

Until John Douglas, Jr., pays the city the $13,500 he owes for river leases, he will not be given permission to lease any part of the city wharves, Public Works Director Edward G. Lang said today.

Douglas recently organized the Union Sand Company, a firm which had the approval of the hoisting engineers' union, then on strike on the new postoffice building. He moved the boats to the Allegheny River wharf near Stanwix street in defiance of city officials who said the site had been leased by George S. Vang, of the Iron City Sand Company.

A verbal agreement Douglas claimed he had with the city for the wharf was not recognized and three city officials, including Director Lang, have waived hearing for court on conspiracy charges preferred by Douglas.

Recently Douglas' sand fleet was cut away from its moorings during the night by a crew working for Vang.

Extortion Letter Traced to Girl, 14

PLEASANTVILLE, N. J., Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Detectives were forced to go to school to solve the mystery, but today they had under arrest a man charged with sending extortion letters to a wealthy Atlantic City contractor.

When experts said the notes were those of a child, detectives arranged a writing contest. One of the pupils' writing agreed with the extortion notes. Mildred Marinelli, 14, was questioned and admitted, police said, her uncle, Ralph Lombardo, 50, dictated the letters.

Sellers Promoted To Vice Admiral

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP.)—Read Admiral David F. Sellers, commanding Battleship Division 1 of the battle force, was ordered today by Secretary Adams to command the battleship divisions of the battle force with the rank of vice admiral.

Rear Admiral Frank H. Brumby, commandant of the Norfolk Navy Yard at Portsmouth, Va., was ordered to relieve Sellers.

GOV. ROOSEVELT SEEMS SURE OF NORTHWEST

Democratic Majorities Indicated in Three States by Poll

By COLE E. MORGAN
Universal Service.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Democratic majorities of 25,000 in North Dakota, 50,000 in South Dakota and 125,000 in Minnesota are indicated by a detailed analysis of returns in the nation-wide postcard presidential poll of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph in co-operation with all the other Hearst morning, evening and Sunday papers in the United States.

These estimated majorities were calculated from returns grouped by individual counties and regrouped by congressional districts.

In North Dakota, 1,363 poll ballots were considered. Gov. Roosevelt had 823 or 59 per cent of the total to his credit. This percentage applied to the state's 1928 vote of 126,101 indicated a potential majority of 43,459. When figured by separate congressional districts, however, this reduced to 36,506. The 25,000 majority estimate, therefore, was regarded as a safe figure in the light of these cancellations.

The South Dakota study was based on 1,410 poll replies, of which 880 or 62 per cent were to Roosevelt's credit.

The Minnesota study involved 4,639 ballots, of which Roosevelt received 2,708 or 58 per cent. This applied to the state's 1928 vote of 957,439 gives a potential Roosevelt majority of 153,189. By congressional districts, however, the figure is 143,038. The 125,000 estimate looks conservative.

Presidential Trend by States

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The tabulation that follows shows the total vote thus far recorded for President Hoover and Gov. Roosevelt in the nation-wide presidential poll of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph in co-operation with all the other Hearst morning, evening and Sunday papers in the United States. It also shows the majority that each candidate has in each state in which he is leading. In addition it gives the gain of each candidate on the latest returns received from each state as compared with the last preceding report from the state. These state reports are usually a week apart. The final feature of this table shows the net gain of each candidate in each state where he has improved his position as compared with the preceding report from that state.

State.	—Total— Hoov.	Roos.	—Majority— Hoov.	Roos.	—Latest Gain— Hoov.	Roos.	—Net Gain— Hoov.	Roos.
Alabama	399	2,919	..	2,520	91	567	..	476
Arizona	358	777	..	419	40	67	..	27
Arkansas	448	1,957	..	1,509	42	308	..	266
California	7,557	15,240	..	7,683	1,515	2,226	..	711
Colorado	1,842	1,785	57	..	161	121	40	..
Connecticut	3,783	2,270	1,513	..	501	307	194	..
Delaware	551	583	..	32	65	47	18	..
Florida	643	2,093	..	1,450	92	245	..	153
Georgia	295	2,772	..	2,477	28	293	..	265
Idaho	731	943	..	212	57	85	..	28
Illinois	7,231	11,148	..	3,917	1,595	2,606	..	1,011
Indiana	5,679	6,628	..	949	1,334	1,417	..	83
Iowa	3,112	4,224	..	1,112	619	823	..	204
Kansas	3,140	2,927	213	..	464	422	42	..
Kentucky	2,938	5,375	..	2,437	404	729	..	325
Louisiana	256	1,336	..	1,080	24	100	..	76
Maine	1,357	814	543	..	192	85	107	..
Maryland	902	2,126	..	1,224	77	165	..	88
Mass.	5,298	2,456	2,842	..	634	288	346	..
Michigan	5,937	6,646	..	709	1,065	1,380	..	315
Minnesota	3,004	4,143	..	1,139	1,049	1,334	..	285
Mississippi	126	1,722	..	1,596	20	344	..	324
Missouri	4,489	7,473	..	2,984	983	1,982	..	999
Montana	1,116	1,293	..	177	132	160	..	28
Nebraska	1,838	3,330	..	1,492	570	1,107	..	537
Nevada	145	375	..	230	32	80	..	48
N. Ha'pshire	1,148	590	558	..	233	135	98	..
N. Jersey	6,052	5,171	881	..	1,427	993	434	..
N. Mexico	393	500	..	107	15	30	..	15
New York	14,679	13,926	753	..	2,404	2,374	34	..
N. Carolina	1,464	5,740	..	4,276	292	986	..	694
N. Dakota	685	1,043	..	358	104	217	..	113
Ohio	7,690	7,372	318	..	1,716	1,776	..	60
Oklahoma	1,502	3,601	..	2,099	223	580	..	357
Oregon	670	984	..	314	208	367	..	159
Pennsylv'nia	8,714	9,601	..	887	2,091	2,220	..	129
Rhode Isl'nd	779	559	220	..	193	148	45	..
S. Carolina	55	1,187	..	1,132	8	118	..	110
S. Dakota	643	1,075	..	432	114	185	..	71
Tennessee	1,076	2,175	..	1,099	127	216	..	89
Texas	1,296	7,493	..	6,197	308	1,534	..	1,226
Utah	881	1,354	..	473	62	91	..	29
Vermont	650	401	249	..	91	39	52	..
Virginia	744	2,316	..	1,572	128	278	..	150
Washington	1,977	3,410	..	1,433	253	439	..	186
W. Virginia	2,300	3,502	..	1,202	545	768	..	223
Wisconsin	2,708	5,046	..	2,338	612	999	..	387
Wyoming	321	370	..	49	52	43	9	..
Total	119,602	170,771	8,147	59,316	22,992	31,820	1,419	10,247
Net majority and gain				51,169				8,828

POLL REVEALS STRENGTH OF THOMAS

By COLE E. MORGAN
Universal Service.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate for President, may poll the largest popular vote in his party's history.

Thus far he has received 5,811 ballots in the nationwide presidential poll of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph in co-operation with all the other Hearst morning, evening and Sunday papers in the United States. This is 2 per cent of the total ballots tabulated.

The widespread distribution of the Socialist vote gives it major significance.

Of the 48 states, only one, South Carolina, has failed to send in Thomas ballots. Even such sparsely settled states as Nevada and Wyoming, such conservatively Democratic states as Arkansas and Georgia, and such rock-ribbed Republican areas as New Hampshire and Vermont have contributed their portion.

Another significant factor linked with the Socialist returns is the proportionate representation of women. Of the 5,811 Thomas ballots, 4,320 came from men and 1,491 from women. Aside from South Carolina, Idaho was the only other state not to return a woman Socialist ballot.

The peak of the Socialist vote came from New York state, which sent in 1,179. Next was Pennsylvania with 587, with New Jersey third, returning 524. Ohio sent in 482, Illinois 380, Connecticut 331, California 272, Wisconsin 201, Michigan 200, and the other states lesser numbers down to 68 from Nevada, Arkansas and Georgia, and 5 from Mississippi.

Ellenbogen Speaks Here Twice Tonight

Henry Ellenbogen, Independent and Democratic candidate for Congress from the Thirty-third District, will speak tonight at meetings in the Eleventh and Thirteenth districts of the Sixteenth Ward and the Third District of the Seventeenth. Last night Ellenbogen spoke in other districts of these two wards.

Ellenbogen is pledging himself to work for the appropriation of public funds for construction projects as a means of relieving unemployment. He is criticising the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for delay in awarding funds to Pennsylvania.

Large Income Report 'Flatters' Roosevelt

WILLIAMS, Ariz., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt said yesterday he was "highly flattered" by a report in the magazine, Fortune, that his income was estimated at $42,500 a year. His son, James, observed "I wish it were true."

The Democratic presidential nominee, as Governor of New York, draws a salary of $25,000 a year. Before he was elected Governor four years ago he received a salary of $25,000 a year as vice president of an insurance company. He resigned when he was elected Governor.

Roosevelt Victory Forcast by Wheeler

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—(Universal.)—Predicting a "clean sweep" for Franklin D. Roosevelt at the presidential election November 8, United States Senator Burton K. Wheeler, of Montana, and Elmer Thomas, Oklahoma, were in Los Angeles today, Wheeler said.

"I have investigated the political situation in North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nevada and Northern California and found a strong sentiment for Roosevelt everywhere. I believe William Gibbs McAdoo will be elected to the Senate in California."

Court O. K.'s Sale Of Apartment Here

The sale of the Arlington Apartments, Center and South Aiken avenue, to Alphonse A. Laporte, of Washington, D. C., at public auction on September 21, for $150,000, was approved and confirmed by Federal Judge Nelson McVicar, on motion of counsel for the Commonwealth Trust Company, of Pittsburgh, trustee under a deed of trust executed by the Arlington Apartment, Inc. The report of the trustee set forth that the committee for the protection of holders of bonds, representing 90 per cent of outstanding bonds was satisfied with the sale.

TAILOR PICKET ACCUSED

Meyer Rosen, of 357 Lawrence street, picket for the Tailors' Union, was under bond of $500 today pending a hearing before Alderman Thomas A. Flanigan on assault and battery charge filed by Dave Stolman, proprietor of a tailoring establishment in the Nixon Building.

Stolman was held for court on a similar charge at a hearing last night before Alderman Edward W. Haas, of 1811 West Liberty avenue, the result of an alleged attack on Rosen.

Following the hearing Rosen was arrested and released on bail. Rosen charged Stolman struck him and broke his glasses while he was picketing in front of Stolman's shop. Stolman countered by charging Rosen was the aggressor.

E. E. Children Donate Statue to Church

A statue of the Archangel Gabriel has been placed in Sacred Heart Church, 6202 Alder street, according to an announcement made today. The statue is the gift of seven children and is a memorial to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. C. Floyd. The statue was made by Frank Aretz.

PITCHER'S AUTO, DOG STOLEN

Thieves who stole "Fluff," a Pomeranian dog, from the automobile of Larry French, Pirate southpaw, before abandoning the machine in the 600 block Marshall avenue, last night, were being sought by police today.

The dog, pet of Larry French, Jr., 14 months old, and a revolver were missing when police recovered the car. The pitcher's uniform was left in the car.

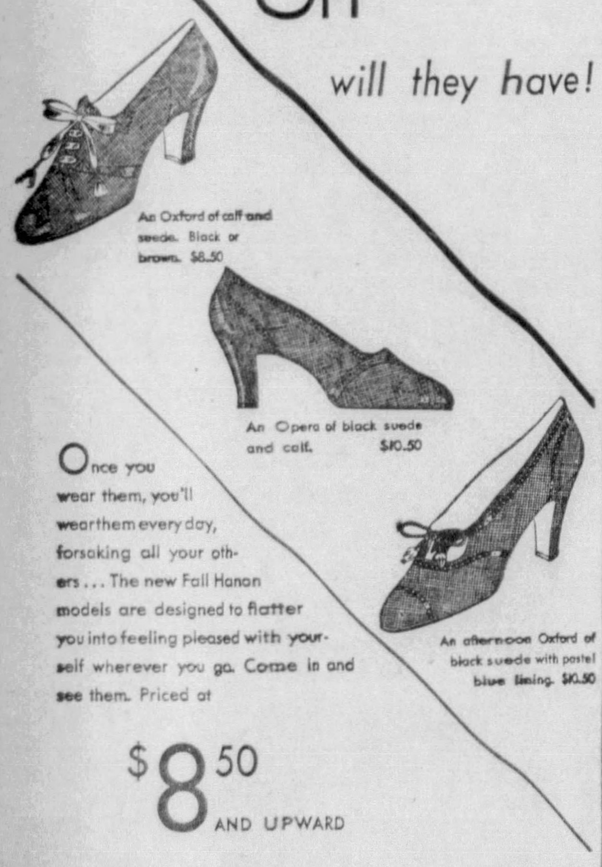
The machine was stolen yesterday afternoon from Sixth avenue and Wood street while French was preparing for a drive to York to pitch an exhibition game.

Attorney Serves Day for Contempt

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Vincent W. Hallinan, attorney for former Public Defender Frank J. Egan, was released from the county jail early today after serving the 24-hour sentence imposed on him for contempt of court during the trial in which Egan was convicted of murder.

Hallinan was found in contempt for alleged obstructional tactics.

NOT A DAY OFF will they have!



An Oxford of calf and suede. Black or brown. $8.50

An Opera of black suede and calf. $10.50

An afternoon Oxford of black suede with pastel blue lining. $10.50

Once you wear them, you'll wear them every day, forsaking all your others... The new Fall Hanan models are designed to flatter you into feeling pleased with yourself wherever you go. Come in and see them. Priced at

$8.50 AND UPWARD

HANAN & SON

NEW YORK · LONDON · PARIS · NICE

533 WOOD STREET

DRINK COFFEE any old time ...AND SLEEP like a log!

IF you can't drink coffee at night, don't blame coffee—that steaming, cheering favorite of millions. Put the blame where it belongs—on caffein. For it's the caffein in coffee that so often steals sleep—and affects the nerves or the digestion. And now you can enjoy a delicious coffee from which 97% of the caffein has been removed—Sanka Coffee. Drink Sanka Coffee as late as you like—and you can still sleep the sleep of the just. For proof—make the night-test. Drink your first cup of Sanka Coffee at night. Next morning you'll know that here, at last, is a delicious coffee you can enjoy at any hour—without losing a wink of sleep. Sanka Coffee comes ground or in the bean—in vacuum-sealed cans. Satisfaction—or your money back. Get a pound to-day. © 1932, S. C. CORP.

SANKA COFFEE

REAL COFFEE · 97% CAFFEIN-FREE

DRINK IT— ACCEPTED AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSN. —AND SLEEP!

Sanka Coffee has been accepted by the Committee on Foods of the American Medical Association with the statement: "Is free from caffein effect and can be used when other coffee has been forbidden".

REMEMBER--

"The Donahoe Label Protects Your Table"

There is no substitute for Donahoe Quality—Donahoe's Creamery Butter, Fresh Eggs and Fresh Roasted Coffee are the finest in the land. Try them!

FREE PARKING on Donahoe's Convenient Parking Lot. Get circular with full details at Information Desk, Fifth Ave. Store FREE PARKING

You KNOW the brand—MY-TE-GOOD

COFFEE

—Fresh from our own roasters

3 lbs. for 60c —biggest coffee value in the entire United States

—the blend on which we built our reputation as sellers of GOOD Coffee.

Fifth Avenue Coffee—we'll match this fine Donahoe Coffee against any other coffee sold, no matter what the price. We blend it, we roast it—fresh every day..... 3 lbs. 73c

A very low price on finest

LAMB CHOPS

17c lb. for shoulder lamb chops —and it's the REAL thing—GENUINE lamb of the very finest quality.

Rib Chops, lb. 21c Loin Chops, lb. 25c

Lamb for Stewing, 2 lbs. 15c

A very low price for finest SELKIRK

WHITEFISH

21c lb. —average 1½ to 2 pounds each, bones easily removed — we dress these fish ready for the pan—delicious fried, baked or broiled.

The NEW Crop—priced very low—

DIAMOND BRAND

WALNUTS

29c lb. —just received from California — the usual Diamond quality—sweet, heavy meats.

New Crop California Almonds, lb. 25c

SPARERIBS

2 lbs. for 19c —they're FRESH—lean and meaty; priced very low.

SAUERKRAUT

3 lbs. for 19c —the NEW pack, extra fine; buy it out of the barrel.

For Stewing—plump, freshly-killed

CHICKENS

23c lb. —they'll make a stew or a fricassee that's simply delicious—a bargain!

You'll like these custard-filled

CREAM PUFFS

6 for 20c —large size; flakiest of shells filled with rich custard cream.

Ever Try a Carlsbader Cinnamon

COFFEE CAKE

17c ea. —large, high, fruity cake, topped with cinnamon-flavored butter crumbs.

Their NAME describes them—

MY-TE-GOOD EGGS

—you'll like them for breakfast these frosty mornings.

2 doz. for 65c

Large, heavy, full Eggs—browns and whites—all EXTRA FIRSTS—highest grade listed on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange Bulletins.

Fresh Country Eggs—right off the farm, doz. 27c
Fifth Ave. Eggs—whiteshell, finest sold—2 doz. 79c

Donahoe's Fresh Churned Creamery

BUTTER

2 lbs. for 53c —wrapped with "Kold Aire" The premium and the extra bonus we pay on every pound brings us the finest butter churned in America.

Winter isn't here, but we have CANDY

SNOWBALLS

25c lb. —regularly 39c pound The delicious cream centers are dipped in chocolate then covered with fine shredded cocoanut.

Over waffles, hot cakes, mush or toast, Try some of Donahoe's PURE

HONEY

5-lb. can 79c

—first let some of Donahoe's Butter melt over your waffle, then sweeten with honey—the natural sweet.

Donahoe's Fresh Mush, 2-lb. cake.....10c

Wednesday Soda Fountain Special

BANANA SPLIT

15c —regular price 25c Two portions of My-Te-Good Ice Cream on a large banana (halved) with fresh mixed fruit, whipped cream, chopped walnuts.

We boil 'em tender—whole cooked beef

TONGUES

79c ea. —last year a dollar! You know there's a trick in cooking them tender—we save you worry and work — buy beef tongues cooked, ready to slice.

Chicken a la King, 80c regularly, lb.....55c

CAULIFLOWER

15c a head —the snowball variety; every head firm and sound—white as snow.

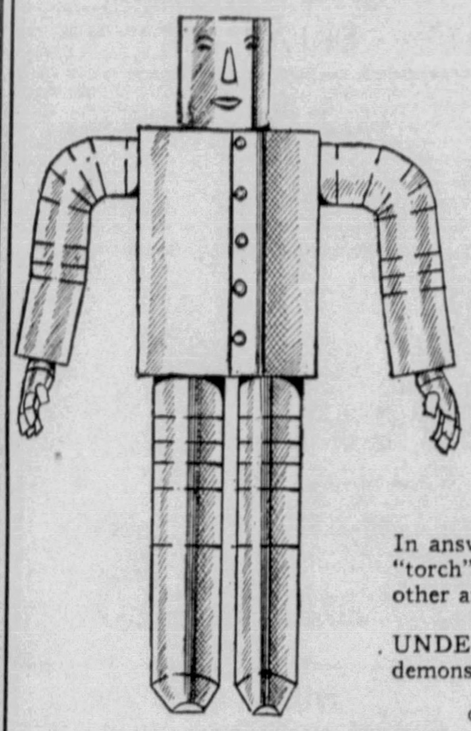
Iceberg Lettuce, 2 large heads.....15c
Grimes Golden Apples, 8-qt. chip 29c

PRICES GOOD WEDNESDAY

Donahoe's

"On the Avenue"

Meet Mr. "Willie Vocalite"



Famous Westinghouse Robot in

GIMBELS KITCHEN KARNIVAL

Special Performances Tomorrow, Thursday, Friday
10:30 12:30 2:30 3:30 4:30

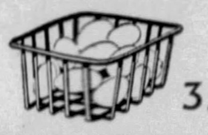
In answer to his operator's commands, Willie will do the latest "torch" song for you, make a little speech or do any number of other amazing feats in his best electrical manner.

UNDER THE BIG TOP, over 25 booths, each with a trained demonstrator, to show you the newest household equipment.

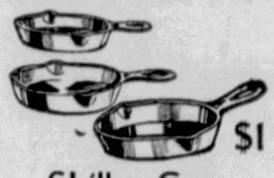
GIMBELS . . . HOUSEFURNISHING DEPT. . . . SEVENTH FLOOR

BUY THESE FOR $1 OR LESS

$1
Windsor Chairs
Stain them to match kitchen, dinette or living room furniture. Very sturdily built.



35c
Refrig. Baskets
Save lots of space because of the straight sides and square corners. Will hold 2 doz. eggs.



$1
Skillet Sets
Three cast iron skillets, No. 3, 5 and 7 size, of good quality and very low priced.

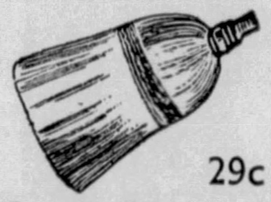
69c
O'Cedar Mops
Triangle shape oil mops so good for polishing floors and getting into the corners. Regularly $1.

73c
Garbage Cans
An extra heavy can, deeply corrugated with a deep tight fitting cover and bale handle.

$1
Old English Polish
A qt. can of Old English floor polish and a bottle of furniture polish, both now priced special for $1.

85c
12 Rolls Tissue
1,000 sheet rolls of toilet tissue in dainty pastel colors, guaranteed safe and sanitary.

$1
Food Choppers
Easy to operate and clean because there are fewer parts than in most others. 3 knives.



29c
Carpet Brooms
Splendid quality broom corn, sewed four times, on a long smooth handle.

GIMBELS . . . HOUSEFURNISHING DEPT. . . . SEVENTH FLOOR

You Asked for More!
So Here They Are—1000 New FOUNDATIONS

$2

Meant to Sell for More!

The success of your costume depends upon your foundation garment. You know that. You proved it by buying so eagerly when we advertised these garments before. Now, in collaboration with our New York store, we are able to repeat this sensational event. Pick yours early—we don't know when we'll have such values again!

Girdles and Semi-Stepins	Sizes 24 to 36
One-Piece Foundations	Sizes 34 to 46
Carters Mouldettes	Sizes 31 to 35

GIMBELS . . . CORSETS . . . SECOND FLOOR

All Eyes are Watching Gimbels in October!

THE financial panic is over! There is money to spend! Now, more than ever, people need things!

DEPRESSION or not, these three facts stand paramount. And as the economic sky brightens, some store in Pittsburgh will lead the way. Gimbels will be that store!

THREE months ago four great stores in four great cities went to market hand-in-hand. They bought on a commodity price level lower than it is today—lower than it may be for a decade. They brought back $3,000,000 worth of the world's finest goods for you—to look at, to buy, to possess.

ALTHOUGH every one of the thousands of articles is first quality, the price tags will amaze you. There will be things for the baby . . . things for the boys and girls at school . . . things Dad needs . . . smart Fall clothes for you . . . and furnishings to brighten up the home in which you live. Let nothing interfere with your attendance during Gimbel Month! Saturday it begins!

Gimbel Month Facts, No. 1

In October, especially . . . Gimbels will not knowingly be undersold. For obvious reasons, some stores may try to undersell certain advertised articles. But only until our alert shopping staff, covering every Pittsburgh store, learns of it.

In October, especially . . . Gimbels will meet every price on goods of identical Gimbel quality. And Gimbel Month prices will continue all month, or as long as we can duplicate merchandise, with the exception of Spotlight super-values, priced for three days only.

October is GIMBEL MONTH

CELEBRATING 90 YEARS OF SERVICE TO AMERICA

TEACHERS LONG IN SERVICE RETIRE

Twelve veteran school teachers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County were officially retired today after serving from 35 to 49 years.

They gave up their duties last June when the total of their service records exceeded 500 years.

Among the dozen are two sisters, Mary and Helena Erskine, of Shady drive, Mt. Lebanon. Mary Erskine taught 49 years, starting in the Minersville School in 1883, becoming assistant principal there in 1898, and principal of the Rose School in 1919, where she had remained since. Helena Erskine served 39 years, starting in the Forbes School in 1893, and staying there until 1924, when she was transferred to the Miller School.

TAUGHT 48 YEARS

Miss Belle McMillan, of 347 South Atlantic avenue, taught 48 years, starting in the Linden Grammar School and later becoming assistant principal there. It was her only assignment.

Mary O. Duncan taught 42 years, starting in the old Allegheny's School No. 1, in the Third Ward. When it became Latimer Junior High, she taught there. She lives at 1228 Resaca place.

Mary R. Doran, of 1308 Chelton avenue, Brookline, spent 41 years in the Winchester School.

Three of the five city teachers who saw generations learn under them, are at home, taking it easy. The Erskine sisters are on a vacation. None would talk for publication. Miss McMillan reflected their attitude, saying:

"I've always escaped publicity. I'm not going to start now."

WILKINSBURG TEACHERS

Six Wilkinsburg teachers also were retired, as was Nannie E. Grubbs, of West Deer Township, who taught 43 years. They had varied assignments.

Miss Mary Fisher taught 49 years, coming to the Johnson School in Wilkinsburg in 1906; Annie L. Locke, 39 years, since 1921 in the Semple School; Sarah E. Reagle, 42 years, the last 23 in Wilkinsburg's Junior High School; Eleanor B. Ralston, 43 years, starting in Wilkinsburg's Kelly School in 1896, later serving at the Junior High; Nellie S. Duff, 38 years, since 1908 principal of the Allison School, and Julia Kirk, 35 years, since 1908 in the Junior High School.

In the state, 65 retirements were approved by the retirement board, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg. The longest service was that of Sarah A. Darrah, of Reading, who taught 50 years.

Three From Foreign Lands at Seton Hill

GREENSBURG, Pa., Sept. 27.—Students from three foreign countries have registered for the winter term at Seton Hill Women's College here.

Miss Winchu Wu, Pekin, China, is pursuing a social work course. Miss Victoria Maghee, of Constantinople, Turkey, is taking a special languages course and chemistry, and Miss Fransiska Buchinger and Miss Olga Husek, have come from Czecho-Slovakia.

Philippines Called Mecca Of Freedom

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.
JAMES KING STEELE

Tourist Executive Talks to Travel Leaders Here

"Philippine Islands offer Americans their greatest state of lawful freedom," was the message brought here by James King Steele, of Manila, tourist commissioner and executive secretary of the Philippine Tourist Association.

Steele, who is on his yearly tour of the country, is known among friends and associates as the ambassador to the United States. He was host yesterday at the William Penn Hotel to steamship and travel agency officials of the city.

Author of several books on travel, Steele is a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society of London, member of the Ends of the Earth Club, New York, and of the Academy of Sciences.

Steele was optimistic with the travel interest found in this country for the islands. The varied interests found on the hundreds of islands composing the Philippines offer the traveler to the Orient a worth-while stopping place, he related. Despite the depression, tourist trade has shown an increase. The Chino-Jap war brought one of the best tourist seasons last year, he said, because the moneyed people of Shanghai sought refuge on the island.

WESTINGHOUSE PLACES ORDERS

In the belief that business recovery is on the way, the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company will spend $1,260,000 in the next few months for raw materials, supplies and development work, F. A. Merrick, president, announced today.

Orders for 4,000,000 pounds of copper to cost $250,000 already have been placed, Merrick stated. Other basic products are to be bought, facilities for building refrigerators increased and a substantial sum spent for research.

He said:

"We are influenced to expand our usual purchase program at this time beyond our normal requirements in the belief that the low point of the depression has been passed and that the economic forces now at work will provide the needed stimulus to re-establish public confidence and increase business activities."

Chamber Forms Booster Club Here

The Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce is to have a Booster Club.

At a meeting yesterday a suggestion of Walter Rosenbaum was adopted that such an organization be formed within the chamber to be composed of chairmen and vice chairmen of all councils and of all standing committees. The boosters will meet once a month.

The country looks to Pittsburgh, speakers said, to lead the way to industrial and commercial recovery.

Hoke Smith Going To Escort Waters

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 27.—Hoke Smith, commander of the B. E. F. forces at Camp Sherry was to leave tonight for New York, to accompany National Commander W. W. Waters here for the national convention of the B. E. F. next week. En route he will confer with Gov. Pinchot.

RAILWAY HEADS TO GOLF HERE

More than 250 members and their friends are expected to play the course, and enjoy the other features, at the fall golf outing of the Traffic Club of Pittsburgh, tomorrow at Longue Vue. The course will be open for competitive play from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. There will be prizes for non-players as well as players; C. C. Dailey is chairman of the entertainment committee.

Among those entered at the outing are J. J. Burnet, president Chesapeake and Ohio Railway; C. E. Denney, president Erie Railroad; R. B. White, president Central Railroad of New Jersey; John Duffy, vice president Lehigh Valley Railroad; Nat Duke, vice president Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, and H. J. Klein, vice president New York Central Railroad.

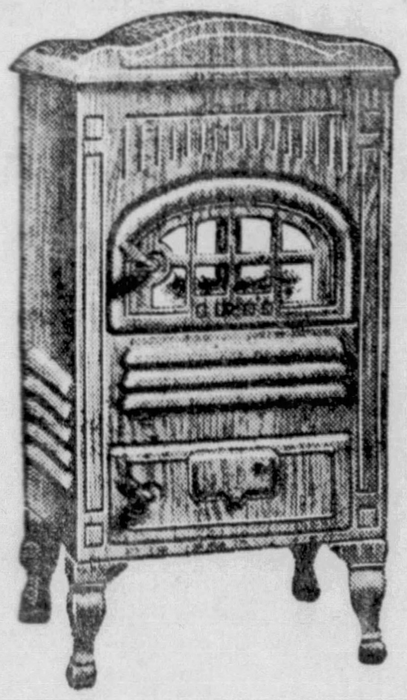
SPEAR'S SEMI-ANNUAL DOLLAR SALE

Spotlight Value

$1 Delivers Your Coal Heater

Don't Buy Expensive Coal This Winter!

Genuine Hot Blast Circulator



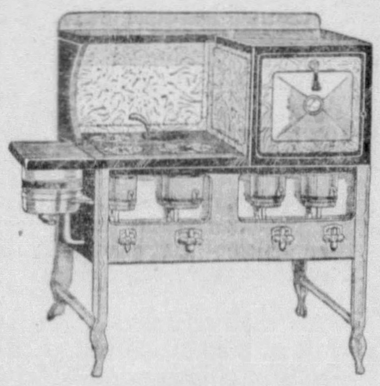
Burns Any Kind of Fuel!

- Burns hard coal, soft coal, or wood.
- Burns all the fuel.
- Heats from 1 to 3 rooms.
- Holds a fire 24 HOURS, because of its airtight construction.
- Less fuel to carry, less ashes to remove.
- Warm floors and rooms all the time.
- Beautifully designed on modern, graceful lines.
- Finished in walnut porcelain enamel, to harmonize with your homefurnishings; as easy to clean as a china dish.
- Soon pays for itself in the fuel you save.

Holds a Fire All Night!

This winter, more than ever, you'll want to make your fuel bill as low as possible. This genuine Hot Blast Circulator shows you how. It doesn't waste anything—it burns EVERY BIT of the fuel you use, whether it's hard coal, soft coal, or wood. See it at Spear's tomorrow. You will be amazed how economically it works, how soundly it's constructed, and how beautifully designed.

24.75



The Lowest Price Ever for This

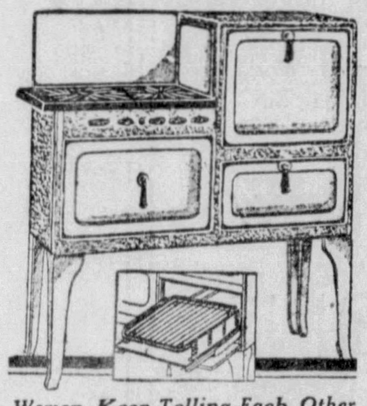
Green and Marbleized Ivory Wickless Burner

Oil Range

34.75

A LARGE stove, superbly constructed, and marvelously efficient. Extra large Stationary Oven, heated by two burners, which roasts and bakes perfectly. New Heat Collector, which cuts down your fuel bill; perfected automatic Wickless Burners; 4-Hole Cooking Top; enclosed Front; complete with Oven Clock. A regular $50 value, at this special Dollar Sale price tomorrow.

Just $1 Down Delivers



Women Keep Telling Each Other About This

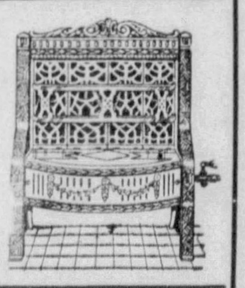
Roll-O-Broiler Range

Here are just some of its high-grade features: 10-year guaranteed Oven Bottom and the convenient Roll-O-Broiler which slides out so easily and saves you burned fingers. In stippled Green and Ivory.

29.75

Just $1 Down Delivers

NEW HEATERS 6.75



Here's just one taken from our newly-arrived large stock. 8-Radiant size, finished in highly-polished brass.

$1 Down Delivers

Downtown 911-921 Penn Ave.

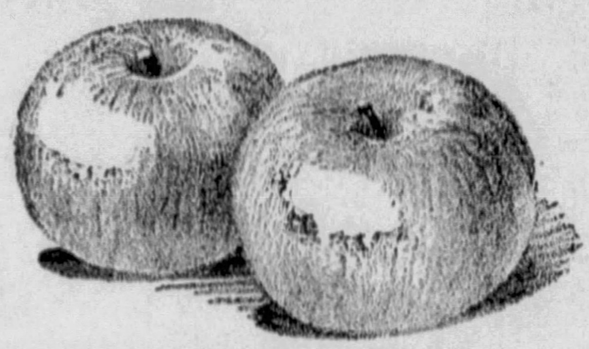
SPEAR'S

E. Liberty Broad and Collins

"Let Spear Feather Your Nest"

McCANNS

FOR ABSOLUTE RELIABILITY



Rosy-Cheeked Jonathan

APPLES

a tartish, juicy apple for eating

8 quart baskets 39c 8 quart baskets

Here they are . . . rosy-cheeked Jonathan apples . . . hand packed in eight quart baskets . . . grown on the Trees-Dale farms. Keep the fruit bowl filled. Remember, an apple a day . . .

Prune Plums . . . . . 8 qt. basket 43c
Can them whole or make preserves

Concord Grapes . . . . . 8 qt. basket 29c
Time to make grape jelly and grape juice

For an appetizing luncheon serve

Booth's Sardines

in tomato sauce

These sardines are broiled and packed in tomato sauce. The recipe for serving found on the can labels fairly makes your mouth water. Full fifteen ounce cans . . . . . 3 cans 29c

Buy it in a can

Florida Grapefruit

under the Sealdsweet label

No need to do without grapefruit for breakfast during the off season. This in cans is a rival for the fresh fruit and four No. 2 cans cost but . . . . . 4 cans 55c

An unusual offering of

Lamb Chops

your favorite cut at a price

Loin . . . . . lb. 29c
Rib . . . . . lb. 25c
Shoulder . lb. 19c

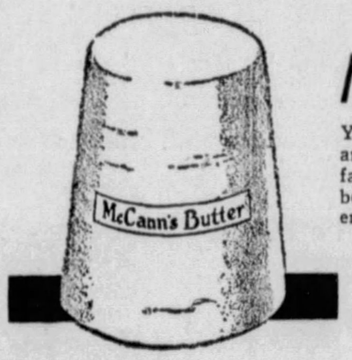
Even if we didn't tell you that these chops are cut from pink-boned lamb bearing the U. S. Government's stamp of approval, your taste would tell you they're the real thing. Just one of the many quality meat values you will find every day at McCanns.



Taste that flavor!

McCanns Butter

You can't buy better butter than McCanns at any price. Your taste will tell you this famous butter is "the best." Why not enjoy it? . . . . . 3 lbs. 80c

Fresh Country Eggs, 2 doz. 73c
Browns and whites . . . tested . . . guaranteed.

Shellwhite Fresh Eggs, 2 doz. 83c
White-shelled eggs preferred for table use.

Downtown: CO. 4400 East End: Hl. 8400

Try This!

Put two or three tablets of

JACK FROST SUGAR

in a cup. Pour in the hot tea or coffee. By the time the cup is full, the tablets will be almost completely dissolved.

Pure sugar naturally dissolves quickly. Every Jack Frost Tablet is Pure Sugar—

100% Pure Cane Sugar

Smooth, uniform and even—these dainty tablets are preferred by discriminating hostesses. Packed for your protection in a sanitary

DISTINCTIVE BLUE BOX

There is a Jack Frost Sugar for every purpose.

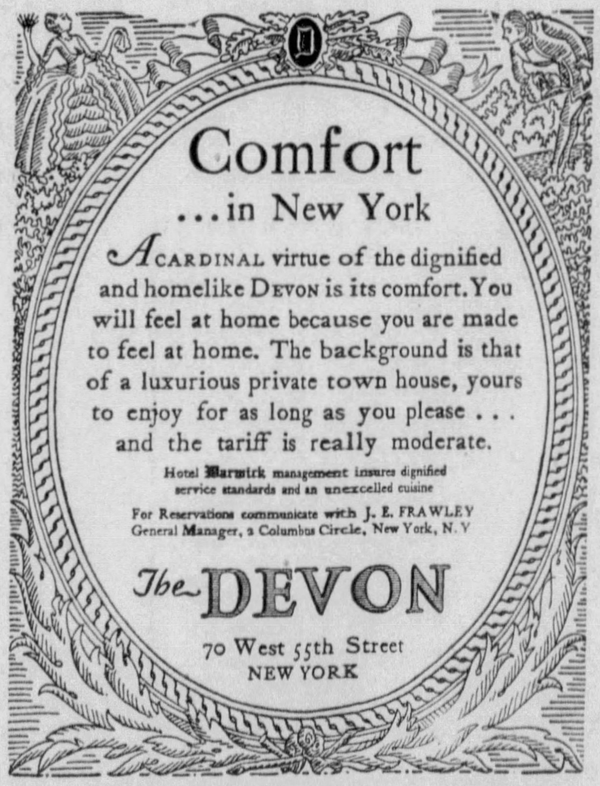
Each is 100% Pure Cane Sugar

GRANULATED BROWN POWDERED TABLET CONFECTIONERS (XXXX) and the TRUMP TABLET NOVELTY PACKAGE

234A

JACK FROST CANE SUGAR

Refined by THE NATIONAL SUGAR REFINING CO. of N. J.



Comfort
...in New York

A CARDINAL virtue of the dignified and homelike DEVON is its comfort. You will feel at home because you are made to feel at home. The background is that of a luxurious private town house, yours to enjoy for as long as you please . . . and the tariff is really moderate.

Hotel Warwick management insures dignified service standards and an unexcelled cuisine

For Reservations communicate with J. E. FRAWLEY General Manager, 2 Columbus Circle, New York, N. Y.

The DEVON

70 West 55th Street NEW YORK

TALK ON HOME LOAN BANKS TOMORROW

Officials of building and loan associations, savings banks and insurance companies interested in the new Federal Home Loan Bank system will be addressed tomorrow night at the Chamber of Commerce by Attorney Forrest G. Moorehead, of Beaver County.

Subscriptions are now being received from financial institutions for stock in the branch bank of the Home Loan system to be located in Pittsburgh. Home Loan banks in all parts of the county are scheduled to open by October 15.

The new bank will furnish cash on home mortgages up to 40 per cent of the value of the property. The Pittsburgh bank will serve the states of Pennsylvania, Delaware and West Virginia, and will have a minimum capital of $12,500,000.

It is expected that the establishment of the Home Loan banks will help the banking situation in general by releasing funds tied up in real estate mortgages which have hitherto been considered frozen.

PUBLIC HEALTH MEETING OCT. 5

A public meeting will be held in the William Penn Hotel October 5, at which Pennsylvania Public Health Day here will be celebrated. The meeting will be under the auspices of the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, with Dr. J. M. Anders, of Philadelphia, as master of ceremonies.

Beginning at 7:45 p. m., the program includes motion pictures; songs by the male chorus of KDKA; an address by Dr. Thomas B. Carroll, Allegheny County Medical Society head; an address by Dr. T. B. Appel, state secretary of health, and a discussion of vitamins by R. Adam Dutcher, bio-chemistry professor of Pennsylvania State College.

Burbank's Dream Perfected by Pupil

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Sept. 27.—(Universal.)—A seedless muscat grape, dream of Luther Burbank for many years, has at last been developed, according to Will H. Henderson, who has been carrying on the work of the great horticulturist.

Using methods imparted to him by Burbank, Henderson has brought the seedless muscat to the stage where he will be able to introduce it next year, he said yesterday.

Will You Be One Among Seven?

Look the cold facts squarely in the face. Only seven out of every hundred men are independent at the age of sixty-five. The highway to financial independence is open to every man or woman that works, no matter how large or small the salary. There is no guesswork or uncertainty about establishing a self-supporting income. Budget your salary and then invest a definite portion of it each month in this investment of proved merit.

Start now to build for financial independence. Hearst 7% Class "A" cumulative participating shares have a record of uninterrupted quarterly cash dividends. You can acquire these shares through the convenient Hearst Thrift Plan by paying only $1 per share a month, or for $25 cash a share. Every payment that you make earns 7% from the day received. Investigate and invest for immediate income.

Now Available!
$1.00 per Share Monthly

Hearst 7% Shares
PRICE $25 A SHARE

HEARST CONSOLIDATED PUBLICATIONS, INC. 42
Sun-Telegraph Bldg., Telegraph Square, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Please send detailed information regarding Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., Class "A" shares.

Name .....
Street .....
City .....

Fire Fighters Use Novel Scheme to Advertise Dance

Residents throughout the South Hills were treated today and yesterday to a rather unusual sight—a hook and ladder fire truck which was not going to a fire, but moving calmly to amplified Victrola music.

At pauses in the music, a voice, issuing from two large amplifiers, with which the ladder truck was equipped, explained it was all an advertisement for the Dormont Volunteer Fire Department dance at Palm Garden. The dance will be held Wednesday night. Proceeds will go to the maintenance of the organization.

Marriage, Beer, Cash Held Chief Topics

Mahnac, the exponent of mental telepathy, whose discourses are a feature of the Syria Varieties, sponsored every night this week in Syria Mosque by Syria Temple, has announced that marriage, beer and money are the questions uppermost in the mind of the average Pittsburgher.

(Advertisement)

DEPRESSION OVER FOR USERS OF WRIGLEY'S GUM

Daily Flutter of Dollar Bills Continue to Reward Pittsburghers.

By MISS MINT

So many people tell Mr. Spear and me when we reward them with a dollar for carrying Wrigley's gum, "This is the best bit of fortune we have had in a long time—now we feel that our luck is turning and better times are on the way."

If you could see the surprised and delighted expression on people's faces when they get their dollar bills—you would know that they mean it. And the look of disappointment when we stop others who have failed to get their Wrigley's—well, that's another story.

HUSBAND RECEIVED DOLLAR

MRS. T. H. APPENRODT, 100 Catskill Ave., Brentwood, was on her way to town to buy a suit for her young boy when she received her dollar for carrying P. K.'s. Her husband had received a dollar down town the day before, so now the whole family is chewing Wrigley's.

MRS. JOHN CUMMINS, 1432 Merrill Ave., Brookline, saw me stop some youngsters who didn't have Wrigley's. When I stopped her she was all excited for fear I was going to pass her up, because she had a package of Double Mint already for me. She received a dollar.

MRS. W. K. MILLER, 210 South Elizabeth St., Hazelwood, told me when she received her dollar for carrying Juicy Fruit, "Every Saturday night I get my supply of Wrigley's for the following week—I can't get along without it."

ESTHER THOMPSON, 4918 Baum Boulevard, said she "Likes Wrigley's because it keeps her breath sweet and she always uses it after supper." Her package of Spearmint earned her a dollar bill.

MRS. JOE KING, 760 Broughton St., is another lady who loads up on Wrigley's on Saturday night. I stopped her just after she had purchased a half dozen packages of Spearmint. She said, "You will never catch me without Wrigley's—it keeps the acid taste out of my mouth."

CHARLES RICHMOND, 7630 Kelley St., a dancer in the Marathon, was half asleep, with his eyes closed, but chewing Wrigley's hard when I spotted him. His trainer had to use a cold towel to awaken him. Charlie was certainly wideawake after I had given him the dollar. He said, "I have been in this thing for weeks and I find Wrigley's refreshes and relaxes me."

WILL FRAME HIS BUCK

CYRIL CASCARELLI, 5968 Baum Boulevard, a barber, hadn't heard of Mr. Spear or me giving away dollars. He was glad to get his for having Wrigley's anyway, and said, "It's wonderful gum and I am going to frame this buck—it's the only one I ever received for doing something I liked."

It is impossible to begin to list all of the people who receive dollar bills for carrying Wrigley's. Here are the names of just a few who received dollar bills recently: FRED CONTILLO, 151 Maxwell Way; IRENE MANNING, 3603 Penn Ave.; VIRGINIA FORSYTHE, Library, Pa.; RUTH FARBER, 1162 Brookline Blvd.; LEONARD PASHLEY, 4322 Luster St.; BELLE CRAMER, 5915 Nicholson St.; BLANCHE TURNBULL, 139 East Eighth Ave., Homestead; ARTHUR KUGEMAN, Keystone Athletic Club; JOHN MEISEL, Annabelle St., Mt. Washington; JOSEPH W. SHAMICK, 2023 Girond St.

We are working overtime, stopping just as many people as we can all day long and as late as 9 o'clock at night. If you haven't been stopped yet don't give up. Stay in the game by always having a package of any of the four Wrigley flavors with you. Then you are already for a crisp, new dollar bill.

WHY take a chance with accidents? By telephone, help is within easy reach.

Accidents

The cost of a telephone is trifling. You can have one in your home for less than a dime a day!

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNA.

JOSEPH HORNE CO

THE BEST PLACE TO SHOP, AFTER ALL

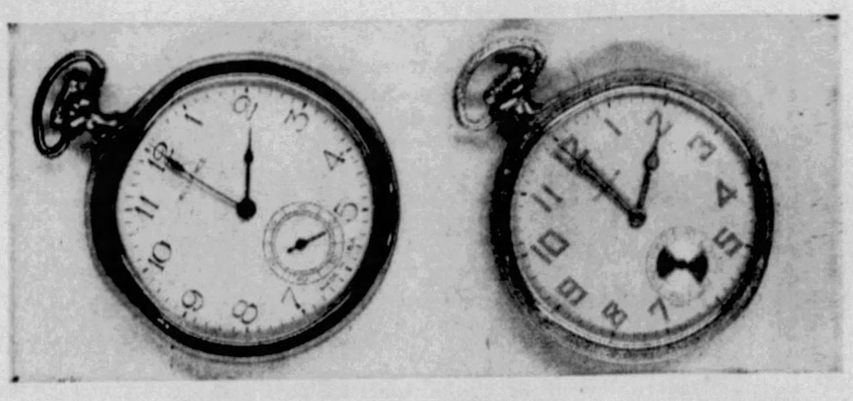
Tomorrow...at 2:30

E. Hall Downes
Noted Bridge Teacher and Author
Will Tell You
"How to Hold Aces and Kings"

As a fitting opening to the 1932-33 season at Bridge Headquarters, we have invited this ace of American Bridge teachers to speak tomorrow, Thursday, and Friday, on the above subject of his own choosing. Mr. Downes' talk will cover just the points which most Bridge players, whether casual or expert, will enjoy discussing as a preliminary to a successful season and no one is better qualified for the purpose than Mr. Downes, whose national reputation as a teacher has been further enhanced by his very successful book "Contract Bridge Self Teacher".

An interesting and enjoyable afternoon is promised Bridge fans. Come and bring your friends. Complimentary.

... Horne's, Auditorium, Seventh Floor ...



Special Selling!

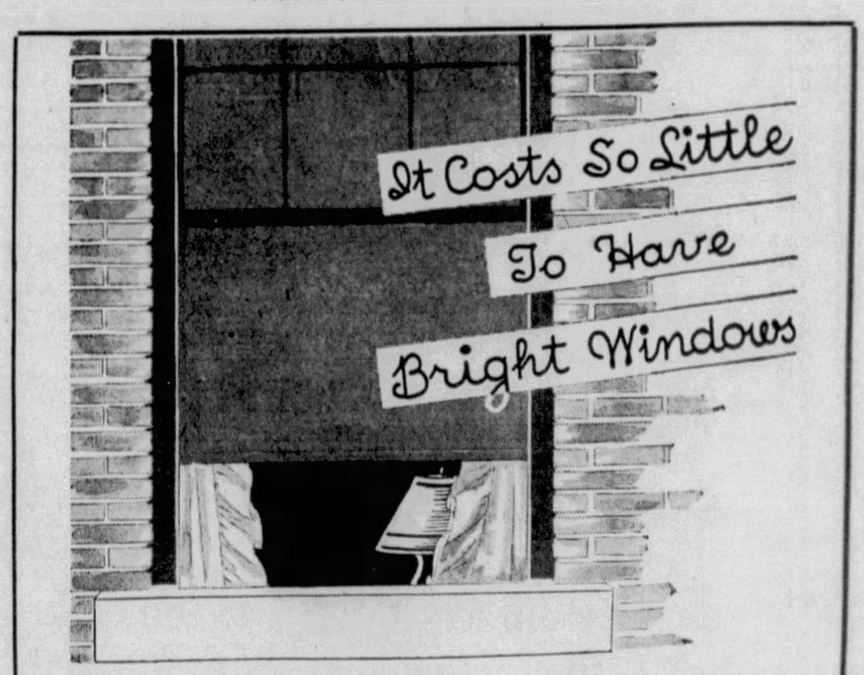
500 INGERSOLL Waterbury and Reliance Jewelled Watches

$1.95

These Ingersoll watches are known everywhere . . . elaborate advertising campaigns have publicized their features—as well as their much higher regular prices! Thousands of people you know, who now carry Ingersolls, will testify to their accuracy and dependable movement.

This special purchase brings you perfect, jewelled Ingersolls, every one backed by the Ingersoll guarantee—in a choice of two attractive styles, at this unusually low price! The Waterbury has chromium-finish case and radiolite dial. The Reliance has solid nickel case and plain dial.

... Horne's, Watch Section, Main Floor ...



Cleanable Shades

65c

Brighten your home—from the outside as well as within—by replacing your sooty, begrimed window shades with fresh, new ones at this money-saving price. Pittsburgh homes will appreciate owning white, green, beige, cream or ecru shades that may be easily cleaned—and thereby retain their usefulness for so many seasons.

These shades, mounted on smooth running rollers, are 36 inches wide and are 6 ft. cut length—the most desirable size for the average window.

... Horne's, Fourth Floor ...

Authentic Paris Styles In Knit Frocks

$16.75

Authentic copies of imported models at such a very moderate price!—that is one of those little triumphs which the Sortswear Shop is able to achieve because it keeps in close touch with every movement in the field of Knitted Fashions. The "scoop" includes one model each from Chanel, Vionnet, Marcelle Dormoy, and one from the very new Paris establishment of young fashions, Passy Dix Dix-Sept.

They are zephyr-knit frocks, one and two-piece models. Vionnet's two-piece frock is in such intriguing combinations as raspberry-pink-and-wine, blue-gray-and-black, brown-beige-and-green, and three shades of green; and the other frocks are in conservative two-color combination . . . Misses' sizes.

... Horne's, Sportswear Shop, Second Floor ...

Dahlia Exhibit and Sale

An entire Sales Square on the Main Floor has been turned into an autumn garden with more than 100 species of dahlias. An exceptionally broad range of colorings . . . and specimens of mammoth size are represented in this year's collection. Orders may be taken from the samples on exhibition and the tubers will be delivered to you next spring in time for planting. Prices range from 50c to $10.00.

... Horne's, Main Floor ...

Now Is the Time to Have a

Horne-Parry Portrait

made for fall social and business requirements. A portrait which you can be proud of for $3, with three proofs from which to choose.

... Horne's, Balcony ...

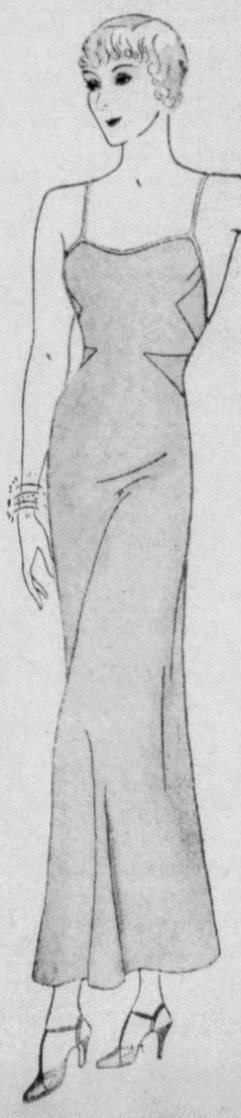
Battle Creek Health Foods

Miss Barnes, diet advisor who comes direct from the Battle Creek Sanitarium, in Michigan, is now available for consultation here in our Battle Creek Health Foods Section, adjacent the Hostess Buffet. Let her recommend the diet that will be most beneficial, whether you're seeking to gain or to lose weight . . . and advise the Health Foods that will do you the most good.

... Horne's, Main Floor ...

Imagine!

Ankle-Length Evening Slips



$1.95

White
Tea Rose
Sizes 32 to 38

Never before have we seen them at such a low price! Now you may have one for every evening frock or long afternoon dress at the cost of ordinary, everyday costume slips. Rich, all-silk French crepe—styled to fit without a ripple under close-fitting gowns—cut clear to the waistline in back—with rip-proof seams that will not sag or bulge!

... Horne's, Second Floor ...

1-YEAR AWARD FOR GARBAGE OPPOSED

The Pittsburgh Real Estate Board will show at a hearing before City Council tomorrow that the cost of rubbish and garbage collection here is out of proportion to the percentage of population, J. Rolard Brady, secretary, said today.

The Real Estate Board and the Building Owners and Managers Association will present data, representatives of the two groups said, to show Council has erred in declaring for a one-year contract for 1933. Both contend nothing less than a five-year term is necessary if competition is not to be stifled by the American Reduction Company and its subsidiary, the Allegheny Garbage Company, holders of the present year contract.

Final action by Council on the one-year plan has been withheld because of the civic organizations' appeals and the request of the Rush Engineering Company for further time to present a proposition for next year's business.

Real Estate Board figures released by Brady yesterday disclosed cost of garbage collection has increased from $2.25 a ton in 1917 to $6.65 in 1931, and rubbish collection from $3 in 1917 to $7.82 in 1931.

DR. VAN ESSEN TO TALK HERE

Dr. William J. Van Essen, Socialist candidate for the U. S. Senate, will speak at Spring Garden Avenue School, North Side, at 8 o'clock this evening. He will talk on "Unemployment and Its Remedy."

Other Socialist meetings for the week are:

Thursday, Middle and Ohio streets, North Side; Friday, band stand, West Park, Sherman avenue and Ohio street, North Side, Frank Crosswaith, of New York, guest speaker; Saturday, Second avenue and Flowers street, South Thirteenth and Carson streets, Federal and South Diamond streets, Frankstown avenue and Station street, Grand and Bell avenues, McKees Rocks.

On Sunday, October 9, Daniel W. Hoan, Socialist Mayor of Milwaukee, will speak at the Fulton Theater at 2 p. m.

Drought May Delay Small Game Season

HARRISBURG, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Gov. Pinchot has announced that if the drought continues in Pennsylvania it may be necessary to postpone the opening of the small game hunting season to prevent "a deluge of forest fires."

If the season's start is postponed beyond its scheduled opening on November 1, the Governor said, the close of the season also will be postponed so hunters will not suffer from a shortened season.

Timber Fire Blamed On Honey Hunters

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Sept. 27.—(A.P.)—Honey hunters were blamed today for a fire which destroyed timber near McConnell's Mills. Scores of volunteers worked for hours overcoming the blaze yesterday.

Badly Hurt

MISS EDITH GOLDSTEIN

Knocked from the sidewalk by a driverless truck and carried on its bumper into the porch of a house, Miss Goldstein, 20, of 5407 Black street, was injured perhaps fatally late yesterday.

HIGHER TAXICAB FARE IN EFFECT

Taxicab riders were paying more for their rides today, but extra passengers were riding free.

Increased rates, advancing from 15 cents for the first sixth of a mile and 10 cents for each additional two-thirds of a mile and 10 cents for extra passengers to 25 cents for the first quarter-mile and 10 cents for each additional half-mile.

The Parmelee Transportation Company, announcing the new rates, hopes to recoup $156,431 lost during the previous 10 months' period.

Orders for Destroyer Building Received

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Announcement was made at the Philadelphia Navy Yard that orders had been received from Washington for building of one of the eight destroyers recently authorized. This was expected by navy yard officials to give work to several hundred additional men, and will involve a total cost of $4,500,000.

MUDDLE HERE ON OPERATION OF STATE TAX

Confusion over provisions of emergency state sales tax, complicated by the apparent inability of the State Department of Revenue to keep up with problems arising daily, developed at a meeting of several hundred manufacturing executives in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Thomas A. Dunn, president of the chamber, said that scores of business men have been unable to get specific instructions from Harrisburg in regard to particular problems unsettled a month after the law has gone into effect.

George H. Cherrington, of the Standard Machinists' Supply Company, expressed the opinion that business interests should not only make the best of the tax as an emergency levy but prepare to see it made a permanent tax at the next session of the State Legislature. He added that the big federal deficit now foreshadowed made the adoption of a federal sales tax highly probable.

Frank Wilbur Main answered questions from the floor as to many knotty problems raised by the tax. Other speakers were C. S. Lamb, secretary of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company; Adam E. Daum, of the paint and varnish group; Hale Hill, the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation; George V. Lang, United Engineering and Foundry Company; George J. Dumbauld, Blaw-Knox Company, and Al. Loughborough, the Graybar Electric Company.

Dwindling Post Of G. A. R. Disbands

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The Strong-Vincent Post of the Grand Army of the Republic marched into history yesterday, the rapidly dwindling membership—numbering but eight veterans—voting to disband.

Only three members were able to attend meetings. The post has been in existence for 65 years.

Sub Blast Injuries Kill Third Victim

CHERBOURG, France, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The death toll of the explosion aboard the French submarine Persee off Cherbourg yesterday rose to three today as two more of the 31 injured died. Four more of the injured were in a serious condition.

California Actress Takes Poison Abroad

PARIS, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—An American woman suffering from the effects of poison has been admitted to the American Hospital under the name of Miss Clare De Lorez, 25, of California. She was listed as a film actress. The patient's condition was described as "serious."

Erie May Build Power Plant in Rate Fight

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Charging that electrical rates are "unfair and exorbitant," Mayor James P. Rossiter today indicated in a dictum issued to electrical companies here that Erie may establish its own municipal power plant.

Although Erie's rates do not compare unfavorably with the average Pennsylvania city, Mayor Rossiter claims the rates are excessive. He believes that the proposed plant could be built on the fees paid to power companies by the city in the next 10 years.

Serbians in Panic In Severe Quake

BELGRADE, Jugoslavia, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—A severe earthquake which caused considerable property damage and much panic among the people was described in reports reaching here today from Valandovo, Kavadar, Demirkapu and Gewgeli, South Serbia. No loss of life was reported.

SLASH PAYROLL IN WILKINSBURG

Salaries of Wilkinsburg Borough employes were slashed approximately 12½ per cent by Borough Council last night to effect an estimated saving of $5,000 by January 1.

The cut, which will affect approximately 75 appointive employes, will be in effect from October 1. Three elective officers, Burgess William Turner, Tax Collector Walter Elder and Controller George Reis agreed to accept a similar pay slash. Borough employes have already taken two weeks' enforced vacation this year without pay.

A resolution authorizing the borrowing of $3,500 to meet current expenses was also adopted at last night's meeting. Borough officials expect, however, to collect about $25,000 more in taxes this year, but need the loan to meet the payroll.

LEAGUE SEEKS TAX REFORM

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Delegates representing mostly farm organizations, from 37 Pennsylvania counties, yesterday adopted a seven-point program aiming at tax reduction. The organization, to be known as the Tax Justice League of Pennsylvania, elected T. J. Rawlings, of Blairsville, as president.

The program includes a flat income tax for school purposes until a graduated income tax is adopted; abolition of the road tax on real estate and allocation of taxes on motor vehicles, licenses and fuels to local districts for maintenance; abolition of state, county and municipally-owned automobiles; payment by stock companies and corporations of the same taxes as individuals, and reduction in electric, gas, water and other public utility rates.

Girouard, British War Leader, Dead

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Col. Sir Percy Girouard, 65, director of munitions supplies for British forces in the World War in 1915 and formerly governor of Northern Nigeria and of the East Africa protectorate, died yesterday after a long illness.

Col. Girouard was born in Montreal and educated at the Royal Military College, Kingston, Ontario.

Girl Here Takes Honors at College

Emily Josephine Roberts, Pittsburgh, was second highest ranking student, President Henry T. Moore announced in his address opening the fall term at Skidmore College.

Domino
Cane Sugars
Refined in U.S.A.
"Sweeten it with Domino"

Check these SAVINGS before you travel
Modern, comfortable coaches...motor convenient schedules. Excursions good every day.
ROUND TRIP FARES

Cleveland	$ 8.75	Chicago	$15.75
Detroit	7.50	Baltimore	9.45
Philadelphia	12.00	Akron	4.50
Washington	10.50	Charleston, W. Va.	10.15
New York	15.00	Winston-Salem	17.85

Greyhound Bus Station
Liberty Ave. at Grant St. Phone: Grant 5700
Blue Ridge Terminal
912 Liberty Ave. Phone: Court 1800
BLUE RIDGE Lines
GREYHOUND Lines

GLASSES! Wednesday, Thursday and Friday
ASTOUNDING VALUE! EXAMINATION INCLUDED
Beautiful engraved metal frame, large, comfortable, with convex spherical lenses. $2.50 COMPLETE
Open Daily to 5:30
BIFOCALS complete with far and near vision in one frame, convex, spherical lenses $3.95
CROSS EYES straightened by our specialist. No operation or drugs.
LEVINE OPTICAL CO.
4th Floor, Keenan Bldg.
643 LIBERTY AT SEVENTH ST. (Elevator)
CHILDREN GIVEN SPECIAL CARE

So delicious!
So nourishing!
And at so little cost!

What a dish for hungry appetites! Golden strands of spaghetti. Luscious sauce. Sharp, zestful cheese. Red-ripe tomatoes. All blended with the skill for which Franco-American chefs are famous. How delightful! How satisfying! All ready to serve. And Franco-American Spaghetti costs but 9c a can. Enjoy it for dinner tonight.

Franco-American Ready-cooked Spaghetti
With tomato sauce and cheese ('a la Milanaise) only 9c a can

Announcing Quaker Maid Week at your A&P Food Store

Old Time Quaker Thrift For You

This week your A&P Food Store presents one of the outstanding value events of the year . . . a festival of low priced offerings of foods of choice quality. This is a sale that takes us back to "the good old days" that grandmothers talk about . . . the days when food quality was high and prices were low. * * * This is Quaker Thrift Week at your A&P Store . . . a six-day period devoted to acquainting A&P customers with some of the choice foods that are helping millions of American families to cut their food bills to a minimum, and yet to serve the finest of meals.

QUALITY FOODS

Whitehouse Milk	tall can	5c
Nectar Orange Pekoe Tea	¼-lb pkg	13c
Sultana Peanut Butter	2-lb jar	19c
Encore Spaghetti	Ready to Serve 3 cans	20c
Encore Plain Queen Olives	quart jar	33c
Quaker Maid Baking Powder	½-lb can	10c
Quaker Maid Chili Sauce	bt	15c
Quaker Maid Apple Sauce	can	10c
Rajah Mustard	9-oz jar	9c
Quaker Maid Cocoa	½-lb can	10c

THRIFTY PRICES

Cider Vinegar	½-gal jug	25c
White Vinegar	½-gal jug	25c
Rajah Salad Dressing	quart jar	25c
Rajah Sandwich Spread	8-oz jar	10c
Sunnyfield Pearl Tapioca	pkg	10c
Ann Page Grape Jelly	2 8-oz jars	25c
Stuffed Olives	Encore Midget 3-oz btl	11c
Encore Olive Oil	3-oz btl	12c
Encore Noodles	Broad or Fine 4 pkgs	25c
Sultana Red Beans	can	6c

ANN PAGE Preserves
Pure Fruit and Cane Sugar
16-oz jar 13c
Strawberry—Raspberry
Pineapple—Peach—Cherry

OVEN FRESH Raisin Bread
16-oz loaf 8c
ICING TOP OR PLAIN

Sparkle Gelatine Dessert 5 pkgs 25c
Six Delicious Flavors
Pork & Beans 6 1-lb cans 25c
Quaker Maid Brand—in Tomato Sauce
Ketchup Quaker Maid 2 14-oz btls 23c
Made from Ripe Tomatoes and Tasty Spices
Iona Cocoa 2 1-lb cans 25c
Makes a Delicious and Nourishing Drink

BONDAY Candy Bars
3 for 10c
Peanut Clusters—Honey and Almond Bars—Nougats Caramellow Bars

Lima Beans
3 cans 25c
IONA BRAND

QUALITY MEATS

Swiss Cheese (Finest Domestic Quality)	lb	29c
Sausage (Link or Country Style)	Pork 2 lbs	29c
Sirloin Steak (Cut from Yearling Steer Beef)	lb	27c
Tenderloin (Tender, Juicy Beefsteak)	lb	29c
Round Steak (Full of Flavor)	lb	27c
Nordic (2 Delicious Steaks in Each Pkg)	Fish Steaks ½-lb pkg	5c
Haddock (Fillets—No Waste—Ready to Fry)	lb	12c

OTHER QUAKER MAID PRODUCTS

Bird Gravel	2 pkgs	13c
Bird Food	pkg	7c
Ammonia	10-oz btl	8c
Liquid Blue	3 btls	20c
Our Own Blend Tea	½-lb pkg	17c
Rajah Extracts	2-oz btl	19c
Sunnyfield Barley	pkg	10c
Red Kidney Beans	2 cans	15c
Assorted Jellies	glass	10c
Rajah Mustard	4-oz jar	5c
Whole Pickling Spice	pkg	10c
Mayfair Tea	Orange Pekoe ½-lb pkg	37c

Brooks' Pride, Country Roll Style
Fresh Butter
2 lbs 45c
TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY ONLY

FRUITS & VEGETABLES

Pears (Juicy and Sweet)	Bartlett	5 lbs 14c (Bushel 1.39)
Apples (Finest Eating Apples)	Jonathan	6 lbs 25c
Grapefruit (Juicy and Thin Skinned)		3 for 25c
Potatoes (Finest Quality)	Sweets	10 lbs 19c

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO
A&P ESTABLISHED 1859 "WHERE ECONOMY RULES"

COAL DEALERS' FEE PROPOSED

Opposition by independent coal dealers to a proposed ordinance for $100 yearly license fees for all coal yards was anticipated today as City Council prepared to study the measure, drafted by the Pittsburgh Coal Merchants Association.

Attorney Charles B. Prichard, counsel for the association, submitted a sample ordinance to Council late yesterday. The $100 payment would permit operation of one transportation vehicle, with an additional $5 charge for each additional truck or wagon. The licenses would be renewed annually for a $50 fee.

Small coal dealers maintain the proposal is at attempt to put them out of business, it was declared.

Test Shows Odds On Slot Machine 1,000 to 1

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—A general science class at New York University yesterday tested and took apart a slot machine and decided that the chance of a person winning a "jack pot" on it was one in 1,000.

The practical investigation was under the direction of Dr. E. E. Free. For it he used what he termed the "liberal" type of machine, one that pays 75.6 per cent of the money or slugs paid into it, instead of 67.6 per cent he said the ordinary machine pays.

In taking the machine apart the students found that only half of the symbols on each wheel are "live." The others, Dr. Free said, were only stage properties placed to make the player think he has more chance to win.

GUTHRIE URGES WELFARE AID

Francis S. Guthrie, president of the Dollar Savings Bank, who last night accepted chairmanship of the special gifts division of the Welfare Fund, stressed necessity of individuals continuing their donations to the fund. He said in part:

"There are several channels through which well-to-do people this year can disburse welfare money. Everyone has relatives, friends or neighborhood situations to be personally assisted. A portion of the increase in taxes will be the deflection of governmental expenditures for emergency relief purposes. The individual who satisfies these demands might be constrained to think he has met all necessary and reasonable obligations arising from unemployment.

"After three winters of successful effort to maintain the morale and spirits of our unemployed and needy people, we must not even think of failing to carry them through a fourth and apparently final winter of unprecedented economic stress."

Marriage Licenses

Joan Newman	Pittsburgh
Ruth R. Wex	Pittsburgh
George E. Werner	Buffalo, N. Y.
Caroline Farasky	Kenmore, N. Y.
Frederick H. Lovell	Mt. Lebanon
Harriet Patterson	Canford, N. Y.
Joseph A. Rossi	Pittsburgh
Marie M. Kozlowska	Pittsburgh
Arthur William Grabe	Dormont
Selma Louise Petter	Pittsburgh
Charles Kristberher	Pittsburgh
Catherine Valdetic	Pittsburgh
Joseph Suchodrussi	Pittsburgh
Sophie Walczak	Pittsburgh
Ira M. Appel	Pittsburgh
Margaret McCain	Pittsburgh
William H. Doyle	Bantam, Conn.
Ruth Lord	Philadelphia
John Clyde Scott, Jr.	Bellevue
Lydia Bernice Coles	Bellevue
Albert H. Bleckley, Jr.	Mt. Lebanon
Jeanne E. Braun	Ben Avon

Pastor to Conduct Downtown 'Y' Service

The mid-week worship service at noon tomorrow in the assembly room of the Downtown Y. M. C. A. will be led by the Rev. W. M. Baumgartner, pastor of the Mary S. Brown Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church. The service lasts 40 minutes.

SUSPEND CHIEF IN SHARPSBURG

The police committee of Sharpsburg Council last night suspended Chief of Police Sam Fair, accused at a meeting last week of attempting to "shake down" Ira Weichel, South Main street, Sharpsburg. A hearing will be given the chief Monday night.

Burgess Dennis Casper announced he would appoint Patrolman Rocco Belsite acting chief, pending outcome of the hearing.

The police committee is composed of Councilmen William Harris, John Lennon and Joseph Taresi. The meeting was attended by Burgess Casper, Councilmen Alfred Pontelli and Lawrence Bragg, and Borough Solicitor Edward Krause.

Bus Line Asks O. K. On Extended Service

The Harmony Short Line Transportation Company has applied to the Public Service Commission for the right to operate group and party bus service out of Butler, Ellwood City, New Castle, Beaver Falls, New Brighton and New Wilmington, according to word from Harrisburg today.

Hear the WORLD'S SERIES
Make sure your radio set is ready for the pennant fight. Have your dealer TEST your TUBES.
RCA RADIOTRONS
THE HEART OF YOUR RADIO

FREE TUBE TESTING Experienced radio men will check your radio free if you buy a set of guaranteed Cunningham tubes. Expert radio service. "The Old Reliable Store" COLUMBIA MUSIC CO. 101 Sixth St. Atlantic 4655

ROSENBAUM'S

"Arco" Five-Toe Foot Developers $2.45

Flexible sole and a wide, nature-shaped last. White or smoked leather. Others at $2.95.

—SEVENTH FLOOR

ROSENBAUM'S
SIXTH, LIBERTY AND PENN — ATLANTIC 4500

The Store for Quality at Low Prices

SILK LINGERIE
IN THE MODERN SPIRIT

$1.59

Modern in cut ... all have those intriguing bias gadgets which fit so sleekly ... modern in length ... and especially modern in quality at the low price. All silk crepe de chine of a nice weight, beautifully trimmed with fine laces, some tailored. Lovely new garments ... Gowns, Chemises, Dancettes.

—ROSENBAUM'S, LINGERIE, THIRD FLOOR

SHEER, DULL, FULL FASHIONED IN NEW SHADES
NON-RUN HOSIERY

Guaranteed not to run . . . a new lock stitch prevents it! Dull-lustered silk in wonderfully clear weaves . . . the lock stitch has a hand in that, too! In sizes 8½ to 10½. $1.35

—ROSENBAUM'S, HOSIERY, STREET FLOOR

THREE SMART STYLES IN FINE QUALITY
GLACE KID GLOVES

Soft, pliable skins of imported glace . . . in plain slipons, 1-clasp fancy or 4-button mousquetaire. Black, brown, mode and white. Sizes 5¾ to 8. $1.79

—ROSENBAUM'S, GLOVES, STREET FLOOR

Your Kitchen Floor Covered . . . With Sloane's or Blabon's Double Waxed

INLAID LINOLEUM

$1.50 to $1.85 grades, laid over lining felt, cemented solid to floor, $1.59 sq. yd., complete

For average size kitchen, 10 square yards. Completely laid, cemented solid to floor over felt, ready for use. 15 good tile and geometric patterns.

$15.90 COMPLETE
For Average Size Kitchen of 10 Square Yards

—NINTH FLOOR

Make This at Home

Kiddie Frocks
Patterns 2356 and 2326
Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph 15c Practical Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Tiny frocks for tiny tots always find a welcome place in their wardrobes. In real "grown up" fashion, contrast is applied as youthful yoke and sleeve details. What young one wouldn't love to have them, while mothers will use the practical, tubbable cotton prints to make them? Bloomers included.

Pattern 2356 may be ordered only in sizes 4 to 10. Size 4 requires 2⅛ yards 36-inch fabric and ¾ yard contrasting.

Pattern 2326 may be ordered only in sizes 2 to 8. Size 4 requires 2¼ yards 36-inch fabric and ½ yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with each pattern.

EACH of these models is 15c (30c for both). Send coins or stamps (coins preferred). Please write very plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern ordered.

THE FALL AND WINTER EDITION OF THE ANNE ADAMS PATTERN CATALOG IS READY! Charming, flattering models—32 pages of the newest and best house, street and formal frocks—cleverly designed styles for lage figures—and beautiful, practical models for juniors and kiddies. Lovely lingerie patterns, and suggestions for gifts that can be easily and inexpensively made, are also included. SEND FOR THE NEW CATALOG. PRICE OF CATALOG 15 CENTS. CATALOG AND PATTERN TOGETHER 25 CENTS. Address all mail orders to Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth street, New York City.

1.—Enclose 15 cents in coins.
2.—Write clearly NUMBERS of patterns and SIZE wanted.
3.—Write or print your NAME and ADDRESS plainly.
4.—If you want SUN-TELEGRAPH Style Book send 10c extra.
5.—Address your request to the PITTSBURGH SUN-TELEGRAPH PATTERN DEPARTMENT, 243 West 17th St., New York City.

Youth Found Dead After Fall in Barn

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Sept. 27.—Walter Bryer, 17, of Mahoning Township, missing for several hours, was found lying dead on the floor of his father's barn. He evidently had gone to the haymow to hunt eggs and slipped and fell to the barn floor 20 feet below. His skull was fractured. Coroner Orville Potter found death due to accidental causes. The boy is survived by his parents and 10 brothers and sisters.

CATERING

We can be entrusted to supply appropriate and correct service for any affair. Our prices are sensible. We estimate and submit menus without obligation.

STORE SERVICE
For The Home Table
"As Near Your Home As The Telephone" — Our daily delivery does the rest.
Pastries · Bread · Pies
Ice Creams · Ices · Candies
At Sensible Prices

DINE WITH US
Noon-Day Lunch 50c
Evening Dinners 75c · $1.00
THEN YOU'LL COME AGAIN
Phone 0125 HIland

JOYCE-McClements Co. CATERERS
PENN AND SHADY—PITTSBURGH

Don't miss tasting IT!

It's genuine Rieck's Ice Cream at a bargain price . . pure, wholesome and delicious. You'll wonder at the low price . . after you've tasted the ice cream. Rieck's Dealers everywhere have it.

RIECK'S
Wm. PENN
PINT PACKAGE

Walter Winchell ON BROADWAY

Things I Never Noodle Now

(But which you knew all along. Oh, sure!)

That jazz was invented by Beethoven. (Oh, if you must have proof, note the syncopation in the Scherzo of his B Flat quartet).

That among other nifties in a North Platte, Nebraska beanery is this: "Mary had a little lambs. What's yours?" (Kinda-ka-yute, wot?)

That a grocery store at 1061 Rutland Road in Brooklyn (America) is owned by a man named B. Sicker.

That most Chicago scribes still call Amos 'n' Andy "Sam 'n' Henry," because that's what they called them before they got famous.

That Voltaire, who played the rogues of his day, stole candles!"

That the B.M.T. (Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit to you outta-town subscribers!) owns, of all things, a Coney carousel!

That James Cagney was once a bath attendant at P. S. No. 1 (Long Island City), you probably knew. But did you know that the reason he wants to be a doctor is that he yens to aid the ailing? (Tough guy?)

That when a jeweler says "Ouch!" he isn't always hurt, you dope. An ouch is the trade name for a socket in the setting.

That in Milan if your party doesn't answer when you phone, then you dial the message, which writes on his phone pad!

That Phoenix, Ariz., racetrack-goers beat the State anti-gambling laws by buying an "interest" in a horse for the duration of a race. If it finishes in the money, a dividend is paid to investors!

That when a local 1st Grade Detective is promoted as a Sergeant his annual pay is reduced $500. Some Price, Glory!)

That Mary's lamb didn't follow her to school, at all. Her kid brother carried it there. (Do you really enjoy this stuff?)

That when you sell an article for ¼ above the cost, your profit is 25 per cent? You know that, hur? But you don't! The profit is only 20 per cent. (Look. He knows better than professors of mathematics!) Wanna wager?

That when Queen Victoria died, the American public was informed of the fact before the British.

That John Brown, famed slave-friend, killed one!

That in 1898 a song containing the line "she's the hottest thing you ever seen" was declared obscene, and denied a copyright).

That no aviator will hit 750 miles an hour and live to tell about it. Because as soon as he stopped—accumulated noises following on behind would crash into and kill him! (The W. W. is a marvel!)

That though an airplane speeding at 750 miles per hour accumulates deadly noises, it approaches spectators in absolute silence!

That Chas. II, attended by 14 doctors, died, of course.

That in Australia an exhibitor must include 1,000 feet of British film in every program, or close up.

That in 1633 William Prynne had his ears cut off and was sentenced to life imprisonment because he penned criticisms again the theater! (Equity probably will put this on its bulletin board).

That "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and Milton's "Paradise Lost" were repeatedly rejected by English publishers. Worthless, they said.

That that cop who installed and ran the Lima (Peru) traffic system was once one of the New York Mulrooneys (Finest to you).

That the Salvation Army will gladly sell you things that they get for nothing. (For the fund, one presumes.)

That Liechtenstein, the smallest principality in the world, has been technically at war for 66 years! (It has 4 soldiers! Haw!)

That John Cleland was haled before the English Privy Council for writing "Fanny Hill." (And rewarded with a pension of $500 a year!)

That the same year, "Tom Jones," a classic and recommended by most educators, was suppressed in France as "an immoral work."

That there are 6,055 trees in Manhattan. (72 on Broadway!)

That 1,056 persons were dropped from "Who's Who" last year and 3,423 added. (Look, he's bragging again.)

That Margaret Bourke-White summed up the entire Russian sitcheeayshun in 10 words: "Little food, no shoes, terrible inefficiency, steady progress, great hope."

That the old Czarist regime of Russia was summed up in four words like this: "Absolutism tempered by assassination."

And that a Goona-Goona Love drink (cocktail, you chump!) is made in this manner: One-half lemon, one-half orange juice, dash grenadine, one white of egg, one jigger bacardi. (Then try to kiss your gal ta-ta!)

(Copyright, 1932, Daily Mirror, Inc.)

SCREEN FEATURES -:- Big Wigs in Amusement World Discussed -:- VIEWING PLAYERS

Sweethearts at Well

FREDRIC MARCH AND ELISSA LANDI AS THE LOVERS IN "THE SIGN OF THE CROSS"

Soviet Drama Overflows With Pep

By GEORGE SEIBEL

Everybody is always running in the Soviet Republic. Everybody is shouting. If he walks slowly or speaks in a whisper, he's a wicked reactionafy, a counter-revolutionist, an agent of capitalism. That is the first lesson learned by witnessing the Soviet film, "Diary of a Revolutionist," now on view at the Avenue Cinema. Everybody in Soviet Russia is full of pep and enthusiasm. They hardly take time to eat or sleep. If somebody is gorging food or guzzling vodka, that's a base enemy of the people. If something difficult or impossible has to be done, you need only shout to the laggard: "Are you a Bolshevik?" and right away he goes and does it, even if he gets killed.

Mr. Seibel

Yes, that's the sort of film the Russians have turned out in the "Diary of a Revolutionist." Whistles toot—anvils clang. Never did Horatio Alger or Orison Swett Marden preach the gospel of work and success in louder accents. Everybody works—even father. Everybody seems to thinl it's a joy to be killed for Karl Marx. When a railroad train, taking ammunition to a Bolshevik outpost, is ambushed, the Bolsheviks clear the track of danger while bombs are falling all around. When the wife of the great engineer is discovered to be Belova, widow of the White Hope, and she has given copies of his blue prints to the enemy, the engineer merely sends a note to the Moscow Pinkertons, and that's the last we hear of the lady.

Meanwhile big ships are built and launched—young Russians are trained to cop the Olympian games — model tenements are shown to be much superior to old royal palaces—everybody laughs and jumps and swims and makes merry. If this is not heaven, or Utopia, or some such place, it must be the U. S. S. R. Everything is going on high gear; there is no pianissimo; if you sit down you are suspect, if you stop you are guilty. If this is the result of abolishing competition, give us "dolce far niente" where there is no co-operative commonwealth. Just watching this whirl of mad activity for two hours proved so wearing that the critic was a mass of jangled nerves. But he rushed to record his vociferous approval of the "Diary of a Revolutionist," for fear the GPU might get him if he sat down.

Plays and Players

By WILLIAM J. LEWIS

"The Good Earth," Theater Guild play that will open the American Theater Society's subscription season in the Nixon next Monday, with Nazimova and Earle Larrimore in the central roles, encompasses more of the Pearl S. Buck novel than might be imagined, according to report from Philadelphia, where it had its premiere last week. As in the novel, it begins with the marriage of O-lan, slave girl of the rich family, to Wang, the poor farmer, and covers their first rise, their fall to poverty, their travels, the revolt of the rebels, return of the family to the soil and the pathetic death of O-lan after a younger woman has become the favorite of the man her industry has helped to make wealthy. Henry Travers plays Wang's father and Sidney Greenstreet plays his crafty uncle. The seat sale for "The Good Earth" will open Thursday.

* * *

Alden Chase, six-foot-two and athletic, and Shirley Booth, petite and blonde, will play the lead roles in "The Bride the Sun Shines On," light comedy, that will be the opening attraction of the Edwin Vail Players in the Pitt next Monday. They have had regular stage and stock experience; in fact, both spent the summer in stock in the East, Miss Booth at the head of her own company in Sea Cliff, Long Island, while Mr. Chase was at Marthas Vineyard. The latter, a friend, by the way, of Paul McGrath, long a leading man in the Pitt, admits he played here one consecutive week. Other than that was the length of the thing's run, he refuses to commit himself.

* * *

Harold Lloyd, who will sail from New York with his family next Saturday, plans to attend the premieres of his new picture, "Movie Crazy," in London, Stockholm, Paris, Rome, Vienne, Budapest, Berlin and Madrid . . . "Lawyer Man," William Powell picture on which production has just begun in Hollywood, will have Joan Blondell in the leading femme role . . . When George Fawcett returns to the New York stage October 10 for the first time in many movie years, he will have another veteran with him in "Peacock," same being Dorothy Tennent, who dates away back to George Ade's "The College Widow" . . . "Tiger Shark," Edward G. Robinson's new starring picture, has proven the best drawing picture in San Francisco in three years . . . George Walsh, popular as a "he-man" star in silent films, has been signed for a talkie, "Pier 13" . . . Lionel Atwill, Fay Wary, Frank McHugh and Glenda Farrell have been signed for "Wax Museum," film to be based on an unproduced play by Charles S. Belden.

Three Players Added To New Cast

Latest additions to the cast of Paramount's all-star production, "If I Had A Million" are George Raft, Shirley Grey and Kent Taylor. "If I Had A Million" will be all-star not only in cast, but in direction and writing as well. There are nine chapters, woven together into one story of an eccentric millionaire who, told by his doctors that he is soon to die, gives a million dollars to each of nine different people whose names he selects at random from a telephone directory. Each chapter is not only enacted by a different cast, but is being filmed by a different director and written by a different author.

Woodrow Wilson's Voice Will Be Audible In Talk Film

By HARRISON CARROLL

Copyright, 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 27.

Growing ever more resourceful, motion picture sound technicians will cause the voice of the late Woodrow Wilson to be heard from the screen in R-K-O's forthcoming picture, "The Conquerors."

Ex-President Wilson never made a talkie. He died before they were perfected. But he did make phonograph records of several of his speeches and these are being used to accomplish the new talkie miracle. Not such a difficult miracle after all, for the sound men simply re-record the voice and synchronize it to silent news-reel shots made at one of the War President's last public appearances.

Woodrow Wilson

So carefully has this been done, however, that the illusion is said to be perfect.

Several other famous Americans will appear in this story of the country's commercial growth in the last 50 years.

As soon as Estelle Taylor completes her work in the Clara Bow pictures, Director Lewis Milestone will give her a test for "The Shanghai Gesture" . . . a deep-sea fishing enthusiast with a large library on the subject, Buster Collier is negotiating to make a semi-scientific film off the California and Mexican coasts . . . Rumor is that if Helen Hayes stars in "The Son Daughter"—And she would like the assignment—M. G. M. may give "The White Sister" to Colleen Moore . . . Jackie Cooper is taking piano lessons—and does he hate them? . . . The Governor of Lower California gave Al Jolson a banquet in Ensenada. They ate some of the 65 fish Al caught off this Mexican port . . . "Blue Boy," the prize Iowa hog brought out here for "State Fair," has gained 17 pounds on his Hollywood diet . . . Marion Burns and Hubby Bruce MacFarland are bewailing that long separation when she goes to the Orient to make that jungle film.

Helen Hays

FILMLAND

LOEW'S & UNITED ARTIST'S PENN
Greta GARBO John BARRYMORE
Joan CRAWFORD Wallace BEERY
★ Lionel BARRYMORE ★
GRAND HOTEL
A METRO-GOLDWYN MAYER PICTURE
Starts Friday—LAUREL & HARDY
In Their Feature-Length Comedy
"PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES"

TODAY'S NEIGHBORHOOD THEATERS

NORTH SIDE

GARDEN—Helen Twelvetrees in "Unashamed." Also selection of shorts.

HIPPODROME—Warren William in "Skyscraper Souls." Also Laurel & Hardy comedy.

BRUSHTON

BRUSHTON — Frank Buck's "Brink 'Em Back Alive."

LIBERTY — "Washington Masquerade," also "Almost Married."

TRIANGLE — "Westward Passage" and "Scandal for Sale." Grocery Night, 9 P. M.

WILKINSBURG

REGAL—"Friends and Lovers," also "Honor of the Mounted."

BELLEVUE

BELLEVUE — Barbara Stanwyck in "Purchase Price."

Marie Dressler Owns 'Old Time' Garden

In a corner of the grounds about her new home, Marie Dressler has planted an "old-fashioned" garden with larkspur, mignonette, cinnamon pinks, delphinium, bleeding hearts and all the flowers of our grandmothers' day. Marie is back at work, making "Prosperity" with Polly Moran co-starring in the picture.

FILMLAND

STANLEY
25c—35c—50c
LAST 3 DAYS!
KING VIDOR'S
"Bird of Paradise"
R-K-O Radio's Production, featuring
DOLORES DEL RIO
JOEL McCREA
John Halliday, "Skeets" Gallagher
STARTS FRIDAY!
MARLENE DIETRICH in
"THE BLONDE VENUS"

WARNER
25c—35c—50c
LAST 3 DAYS!
The Big House Becomes the Bug House!
"HOLD 'EM JAIL"
R-K-O Radio's Rib-Cracking-est Gridiron Combat, featuring
Bert Wheeler, Robt. Woolsey
EDGAR KENNEDY, EDNA MAY OLIVER, ROSCO ATES
STARTS FRIDAY!
"AMERICAN MADNESS"

ENRIGHT
NOW PLAYING!
MR. GEORGE ARLISS
in "A Successful Calamity"
Warner Bros. Triumph, with Mary Astor—Evelyn Knapp

DAVIS
NOW!
MR. & MRS. MARTIN JOHNSON
Take the Talking Camera to the Jungles of Africa for the first time in
"CONGORILLA"

SHERIDAN SQUARE
25c-30c-40c
LAST DAY!
Gary Cooper, Tallulah Bankhead in "Devil and the Deep"
STARTS TOMORROW
For 3 Days Only!
A Thrilling, Moving Drama of Adult Lives! A Picture That Will Win Your Cheers, Laughs and Tears!
"DIVORCE IN THE FAMILY"
Metro's Dramatic Smash
Featuring
Jackie Cooper, Lewis Stone, Conrad Nagel, Lois Wilson

'Ballyhoo' Showing In the Academy

"Ballyhoo," this week's attraction in the Academy, has a cast of nearly fifty in all, with principals, chorus and added vaudeville specialty performers. The featured comics of "Ballyhoo," which is in two acts and 34 scenes, are Eddie Kaplan and Hap Fryer. Chief among other principals are Mildred Croziere, "blues" singer and comedienne, and Lew Lewis, eccentric funster. Mlle. La Rene, oriental dancer, and the Four Monitors, quartet held for a second week, are among the special acts.

Madness

Kay Johnson plays in "American Madness," feature coming to the Warner Friday.

New Pictures Booked

Marlene Dietrich has the role of an enchantress in "Blonde Venus," opening Friday in the Stanley. Herbert Marshall and Cary Grant are also in the film.

Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy co-star in "Pack Up Your Troubles," comedy picture coming into the Penn Friday. They play misfit doughboys.

Edmund Lowe plays the title role in "Chandu, the Magician," to be shown for a week in the Fulton starting Thursday. Bela Lugosi heads the supporting cast.

"American Madness," with Walter Huston, Kay Johnson, Pat O'Brien and Constance Cummings, opens Friday in the Warner.

"Bird of Paradise," starring Dolores Del Rio, will be screened in the Davis beginning Saturday.

Coming to the Enright Saturday for a week's showing are the Four Marx Brothers in a comedy, "Horsefeathers."

The Sheridan Square, beginning Saturday, will offer "White Zombie," Bela Lugosi's starring vehicle.

THEATER CLOCK

PENN: Greta Garbo in film, "Grand Hotel." Daily at 10, 11:51 a. m., 1:52, 3:55, 6:01, 8:02 and 10:10 p. m.

STANLEY: Dolores Del Rio in film, "Bird of Paradise." Daily at 10:59 a. m., 12:51, 2:43, 4:35, 6:27, 8:19 and 10:08 p. m.

WARNER: Wheeler and Woolsey in film, "Hold 'Em Jail." Daily at 11 a. m., 12:36, 2:39, 4:42, 6:45, 8:48 and 10:51 p. m.

DAVIS: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson in film, "Congorilla." Daily at 10:05 a. m., 1:05, 3:36, 5:05, 6:55, 8:35 and 10:25 p. m.

FULTON: Will Rogers in film, "Down to Earth." Daily at 10:30 a. m., 12:13, 2:13, 4:13, 6:13, 8:13 and 10:13 p. m.

SHERIDAN SQUARE: Gary Cooper in film, "Devil and the Deep." Daily at 12:45, 2:40, 4:35, 6:30, 8:25 and 10:20 p. m.

ENRIGHT: George Arliss in film, "A Successful Calamity." Daily at 12:05, 1:53, 3:41, 5:14, 6:57, 8:45 and 10:36 p. m.

AVENUE CINEMA: Sophie Magarill in film, "Diary of a Revolutionist." Daily at 11:18 a. m., 1:04, 2:50, 4:36, 6:22, 8:08 and 9:54 p. m.

ACADEMY: "Ballyhoo." Daily at 2:30 and 8:30 p. m.

MGM Buys Rights to New Comedy

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has acquired motion picture rights to "I've Married An Angel," the comedy by Vaszary Janos which had a successful run in Budapest during the past season. "I've Married An Angel" will be produced this fall in Berlin, and later in other important European cities.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY — 2:15 8:15
Pretty Girls—Peppy Songs—Snappy Dances
BALLY HOO
Sunday Midnight Show—Ladies Invited

NIXON Next Week, Oct. 3
Mats. Wed. & Sat.
THE THEATRE GUILD PRESENTS
The First Subscription Play
Auspices American Theatre Society
THE GOOD EARTH
A Dramatization by Owen & Donald Davis of Pearl S. Buck's Novel
SEATS THURSDAY

PITT OPENING MON., OCT. 3
EDWIN VAIL PLAYERS in
"THE BRIDE THE SUN SHINES ON"
Dorothy Gish Starring Vehicle
—1001 LAUGHS!— SEATS NOW
Mats: Tues., Wed., Thurs., Sat. 40c Nites, 50c to 50c—Plus Tax

Public Seat Sale Now On at Horne's Store
SYRIA'S VARIETIES BEGINNING WEEK OCTOBER 3
10 BIG-TIME VODVIL ACTS—50 PROFESSIONAL STARS
TOMMY CHRISTIAN ORCHESTRA and TELEPA-VISION
Shows Every Evening 8:15—Wed., Sat. Mats. 2:15—Dance Nightly 9 to 1
SYRIA MOSQUE

to give you a skin that's vibrant with youth

—we put this much OLIVE OIL in every cake of Palmolive →

An Actual Photograph
Palmolive contains only vegetable oils—no artificial coloring. Photo shows actual amount of olive oil that goes into each 10c cake.

TOUCH your skin. Is it as you would have it—soft, smooth, youthful—firm yet yielding to your fingertips? Thus you can judge, exactly, how it appeals to others.

You can win charm

The power is yours to emphasize youth—to remain young-looking indefinitely. You can have a youthful skin—smooth, firm, enticing. One simple rule has been laid down by beauty experts—for you to follow.

Olive oil for youth!

Olive oil soothes, smooths and softens skin. It is the great youth-giver. But how to use it? More than 20,000 beauty experts say—in soap—in Palmolive, the one great soap of which olive oil is the chief ingredient. Use Palmolive on the whole body. Massage its youth-giving lather right into the skin.

You'll see the result!

Your reward will be a skin that's vibrant with youth! Palmolive does make skin young, as only a soap based on olive oil can. The charm you want—that something which makes you, keeps you desirable—use Palmolive and have it!

Keep that Schoolgirl Complexion

BITS OF LIFE

All in a Day

By Mark Hellinger

The Girl Who Didn't Forget

DOTTIE toiled not, neither did she spin.

Not with Jenny making $20 a week, and sometimes more, doing plain and fancy laundering. Of course, two people can hardly live in luxury on that amount of money. So you can readily see that Jenny was simply out of luck.

Jenny never complained, however. Never had. Ever since the day that Dottie's mother had died and Jenny had taken the child for no reason except that she was soft-hearted and lonely, she had worked untiringly. When Dottie grew old enough to be of some use she never suggested that the girl get out and earn her own living. And you may be sure that Dottie never suggested such a thing, either. It was much more pleasant to lie in bed until noon and read movie magazines and love stories.

The kind that she enjoyed most were the stories in which the poor but pure heroine marries a handsome and dashing millionaire in the last page Any moving picture that ended with the star wallowing in luxury sent her out of the theater very happy. Because it just went to show you that such things could happen. Something like that might happen to Dottie herself.

Jenny, of course, had no time for reading and no money for the movies. So Dottie told her all about it. She was generous in that one respect, was Dottie. Besides it wasn't always easy to find anyone else to listen to her.

"You can't tell, Jen," Dottie said over and over. "It could happen to me just as well. Gee, it'd be great to get away from a dump like this. Have nice clothes and everything. Wouldn't it be wonderful if I were to marry a millionaire?"

Jenny straightened up painfully and wiped her forehead. She agreed that it would be wonderful indeed. Weary but proud, that was Jenny. She had always believed that Dottie was different from the other girls in the neighborhood. Which was an excellent reason for general rejoicing among the other girls.

Of course I realize that there was no justice in the whole thing, but Dottie met and married her rich man. How she turned the trick I have no idea. They met and he fell in love with her. It was as simple as that. Henry was a little simple, too, so that made it even all around.

Outside of his money, Henry was no bargain. He wasn't very handsome, he was a little too old to have dash and he was slightly shopworn. But Dottie was willing to overlook all that. She had decided that you can't have everything.

Jenny was very happy when Dottie told her about it. Happy for Dottie, and, of course, happy for herself, too. She was getting tired of the washboard and the heavy iron. She hadn't realized just how tired until now when there seemed to be a chance that she would get away from it all.

But Dottie's next words sent her hopes crashing.

"Of course, Jenny," said Dottie uncomfortably, "Henry doesn't know all about me. What I mean is, I couldn't tell him that I lived in a place like this. Hardly. That's why I never brought him up here. Why, he probably wouldn't want to have anything more to do with me. He doesn't know about you. I told him that my parents were dead, of course.

"I made up a pretty good story, too," went on the girl proudly. "I told him that we were a fine old family, but after papa and mama died, I was left without a cent. He thinks I'm one of those—what do you call 'em?—genteel poor. So you can see, Jen, why I can't tell him about you." . . .

Jenny tried to go on looking happy. But it wasn't easy, under the circumstances.

"We're going to be married at his mother's house," Dottie told her. "And that's where we'll live afterwards. It's a lovely place, Jenny. I'll tell you about it."

You can see that the vision of riches hadn't changed our Dottie. She was just as big-hearted as ever.

On the day that Dottie sailed out of the flat to be married, it appeared that she had sailed out for good. Jenny waited patiently for a telephone call or a letter. Even a postcard would have been something. It didn't seem possible that Dottie could go out of her life like that. But Dottie apparently could. She neither wrote nor telephoned.

Life was even harder for Jenny after that. The days were long and dull without Dottie. Because, for apparently no reason at all, she still loved Dottie. She continued to believe that the girl would show up one of these days and fix things so that there would be no drudgery or privation.

When anyone asked about Dottie, Jenny lied cheerfully. Of course, she insisted, she heard from her. She was traveling now with her husband and her mother-in-law. Jenny had gleaned that information from the newspapers. She described Dottie's new home as she remembered it from what Dottie had told her.

She asserted stoutly that in time she would give up the flat. Dottie had no intention of allowing her to go on working now that she was married to a rich man. She was doing it—well, just to keep busy until Dottie got around to finding her some place nice enough.

Then, finally, came the day when Jenny could lie no longer to either the neighbors or herself. Dottie had been married six months. And Jenny hadn't seen nor heard from her since the day she floated out of the flat with Jenny's one good pair of silk stockings.

She wept a little over her ironing board. Life, as she viewed it, could be very, very cruel. After years of toiling and sacrificing for a child which wasn't even your own, you were left to a lonely and penniless old age. And the child, upon whom you showered all your affection, could forget all about you within a few short months.

At that very moment, Jenny heard the toot of a French horn at the sidewalk in front of the house. Out of the long, shining car, assisted by a respectful chauffeur, stepped Dottie.

Jenny pressed her hands against her cheeks with a happy sob. Never in her entire life had she felt as ashamed as she did this minute. Ashamed, of course, for having doubted her darling.

Dottie swept into the flat with a contemptuous glance.

"Same old dump," she said scathingly. "Gee, maybe I'm not glad to be out of it! How've you been, Jen?"

Jenny said, "Fine, darling," and kissed the girl's cheek, "But I thought you had forgotten all about me."

Dottie shook her head.

"By no means," she said. "I've thought of you often. I've wanted to do something for you. That's why I've come today, to help you."

Jenny beamed. Such gratitude! But then deep in her heart she had always believed that Dottie would repay her for all she had done.

"Yes, Jenny," Dottie was saying, "I'm going to help you out. In a big house like ours, there's a lot of washing. And from now on, I'm going to see to it that you get that laundry to do!"

(Copyright, 1932, Daily Mirror, Inc.)

Drama

Edmund Lowe, in dramatic film, "Chandu, the Magician," will be on the Fulton screen Thursday.

Football Stars Turn Gladiators

Gene and Jesse Hibbs, star football players on the University of Southern California team, have been selected by Cecil B. DeMille to portray gladiators in Paramount's "The Sign of the Cross." They will bear arms in the combats of the Roman arena.

AT JONASSON'S

Sheer Dress with pattern - plucked transparent velvet full sleeves. Black, Brown, Wine—38-44.

Rough crepe with Nail Heads over the shoulders; nickel belt buckle. Black, Brown, Wine—14-20.

Rough Crepe with detachable satin collar and cuffs; diamant clips. Black, Brown, Green—14-20.

SALE—
Season's Dress Successes

8.95

FIFTH FLOOR

Success doesn't just happen . . . and it doesn't just happen that Jonasson's features these new, Fall dresses that have proved themselves the season's best.

They're adaptations of models that have taken New York's Fifth Avenue by storm.

Come . . . be a successful shopper. We've a whole floor full of fashions for Misses and Women.

Meyer Jonasson's
LIBERTY at OLIVER

Low Round Trip Fares

OVER SUNDAY EXCURSIONS
GOOD IN COACHES ONLY
Leaving Saturday, October 1
Returning Sunday Evening, October 2

$6.50 New York
$6.00 Philadelphia
Lv. Pittsburgh (Penna. Station) 8.10 pm

OUTINGS EVERY SUNDAY
GOOD IN COACHES ONLY

$2.00 CLEVELAND or AKRON
Lv. Pittsburgh ..... 8.00 am
$1.00 NEW CASTLE or YOUNGSTOWN
Lv. Pittsburgh for New Castle 8.35 or 9.40 am
Lv. Pittsburgh for Youngstown 9.40 am

$2.25 JOHNSTOWN
$3.00 CRESSON or ALTOONA
Lv. Pittsburgh ..... 8.00 am
$1.35 CONNELLSVILLE
$1.65 UNIONTOWN
Lv. Pittsburgh ..... 8.45 am
$2.75 CANTON or MASSILLON
Lv. Pittsburgh ..... 8.30 am

Returning Sunday Evening

16-DAY EXCURSIONS
GOOD IN PULLMAN CARS

$16.80 NEW YORK
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7
$12.10 WASHINGTON
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11
$12.00 NIAGARA FALLS
$14.00 TORONTO, CANADA
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

45% Reduction in Regular Round Trip Fares Each Week-End

Reduced Round Trip Week-End Pullman Fares available to WASHINGTON, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA and ATLANTIC CITY

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Everything so new

McCREERY'S
Anniversary

How You Save at This Anniversary Price!

FALL SHOES
Are Cut High On the Instep!

$5.65

And here are the new "high-cut" shoe fashions—oxfords, straps and step-ins—and all much finer shoes than you would usually acquire at this price. Suede, genuine lizard, alligator and suede, and suede and kid. Black and brown.

(McCreery's—Fourth Floor)

Plaid Ponchettes
Are "Knockouts" at This Anniversary Price!

85c

In lively plaids . . and you know how smart plaids are! These ponchettes are a piece of silk with an opening in the middle, you slip them on over your head and tie them at the front and back, and have a cute little blouse with cape sleeves.

(McCreery's—Street Floor)

Reduced for the Anniversary Only!

85c and $1 Lace-Top HOSE
65c

The important new Fall colors are the taupes and browns, you'll find them all in this clear chiffon and semi-service hose.

(McCreery's—Street Floor)

FUR Feature!

Galapin | Electric Seal | Silver Tone Muskrat | Galapin | Natural Tropical Sealskin

Fur Coat Fashions Impossible to Duplicate

$98.95

The furs themselves in these coats would be a golden opportunity for any woman! But such furs in fashions so smart and new are all but unbelievable. Never were such "young" fashions shown in fur coats. Swagger collegiate models—three-quarter or full length. With new details. Sleek furs that drape as effectively as silks. And all this high-fashion, these fine furs—with the added prestige of the McCreery label—at the phenomenal savings this Anniversary offers you! Make up your mind to this—this is the time of your life to have the fur coat of a lifetime!

Silver-Tone Muskrats
Beaver Lapins
Tropical Sealskins
Black Kidskins
Black Pony
Electric Seal

$9.85 DOWN and the balance in easy monthly payments on McCreery's Budget Payment Plan!

(McCreery's—FURS—Third Floor)

Bags like these would ordinarily wear a $5 ticket!

HAND BAGS
$2.65

They're money in your pocketbook at this Anniversary price!

The luxurious bags every woman of taste adores but feels she can seldom afford. Genuine French antelope, soft and rich. The finest pin calf and calf leathers. Sparkling genuine French marcasite and prystal. With smart matching linings, spacious inner compartments, some with zipper closing. Black, brown, navy, green, wine.

(McCreery's—Street Floor)

McCREERY'S 28th Anniversary Sale!

ROSH HASHANAH BEGINS FRIDAY AT SUNSET

Rosh Hashanah, holiday marking the advent of the Jewish New Year—5693—will begin at sunset Friday, with religious services to be held Saturday in all the synagogues of the world.

The Central Conference of American Rabbis and the Union of American Hebrew Congregations called attention to the coming holiday in an announcement today.

Rosh Hashanah is a festival marked by the blowing of the Shofar, or ram's horn. In addition to its joyous and optimistic character, it is one of great solemnity and sacredness.

On Rosh Hashanah, just as on the Christian New Year's day, the worshippers call to mind the misdeeds of the past year with a view to consecrating themselves to a nobler life during the years to come.

The New Year is the beginning of the most sacred of the Jewish holiday seasons. It is the first of the 10 days of penitence, culminating in the Day of Atonement.

A few days after the Day of Atonement, the Feast of Sukkoth (tabernacles) is celebrated during a period of eight days in commemoration of the ancient Palestinian harvest festival and of the wanderings of the Israelites through the wilderness.

SEEK MILLION FOR INDIAN

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—A 90-year-old Creek Indian, Jackson Barnett, who signs checks for thousands of dollars with a thumb print, today was involved in another legal fight over his wealth, derived from Oklahoma oil lands.

Barnett was in court with his wife, Mrs. Anna Laura Lowe Barnett, as a result of the United States government's effort to force restoration of $1,000,000 to the Indian's estate. While Barnett, adjudged an incompetent, appeared bewildered at the proceedings in the United States Commissioner's Court, Mrs. Barnett was defiant.

Mrs. Barnett was to take the stand at the completion of depositions in the suit of the government against Harold C. McGugin, attorney of Coffeyville, Kans.; Nell Bird McGugin, the McGugin Investment Company and W. S. Keith to restore $150,000 to the estate. McGugin is a Kansas Congressman.

In addition to this suit by the government, as guardian of the Indian, and one to force Mrs. Barnett to restore $550,000, a third suit has been filed seeking the resoration of $300,000 from Mrs. Barnett and her daughter by a previous marriage, Maxine Sturgess.

Eva Davenport, Comedienne, Dies

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Eva Davenport, internationally known as a comedienne, who died in White Plains at the age of 72.

In private life she was the widow of Neil O'Brien. Her successes were made in "The Student Prince," "The Kiss Waltz," "Lady Jane," and "Yankee Consul."

Wrecked Pilot

PAUL REEDER

Pilot Reeder, whose westbound New York-Cleveland airmail plane, carrying a 900-pound cargo, crashed in a fog on the Allegheny Mountains today, injuring him.

BELLEVUE SETS TAX PAYMENTS

A resolution authorizing payment of school taxes for 1932 in quarterly installments on a flat rate basis was passed at a special meeting of the Bellevue School Board in the Bellevue High School last night. Under this plan taxes can be paid as follows:

First quarter, on or before October 1, 1932; second, prior to December 1; third, prior to February 1, 1933, and fourth, prior to April 1.

Payment of the first, if made before October 1, will carry no penalties. If not, the entire tax will become delinquent October 1, and a penalty of 5 per cent will be added.

Venizelos to Ask Monarchists Yield

ATHENS, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Premier Venizelos was assured today of 100 seats in the Greek Parliament against 90 for the Monarchists as returns from Sunday's election became more nearly complete.

He also will have a large majority in the Senate and indicated he would ask the President of the republic to invite the Monarchist party to recognize the republic.

MINE SLAYING PROBE PUSHED

ATHENS, O., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—With two mine guards in jail on manslaughter charges, Athens County authorities today planned a sweeping investigation of the fatal shooting of an 18-year-old youth as he stood in his home near the No. 267 mine of the Ohio Colleries Company at Hollister.

The guards, Kenneth Bartug, 31, of Shadyside, and Edward Bass, 36, of Canton, were arrested late yesterday after Ohio National Guardsmen closed the mine at the order of Gov. White.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Officials of the United Mine Workers of America said today no further attempts to reopen the mines near here would be made "until the situation changes" in this section, where rival factions of coal diggers recently clashed.

Twenty-five members of the United Mine Workers of America, including organizers and officials, were at liberty today on bonds of $1,000 each pending grand jury action on charges of inciting riots. They were arrested Sunday night following the street riot in which a policeman was killed, two miners seriously injured and a score more cut and bruised.

Melons Extinguish Automobile Blaze

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—R. J. Quigley used a sackful of watermelons last night to extinguish a fire which started in the motor of his car after it overturned. He crawled from the machine just in time to halt the blaze with well aimed melons.

Trees to Shelter Birds Urged By Pinchot

HARRISBURG, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Friday, October 21, has been designated by Gov. Pinchot, in a proclamation, as fall arbor and bird day.

Urging that trees planted on that day be dedicated to the memory of George Washington, he suggested elm, birch, maple, cherry, mulberry, dogwood, mountain ash, juniper, pine, hemlock and spruce trees be planted extensively to provide shelter and food for birds.

MONKS' WIFE GOES ON TRIAL

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The strange case of Allan Bradford Monks, member of a prominent Boston family, was revived today with the trial of Mrs. Antoinette Giraude Monks, his wife, on a charge of issuing worthless checks.

The prosecutor said Mrs. Monks, who is expected to take the stand, will be asked to explain how her husband, recently adjudged insane, came to sign the checks when he was allegedly under the influence of narcotics and suffering from "imprisonment and lack of food."

Mrs. Monks is alleged to have cashed checks drawn on an account formerly maintained in a Boston bank by Monks. Her uncle, Wiley Lee Watson, is also a defendant in the case.

Monks will be a witness, having been brought here from the state hospital at Norwalk.

DIVORCE GIVEN ENGINEER

Roger Myron Hinckley, electrical engineer, of 131 Schley avenue, Ingram, granted a divorce from Sabella B. Hinckley, Trumansburg, N. Y., by Judge S. J. Snee in Common Pleas Court, testified he came home from work June 15, 1930, and found his wife and her personal belongings gone. He said he did not know where she had gone and charged desertion.

Divorce suits were filed by Louis Sargeant against Marion Sargeant, Robert P. Hoffman against Marion Hoffman, Emile Lambermont against Celia Lambermont, Sally Weinberger against Alec Weinberger, Madoline Geib against Norman Geib, Dora W. Barton against Alfred T. Barton.

Move for New Trial In Slaying Delayed

GREENSBURG, Pa., Sept. 27.—Arguments for a new murder trial for Tony Alessio, Monessen, ward political leader and former bodyguard to Mayor Carl Woodward, originally slated for today, have been continued until Saturday, due to the absence of Judge C. D. Copeland, who is holding court in Pittsburgh this week.

Alessio was convicted with life imprisonment in the shooting of Ralph Masco at Monessen.

20 Killed as Fire Sweeps Polish Town

WARSAW, Poland, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Twenty persons were killed and 350 houses were burned today in a fire that destroyed the town of Rubel in South Poland. The blaze was started by a bolt of lightning.

TIN SHOP FIRE ROUTS SCORES

Fire in the tin shop of John H. Bostwick & Son, 413 Blackberry street, McKeesport, late yesterday, damaged the building $3,000 and drove scores of persons from stores and other business houses in the district. The blaze was started, firemen believed, by combustion in the rear of the place, where paint was stored.

Thick clouds of smoke rolled from the building and hung over the district, clearing many buildings in the vicinity.

OVER SUNDAY EXCUSIONS

Round Trip SAT., OCT. 1

$3.75 TOLEDO

$4.50 DETROIT

REGULAR TRAIN

Lv. Pittsburgh.....11:45 P. M.

Coach Excusion Every Sunday

$2.00 Round Trip

CLEVELAND

$1.00 { Youngstown / New Castle

REGULAR TRAIN

Lv. Pittsburgh.....8:05 A. M.

Consult Ticket Agents

PITTSBURGH AND LAKE ERIE R. R.

National Credit Chief Credo Club Speaker

"Assuming Command of Credit Controls" was to be the subject of an address by E. Don Ross, of Portland, Ore., president of the National Association of Credit Men, at a membership rally of the Credo Club in Kaufmann's today. Ross has been an active member of the Portland Chamber of Commerce for many years.

TIRES Niedringhaus BATTERIES

Baum Boulevard at St. Clair (2 Stores) Allies Boulevard at Grant

Montrose 6425—Never Closed Court 2700—7 a. m. to 6 p. m.

SPECIAL

Brakes Relined and Adjusted

$7.50

FORDS & CHEVYS

OTHER CARS IN PROPORTION

All-Car Special!

$1.95

Complete Lubrication and Oil Change, 5 Qts.

A Guaranteed 13-Plate BATTERY

As Low As $4.95

TRADE-IN PRICE

U. S. TIRES

Size	Guard Pair Price	Peerless Pair Price
29x4.40—21	$3.98	$5.25
30x4.50—21	4.47	5.95
28x4.75—19	5.13	6.82
29x5.00—19	5.38	7.15
30x5.00—20	5.50	7.29
31x5.25—21	6.68	8.68
29x5.50—19	8.63	9.17
32x6.00—20	8.84	11.70

These Astonishing Prices Include Mounting at Your Home, At Our Stores, or Out on the Road.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

THE RAID ON THE SABINE WOMEN

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by Saul Tepper...inspired by the story of the Roman warriors' ruthless capture of the Sabine village for the express purpose of carrying off its women (290 B. C.).

—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes

They are not present in Luckies ...the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted"

That package of mild Luckies

"If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse-trap than his neighbor, tho he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON.

Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?

Copr. 1932, The American Tobacco Co.

Coupon for Valuable Premiums in every package

Better in these 4 ways

Mother's Oats gives richer flavor ... finer nourishment than other oatmeals because of the exclusive Quaker process which includes:

1—The use of choicest oats.

2—Better flavor due to roasting through 10 different ovens.

3—Further enrichment by the use of modern ultra violet rays. U. S. Patent No. 1,680,818.

And

30 to 40% more oatflakes than some millers pack.

Now at lowest price in 20 years

MOTHER'S OATS

2 Kinds: Regular and Quick Cooking

TELL IT TO SALLY

Follow This Unusual Feature Day by Day

By SALLY MARTIN

Don't Give Weakling Chance To Run Your Life

Are you listening to some big blubber tell you how his wife "doesn't understand him," and are you taking him seriously?

Or are you doing a little thinking?

A Thomas Cat like that has Merle on his string, and he has almost convinced her that he is terribly abused and just can't get along without her.

But so far he hasn't said anything about giving up the Missis and his happy home; so Merle doesn't know what to do.

"Dear Miss Martin:

"I guess you will think that I am in a terrible mess, and I can't say that I am not; but I hope you will help me, because I am dreadfully unhappy, and I don't know anyone to turn to.

The truth, right out, is that I am in love with a married man. I didn't know he was married at first. I met him when he came into the office where I worked. Then one night I went to a party given by a friend, and there he was.

"He seemed to like me, and I like him, too, so when he asked if he could see me again I said 'yes.' We went out together several times and I began to realize that I cared for him. Then, one night, he confessed he was married, and begged me to not stop seeing him because he was so terribly unhappy. He said his wife didn't understand him like I did, and that I was the only thing that made him able to keep going.

STILL SEEING HIM

"I was terribly upset, but I was terribly sorry for him. That, and the fact that I really loved him, kept me from sending him away, as I would have sent anyone else. For, please believe me, I never knowingly went out with a married man before. I am not that sort.

"Now I don't know what to do. He comes to me, he says, to get a few hours of happiness. He has said that he and his wife never got along, and that they don't love each other. He has said, too, that when he could he would get a divorce, but so far he hasn't made any move to do that. I know it would cost a good deal, and he would have to take care of his child, too, so I have kept on seeing him. I have faith in him, but now I am beginning to wonder what it is all coming to.

"What shall I do? I feel as if it would just break my heart to give him up. I know it would hurt him terribly, too, if I sent him away. Do you think I should believe him and hang on? I am so confused and unhappy that I can't seem to think straight. Please help me. I need it so. "MERLE."

HE SHOULD ACT

Yes, youngster, that's a hard spot for any soft-hearted girl to be in.

But you don't need to be softheaded as well as soft-hearted; and there's no law against doing a little thinking, even if your heart is going pit-a-pat.

So sit down and face a few facts.

Maybe he isn't understood. Maybe his wife is unworthy of him, and he's wasting his life by staying with her. All right! Then it's up to him to do something about it, instead of just wheezing to you.

For if he can't do anything about it—if he hasn't gumption enough to run his own life—do you want to give him the job of running yours?

And if he really loved you, wouldn't he be trying to do something, instead of just moanin'?

You can just bet he would, youngster. So put it up to him squarely. Make him fish or cut bait. And if he refuses, show him the door.

Yes, I know you think your heart will be broken—but it won't. When you see what a wilted waffle he proves to be, you'll be tickled pink to think he's blotto, and you'll be all set to go get yourself a new and regular man.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Taste, Not Money, Counts Most in Buying Clothes, Says Fay King

By FAY KING

It is not the money but the taste that one puts into clothes that counts.

An inexpensive dress of the proper color and line will look smarter than the most costly gown of the wrong color and an unbecoming line.

A girl I once knew who always looked so attractive, and who I knew did not have over much money for clothes, told me that never did she wear more than two colors at the same time.

I then observed that this was true.

Another friend I have has worn nothing but browns since I have known her. It becomes her, and all her dresses and coats and furs are of varying shades of brown only, from light tans to deepest shades of brown.

Household Hints

Next Day's Luncheon

Find some way of using the leftover fish the next day. It should never be kept longer than that even if it looks all right, as the decay starts close to the bone and no sign may be visible.

Hot Water and Chamois

Almost everyone knows that a chamois will clean windows better than anything else, but have you ever tried using hot water in conjunction with the chamois? Your windows will dry with a beautiful polish.

How to Keep Well

By DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND

There Are Many Things That Cause Loss of Hair

Loss of hair is one of the most common of human experiences. A great deal has been written about this trouble. Much of it must be taken with a grain of salt.

Dr. Copeland

Some authorities believe baldness is due to an impairment of the cells of the hair. Others claim that it is caused by a disease or abnormality of the scalp.

Throughout life there is always more or less loss of hair, but few have occasion to worry about this because constant replacements are made in most cases.

There are cases in which the exact cause of loss of hair cannot be determined, but generally it can be definitely attributed to some disturbance of health.

"Congenital alopecia" is a condition in which a child is born without hair. The cause of this condition is not known, but it is believed to be hereditary, for it certainly appears to run in families. These children grow to maturity without hair and are bald-headed throughout life.

"Alopecia areata," or loss of hair in patches, has been known for many centuries, and was first described by Celsus, a Greek physician, in the year 53 B. C. Little has been contributed since that time toward the understanding or treatment of this disorder, in which there are patches varying in size and shape that contain no hair whatever. Often there is a regrowth of hair in these patches, but the hairs that come in are usually white. No doubt many of my readers have observed this condition. It is not limited to the scalp, but may occur in the beard or the eyebrows.

Infection is the most common cause of loss of hair and usually it is caused by a parasite. It may be associated with ringworm. It is almost exclusively a disease of childhood.

"Tinea capitis" is the technical term used for infections of the hairs of the scalp. The modern treatment of tinea capitis is removal of all the hair by carefully measured X-ray treatment. When proper precautions are taken and there is no re-infection, the new hairs that grow will be free from infection.

Another disease caused by a germ, which is seen in adult life as well as in childhood, is called "tinea favus." In this, a yellow crust forms on the scalp and there is marked loss of hair. This disease has favorably responded to modern forms of treatment.

Of "seborrhoea," the familiar trouble universally called "dandruff," the cause is not definitely known. It is most common in adults, and unless properly treated leads to loss of hair. Unfortunately, most persons neglect dandruff. Poor manner of living, unhygienic care of the scalp and carelessness in the use of hairbrushes and combs are a few of the many factors responsible for dandruff. Keep your brush and comb clean, and do not permit others to use them.

There are various forms of alopecia, or loss of hair, which is usually a symptom of some local disease of the scalp. It may occur after diseases that are accompanied by fever, such as influenza, typhoid and pneumonia.

As we grow older our hair naturally becomes thin. Baldness occurs in both men and women, but is more pronounced in men. Some become bald at an early age; others, never. If you have any disorder of the scalp, consult with your physician. Proper and immediate care is an important step in preserving your hair.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Contract Bridge

HOW TO PLAY and HOW TO WIN

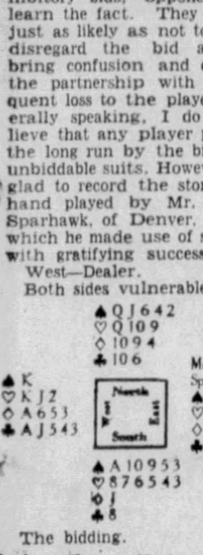
By JOSEPHINE CULBERTSON

Deceptive Tactics

When the Responding Hand to the Opening bidder knows positively that there is a "fit" in a suit, he may be pardoned for departing from conventional methods of conveying information and seeking to obscure the hand pattern and the honor holding by bidding a suit in which he is weak, in order, if possible, to inhibit a favorable lead. However, the use of this strategy is not to be generally recommended nor frequently followed, because if a player makes a practice of making these inhibitory bids, opponents soon learn the fact. They are then just as likely as not to entirely disregard the bid and thus bring confusion and defeat to the partnership with a consequent loss to the players. Generally speaking, I do not believe that any player profits in the long run by the bidding of unbiddable suits. However, I am glad to record the story of the hand played by Mr. R. Dale Sparhawk, of Denver, Colo., in which he made use of such bids with gratifying success.

West—Dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.



The bidding.

South	West	North	East
	1 ♣	Pass	2 ◇
Pass	3 ◇	Pass	3 ♠ (1)
Pass	4 ◇ (2)	Pass	7 ♣ (3)
Double	Pass	Pass	Pass

1—Mr. Sparhawk explained that a game at clubs was certain, with a Slam probable if spades were not led. He already knew of the fit of the hands in clubs and diamonds, and thus, if his partner held strength in hearts, the lead of a spade could be prevented and his losing spades could be discarded on hearts in the closed hand. The risk in the bid was in finding length in spades rather than hearts in the West hand, and in this case, whether or not spades were led, there would be no place to dispose of the losers.

2—West probably should have bid three notrump. His hand was but slightly above minimum strength and certainly did not especially suggest Slam possibilities in view of any lack of knowledge as to the fit in clubs.

3—Mr. Sparhawk explained that inasmuch as his partner had twice assisted his diamonds, he felt sure that he held the diamond Ace, with not less than four cards in the suit. However, the success of this bid did not depend alone upon preventing the Opening lead of the spade, but required as well that West hold not more than two spades originally, or that he hold the King-Queen of hearts with a small one, so that the two spades in Dummy might be discarded.

The measures adopted by Mr. Sparhawk in bidding this hand, while successful in this instance, are not to be generally commended nor followed. The Grand Slam should not have been bid, even though it was made, as had the leader held the Ace of spades, it is almost certain that against a Grand Slam contract he would have led it in any event, and even if it were not led, the make-up of East's hand was such as to suggest the improbability of making all 13 tricks, regardless of the lead. The fact that without a spade lead 13 tricks were available was a matter of good luck.

Mr. Sparhawk, in submitting the hand, stated that he had just finished reading a recent book on advanced Bridge play and that he was desirous of applying some of the advanced Bridge knowledge he had absorbed from that source. He therefore tried one of the deceptive (though entirely logical) bids recommended in that book, with the most gratifying results. He added that perhaps he was a little optimistic in his bidding, but that at any rate he got his money's worth out of the thrill attendant on the making of the Slam. I feel quite sure he was optimistic, but then optimists usually find that things work out in such a way as to justify their optimism.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Mrs. Culbertson will be glad to answer any specific question on bidding or play sent in by readers. Address her in care of this newspaper, inclosing a three-cent stamped self-addressed envelope.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Do the following hands contain an Opening bid?

♠ J 5 4 ♡ A K Q 7 4 2 ◇ 7 5 3 ♣ 5
♠ A Q 7 6 3 2 ♡ K 8 3 ◇ J 10 ♣ 6 2

Answer: These two hands are not Opening bids according to the Approach-Forcing System, but are good Secondary bids, the principle being that on the basis of the Rule of Eight, each player's share in honor-tricks around the table is two, and in order to open the bidding, the player should have better than his share—that is, 2½.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Correct Manners

By MRS. CORNELIUS BEECKMAN

Table Manners

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

1—Is it correct to cut up all your meat before you begin to eat it?

2—Is it ever correct to eat fried chicken in your fingers? Even when your hostess suggests it? And how about chops . . . may they ever be taken in the fingers to eat them?

3—How should I eat steamed clams? I am very fond of them, but find them indeed a "difficult food."

4—If one gets a fish bone or a bit of meat bone or a piece of shell in one's mouth, what is the best way to remove it?

CLARA.

1—No. Don't do all your cutting first, and then your eating! Cut off one piece of meat, a small mouthful, and eat this before you cut off the next piece.

2—Well, at a picnic we will probably have to eat our fried chicken in our fingers . . . this is a good excuse! But except for this occasion, never eat fried chicken in your fingers . . . at least in public.

If your hostess suggests that it is "all right" to take the chicken in your fingers, remember that she really doesn't mean it, if she is well bred.

And as for chops—just substitute this word for "fried chicken" in the foregoing.

3—Dip the steamed clam, with the fingers, into melted butter, holding the clam by the neck and biting off the edible part, then discarding the skin.

4—Take any "accidental" piece of this kind between the first finger and thumb and remove it from the lips. Don't hide the operation behind the napkin! And don't take it on to your fork or spoon. Use your fingers.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

(Advertisement)

How Do Women in the Movies Manage?

Filming a picture means weeks of work without a pause. The star can't stop because she is "indisposed!" Monthly sickness does not excuse her. If you know some woman who is in pictures, she will tell you how Hollywood women manage during those pain periods. Try to find even an "extra" girl who doesn't carry Midol with her!

Midol was a marvelous discovery. It isn't harmful. It isn't a narcotic. But it acts in seven minutes—ends all pain or discomfort for hours at a stretch! Just ask for Midol at any drug store.

The Beauty Box

By HELEN FOLLETT

Corns are produced by pressure of the shoe. Nature, seeking to protect the flesh, piles up the cuticle to form a cushion.

Efforts to revive the windblown bob haven't made much headway. With ragged sidelocks turned forward over the cheek there is absent that sleek neatness which is a forceful element in the coiffure design of today. The old blown is reminiscent of the scrambled hairdress of the past before the bob shook the world apart and put it together again.

Rounded shoulders, slumped-in chests, protruding tummies are nearly always self-inflicted penalties paid by the woman who is too lazy to carry her body properly. Beauty of figure is a more youthful quality than freshness of complexion, and it is a pity that more women don't put their minds on the business of cultivating charming posture. It is merely a matter of keeping the chest lifted, the backbone strong, abdominal muscles pulled in tight, step quick and springy. Good, too, for well-being of inner organs.

Frank & Seder

4-pc. Swagger SUIT with Raccoon Collar!

What a lot of Style and Fashion (not to mention what a lot of wardrobe) for less than a twenty dollar bill!

The new ⅞ swagger length coat, with a rich Raccoon collar, slim-hip skirt, knitted sweater and smart hat . . . fashioned of Imported Tweeds.

$19.75

African Brown or Hunter Green Mixtures in Misses' sizes 12 to 20.

SECOND FLOOR

FRANK & SEDER

Surpassing New Fall Dresses

$8.95

Pittsburgh's most comprehensive selection at this price! Think of it . . . 52 styles! 17 sizes!

Street Dresses! Afternoon Dresses! Flattering Sunday Night Models!

They're New! They're Smart! . . . You'll find many of the finer fashions you've seen at twice this price!

Rough Silks! Sheers! Satins! Velvet Trimmings! Nailhead Trimmings! Plenty of black! And all the new fall shades!

SECOND FLOOR

$25 Never Bought as Fine a Raccoon Trimmed Coat as this!

Last year, coats like these were 39.75! To see them, is to buy them . . . they're really so irresistible!

An extraordinary selection of smart, swanky fashions in rich Monotones and English Tweeds, trimmed with huge pouch collars of deep, dark Racoon.

SECOND FLOOR

$16.50

Buys more style and value in coats than you ever thought possible!

An unusually large and smart collection of tweeds, monotones, wrinkle and showerproof twisted tweeds, Cordovan, 100% Camel's Hair, all at this low price —$16.50.

My, what a grand selection you'll find at Frank & Seder! Coats that will hold their own on any campus, coats you'll want for business, street and sports wear, coats you can wear smartly until fur-coat time! Coats with authentic 1933 newness, new sleeve details, new fastenings . . . some with snappy little hats, others with dashing scarfs. Choose yours, tomorrow, in brown, beige, tan, blue, green and oxford.

Misses', Juniors', Women's & Little Women's Sizes

SECOND FLOOR

Frank & Seder

9 MONTH SCHOOL SEASON IDEA GIVEN UP

No effort will be made to change the Pittsburgh public school year from 10 to nine months, Attorney N. R. Criss said today.

Attorney Criss, who is chairman of the finance committee of the Board of Public Education, declared:

"Following the suggestion several weeks ago that it would be interesting to obtain the public's reaction to the proposition, some have approved the suggested plan, as a way to keep down taxes and others have protested against it. I have talked to some members of the board about it and I do not believe it will even come before them for discussion.

"No civic body has been heard from and the objections apparently outweigh any suggestions in that direction. One man wrote that taxpayers with children, would not receive any benefit, for what might be saved in decreased taxation, would be spent during the idle months, for candry and amusements."

Mr. Criss remarked several weeks ago, that since $1,000,000 a year would be saved in teachers' salaries, through a nine-month plan he thought the proposition at least worth discussing.

The board, he said, hopes to make a reduction in taxes for 1933. He says:

"The budget will be ready for consideration about the middle of October. We are reducing expenses and expect to continue to do so, but as taxes are coming in slower than expected, our task to keep the millage at even the present level, is going to be a difficult one."

NEW AIR STAMP RECEIVED

Pittsburgh stamp collectors were given a double thrill today upon receipt of the Postoffice Department sponsored cachet for the dedication of the new Postoffice Department Building at Washington, and, probably in the same mail, covers with the new pale yellow 8-cent airmail stamp issued at Washington for the first time yesterday. Many of the air mails also included the cachet.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon President Hoover officiated at the laying of the cornerstone of the new Postoffice Department Building, following which the name of the station was changed to "Benjamin Franklin" Station. All of these letters were given a five o'clock postmark so that the air mails with the new 8-cent stamp, Inaugural Benjamin Franklin postmark and government commemorative cachet make one of the most unique and interesting covers of the year. Many members of the Sunday Sun-Telegraph Stamp Collectors took advantage of this opportunity to add a cover of special value to their collections.

The 8-cent airmail stamp has just come out of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving to fill the demand created by the recent raise in airmail rates from 5 cents to 8 cents. On account of this new rate the old 5-cent airmail stamp will be used exclusively for extra weight letters where the postage calls for 13 cents, 3 cents now being the minimum rate. The new 8-cent stamp went on sale at the Pittsburgh Postoffice this morning for the first time and was greeted by a brisk demand.

OBITUARY

Smith Funeral.

Funeral services for Wilfred L. Smith, 62, prominent in construction projects throughout the county for 25 years, who died Sunday night in his home, 131 South Lexington avenue, will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. with mass at Sacred Heart Church. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery. Mr. Smith, a native of Pittsburgh, was graduated from Duquesne University and later attended Columbia University in New York. He was associated with the firm of J. K. Davison & Brother, in the sand and gravel business for more than 25 years, and had taken an active part in charitable organizations. He leaves his widow, a brother, Frank, and a sister, Mrs. Frank X. Behen, of Pittsburgh.

The
HARRISBURGER
HARRISBURG, PA.
Opposite Beautiful
CAPITOL PARK

You are sure to have a pleasant stay at this friendly, comfortable hotel, centrally and conveniently located. Excellent restaurant at moderate prices.

Room Tariff that is Moderate
Room with Lavatory
For One $2.50 and $3.00 — For Two $4.50
Room with Shower Bath
$3.00 and $3.50 — $5.00 to $6.00
Room with Tub Shower
$3.50 and $4.00 — $5.50 to $6.00
Twin Bed Room with Tub Shower Bath $6.00
Every Room with Full Outside Exposure
Circulating Ice Water — Mirrored Doors
Garage Service Convenient
Cars Safely Stored No Delivery Charge

The HARRISBURGER
HARRISBURG, PA.
Direction American Hotels Corporation

Brewmasters Shun Prohibition Talk In Convention

DETROIT, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—If a brewers' convention declares against prohibition that's to be expected.

But when a brewers' convention declines even to discuss the matter, that's news.

And that's what the first convention held by the Master Brewers' Association since 1915 has done. After a business session lasting only half an hour, the 200 or more masters of a prohibited but still cherished art, settled down to the business of enjoying themselves.

But nobody would talk about prohibition.

Tabled were the recommendations of Joseph Obergfeld, representative of the American Federation of Labor, who urged the convention to demand immediate modification of the Eighteenth Amendment.

MIX ASKS DELAY IN ERIE SUIT

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—A delay is being sought in the retrial of Col. Zack Miller's damage suit against Tom Mix, cowboy actor.

W. Pitt Gifford, the latter's counsel, said he is preparing a motion to postpone the hearing to the December term of court on the ground Mix is making a picture, while Mrs. Mix, a principal witness, is ill.

Miller was awarded $90,000 in his $350,000 suit recently, but he appealed and a new trial was granted. He charges a contract between Mix and the 101 Ranch Shows, owned by Miller, was broken.

KILLER OF BRIDE GETS TERM IN PRISON

COUDERSPORT, Pa., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Pleading guilty to second degree murder for killing his bride of two months, Walter Lederer was sentenced yesterday by Judge Robert Lewis to 10 to 20 years in the Western Penitentiary.

In a confession, Lederer said he killed his bride, the former Dorothy Vosburg, because he feared hard times and was afraid of the future.

On June 18, while motoring through a Potter County forest, Lederer confessed, he shot his wife, intending to kill himself. His courage failed and he threw away his pistol. With his wife's body in the rear of the car, he drove to his father's home to get another gun, but failed to find it and returned to the scene of the shooting.

From there, he said, he went to a camp and again tried to commit suicide, but lost his nerve once more. Then he accepted a "lift" from two Coudersport newspapermen and told them of the slaying, asking to be taken to jail.

Meanwhile, his wife's father and brother, searching for her, found her body in the car.

Leviathan Docks After Rough Voyage

CHERBOURG, France, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The United States liner Leviathan arrived yesterday after a stormy passage from New York.

Alumni of Three Schools Plan Ball

Alumni of Allegheny, Perry and Oliver High schools will hold an interscholastic ball Friday night in the Grotto Temple, 107 East Montgomery avenue. Committee members include John T. McMahon, Homer Bebb, James N. Murray, Thomas Glenn, Hugh Beals, Ruth Waag, Kathleen Smillie, Eugene Schaeffer, Louis T. McMahon and representatives of high Schools in the North Boroughs.

PLAYWRIGHT ENDS LIFE

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Anthony Paul Kelly, who wrote "Three Faces East," has gone "west," leaving a note of despondency and attributing his suicide to an incurable lung ailment.

He was found asphyxiated in a small apartment yesterday, and there was a short letter addressed to the police and beginning:

"This is a plain case of suicide."

Following the production of "Three Faces East," which was a stage hit of more than a decade ago, Kelly became a successful scenario writer in Hollywood. Illness interrupted his activities, and he has written nothing for several years.

With his note he left a sum of money to pay his hotel bill and a $20 bill which he asked be used for some charity.

Beside his body in the gas-filled room lay the manuscript of his biggest success—"Three Faces East."

FATHER JAILED IN BOY'S DEATH

DETROIT, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—The strange death of 7-year-old Fred Viola, who was found sitting in a chair at his home with his skull fractured and one leg broken, resulted today in the arrest of his stepfather, Frank Moriconi, 34, on suspicion of murder.

The stepfather's arrest followed discovery that he held three recent insurance policies on the boy's life, totaling $1,500.

Theories that the boy was hurt in an automobile accident were blasted when a Coroner's physician reported he died from blows of some heavy instrument which crushed his skull.

His mother, Moriconi's common-law wife, was released. She told detectives the stepfather often beat the child for minor offenses.

Through a night of grilling, Moriconi steadfastly denied all knowledge of the boy's death. He said:

"We were pals; we loved each other."

Man Hurt in Fight, Opponent Jailed

John Kucher, 39, who gave his address as Shanty Town, Chicken Hill, near Banksville, was held in Mt. Washington Police Court this morning pending developments in the condition of Mike Ceder, 59, same address, who is in a serious condition in the South Side Hospital with a fractured skull and fractured shoulder. Ceder is reported by police to have been injured during a fight with Kucher last Sunday.

Mayview Cot Order Put Before Council

City Council's Finance Committee today was to consider an ordinance authorizing advertising for 300 double deck cots for the City Home at Mayview, requested by the Department of Welfare.

Bids on 600 cotton mattresses and 600 feather pillows also will be asked. Estimated cost of the material is $3,000. Much of the equipment will be used in the dormitory now being built under supervision of Richard Neff, city architect.

Merchants Survey N. Y. Population

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—A population of 12,055,187 in the trading area of New York City, including the five city boroughs and 23 suburban counties within a radius of 60 miles, was reported by the Merchants' Association of New York after a study made in cooperation with the Publishers' Association of the city.

The purpose of the survey was to eliminate confusion on this subject and give businessmen authentic information for the solution of their merchandising and distribution problems.

FIRE! In such an emergency you need help quickly . . . A telephone brings it without delay.

Protection

Let a telephone protect your home and family. You can have one for less than a dime a day!

—THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNA.

PITTSBURGH'S NEWEST FURNITURE STORE

Formal Opening Tomorrow, September 28th

A most cordial invitation is extended to all to visit and inspect this new Furniture Mart during opening week or as soon thereafter as possible. Opening week visitors will receive, complimentary, a practical and useful souvenir. Store open daily until 9 P. M.

Radical Departures Make Possible A 20% Saving

With these departures this store inaugurates a new era in furniture retailing—

Quantity buying—Wayside location out of the high rent district—simplified accounting system—and an efficient organization—minimize costs to accomplish the 20% lower prices to customers—

Forty-two years' experience and an acknowledged power in the furniture markets are back of this enterprise—

Fifteen thousand feet of ground floor space, in a 200-foot front building, is devoted exclusively to an attractive display of new furniture—

Twenty-four large windows afford ideal daylight shopping. Brilliant, diffused electric light is equally effective for evening shopping—

Open daily until 9 P.M. Prompt delivery within 50 miles of Pittsburgh, no extra charge.

FALLER'S Wayside Furniture Mart presents radical departures in retailing furniture. It is facilitated to give Pittsburghers and others residing within 50 miles, service that reflects a policy to fully meet the present times and needs.

A strong and commanding position in all furniture markets for more than 42 years, combined with low operating and overhead expense, enables the Wayside Furniture Mart to sell new, high quality merchandise at low prices.

Faller's Wayside Furniture Mart shows only dependable and enduring furniture. Its chief aim is to save customers 20% and more on every purchase—quality for quality considered.

The location, out of the beaten path, on the "Wayside", was selected because of definite shopping advantages—accessible by motor and street car, at less expense than if shopping downtown. Ample, free parking space is available for unlimited time. These, together with other advantages, make shopping here a pleasure as well as an economy.

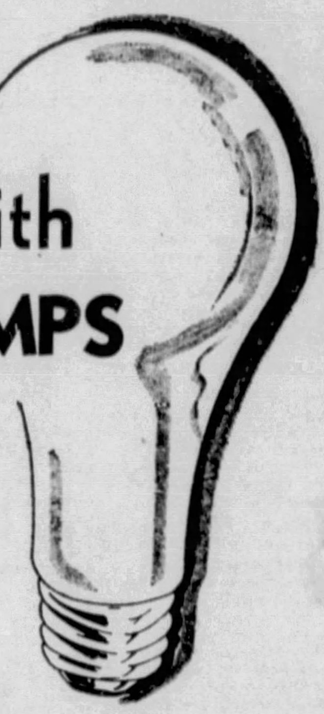
MORE FOR THE SAME MONEY OR THE SAME FOR LESS MONEY

Visitors As Welcome As Customers — Be Our Guests Opening Week
You Will Like This New Kind Of Store

FALLER'S Wayside FURNITURE MART

7301—21 PENN AVE at LEXINGTON - - - PITTSBURGH

Light-up with MAZDA LAMPS



the long-life lamp that gives full value for your money

IT'S the time of year when you begin to think of spending more time indoors . . . when your home will be much more useful. Are you ready for the long evenings . . . evenings made more cozy and comfortable with plenty of light?

Check-up on your lighting facilities. Check-up on the bulbs in your lamps and lighting fixtures. Are they alive and ready for use, or are they dead ones burned out and of no use? Now's the time to fill those empty sockets . . . now's the time to stock-up with Mazdas.

Mazdas are offered at a 10% discount if purchased in carton lots, and packed this way they are convenient to handle or lay away as spares. Order your lamps today.

Visit Your Nearest Hardware, Electric, or Other

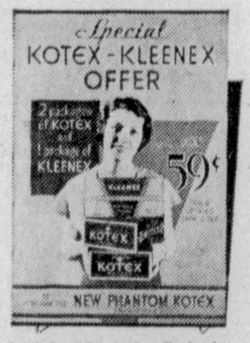
MADZA LAMP DEALERS

ELECTRIC LEAGUE OF PITTSBURGH

Women!

95c Value for 59c

Combination Offer!
Get 2 boxes of New PHANTOM KOTEX and 1 box KLEENEX
95c Value
ALL FOR 59c
to introduce the New PHANTOM KOTEX
KLEENEX
KOTEX
Boxes marked "Form-Fitting" contain Phantom Kotex



Look for this window display in your dealer's window.

This sign tells you where to go for the greatest value you've ever had on Kotex and Kleenex . . . indispensable accessories to every woman's comfort, fine grooming.

2 BOXES of KOTEX and 1 box of KLEENEX—3 items for less than the price of 2!

PHANTOM (form-fitting) KOTEX
Revolutionary, new!
There is no other pad like it!

The New Phantom Kotex—form-fitting, embossed, tapered, sanitary pad is made to fit—without any outlines—even under smoothest fitting dresses. You've never known perfect sanitary comfort like this before. There's nothing else remotely like it — U. S. Patent No. 1,857,854.

KLEENEX TISSUES
(Disposable)

You know KLEENEX, the softest, yet strongest, absorbent tissues. Invaluable for handkerchiefs . . . to remove cold cream . . . as a substitute for linen, towels, napkins . . . for dozens of home and office uses.

Don't delay. Go to your dealer now! Buy your Phantom Kotex and Kleenex today, while supplies last at this special price!

Kotex Company, 180 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

At all drug, dry goods, and department stores

WORLD SERIES RIVALS -:- Abe Lyman Returns In New Program -:- ON THE AIR TONIGHT

Joe M'Carthy, Grimm Guests Of Bernie

The rival World Series managers, Joe McCarthy, of the Yankees, and Charlie Grimm, of the Chicago Cubs, will be interviewed on the eve of the opening battle of the annual baseball classic when Hal Totten, celebrated baseball announcer and former newspaperman, introduces them over a coast-to-coast NBC network as guests on Ben Bernie's "Old Alma Malta" broadcast, heard over WCAE at 9 o'clock tonight.

Charlie Grimm

The two managers will cut in on Bernie's gags and music just long enough to answer the questions Totten has prepared for them. Totten, who has known both men personally for years, will conduct the interview in New York, while Bernie's portion of the program will originate in Detroit. Totten will be one of the announcers in the broadcast of the world series games starting tomorrow.

Abe Lyman and his Californians return to the air in a new series of tri-weekly broadcasts over a Columbia chain and WJAS tonight at 8. The programs, to be heard each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at the same hour, also will include guest appearances by celebrated motion picture and stage stars.

* * *

Program Pointers

Thomas D. Baker, president of the Carnegie Institute of Technology, discusses the subject, "Pittsburgh as an Educational Center as Compared with Other Cities of the World," when he speaks from the studios of KDKA tonight at 7:15. His address is one of a series dealing with the educational and industrial advantages of Pittsburgh . . . Leon Rothier, basso of the Metropolitan Opera Company, is presented as guest soloist with Cesare Sodero and the NBC Symphony Orchestra during the NBC Artists' Service program on WCAE tonight at 8:30. He is considered one of the greatest bassos of the day and has been a member of the Metropolitan since 1910.

Dr. Baker

Dr. Herman N. Bundesen's dramatized "Adventures in Health" talks, long popular with CBS listeners, switches to an NBC network beginning tonight. His discussion, heard on KDKA at 8:30, deals with "Reducing without Starvation."

"The Curse of the Rockavilles," a story of lost inheritance, murder and revenge, is the Crime Club presentation on WJAS at 9:30.

The story of a daring bank holdup in the Bronx and of a lost straw hat which furnished the only clue, "Gang in Blue Glasses" is dramatized as a highlight of the dance hour on WCAE at 10. Jack Denny provides the rhythm.

A fight-to-the-finish, catch-as-catch-can wrestling match between Sooty and Boxcar Jinks is heard during the "Friendship Town" sketch on KDKA at 9:30.

Celebrating "College Night," Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit offer a varied program of college songs and collegiate hits on WCAE at 8.

A round table discussion of "Constructive Economy in State and Local Government" by five of the country's foremost educational leaders is scheduled at 8 p. m. on KDKA.

A program of classical music featuring Dahlmeyer Russell, Dr. Charles N. Boyd, William H. Oetting, Cass Ward Whitney, Roy Shoemaker, Gaylord Yost and Samuel Kliachko is heard on WWSW at 7:45.

"How to Help the Unemployed" is the topic of an address by Harry W. Shepard, secretary of the Association for the Improvement of the Poor, on WCAE at 6:45 tonight.

"Wanted—1,000 Executives," is the topic of an address by Robert F. Heywang, president of the Pittsburgh Advertising Club, during KQV's "Pittsburgh Today" presentation tonight at 9 o'clock. Mr. Heywang tells what 1,000 executives could do to restore prosperity.

Tuesday, Sept. 27.

5:30 P. M.
WCAE—Skippy.
KDKA—The Singing Lady.
WJAS—"Kiss and Jail"—Arthur Somers Roche.
KQV—Regis Wilson, tenor.
WWSW—News; Items of Interest.

5:45 P. M.
WCAE—Home Circle.
KDKA—Little Orphan Annie.
WJAS—Musical Comedy Memories.
KQV—Jack and Tony.
WWSW—Walt and Dutch.

6:00 P. M.
WCAE—Program Announcement; Uncle Bob and Betty.
KDKA—Sport Review; News; Weather.
WJAS—World Series Talk.
KQV—Rita Claire Layton.
WWSW—Weather; Hines Colored Orchestra.

6:15 P. M.
WCAE—Sert Room Orchestra.
KDKA—Atkinson String Quartet.
WJAS—Reis and Dunn.
KQV—Scalzo's Ensemble.
WWSW—Orchestra (cont'd).

6:30 P. M.
WCAE—The Globe Trotter of the Sun-Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News.
KDKA—Sheer Romance.
WJAS—Jimmy Murray's Sports Chat.
KQV—Ensemble (cont'd).
WWSW—Sport Calendar.

TEN BEST BETS

7:30—WCAE—Ray Perkins.
8:00—KDKA—Your Government.
8:30—WCAE—Artists Service.
9:00—WCAE—Ben Bernie.
WJAS—Street Singer.
9:30—WCAE—Ed Wynn.
10:00—WCAE—OKeefe, Denny.
11:30—KDKA—Lloyd Huntley.
12:05—WCAE—Paul Whiteman.
12:30—WCAE—Don Bestor.

6:45 P. M.
WCAE—Talk by Harry W. Shepard, Secretary and General Manager, Pittsburgh Association for the Improvement of the Poor.
KDKA—Lowell Thomas.
WJAS—Columbia Entertainment.
KQV—Silent until 7:30 P. M.
WWSW—David S. Patterson—The Park Bench Philosopher.

7:00 P. M.
WCAE—Plays and Players—George Seibel.
KDKA—Amos 'n' Andy.
WJAS—"Myrt and Marge."
WWSW—Fred Lotz, organist.

7:15 P. M.
WCAE—Chandu, the Magician.
KDKA—Pittsburgh Industries.
WJAS—Noble Sissle's Orchestra.
WWSW—Fred Lotz (cont'd).

7:30 P. M.
WCAE—Ray Perkins.
KDKA—Stebbins Boys.
WJAS—Noble Sissle (cont'd).
KQV—Modulators Trio.
WWSW—Kitchen Door.

7:45 P. M.
WCAE—The Goldbergs.
KDKA—Red and Ramona.
WJAS—Georgie Price.
"Alone Together"
Music, Music Everywhere.
Georgie Price.
Embarrassments.
Georgie Price.
Medley from "Flying Colors."
Shine On Your Shoes.
Alone Together.
Orchestra.
Impersonation: George Lashwood "I Forgot the Number of My House."
Georgie Price.
I'd Climb the Highest Mountain.
Georgie Price.
KQV—Sports Review.
WWSW—Pittsburgh Musical Institute.

8:00 P. M.
WCAE—Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit.
"My Sweeter Than Sweet"
The Girl Is You, The Boy is Me.
Henderson
Miss Sanderson and Mr. Crumit.
Bill from "Show Boat".....Kern
Miss Sanderson.
All American Girl.
Mr. Crumit.
College Medley.
Orchestra.
Foolish Facts.
Mr. Crumit.
Sweetheart of Sigma Chi.
Miss Sanderson and Mr. Crumit.
Betty Co-Ed—Collegiate.
Round on the End, High in the Middle, Ohio.
Mr. Crumit—Medley.
My Sweeter Than Sweet.....Whiting
Miss Sanderson.
Funiculi Funicula.
Orchestra.
Varsity Drag from "Good News".....Henderson
Miss Sanderson and Mr. Crumit.
KDKA—You and Your Government.
"Constructive Economy in State and Local Government." A Round Table Discussion: Professor Thomas H. Reed, University of Michigan; Professor R. W. Dodds, Princeton University; Dr. Luther Gulick, Institute of Public Administration; Professor Joseph McGoldrick, Columbia University; Miss Dorothy Straus, Chairman, City Affairs Committee, Women's City Club of New York.
WJAS—Abe Lyman's Band.
KQV—Polish Hour.
WWSW—Institute (cont'd).

8:15 P. M.
WCAE—Crumit (cont'd).
KDKA—Your Government (cont'd).
WJAS—Edwin C. Hill.
KQV—Polish Hour (cont'd).
WWSW—News.

8:30 P. M.
WCAE—NBC Artists' Service Bureau.
Leon Rothier, basso, guest; NBC Symphony Orchestra, Cesare Sodero, conducting.
KDKA—Adventures in Health.
"Reducing Without Starvation," Dr. Herman Bundesen, dramatized health helps.
WJAS—Kate Smith.
KQV—Marathon Dance.
WWSW—Schafer-Englert Orchestra.

8:45 P. M.
WCAE—Artists Service (cont'd).
KDKA—Pat Barnes in Person.
WJAS—Musical Fast Freight.
KQV—Radio Show—from Boggs & Buhl.
WWSW—Shafter-Englert (cont'd).

9:00 P. M.
WCAE—Ben Bernie's Orchestra.
Hal Totten interviews Joe McCarthy, Manager of the American League Championship Yankees and Charlie Grimm, Manager of the Cubs National League.
KDKA—Musical Memories.
Orchestra; Alice Mock, soprano; Edgar A Guest, poet, guest; male trio.
"The Desert Song"
Someone to Watch Over Me, from "Oh Kay."
Orchestra and Trio.
Giannina Mia, from "The Firefly."
Soprano solo, Alice Mock.
Whispering.
Orchestra and Trio.
Huckleberry Finn.
Orchestra.
Beautiful Lady, from "Pink Lady."
Orchestra—Intermezzo from "Jewels of the Madonna."
Orchestra.
The Desert Song, from "Desert Song."
Orchestra, Alice Mock, Trio.
The Riff Song, from "Desert Song."
Orchestra, Alice Mock, Trio.
WJAS—Street Singer.
"Swanee River"
I May Never Pass Your Way Again.
Cuban Eyes.
Orchestra.
Why Must I Say Goodbye to My Summer Love?
Marta.
Intermezzo from "Jewels of the Madonna."
Orchestra.
Swanee River.
Foster Air.
Orchestra.
KQV—Pittsburgh Today.
WWSW—Imperial Boys' Quartet.

9:15 P. M.
WCAE—Ben Bernie (cont'd).
KDKA—Memories (cont'd).
WJAS—"Threads of Happiness."
KQV—Players.
WWSW—Quartet (cont'd).

9:30 P. M.
WCAE—Ed Wynn.
KDKA—Friendship Town.
Small-town sketch with Virginia Gardiner, Edith Spencer, Don Garney, Bo Whitney, "Pick" Malone, "Pat" Padgett, Harry Kalter's orchestra; Frank Luther, vocalist.
WJAS—Crime Club.
KQV—Players (cont'd).
WWSW—All Colored Revue.

9:45 P. M.
WCAE—Ed Wynn (cont'd).
KDKA—Friendship Town (cont'd).
WJAS—Crime Club (cont'd).
KQV—Sandlot Gossip.
WWSW—Colored Revue (cont'd).

10:00 P. M.
WCAE—Dance Hour.
With Walter O'Keefe, master of ceremonies; "The Gang in Blue Glasses," police dramatization; Jack Denny and his orchestra from New York; guest orchestra.
KDKA—The Country Doctor.
WJAS—Jay C. Flippen-cies.
KQV—Weather; Silent until 12:00 Midnight.
WWSW—Colored Revue (cont'd).

10:15 P. M.
WCAE—O'Keefe (cont'd).
KDKA—Westinghouse Pioneers.
Gene Rabbitge and J. Dickson Fulton, tenors; Reed Kennedy, baritone, and Russell Mitchell, bass; Amesrin Bodycombe, accompanist and director.
"Three On A Match"
It Was So Beautiful.
Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?
Three on a Match.
How Can I Leave Thee.
WJAS—Flippen-cies (cont'd).
WWSW—Colored Revue (cont'd).

10:30 P. M.
WCAE—O'Keefe (cont'd).
KDKA—Batter Up.
WJJAS—Eddie Duchin (cont'd).
WWSW—News.

10:45 P. M.
WCAE—O'Keefe (cont'd).
KDKA—The Accordion Man.
WJAS—Eddie Duchin's Orchestra.
WWSW—Studio Program.

11:00 P. M.
WCAE—Maestro Joe Hodapp and His Orchestra.
KDKA—Sport Review; Weather; News.
WJAS—Howard Barlow's Orchestra.
WWSW—Weather; Schafer-Englert Orchestra.

11:15 P. M.
WCAE—Joe Hodapp (cont'd).
KDKA—Louise Frayne.
WJAS—Howard Barlow (cont'd).
WWSW—Schafer-Englert (cont'd).

11:30 P. M.
WCAE—Jack Denny's Orchestra.
KDKA—Lloyd Huntley's Orchestra.
WJAS—Eddie Peyton's Orchestra.
WWSW—Good Night.

11:45 P. M.
WCAE—Jack Denny (cont'd).
KDKA—Lloyd Huntley (cont'd).
WJAS—Eddie Payton (cont'd).

12:00 Midnight.
WCAE—Ralph Kirbery — The Dream Singer.
KDKA—Cab Calloway's Orchestra.
WJAS—Good Night.
KQV—Marathon Dance.

12:05 A. M.
WCAE—Paul Whiteman and His Chieftains.

12:15 A. M.
WCAE—Paul Whiteman (cont'd).
KDKA—Cab Calloway (cont'd).
KQV—Marathon (cont'd).

12:30 A. M.
WCAE—Don Bestor's Orchestra.
KDKA—Good Night.
KQV—Red Fluke's Orchestra.

12:45 A. M.
WCAE—Don Bestor (cont'd).
KQV—Red Fluke (cont'd).

1:00 A. M.
WCAE—News Bulletin; Weather.
KQV—Good Night.

EARLY WEDNESDAY PROGRAMS

WCAE
6:45 A. M.—Health Exercises.
8:00 A. M.—Pie Plant Pete.
8:15 A. M.—Organ Rhapsody, Doc Whipple.
8:30 A. M.—Cheerio.
9:00 A. M.—Morning Tunes.
9:05 A. M.—The Globe Trotter of the Sun Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News.
9:15 A. M.—Paramount Trio.
9:30 A. M.—The Market Place—Alice Abbott.
9:45 A. M.—Flying Fingers.
10:00 A. M.—Through Lighted Windows.
10:15 A. M.—Jane Grant's Program.
10:30 A. M.—Genia Fonarova, mezza soprano.
10:45 A. M.—Betty Crocker.
11:00 A. M.—Breen and deRose.
11:15 A. M.—Radio Household Institute.
11:30 A. M.—U. S. Army Band.
12:00 Noon.—Johnny Marvin, tenor.
12:15 P. M.—The Globe Trotter of the Sun-Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News.
12:30 P. M.—On Wings of Song.
1:00 P. M.—World's Series—Chicago Cubs vs. New York Yankees.
4:00 P. M.—Song Souvenirs.
4:30 P. M.—Studio Lights.
5:00 P. M.—Sun-Telegraph Family — Children's Program, Jane A. White, director.
5:30 P. M.—Skippy.
5:45 P. M.—Home Circle.
6:00 P. M.—Program Announcement; Political Talk—Mark Shields.

KDKA
6:45 A. M.—Bronc Busters.
7:00 A. M.—Musical Clock.
7:15 A. M.—Jolly Bill and Jane.
8:00 A. M.—Salt and Peanuts.
8:15 A. M.—Radio Kids.
8:30 A. M.—Morning Cheer—Lois Miller.
8:45 A. M.—Waltzes.
9:00 A. M.—News; Old Songs and New—Helen Maree Greenwood.
9:15 A. M.—Style Service.
9:30 A. M.—Vic and Sade.
9:45 A. M.—Weather; News; Market Reports.
10:00 A. M.—Morning Songs—Ruth Hess Barnes.
10:15 A. M.—Clara, Lu and Em.
10:30 A. M.—Maude and Cousin Bill.
10:45 A. M.—Nesbitt and DiLernia.
11:00 A. M.—Singing Strings.
11:15 A. M.—Alabama Cotton Pickers.
11:30 A. M.—Rhythm Ramblers.
11:45 A. M.—Sweetheart Program.
12:00 Noon—Business News; Market Reports.
12:15 P. M.—Allegheny Table-Lands Fair News, by H. W. Correll.
12:30 P. M.—Farm Flash.
12:30 P. M.—Lloyd Huntley's Orchestra.
12:59 P. M.—Weather.
1:00 P. M.—World Series Baseball Game from New York.
4:00 P. M.—Utility Hall Program.
4:15 P. M.—Home Forum.
4:30 P. M.—Weather; Markets.
4:45 P. M.—Dispatch; Business News.
5:00 P. M.—Floyd Schaffer's Orchestra.
5:15 P. M.—Caravan.
5:30 P. M.—The Singing Lady.
5:45 P. M.—Little Orphan Annie.
6:00 P. M.—Sports Review.

WJAS
7:30 A. M.—Early Risers.
8:00 A. M.—Pitfalls in English.
8:15 A. M.—The Old Barge.
8:30 A. M.—Scientifiquiet.
8:45 A. M.—Musical Moments.
9:00 A. M.—Little Jack Little.
9:15 A. M.—Melody Magic.
9:30 A. M.—Tony Wons.
9:45 A. M.—The Merrymakers.
10:00 A. M.—Grant, Graham and Coughlin.
10:15 A. M.—Catherine MacKenzie.
10:30 A. M.—Melody Parade.
10:45 A. M.—Aunt Sammy's Chat.
11:00 A. M.—Entertainment.
11:05 A. M.—The Three B's.
11:15 A. M.—Morning Moods.
11:30 A. M.—Morning Moods (cont'd).
11:45 A. M.—Ben Alley.
12:00 Noon.—Buddy Harrod's Orchestra.
12:30 P. M.—Recordings.
12:45 P. M.—Aunt Jemima.
1:00 P. M.—World Series, Ted Husing and Pat Flanagan.
3:15 P. M.—Madame Belle Forbes Cutter.
3:45 P. M.—Four Eton Boys.
4:00 P. M.—The Captivators.
4:30 P. M.—Jack Brooks and Westphal's Orchestra.
5:00 P. M.—Jeanne Galbraith and Frances Adams.
5:15 P. M.—Kathryn Parsons.
5:30 P. M.—The Hoofers.
5:45 P. M.—Wrigley Indians.
6:00 P. M.—World Series Chat; Irene Beasley.

KQV
7:00 A. M.—Breakfast Club.
8:00 A. M.—Jack and Tony.
8:30 A. M.—Morning Serenade.
9:00 A. M.—Organ Thoughts—Charles Jones.
9:15 A. M.—Marathon Dance.
9:30 A. M.—Karl Emerson Williams' "One Man Theater."
10:00 A. M.—Tuning in Radio Headquarters.
10:15 A. M.—Blues Chasers.
11:15 A. M.—Woman's Home and Style.
11:30 A. M.—Tin Pan Alley.
11:45 A. M.—Musical Caravan.
12:00 Noon.—Ryan Sisters.
12:15 P. M.—Red Fluke's Orchestra.
12:45 P. M.—Music Room.
1:00 P. M.—Radio Show—from Boggs and Buhl.
1:15 P. M.—Studio Program.
1:45 P. M.—Watchtower Program.
2:00 P. M.—Matinee Club of the Air.
2:15 P. M.—Marathon Dance.
2:30 P. M.—Matinee Club.
3:00 P. M.—Gospel Program.
3:15 P. M.—Whispering Serenader.
3:30 P. M.—Dream Lovers.
4:00 P. M.—Radio Show—from Boggs and Buhl.
4:30 P. M.—Waikiki Beach Boys.
5:00 P. M.—Melody Lane.
5:30 P. M.—Hits of Yesterday—John Mc-Mahon, pianist.
5:45 P. M.—Jack and Tony.
6:00 P. M.—Songbird of the Studio.

WWSW
8:00 A. M.—Organ Moods.
8:30 A. M.—Morning Band.
9:00 A. M.—Lest We Forget.
9:30 A. M.—Tennessee Ramblers.
10:00 A. M.—Dr. Leon A. Wilcox.
10:15 A. M.—Messenger Boys.
10:45 A. M.—Babette.
11:00 A. M.—Jack—The Musical Story Teller.
11:15 A. M.—Want-a-land.
11:30 A. M.—Your Neighbors.
12:00 Noon.—Weather Recordings.
12:15 P. M.—Carnie Medina's Orchestra.
12:30 P. M.—Tennessee Ramblers.
1:00 P. M.—Luncheon Trio.
1:30 P. M.—Signature until 3:00 p. m.
3:00 P. M.—Marie Beck.
3:15 P. M.—WWSW Artists.
3:30 P. M.—Pittsburgh Musicale Institute.
4:00 P. M.—Bookman.
4:15 P. M.—WWSW Artists.
4:30 P. M.—Edith Small.
4:45 P. M.—Afternoon Dance Club.
5:15 P. M.—Don Sandros, Singing Trouador.
5:30 P. M.—News Items of Interest.
5:45 P. M.—Kiddies' Kabaret.

Globe-Trotter Gives Way to Series

In order that WCAE listeners may hear the network broadcasts of the world series games tomorrow, Thursday, Saturday and Monday, the usual 2:30 news broadcast by Louis L. Kaufman, Globe-Trotter of the Sun-Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News, on those days will be canceled. His 9:05 a. m., 12:15 p. m. and 6:30 p. m. news talks will be broadcast on their regular schedule.

George Seibel, dramatic and literary critic of the Sun-Telegraph, discusses stage personalities and news during his weekly "Plays and Players" talk on WCAE tonight at 7 o'clock.

Uncle Bob and Betty again provide a quarter hour of delightful fun when they read the Sun-Telegraph comic pages on WCAE at 6 tonight.

Listening In—

About Lucille Wall. Terhune's Pet Peeves. Their Real Names.

Lucille Wall, whom you heard as "Bibs" on that Island Boat Club program, portrays the leading feminine role in "Caravan," the series of dramatizations inaugurated on KDKA yesterday . . . Albert Payson Terhune, recently asked what he disliked most in the world, gave the confusing reply: "Corned beef, prohibition, newspaper work, loud talk except from anyone but myself, bobbed hair, continuous life in any city and several million more things" . . . Johnny Marvin, who couldn't see any sense in tropical fish as pets a month ago, is raising them now . . . Ask him about his guppies.

Miss Wall

An emergency called for immediate action on a remote control job last week, according to a WTAM production man and an announcer . . . The leg of the piano came off in the middle of a network broadcast by Billy Granthan's orchestra, but the music wasn't stopped . . . because the engineering department, the production man, Julian Webster, and the announcer, Gene Hamilton, rushed to the rescue and held the piano up until the end of the number.

Following Ralph de Palma's recent broadcast, the speed king offered to drive Patrick Kelly, NBC supervisor of announcers, home. Kelly accepted, anticipating a wild and speedy dash through Long Island traffic. Instead, de Palma drove very cautiously and Kelly commented on the fact. Responded de Palma: "Certainly. I drive carefully. I value my life."

Many of the biggest pay checks in the radio industry are made out to little known names . . . frinstance: Colonel Stoopnagle, Ed Wynn, Ben Bernie, Gertrude Berg and Jack Little are Frederick C. Taylor, Israel Leopold, Bernard Ancel, Mrs. Lewis Berg and John Leonard, respectively. Harry Richman's real name is Harry Reechman, Dave Dalton, the band leader, is really Dave Bernie—or Ancel—Ben's brother. Helen Morgan is Helen Regan; Sondra Phillips is Joan Johnson, and George Burns, of the Burns and Allen team, isn't his real moniker—he saw it on a coal wagon once.

Margaret Livingston, the screen star wife of Paul Whiteman, invariably attends all of the Chieftains' rehearsals.

Jay Hanna, director of the "Crime Club" programs, plays a role in the productions, too . . . He's the "audience," because he holds that actors cannot perform to their best advantage without one.

WANTED
1,000 Pittsburgh Executives
For details, tune in on Station KQV Tonight at 9 O'Clock

Even LITTLE MOTHERS know

A BOWLFUL of Shredded Wheat with milk or cream is a bowlful of natural energy. And how children love it! Made of 100% whole wheat, with all its teasing nut-like flavor. A favorite with grown-ups, too. A package of twelve full-size biscuits costs only a few pennies.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY
"Uneeda Bakers"

When you see Niagara Falls on the package, you KNOW you have Shredded Wheat.

SHREDDED WHEAT for all the family all the year

BOGGS & BUHL
SHOE REPAIR DEPT.
SPECIAL—WED., THURSDAY & FRIDAY
HALF SOLES and HEELS 69c
MEN'S, WOMEN'S, CHILDREN'S COMPOSITION OR LEATHER
WE CALL FOR AND DELIVER
USE YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT

More Than Ever They Say, "KAUFMANN'S for Everything Under the Sun"
See Page 16 For Additional Kaufmann Announcements
Would you believe it?
All-Wool MORODA
Tambo, DeLand's and Chamona Cloths in Sports Coats

To-day's LOW Price!
9.95
The Price You WANT to Pay!
Fabrics that sold last year at no less than 16.50! Some silk lined, some printed rayons and some wool plaid backs! New fall shades! New fleeces! New tweeds! Polo, sports, swagger and dress styles. Values that are nothing short of thrilling!
Misses' Sizes 12 to 20
Telephone Shopping, Atlantic 1000
KAUFMANN'S DOWNSTAIRS STORE

"Convertible"—a dinner dress under the jacket! 14½ to 24½.
$10
Rough Satin—dignified, handsome; green, navy, brown, ruby. 16½ to 24½.
$10

$10
Slim Down! Look Young!
HALF SIZES
Will Do All of That for You!
We've found a designer who has a way with matronly figures! And does he make them youthful? Well, how he does is nothing short of magic! Do come and see for yourself . . . rough crepes, rough satins, sheers, velvets.
Sizes 14½ to 28½
ANNEX DRESS SHOP SECOND FLOOR
KAUFMANN'S ANNEX SHOPS
Smithfield at Diamond

CAMP DWELLER HELD IN ATTACK

John Daugherty, 52, living at the Father Cox Camp in Palmwood, was held for court on two charges by Justice of the Peace Anthony Ferraro, in Sharpsburg, last night, after it had been testified he beat Joseph Habjanetz, 34, also living at the camp, and chased him over the hillside with a knife and hatchet.

Constables Frank Carriato and Frank Carper, who arrested Daugherty, testified they were menaced by a crowd at the camp, and were forced to draw their guns.

ILL DOCTOR MARTYR

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Every resource of the medical profession in this city Philadelphia and Baltimore has been mustered for the care of Dr Walter Blair Stewart, Jr., who contracted infantile paralysis while working night and day with 33 child sufferers of the disease at the local Municipal Hospital for Contagious Diseases.

Specialists from Philadelphia are in constant attendance on him and his two children, Florence, 18 months, and Blair, 3, who also contracted the dread disease. All are confined in the Stewart home.

It was announced today that the children seem to have rallied from their attacks, and the physicians expect them to recover without suffering any of the paralytic after effects. Dr. Stewart's condition, however, still is in doubt.

While taking the routine precautions to prevent contraction of the disease, Dr. Stewart greatly weakened himself by working for days with only a few hours rest.

120 Feared Killed By Quake in Greece

VIENNA, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Dispatches from Athens said today that 120 persons were believed to have been killed in an earthquake which struck last night in Macedonia and Chalcidice. Most of the victims lived in the villages of Ierisos and Stratoniki.

CLASH LOOMING ON RAILING BIDS

Complications were awaited following the opening today of bids for safety railing for the West Carson street improvement, specifications for which had been assailed as involving favoritism.

The Pressed Steel Car Company in a letter to Council charged the specifications called for "Hunter Safety Railing," virtually closing bids to other companies with lower-priced product. The protest was filed without action.

The estimated cost of the railing is $34,000.

RED FOOD RIOTERS DIE

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Hundreds of Soviet workers were killed in a clash with mounted Soviet police growing out of food riots at Ekaterinburg, a dispatch to the London Morning Post from Helsingfors said today.

The message said there would be wholesale executions as a result of similar riots at Rostov, Jaroslav, Kostroma, Nejerechta and other centers.

The dispatch said the workers protested against the severe shortage of foodstuffs and raided the co-operative stores. The mob broke windows and smashed doors with intent to loot until a regiment of police cavalry intervened.

Many of the police were killed in the fighting that ensued, the dispatch said. The city was placed under martial law, with the prisons filled to overflowing with rioters. Women and children were said to be among the dead.

The town of Ekaterinburg is chiefly famed as the scene of the assassination of the late Czar Nicholas II. of Russia, and all the members of the deposed Imperial Russian family during the revolution.

Gunmen Steal $3,100 In Holdup of 13

CLEVELAND, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Three holdup men lined 13 victims against a wall in a downtown office here last night and took $1,900 in cash and $1,500 in jewelry from them.

The victims were Abraham Munstein, president of the Midwest Finance and Loan Company, and other officers and directors.

SAFEGUARD your home in case of fire or thieves a telephone in your home brings help with least delay.

Emergencies

As an everyday convenience the telephone is well worth its low cost. In emergencies it is priceless.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNA.

Resinol—First Aid For Burns

Almost unbelievable is the quickness with which Resinol Ointment stops the pain of a burn or scald. Apply immediately and freely to the injured skin. It allays the inflamation, usually prevents blisters, and heals so quickly it lessens the danger of infection. All druggists sell Resinol. Buy it today—have ready for sudden use!

FOR FREE TRIAL size package of Resinol Ointment and Soap with copy of new booklet on Skin Treatment, write Resinol, Department 56, Baltimore, Md.

1,684,000 PERSONS CAN ESCALATE TO COMPLETE STOCKS HERE IN A DAY!

Few Stores in All the World Carry Stocks as Complete as Kaufmann's

You can count on your fingers the stores in this country or abroad that maintain stocks as large and complete as those maintained by this establishment. To have what 2,900,000 people want (50-mile trading area) is not easy. That we succeed to an unusual degree means that we have to be regular busybodies in the world's markets.

32 FOREIGN COUNTRIES RECEIVED KAUFMANN GOODS THIS YEAR!

Spend 5c or $85 A YARD FOR

LACE

From the narrowest val to the exquisite cobwebs of Rose Point, you'll find just the lace you're hunting for at Kaufmann's. Frothy lace—heavy lace—and plenty of that new winter wool lace in browns, wines, greens.

KAUFMANN'S . . . SIXTH FLOOR

Have Both a

Brim and Turban

When Hats Like These Are

5.00

You need both this fall for fashion coverage. A clever little turban worn shallow and dipped for your furred coat. A brim for your suit or street dress. Whether it's a sailor, bandeau, rolled rim, tilt or cloche, we have it! 484 different versions in felt alone.

MILLINERY . . . FIFTH FLOOR

What's Sauce for the Goose Is Saucy for the Gander!

They're twice as cute when you dress them alike!

If sister wears a frilly dress, brother's two-piece suit is like it! It's the fashion!

If brother wears a tailored suit, sister's frock must match it! That's the Law!

Brother and Sister Jerseys

In wide range of styles and colors.

$1 to 2.95

Brother and Sister Washables

Linens, Chambrays, Broadcloths —frilly, fair and fancy.

$1 to $5

Sizes 2 to 6

THIRD FLOOR

SCIENCE UNEARTHS MANY NEW PRODUCTS FOR US

Grade a Woman's

SMARTNESS

By Her Liking for

SUITS

Suit-conscious and style-conscious are very near twin ideas. Our suit collection mothers both trends particularly in this Cossack model which uses a peaked Lanvin sleeve on a Lucile Paray Russianized tunic. All black with Persian or Rust with black Persian. Priced 99.50

SUIT SHOP . . . FOURTH FLOOR

See Annex Shop's News on Page 15

Rug Makers! We've 125 Stamped Patterns for

HOOKED RUGS

New Ideas Galore—in The Special Bear Brand Yarn Demonstration—in Our Art Needlework Studio

Have just the RIGHT pattern and colorings in the rug that you make! You can do this easily by choosing your materials here—where you are shown 125 different rug patterns, ranging from 12x18-inch mat size to 4x7-foot size. And Bear Brand yarn in 54 different colors! Come in and see how easy and fascinating it is to make one of the new hooked rugs . . . heirlooms for your grandchildren.

ART NEEDLEWORK—FIFTH FLOOR

BE SURE TO SEE OUR 27 WINDOWS FILLED WITH UNIQUE EXHIBITIONS

Our Shoe Colors

Get Together* With Your Costume!

You know all about our enormous collection of blacks and browns—but did you know we've gone in for wines and greens? Wine dresses are beloveds of fashion this fall, and you'll probably have a green suit, too. So we just rounded up shoes to match for you! And are they stunning!

BABETTE'S suede tie is lizard trimmed, and in green, wine, black, brown 6.75

FIFTH FLOOR
KAUFMANN'S

ADORIAS have this sweet little number combining kid with wine suede $9

45 Ways to Cut Up!

Shears and Scissors, 40c to 6.50

Besides the scissors in the sale below we have: Poultry Shears, Kitchen Shears, Pinking Shears, Hook Rug Shears, Barbers' Scissors, Manicure Scissors, Pedicure Scissors, Professional Manicures' Scissors, Bandage Scissors, Dressmakers' Shears (in 5 lengths), Sewing Scissors (5 lengths), Embroidery Scissors (6 lengths).

SALE! 'Kaufmann's Special'

Steel Shears and Scissors

40c 45c

- ☐ 3½-in. Double-Point Embroidery Scissors 40c
- ☐ 4-in. Women's Sharp and Semi-blunt Point Scissors 40c
- ☐ 4½-in. Women's Sharp and Semi-blunt Point Scissors 40c
- ☐ 5-in. Women's Sharp and Semi-blunt Point Scissors 40c
- ☐ 5½-in. Women's Sharp and Semi-blunt Point Scissors 40c
- ☐ 6-in. Women's Sharp and Semi-blunt Point Scissors 40c
- ☐ 6-in. Household Shears for Heavy Duty 45c
- ☐ 7-in. Household Shears for Heavy Duty 45c
- ☐ 8-in. Household Shears for Heavy Duty 45c
- ☐ 7-in. Light Pattern Household Shears 45c
- ☐ 8-in. Light Pattern Household Shears 45c
- ☐ 6-in. Light Pattern Household Shears 45c

NOTIONS . . . FIRST FLOOR

Telephone Shopping, ATlantic 1000

MORE THAN EVER THEY SAY "Kaufmann's FOR EVERYTHING UNDER THE SUN"

CLASSIFIED ADS
BUY, SELL, RENT FOR YOU

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT NEWS

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1932

R. F. C. LOAN AVERTS RELIEF CRISIS IN COUNTY

POLITICS

Funds' Scarcity Adds To G. O. P. Woes

By MARK SHIELDS

Mr. Shields

Because there has been a depression the Republicans of Pennsylvania and Allegheny County must make a real campaign if the state is not to execute an amazing flip-flop and tumble into the Democratic column.

Because there has been a depression the Republican County Committee of Allegheny County is having a troublous time securing money with which to open headquarters from which the local campaign must be fought.

Election day is only six weeks off, and no headquarters have been provided. In ordinary election years this would be no great problem, Pennsylvania being counted on to be regular. But this is no ordinary year, and in addition to the national vote contribution the local Republican leaders must bestir themselves on behalf of Congressmen Harry A. Estep and Guy Campbell, who have stout opposition. They must fight not only physical opponents, but economic conditions in their districts.

Edifices which might comfortably house the headquarters wish to be assured that the money for the rest is on hand, and that assurance can't be given. They want G. O. P. to stand for "Good Old Payments" rather than "Grand Old Promise." They might have the patriotic spirit to die for dear old Rutgers, but they can see no impelling reason why they should go into the red for Herbert Hoover.

Money for staffing headquarters and carrying on work which cannot be done without funds also is scarce. There is hope that it will be dug up this week, and that things will attain some semblance of normal. Originally the date for opening headquarters was last Friday, but postponement was necessary.

* * *

Col. Eric Fisher Wood Should Not Be Blamed

This failure to raise money should not be blamed on Col. Eric Fisher Wood, selected by W. L. Mellon and State Chairman Edward Martin to do the collecting in the western end of the state for the national campaign. He has been doing very well, all things considered, but a goodly proportion of this money goes for expenses already incurred and the use of the National Committee. The national organization always has collected well from Pennsylvania, and has returned little in cash, expecting the state to take its reward in tariff legislation. At least, that is the way Joseph R. Grundy ran the game when he was collector, but now he has lost interest.

This policy never was particularly pleasing to the boys in the trenches in Pennsylvania, who wished some more direct and tangible form of reward for their patriotism. They won't have it this year.

The State Committee this year cannot tax the state payroll the usual 2 or 3 per cent, except in two or three departments. It will not have access to the sources tapped by Gov. Pinchot when his agents collected from state employes last year for Gen. Butler's senatorial campaign Gov. Pinchot has no enthusiasm for President Hoover, and prefers Gov. Roosevelt, though he may not say so during the campaign.

The county payroll also is forbidden ground to political assessment this year. County Commissioners Charles C. McGovern and C. M. Barr are quoted as intending to maintain their party regularity by supporting Mr. Hoover, but they are against the principle of payroll assessment.

* * *

No Reason For Enthusiam By City Administration

As to the city administration, in the past the best producer of a campaign, there is no particular reason it should grow enthusiastic this year on behalf of the national campaign. The County Committee is dominated by forces between which and the Mayor coolness has sprung up. The Mayor and his ward chairmen are thinking in terms of the municipal election next year, and they wish neither to deplete their fiscal resources or to urge their followers to vote as a matter of duty in an election which is much subordinate in importance—to the city organization—to that which will be held in 1933.

The Mayor recently has gone through a time of tribulation which many of his followers blame on the business and financial groups most zealous on behalf of Mr. Hoover.

Parenthetically, this city administration freed itself some time ago of dependence upon orthodox givers for funds for its own ambitions. This freedom dated from the time of the second election of Kline, when he foresaw possible trouble ahead with some of his former backers, and determined that financially his organization should stand on its own feet—even though places where those feet were planted might be hidden.

At any rate, the outlook for a campaign financed on the usual scale is dark. There will be a real test of the ardent zeal of the faithful.

As to the Democrats, they have had headquarters open for 10 days. Democrats in Pittsburgh can operate on less than Republicans. They are accustomed to little, and except in 1928, when some magician convinced John Raskob that Al Smith had a chance to carry the state, and induced him to unparalleled generosity, Democrats throughout Pennsylvania have never had much money in presidential elections.

BANDITS ROB 15 IN EAST END DRUG STORE

11 Victims Patrons; Gas Station Thugs Flee on Bikes

No trace had been found by police today of the three bandits who held 15 persons, 11 of them customers, at bay with revolvers in the Ellsworth Drug Company, at 5757 Ellsworth avenue, last night.

The bandits pointed revolvers at Samuel Rosenblatt, the proprietor; his wife, Sadie, George Venus, a clerk, and five customers, including two women whose names police did not learn. All were ordered to hold up their hands.

While the stickup was in progress, Rosenblatt's brother, Benson, and six more customers entered at intervals, all unaware what was taking place inside. They, too, were forced to hold up their hands while the intruders leisurely looted the registers of more than $190.

PATRONS ROBBED

After rifling the registers, the bandit trio began to search the purses and pockets of the patrons. Among the customers robbed were Mrs. D. C. Spicher, of 521 Summerlea street, and Fred S Cooper, of 575 South Negley avenue.

Under a booth in the store during the holdup lay Rosenblatt's police dog. The dog attempted to attack the robbers, but was prevented by Mrs. Rosenblatt, who feared it might be shot.

GAS ATTENDANT BOUND

Search also was being made by police for two Negroes who looted a cash register in the Gulf Refining Company service station, at 640 Noblestown road, of $35 after binding and gagging George Fritz, of 1214 Howard street, the attendant, late yesterday. They were reported to have escaped on bicycles.

A short time later two Negro cyclists were picked up by detectives in Water street, but Fritz was unable to identify them and they were released.

PICTURE ON PAGE 18

WORKING GIRLS' HOME TO OPEN

Mrs. Minnie O. Roberts, who was one of the founders of the Women's Club of the City of Pittsburgh more than 50 years ago, announced today that she is starting a downtown home for working girls at 402 Penn avenue.

Mrs. Roberts said she is opening the home because she is primarily interested in helping working girls.

She said:

"The city has needed such a home for many years. The prices will be low and I'm sure that it will be a great help to many girls."

$50 in Prizes Weekly for News Tips

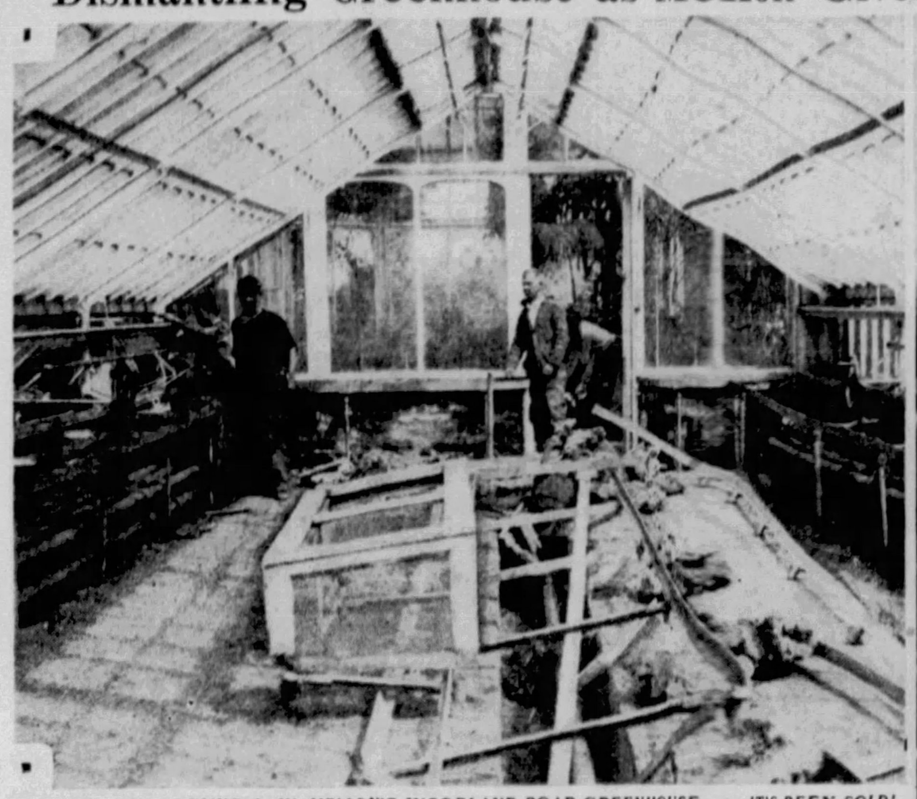
Are you alert? Do you wish to make your alertness pay? The Sun-Telegraph is presenting the opportunity. Every week it is offering a total of $50 in prizes for NEWS TIPS telephoned to the News-Tip Editor, Grant 6500

If you know of an accident, of a business merger, of a big building project—that is NEWS. Watch especially for unusual stories about children and animals and for stories that lend themselves to interesting pictures.

For the best exclusive news tip of the week $15.00 will be given; for the second best, $10.00, and for the next 25 best, $1.00 each.

PHONE NEWS-TIPS EDITOR, GRANT 6500.

Dismantling Greenhouse as Mellon Gives Up His Prized Orchids



WORKMEN DISMANTLING A. W. MELLON'S WOODLAND ROAD GREENHOUSE . . . IT'S BEEN SOLD!

THERESA JAMES WITH A RARE $3,800 CATTELEYA ORCHID

Miss James, whose father, H. B. James, has bought the A. W. Mellon greenhouse and prize collection of rare and valuable orchids, pictured with the rarest of them all, a plant that a workman threw on a rubbish heap as a weed! These are Sun-Telegraph pictures.

Ambassadorship Balks Mellon Flower Flare

CHURCH BURNS IN HOMESTEAD

Fire of undetermined origin last night razed the old Blackwell African Methodist Episcopal Church, 521-23 East Third avenue, Homestead, and destroyed two homes on either side of it, causing damage estimated at $15,000.

The blaze, witnesses said, started in the two-story frame building occupied until last April by a church society and recently remodeled into a hall by the owner, O. R. Brenn, of Pittsburgh. It burst through the roof before it was discovered by John Rusnak, of 517 East Third avenue, who turned in the alarm.

West Homestead and Munhall volunteer firemen aided Homestead firemen in subduing the stubborn blaze, which for a time threatened the entire block.

Before water could be played upon the fire, it spread to the Rusnak home and the dwelling of S. A. Thompson, Negro, of 519 East Third avenue. Both homes were destroyed.

Sells Greenhouses To Devote Whole Time to Job

Andrew William Mellon, ambassador to the Court of St. James, and orchid fancier extraordinary, has forsaken his propensity for gardening because he intends to devote his full attention to the American embassy in London, it became known today, with the sale of his greenhouses and valuable orchid collection to H. B. James, Frankstown road florist.

Dismantling of the spacious greenhouses on the Mellon estate in Woodland road has not been free from comedy, in spite of the fact that it marks finis to one of Mr. Mellon's most consuming hobbies. A prize orchid, known as Catteleya and valued at $3,800, was temporarily assigned to the rubbish pile by one of the workmen, who thought it was a weed.

Mellon representatives literally scoured the world in search of rare orchid specimens, it was revealed, and he would have only the finest, all of those remaining at the time of the sale of his collection were valued from $1,100 and up. The choice specimen of them all, valued at $15,000, was given to his brother, R. B. Mellon, it was reported.

Dracena, crotons, pandanas and palms, whose blooms at some time or other had bedecked Mr. Mellon's office in Washington when he was secretary of the treasury, have been removed from his estate.

The greenhouse itself is being torn down and will be reassembled at the James Gardens, in Frankstown road.

And meanwhile the $3,800 Catteleya that barely escaped a weed's demise hangs unguarded in the James greenhouse.

WILL ROGERS SAYS

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Sept. 27.

To the Editor, Sun-Telegraph:

Politics pretty quiet over the week-end. Democrats are attacking and the Republicans are defending. All the Democrats have to do is promise "what they would do if they got in." But the Republicans have to promise "what they would do" and then explain why they haven't already "done it."

Will Rogers

I do honestly believe the Republicans have reformed and want to do better. But whether they have done it in time to win the election is another thing. The old voter is getting so he wants to be saved before October every election year.

Yours, WILL.

Vets Chosen to Map Armistice Day Plans

John L. Bingham was elected president of the Federation of War Veterans' Societies of Allegheny County to complete plans for Allegheny County's celebration of the Armistice, November 11. Meeting last night in the Elks home in the North Side, 50 representatives of various military organizations of the county also named Ronald Thompson vice president; Charles G. Lane, Jr., treasurer, and John Vachetta, secretary.

END OF ARSON TRIAL NEAR

The case of Peter Dubric, his sister, Mrs. Bessie Lisko, and his sister's tenant, Mary Duback, all of Wall, was to be given to the jury today after they had completed their defense on charges of having conspired to burn the house occupied by Mrs. Duback.

The state scored in closing its case when Dubric admitted having talked with Mary Duback about burning the house, insured by his sister for $4,000, so Mrs. Duback could obtain $2,000 insurance she had taken out on her furniture.

Dubric denied setting the place on fire and insisted his sister knew nothing of the alleged plot. Firemen said they found oil-soaked wallpaper in the place.

Gandhi's Method Wouldn't Suit U. S. Politicians

—By ARTHUR 'BUGS' BAER—

Well, Gandhi finally starved 'em out.

He gets 'em two ways. Now Premier MacDonald is expected to resign because the Mahatma ate a meal.

We don't know how we can apply this system to our home grown politics. We're different from Gandhi. We wear our napkins up around our necks.

Senators, representatives and diplomats are always ready for dinners. Most of our great men owe their political careers to bicarb of soda.

If a candidate hears that his opponent is starving he says:

"I hope he breaks the record."

Insurgents bolt their party because they can't bolt the food. In addition to being head men the political leader must also spread a nice table.

It might do in India but it won't work here. The boys with the fifty-inch waist lines will fight all attempts to reduce the budget.

(Copyright, 1932. Distributed by Universal Service, Inc.)

PENNA. LEADS IN FLOUR DOLE

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Representatives of eight counties attended a conference of Red Cross workers yesterday, to hear plans of the future and to learn Pennsylvania had obtained more flour during the present emergency than any other state.

Walter Davidson, of Washington, D. C., stressed need of activity in peace-time as well as during wars.

Mrs. Pauline Gradecu of Pittsburgh, told of work in the state and said Pennsylvania received 580,000 barrels of flour during the stress time "more than any other state."

Chapters from Armstrong and Beaver counties, Brookville, Charleroi, Latrobe, Monessen, Belle Vernon, Mt. Pleasant, New Kensington, Vandergrift, Pittsburgh and Punxsutawney were represented.

NEW HEARING ON PENNA. LOAN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(Universal.)—Gov. Pinchot's application for a loan of $45,000,000 for relief purposes in Pennsylvania will be considered again by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation tomorrow.

The Governor yesterday submitted data from 64 counties where the relief funds will be spent if obtained. A delegation of Pennsylvania authorities also discussed the question with Fred C. Croxton, in charge of relief loans for the corporation. After the conference it was said the Governor's data had done much to "clarify the situation."

Pennsylvania is asking for $10,000,000 immediately as the first installment of the $45,000,000. The board has loaned $2,500,000 for three counties.

It was predicted tomorrow's conference will break the long deadlock between Pinchot and the R. F. C.

CHEMICAL TALK SERIES LISTED

Two series of lectures on important subjects in industrial chemistry and chemical engineering, will be presented by technologic specialists of Mellon Institute of Industrial Research during 1932-1933. 8he discourses will be given on Mondays in the Fellows' Room.

Speakers and their subjects for October include: Dr. E. R. Weidlein, "The Status and Work of the Chemical Engineer," October 3; O. O. Malleis, "Solid Fuels," October 10; E. B. Read, "The Manufacture of Refractories," October 17; S. M. Phelps, "The Properties and Uses of Refractories," October 24, and Tracey Bartholomew, "The Manufacture, Properties and Uses of Portland Cement," October 31.

THREE ACCUSED IN BOAT THEFT

Three Lawrenceville men accused of stealing a houseboat they thought would make a fine clubhouse, were to be arraigned in Penn Avenue Police Court today on suspicious person charges.

The suspects were docketed Frank Marvintz, 22, of 40 Forty-eighth street; Nick Karos, 21, of 4822 Harrison street, and Anthony Sweeney, 26, of 4731 Hatfield street. Police reported they attached ropes to the boat, at the foot of Forty-third street, and, with the ropes over their shoulders, started up the river bank. They towed the craft five blocks up the river, the officers said.

The boat was owned by Ray McCall, 140 Forty-second street.

U. S. AID FUND RECEIVED BY PINCHOT

Harris Speeds Talbot Cash to Prevent Lapse in Rations

Relief for Allegheny County's needy seemed assured until December today, as Gov. Pinchot deposited in the State Treasury the Reconstruction Finance Corporation's check for $1,250,000—half of its loan to Pennsylvania for use in Allegheny, Philadelphia and Northampton counties.

Allegheny County's share of the $2,500,000 loan has been estimated at about $650,000. The money is expected to be availabe at once, receipt of the money by Pinchot indicating that his quarrel with the R. F. C. over distribution of the money is ended.

WILL RESTORE RATIONS

The $650,000—about half of which will go to the county, outside the city—will prevent any cessation of relief in the county, will enable the Emergency Association to restore subsistence rations of 90 cents per person per week—city level

Promising to advance October Talbot bill money for county food orders, Senator Frank J. Harris, chairman of the county sub-committee administering state funds here, had forestalled a relief lapse in the county, threatened for tonight when September state aid will run out.

Relief leaders pointed out today that by terms of the act of Congress setting up the R. F. C., the loan from that body could be used for all forms of direct relief, besides food orders. It also provides for administration expenses.

Other public appropriations have provided no money for administration. State aid has provided only for food orders.

Harris' decision to advance October state aid, although it is reserved by law for October use, came last night when the Poor Directors found they were not legally entitled to borrow it.

Poor directors were warned by their counsel, Harry W. McIntosh, that they would be personally liable if they borrowed money to bridge the threatened relief gap.

GUTHRIE ACCEPTS POST

President Francis S Guthrie, of the Dollar Savings Bank, last night accepted the chairmanship of the special gifts division of the Welfare Fund campaign. He said:

"Man is a social animal and to merely feed, shelter and clothe him goes but part way in succoring him as a human being. We feed and shelter our animals and call the job done. We cannot do that with people.

"If we treat people as animals we should not be surprised to see them act as animals. Their characters need nourishment the same as their stomachs."

"After three winters of successful effort to maintain the morale and spirit of the needy people we must not even think of failing to carry them through a fourth and apparently final winter of unprecedented economic stress."

Mrs. Anna Imhoff's Funeral Tomorrow

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in Moreland's Funeral Chapel, North Highland avenue, for Mrs. Anna Myler Imhoff, who died yesterday at the Bellevue Farm Sanitarium, Washington, Pa. She was a lifelong resident of Pittsburgh and a member of the Edgewood Presbyterian Church. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. W. G. Isenberg, of Swissvale; a sister, Mrs. William S. Power, of Detroit, and two brothers, William M., of Pittsburgh, and Paul J. Myler, of Hamilton, Canada.

BISHOP BOYLE, DUQUESNE'S PRESIDENT, SENATOR HARRIS AT CRAFTON K. OF C. FETE

THOMAS A. DUNN — THE VERY REV. J. J. CALLAHAN — BISHOP HUGH C. BOYLE — FRANCIS A. RONEY — JOHN H. HARRIS

JUDGE AMBROSE B. REID — THE REV. WILLIAM C. KELTY — SENATOR FRANK J. HARRIS — THE REV. JAMES M. DELANEY

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

THE SPEAKERS' TABLE AS CRAFTIERS COUNCIL, KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS, BANQUETED TO CELEBRATE THE COMPLETION OF THE REMODELING PROGRAM AT ITS CRAFTON COUNCIL HOUSE . . SENATOR HARRIS PRESIDED

COUNTY SABBATH SCHOOL ASSOCIATION IN CONVENTION

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

MISS RUTH SEIDEL MISS ROBERTA COLEMAN MISS EVELYN BLAIR
MT. LEBANON U. P. SABBATH SCHOOL WORKERS AT SMITHFIELD CHURCH CONVENTION

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

DELEGATES FROM COUNTY'S CHURCHES REGISTERING AT THE SMITHFIELD STREET METHODIST CHURCH THE REV. T. I. HOOPER, KNOXVILLE, SPEAKER

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

Sabbath School Group Re-Elects President

Judge Gray Named Director; Dr. Day To Close Meet

F. S. Cousley was re-elected president of the Allegheny County Sabbath School Association at the closing sessions today of a three-day convention in Smithfield Street Methodist Episcopal Church.

Judge James H. Gray was added to the board of directors; H. S. Loomis was the new vice president elected. Two new directors are George E. Campbell and Wister L. Lynch.

Officers re-elected were: Vice president, Charles H. Lehman; secretary, H. E. Carmack; treasurer, George T. Marshall, and directors, Charles S. Donley, W. T. Forrester, Clifford S. Heinz, Albert A. Horne, the Rev. Dr. T. J. King, the Rev. Dr. J. M. McQuilkin, the Rev. Dr. C. A. Voss.

Three sessions were being held, besides a separate young people's division conference. The morning session speakers were Miss Elsie Rodgers, children's division specialist, of Philadelphia; the Rev. Raymond Veh, Cleveland, and B. A. McGarvey, of the state association staff.

The Rev. Dr. Fletcher, of the Youngstown Church Federation, as the principal afternoon speaker. Following awarding of flags and district banners tonight, the Rev. Dr. Albert E. Day will deliver the closing address.

WOMAN SHOOTS INTRUDER

STEUBENVILLE, O., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—A 60-year-old woman storekeeper who told police she shot an invader had been spared from arrest today.

Mrs. Julia Lenoy, of Longrun, Pa., said she heard a noise in the establishment as she rested in her second-story apartment. She dressed and hurried down with a gun in her hand. Brushing against a man, she said, she fired.

Albert Carey, 33, was found wounded in the street. He is in a critical condition in a hospital.

Mrs. Lenoy took him to a physician and then to Sheriff William Yost, who placed him under guard in the hospital.

PICK MILLIGAN AS MODERATOR

SHARON, Pa., Sept. 27.—The Rev. O. H. Milligan, of Avalon, who is clerk of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, was elected moderator of the First Synod of the West at the opening of the seventy-fifth annual convention here. He succeeds the Rev. J. Alvin Hazlett, of Hartstown.

The Rev. Charles Johnston, of Butler, was named assistant clerk.

The opening session was featured by an address by Dr. Merton S. Rice, noted Methodist minister of Detroit. The convention, being attended by more than 100 clergy and lay delegates, will continue until tomorrow evening.

Paralysis Waning, Phila. Schools Open

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—With the number of new infantile paralysis cases on the decline, senior high schools, together with vocational, normal, evening and continuation schools, opened today.

Supt. of Public Schools Dr. Edwin C. Broome, announced that the junior high schools and the seventh and eighth grades of the elementary schools will begin classes next Monday, unless instructions to the contrary are issued by the Board of Health.

New Yorker to Study Brazil Indian Tribe

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Jules Henry Blumensohn planned to leave today for Brazil to conduct a year's study of the Botocuda Indians, one of the most primitive peoples in the world, located on the banks of the Rio Doce. The settlement is 300 miles northeast of Rio de Janeiro.

Blumensohn, 27-year-old son of Dr. Henry J. Blumensohn, of New York, expects to live for awhile with the tribe.

Drought May Delay Hunting in State

HARRISBURG, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—A continuation of the drought, Gov. Pinchot said yesterday, may postpone the opening of the small game hunting season beyond November 1, to prevent calamitous forest fires.

Expressing the possibility that "we may still get rain," the Governor said it is not certain that the season opening will be postponed.

'Y' FUND DRIVE WORKERS RALLY

Heading the campaign committee, Edgar J. Kaufmann today announced preliminary plans have been made for the emergency drive for $60,000 to be launched October 16 for the Y. M. & W. H. A. The first workers' rally was held last night in the association's building in Bellefield avenue.

Dr. Philip R. Goldstein, of the Jewish Welfare Board of New York City, executive director of the drive, said:

"It is not a question of whether we can afford the Y these days, rather the assurance that we cannot afford not to maintain the Y."

Dr. L. B. Bernstein, executive director of the Jewish Federation of Philanthropies of Pittsburgh, pointed out the preventive work of the organization is as vital as any relief work today.

Other speakers at last night's meeting included Rabbi Samuel H. Goldenson, Harry J. Applestein and Hyman Rogal.

LEAGUE TREATS 1,319 CASES

Light treatments number 1,319 were given to patients in the Tuberculosis League Hospital, Bedford avenue and Wandless street, during August, according to a league report. This constitutes an increase of 246 over the same month last year and taxes to its utmost the league's capacity in the extension of this service.

Sun treatment has continued to play a most beneficial, though not major, part in the well-being of tuberculosis patients. This type of treatment is opening up a vast field, of which only a small part has yet been explored, for medical work.

State Publishers Cite Ad Increase

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Publishers attending the annual fall meeting of districts 1 and 2 of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association had agreed today that the present upward trend of national advertising indicates that business is on the upgrade.

All likewise agreed that despite the necessity of economies there had been no let-down in public service by newspapers, and the interest of the reader continued on a greater scale than ever.

2 Killed, 4 Injured In Mail Plane Crash

TRIEST, Italy, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Two persons were killed and four injured yesterday when a mail-passenger plane operating on the Venice-Triest line overturned in a forced landing on the water at Goado Island. Its momentum carried it against the bank alongside a cemetery.

Files Her 'Complaint'

WINNIE LIGHTNER . . . SHE PILES UP CHARGES AGAINST HUBBY

Miss Lightner, the screen comic, who in her New York divorce complaint lays eight specific charges of infidelity against her husband, George Holtrey, the broker, and names as a co-respondent one Joy Haley. She asks for a jury trial as he enters a counter-suit.

THE ARMY'S FLIERS SERVING AN INJURED PRIVATE

Photo by International News Photograph Service.

TRANSFERRING PRIVATE ROBERT R. HALL, FLOWN FROM RANTOUL, ILL., TO WASHINGTON, TO WALTER REED'S AMBULANCE

DISORDER MARS ART SHOW

By PENELOPE REDD

Neither banners, press view, or a festive air attended the opening of the heterogeneous out-of-door exhibition on the Hotel Schenley lawn yesterday. The melancholy of autumn, falling leaves, and the threat of rain added to the dejection of the "Depression Show."

Miss Redd

Even the assured young girls who stepped from a limousine to play at being artists, and the more professional young women painters who strutted their stuff with animated patter for the ears of the passersby failed to disperse the solemnity.

Although youths of promise brought pictures and architectural draughtsmen came prepared to sacrifice souvenirs of foreign travel painted in more prosperous days, this exhibition of the work of some 50 persons could not be considered representative of Pittsburgh artists. The pictures were hung on anything from clothes horses to garden chairs and suffered from lack of orderly arrangement, an element essential for the adequate display of paintings.

Alphonse Hirtz, a veteran exhibiter in the Paris outdoor show, shows a workmanlike canvas of three little girls on typical Pittsburgh steps which is painted with a school of Paris flavor.

Interesting drawings and water colors of places are contributed by Kutchukian, Gamble and Eisenfeld. Edward Weber's still life paintings, familiar through other exhibitions, stand above the confusion.

Charles Perrot turns in so genuinely a primitive idiom of painting, that one cannot understand how he has escaped exhibition in recent Carnegie Internationals.

The cumulative effect, however, of draughtsmen desperately grasping at any straw, mature amateurs striving to realize financially on their pictorial illusions, bold youth out for adventure, and one of the local art school's most brilliant graduates, all hopeful of response from a preoccupied public makes the thoughtful in art thoroughly dispirited. The outdoor show proves conclusively that artists must htve the patronage of a much wider public than Pittsburgh has yet developed.

League Resignation Of Drummond O. K.'d

GENEVA, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—The resignation of Sir Eric Drummond as secretary general of the League of Nations, effective June 30, 1933, was accepted by the League Council at a private session today.

Life Saving Club To Hold Swim Oct. 5

The second annual swimming party of the American Red Cross Senior Life Saving Club will be held October 5 in the swimming pool of the Irene Kaufmann Settlement.

21 New Cases Put Under Quarantine

The Pittsburgh Bureau of Health today reports the following cases in quarantine: Scarlet fever 4; diphtheria, 3; whooping cough, 2; pneumonia, 12.

Perrysville P.T.A. To Give Card Party

The Parent-Teacher Association of Perrysville School, Ross Township, will hold a card party in the school Thursday evening.

One More Chance To Register for Election

Residents of cities in Allegheny County who have been assessed, still have one chance to qualify in order to vote at the November election.

October 8 will be the third and last registration day in the cities. This is also the last day to pay poll taxes. Only those regularly assessed can pay taxes.

September 7 was the last day to be assessed.

1,000 Birds Killed By Furnace Fumes

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—A thousand swallows migrating southward sought shelter from the rain in a tall factory chimney here, but found death instead.

Early this morning a fireman come on duty to get up steam and gas fumes from the roaring furnaces killed the birds almost instantly. He counted 983 at the base of the chimney.

DOCTOR QUITS OVER TRAGEDY

CINCINNATI, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Officials at the Longview State Hospital announced that Dr. J. M. Irving had resigned from the staff, apparently as an aftermath of the deaths 10 days ago of three patients from overdoses of an anaesthetic.

The three patients, one white woman and two Negro women, were being prepared for tonsil operations. E. A. Baker, superintendent of the hospital, said they died after being given injections containing two grams of a narcotic, whereas the formula called for only two grains. The errors, Baker said, was made by Mrs. Maybelle Viall, a nurse.

Dr. Irving, the superintendent said, ordered the anaesthetic prepared and was in charge of its injection. Mrs. Viall said the formula appeared to read "grams" instead of "grains" and declared she thought she was following directions.

Kept From 'His Duty'

(READ STORY ON PAGE 17)

8-MONTH-OLD FRITZ . . HE WOULD HAVE ATTACKED GUNMEN

Fritz, young police dog held beneath the counter by his mistress as three armed bandits robbed 15 persons and the cash registers of the Ellsworth Drug Company, 5757 Ellsworth avenue. The dog tried to attack the thugs. Mrs. Samuel Rosenblatt held him out for fear he would be summarily shot. This is a Sun-Telegraph picture.

PINCHOT ASKS P.S.C. EVIDENCE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Gov. Gifford Pinchot today invited A. A. Chapman, former secretary to Thomas Mitten, Philadelphia traction magnate, to confer with him regarding evidence Chapman has said he desired to present in connection with the investigation of the Public Service Commission.

Chapman, in a letter to the Governor two weeks ago, said he wished to present evidence of "corruption of various officials and politicians."

Bible Expert Dies At End of Tour

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Dr. John Merlin Powis Smith, authority on the Old Testament and professor at the University of Chicago, died on board ship in New York harbor, university officials were informed today.

Dr. Smith died last night as he was returning from a tour of Europe.

Pittsburghers Seek Kiwanis Convention

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 27.—(INS.)—With more than 500 delegates registered, and many others and their wives expected, business sessions of the fifteenth annual convention of the Pennsylvania District of the Kiwanis clubs began here today.

Pittsburgh is making a strong bid for the 1933 session, the place for which will be chosen Wednesday afternoon.

Moratorium Likely On Cuban Debts

HAVANA, Cuba, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Cuba will be unable to pay the $8,300,000 she owes on foreign debts, falling due December 31, in the opinion of Secretary of the Treasury Ferrara today.

He virtually admitted this when he was asked if the Cuban government would seek a moratorium.

Death Ends Jurist's 26 Years on Bench

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—President Judge William C. Ferguson, 68, of Common Pleas Court No. 3, and the oldest Philadelphia judge in point of service, died today. He had served on the bench 26 years.

MAN GONE, FIND EMPTY SKIFF

McKeesport police today began a search for Robert Goldberg, 1316 Centennial avenue, that city, reported missing by relatives since yesterday afternoon. About the time Goldberg's disappearance was reported, the Carnegie Steel Company, through its transportation department, reported to McKeesport police the finding of an empty skiff near Duquesne.

Police said the skiff was identified by Gus Carlson, manager of a boat club in the Youghiogheny River, as one that he had rented to Goldberg yesterday afternoon. According to Carlson, Goldberg said he would not return for several hours and offered to pay the rental in advance.

Goldberg is manager of the Amper Haberdashery Company, 27 West Grant avenue, Duquesne. He is unmarried and resided with his mother. Police said Goldberg's auto, locked, was found in Sixth avenue, McKeesport, today.

P.S.C. APPROVES LIGHT CUT

The Duquesne Light Company today announced that its schedule of reduced rates had been approved by the Public Service Commission and that the new rates will be effective October 1.

All meters read beginning Saturday will be billed under the schedule accepted by Council, which carries an average cut of 20 cents a month to domestic users of electric current.

Operation of the electric rate slash marks the end of the first battle for reduction of utility charges in the Pittsburgh district. A fight for a further reduction is to be waged before the Public Service Commission along with demands for cuts in other utility rates.

New Castle Boy Killed by Bus

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Crushed by a Pittsburgh-to-Cleveland bus, David Doudis, 6, died last night in a hospital. The driver, H. B. Gardner, posted bond pending an inquest.

A Reminder!

147 Different SERVICES

Maintained at this Store for Your Convenience

Nothing new about these services—they are just part of our policy of being an unusual public institution. We do a lot of things aside from being purveyors of merchandise, and periodically we remind folks about them. Keep a copy of this notice where you can refer to it from time to time.

ALTERATIONS
Refit, Reline and Remake Garments.
Hemstitching and Picoting.
Machine embroidery on gym suits, etc.
Repair Women's Apparel
Pressing and Steaming
Cleaning and Dyeing

BEAUTY SALON
Make Hair Goods to Order.
Dress Hair Pieces.
Barber Shop
Complete Beauty Parlor Services.
Four Methods Permanent Waving.
Separate Hair Pieces

Custom Tailoring
Make Coats or Suits to Order.

CUTTING AND PIN-FITTING
Cut and Pinfit Dresses
Basting Sleeves

DRAPERIES
Making and Hanging Curtains and Drapes.
Made to Order Pillows
Making to Order and Fitting Slip Covers
Dressing Table Covers, Auto Slip Covers.
Table Mats and Scarfs
Stage and Auditorium Curtains.
Making and Hanging Shades and Venetian Blinds.
Making and Hanging Awnings and Canopies.
Recover Screens

DRESSMAKING
French
Copy French Models
Supply Wedding Outfits and Bridal Parties.
Create All Type Dresses
Popular Priced
Make All Type Dresses
Make Unlined Silk Coat Suits.

FURNITURE
Treat Against Moths
Supply Glass Tops or Mirrors for Flat Pieces.
Repair All Furniture Purchased Here.
Refinish Furniture Purchased Here at Nominal Charge.
Custom Built Furniture, Mattresses or Springs.
Dining and Living Room Sets finished to order.
Re-cane Chairs
Rebuild Furniture

FURS
Fur Coats Made to Order.
Furs Cleaned
Scarfs Repaired
Fur Coats Relined
Alter or Change Details or Entire Fur Coats
Repair and Remodel Fur Coats and Scarfs
Comb and Glaze (without charge) All Furs Placed in Storage.

GLOVES
Replace Clasps
Repair Rips
Repair Embroidery or Stitching.

HANDBAGS
Make to Order Special Size Bags, Pass Cases.
Monogram All Types Leather Goods.
Repair Beaded & Leather Bags.
Repair Belts and Leather Goods.

Handkerchiefs
Embroidery by Hand or Machine in Initials, Monograms or Full Names.

HOSPITAL
Registered Trained Nurse in Charge.
First Aid Rendered

HOUSEWARES
Repair and Install All Makes of Stoves and Ranges.
Repair All Types Household Electric Appliances Purchased Here.

INTERIOR DECORATING
Design and execute interiors for Homes, Offices, Institutions.
Advice on Home-Furnishing Problems

JEWELRY
Engraving on Gold, Silver, Platinum, Leather or Wood Articles.
Repair Domestic and Foreign Watches and Clocks.
Restring Necklaces
Reset Jewelry Stones
Old Jewelry Made Over
Diamonds Set in Modern Mountings.
Wedding Bands Modernized.
Silver Repaired and Replated.

LAMPS
Mount Lamps from Vases
Metal Lamp Bases Refinished.
Floor Lamps Altered in Size.

LUGGAGE
Repair Trunks and Bags
Dye and Refinish Black Luggage.
Make Keys for Luggage
Replace Mirrors in Luggage.
Monogramming.

LIBRARY
Latest Books loaned at small fees.

LINENS
Hand Embroider, Monogram, Machine Embroider and Hem all type linens.
Make Tea, Roller, or Hand Towels.
Bind Table Padding
Make Sanitas Table Pads.
Machine Letter or Monogram for Hotels, Resturants, Schools, Institions.

Men's Clothing
Make Textile Repairs On Suits or Overcoats
Custom Make Suits, Topcoats, Overcoats.

Men's Furnishings
Monogram All Types Furnishings.
Shorten Sleeve Lengths
Change Shirt Neckbands

MILLINERY
Copy Models
Retrim Hats to Order
Drape Wedding or Confirmation Veils.
Special Service at Time of Bereavement.
Steam Hats
Alter Hats to Individual Requirements.

OPTICAL DEPT.
Directed by Registered Optometrist.
Glasses Adjusted
Lenses Refitted
Mountings Changed
Eyes Examined and Fitted.
Kodak Films Developed and Enlarged.
Cameras Repaired

PARKING
Your Car Parked Gratis While You Shop

PIANOS
Pianos Tuned.

PICTURES
Pictures Cut Down and Reframed.
Mirrors Resilvered and Reframed.
Pictures Framed.

PHOTO STUDIO
Portraits Taken.

POST OFFICE
Registered Branch of U. S. Post Office on First Floor.

RADIOS
Installation
Repair Parts
Test Tubes

RESTAURANT
Special Luncheon and Tea Service for Card Parties (by appointment).

RUGS
Sew and Lay Carpets
Sew, Bind and Size Rugs
Lay and Cement Linoleum
Refringe Rugs
Lift, Alter, Repair and Relay Domestic and Oriental Rugs and Carpets.
Dust, Hand Wash, Shampoo, Dry Clean Oriental and Domestic Rugs or Carpets.

Sewing Machines
Repair All Makes Sewing Machines.

SHOES
Shoes Stretched
Buckles or Buttons Sewed On.
Kid Insoles Replaced
Repair, Clean or Shine Shoes.
Slippers Dyed Any Color
Dr. Scholl's advice
Corrective Appliances
Examination, etc.

Shopping Service
Shops for You by Telephone.
Take Phone Orders for Advertised Items.
Takes Mail Orders for Merchandise.
Shop with You in the Store.
Clerical Service.

STATIONERY
Repair Fountain Pens
Social or Commercial Printing and Engraving.
Make Rubber Stamps

STORAGE
Insures and Stores Furs, Apparel, Domestic and Oriental Rugs.

TIRE SERVICE
Vulcanizing.
Free Air for Tires
Free Road Service
Tires and Tubes Repaired
Tires Mounted
Install Auto Heaters
Regroove Tires

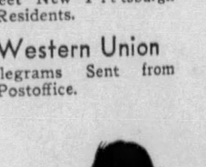
TOYS
Repair Bicycles
Repair Velocipedes
Repair Toy Wagons
Re-tire Wheels
Re-string Tennis Rackets

UMBRELLAS
Repair and Recover Umbrellas.
Monogram Handles

Welcome Wagon
Greet New Pittsburgh Residents.

Western Union
Telegrams Sent from Postoffice.

BOGGS & BUHL



Demonstration and Sale!

HALF SIZE Fashions

Semi-Annual Event Brings Sensational Values

Long headquarters for smart fashions in specialized sizes, Boggs & Buhl's semi-annual sale event takes on unprecedented importance! New York specialists will be here to serve as models and consultants on fitting problems. And our stocks, full of hundreds of smart, young, new, up-to-the-minute fashions—are ready to outfit you for the season at maximum savings!

4 Value Groups

DRESSES

$16.75

The report that Paris favors mature figures this season is echoed in this remarkable group! Dull and shiny crepes, crinkled crepes, lovely velvets, rich woolens for all occasions. They slim your figure and flatter your purse at $16.75.

$10.75

At $10.75, likewise, outstanding values! Striped ostrich woolens, rough crepes, crepe and satin combinations.

COATS

$59.75

Made on slim lines—full of quality details. Boggs & Buhl's $59.75 Half Size Coats have no counterpart! Smartly furred in Fisher dyed Fitch, Jap Mink, Persian Lamb, Skunk, Caracul, Krimmer, Fox, and new Beaver (as on model sketched).

$25 and $39.75

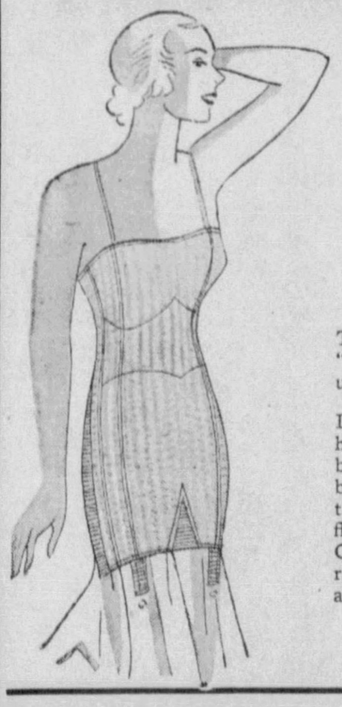
Values that are sensational! Trimmed with Caracul, Wolf, Nubian Seal (dyed Coney), Skunk, etc.

Dresses and Coats in Sizes
14½ to 26½ for Little Women
40½ to 52½ for Larger Women

—Second Floor—

The New Nemo-Flex

WONDERLIFT FOUNDATIONS



$5

Flatter Mature Figures

The new Nemo-flex "remakes" mature figures!

Its firm boning flattens hips. And its inner-belt not only supports, but flattenes you into the new, high-waisted flat diaphragm effect. Of firm striped material. A splendid value at $5!

—Second Floor—

Look Smart—Be Comfortable In

ENNA JETTICK SHOES

$4.40

$5.00

The newly smart built-up models sketched prove Enna Jetticks are up to the minute in fashion.

And their inbuilt arches prove they are equally ideal in comfort — especially for mature figures. Suede, Kid, Calf, Patent.

You Need No Longer Be Told You Have An Expensive Foot

—First Floor—

BOGGS & BUHL

Patricia Pitt's Sprightly Comment on Pittsburgh's Society Happenings

In Mayfair —With— Patricia Pitt

This week is golfing week out at Fox Chapel Golf Club. And a lovelier setting for golf I can't imagine than the course there over the green, rolling countryside.

The clubhouse itself has never looked better, have you noticed? At first, after the new addition was added, it all looked a little too new, a little barren.

But now the passage of a short time has mellowed the building, and the shrubs and lawns have prospered amazingly. And did you ever see larger, or more lush purple petunias than those on the right-hand side of the clubhouse as you approach it?

To Start Handicap

But to get back to golf. Yesterday the women played a qualifying round, for the women's club championship, and today they will start start on the handicap competition.

With the tang in the late September air, there's been a change in golf costumes. Gone are the seersucker frocks in dressmaker style, white linen frocks and gay linens.

And the sweater and skirt are enjoying a come-back. Vivid Mrs. T. J. Hilliard, who's chairman of woman's golf at Fox Chapel, chose a yellow wool skirt and a yellow knitted sweater. Starting off with her was Mrs. F. G. Blackburn in a white wool skirt and a white sweater.

Mrs. George A. Kelly III, looked smart in a light green wool skirt, over which she wore a jersey sweater in darker green. Mrs. Reginald Quaile's sweater was a Navajo pattern in vivid colors on white wool. And with it she wore a beige wool skirt.

In Skirt, Sweater

Dorothy Blaxter, who was playing with her mother, Mrs. V. Blaxter, in a beige knitted costume, had a cellophane belt for her yellow sweater, which she wore over a vivid blue crepe skirt.

Others following the sweater and skirt mode were Mrs. John Berdan and Mrs. B. R. Shriver. And nearly all the players wore tulle caps in white and dark brown.

* * *

After spending the summer at home in Pittsburgh, Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald has decided to go away for the fall, and may not return until after Christmas.

To Visit Europe

Mrs. Fitzgerald enjoys summers and falls in Pittsburgh, but dreads the winters; so she usually does her traveling in the late fall and winter.

She and her tall, brunette daughter, Frances, and Mrs. George F. Ladd, of Coraopolis Heights, will sail in mid-October for the Balearic Islands.

* * *

Mrs. D. B. Frampton is planning to leave this week-end for Washington to be the guest of her father and mother, the Harry Moore Paynes. And on Monday night she'll attend the dinner to be given in the Mayflower for Ambassador Di Martino, who is returning to Italy.

FOX CHAPEL'S WOMEN IN THEIR ANNUAL GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

MRS. JOHN BERDAN (LEFT) AND MRS. B. R. SHRIVER PLAYING IN THE QUALIFYING ROUND IN THE FOX CHAPEL GOLF CLUB'S WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIPS

Deers Club to Hold Card Party Tomorrow

The Deers Club will hold a card party tomorrow evening in Elks Temple, Cedar avenue. Mrs. Elizabeth Kessler is president of the organization and Mrs. Bertha Lippert is chairman of the card party.

Miss Margaret Beglinger Enters Albright College

Miss Marjorie Beglinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Beglinger, of Crafton boulevard, Laureldale, has been enrolled in the freshman class at Albright College, in the art school.

Now! Service Tickets Save You More on Beauty Specials!

For Instance:

6 ALBERT DURANDE MASQUE FACIALS

Regularly $2 each $8 For Tickets of Six

The Albert Durande Masque is a revolutionary and popular new Paris rejuvenating method. Lately reduced to $2, it is now offered at $8 for tickets of six, providing they are used within 60 days.

$2 COMBINATION, $1.50

Oil Shampoo, Finger Wave and Manicure Combination, regularly $2—a ticket valid for 30 days, at $1.50.

$3 COMBINATION, $2

Shampoo, Finger Wave and Facial, on ticket valid for 30 days, $2.

—Beauty Salon, Second Floor—

BOGGS & BUHL

Catherine Goldsworthy Becomes Bride of Harry A. Olson

Mr. and Mrs. George Walter Goldsworthy, of Sheridan avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Catherine Corinne Goldsworthy, to Harry Andrew Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Olson, which was solemnized at an attractive ceremony Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, in the Calvary Protestant Episcopal Church with the Rev. Dr. E. J. Van Etten officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, having long sleeves, and a yoke of net embroidered with seed pearls. The long train was fashioned in three tiers, and her veil of Brussels lace, finished with a lace cap caught with orange blossoms, terminated in a wide ruffle of tulle over the dress train. She carried a sheaf of calla lilies.

Miss Grace F. Goldsworthy, as her sister's junior bridesmaid, wore a gown of peach-glo panne velvet, and the bridesmaids, Miss Nadine R. Meyer, of Chicago, and Miss Margaret T. Blake, wore panne velvet gowns in cameo red. The gowns were made with short sleeves, cowl necklines, and sashes of gold metal cloth and velvet, tying in large bows in the back. Their hats were all of brown velvet and they carried fall flowers. The bride's mother wore an ensemble of dahlia crepe with a velvet turban and corsage of orchids, and the mother of the bridegroom chose blue velvet with a matching turban and shoulder spray of orchids.

George W. Goldsworthy, Jr., brother of the bride, was the best man, and the ushers were Henry Z. Vance, Dr. William A. Messer and Ralph G. Montieth.

There was a reception and dinner for 120 guests in the Pittsburgh Athletic Association, after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Olson left on a motor trip through the East. They will be at home in Pittsburgh after October 15.

Miss Catherine P. Frey Weds James R. George

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brinkman, of South Graham street, announce the marriage of their niece, Miss Catherine P. Frey, to James R. George, of the North Side, which was solemnized on Saturday.

After a motor trip through the Northwest, Mr. and Mrs. George will be at home in the Alder Court Apartments.

Pittsburgh Field Club To Give Dinner Dance

The Pittsburgh Field Club announces a dinner dance to be held Saturday evening, October 8, reservations for which must be made in advance. The regular Sunday buffet suppers are to be discontinued after Sunday, and dinners will be held in their stead. The annual Halloweenn celebration will take place October 29.

Pittsburghers Visit Mountain Resort Over Week End

Among the many Pittsburgh visitors who spent the week-end at the Summit Hotel Golf and Country Club were Miss Jean C. Carroll, Mrs. A. D. Gilbert, Mrs. E. K. Zacharias and D. L. Zacharias, D. M. Donnan, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Walter, J. A. McNally, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Benedito, of the Schenley Hotel; Mr. and Mrs. R. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weil, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Blotter, C. H. Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bennett, R. R. Schroyer, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Craft, H. W. Moody, Miss Mary V. Butler and P. J. Gimbel.

The following Pittsburghers were registered during the past few days for luncheons and dinners:

Miss Arlene Hendricks, Norman Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gerst, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Kober, Miss Francis Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cromwell and daughters, Dorrise and Ann, and Miss Helen Philpott.

Others registered were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Levens, Dormont, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shakespeare, Mt. Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams, Dormont; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Schoenberg, Dormont; Miss Mary H. Greenlee and Miss Edna Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moyer, Miss Dorothy Moyer, E. E. Shek, Philip Linnford, Miss Della Seker, Mrs. John Westwater and David Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duncan, Mrs. J. D. Duncan, of Pittsburgh, with Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Buiker and Mrs. Elvin Rickey, of Irwin, were also weekend guests as were Mr. and Mrs. James Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Neeld, Miss Elsa Schmitt, O. W. Hair, Miss Margaret Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Abernethy, and Miss Betty Abernethy, Mrs. J. R. Williams, Paul Williams, Jack Williams, Robert Williams, Miss Rosemary Williams and Miss Dorothy Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roth, Miss J. L. Jones, Miss M. A. Rindlaub, Margaret C. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Haller, Gus Haller, Martin Schempp, Miss Olga Friedman, Miss Anne Brown, N. S. Riviere, Miss Alice Marsh, Miss Elisabeth Marsh, N. S. Riviere, Jr., Miss Ethel Gibson, Miss Virginia Seabright, Miss Gladys Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brown, Mrs. M. L. McAbee, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Schroeder, Jacob W. Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McGrath, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Schade and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barclay were Sunday guests. Others included Gus Haller, former American record holder for gliders, and Martin Schempp, present holder of the altitude record for gliders, both of Pittsburgh, who are now stationed on Mount Summit, three miles north of the Summit Hotel, awaiting favorable winds to set new long distance and altitude records for glider flights in America. They expect to take off some day this week.

★ ★

As Advertised in the Rotogravure Section of The Sunday Sun-Telegraph

Finest

SAROUK designs In $100

GULISTAN

rugs

for 9x12 ft. size

What has happened? Just this . . . the largest maker of Oriental Rugs has selected his finest Sarouk designs for production in the famous Gulistan weave! No woman who knows rugs can pass these amazing values unheeding. Oriental designs, Oriental wools, Oriental lustre, shimmering, silky, transforming a room! Production in U. S. A. saves all import duty! See these Gulistan Sarouks tomorrow and marvel at the value!

—Domestic Rugs, Third Floor—

Boggs & Buhl

★ ★

USE OF FRINGE ADDS NOTE OF DISTINCTION TO BLACK DRESS

Sketched in Paris

Paris Bureau,
Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—There is more than the usual share of black among the new clothes that Paris is making for 1933. Coming as a relief after the barrage of bright reds and blues and greens of the last few seasons, Paris turns back to its old favorite black for a number of its dresses of the all-day variety.

* * *

THESE NEW black dresses are made, mostly, of heavy black silk crepes or of lightweight woolen which has a matt surface. In most cases the lines of the dresses are simple enough, but the material is fringed, or tucked or folded or "worked" in some complicated way in order to mark each frock with its own distinction.

* * *

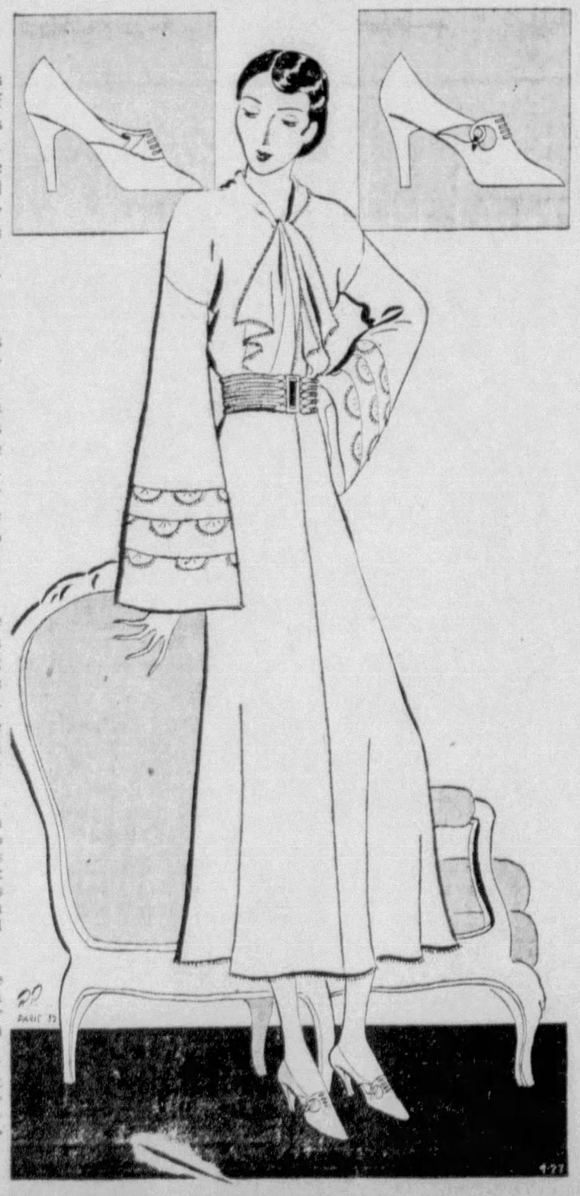
MAGGY-ROUFF likes the fringed idea. She uses it here, on a dress of black marocain—edging the collar, deep scarf tie, wrists and hem; also the little shell-shaped pieces of fabric that have been gathered into shape and sewn into line at the bottom of the sleeves.

* * *

THE BELT, an important item in the design of the dress, is also in black, with gold accents. It is made of five heavy black silk cords, each ending at both ends in a gold metal globule which fastens to the black and gold buckle.

* * *

BLACK SHOES complete the costume. They are from Precioso done in black kid, with a tiny strap of red leather looped through the cut-outs at the sides. The shoes are shown in detail at the upper right. At the upper left is another shoe which would be appropriate with this gown—beige kid oxfords from Pinet with white kid trimming and black piping.



(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Announcing a New Group of

CLOTH COATS

IN A PRICE RANGE FROM

$65 to $100

Woolens that are the pride of the weaver's art. Furs carefully selected with the knowledge acquired by this establishment through over a half century's experience in the handling of fine peltries. Yes . . . these are truly beautiful coats.

And they are wearable. Nothing baroque about the styling—but period adaptations in a glorious spirit of modernity.

Fur trimmings from our own skin rooms including Persian lamb, beaver, black fox, blue dyed fox (dyed white fox), caracul, and Fisher dyed fitch.

SIZES 12 TO 42

New Hats, from $12.50

GRABOWSKY'S

514 AND 516 WOOD STREET

Established 1875

Bronze green woolen with beaver collar and beaver trimmed sleeves. $75.

"I'VE traveled the world around," muses the Epicure, "and have tasted foods in many lands. One lesson I have learned. If one constantly seeks perfection, ultimately it is attained...as witness the marvelous cuisine at The WARWICK in New York." Add to that the spacious comfort...the luxurious accommodations...the perfect service...the fashionable, congenial atmosphere...and you will begin to understand the appeal of The WARWICK. Even a short stay will be memorable.

The Warwick

65 West 54th St., New York

ALBERT F. MILLER, Resident Manager J. E. FRAWLEY, General Manager

Latest News of Activities in Busy Lives of Pittsburgh's Club Women

Tea to Be Given By Westminster College Club

By MRS. CHARLES M. BREGG

Preparatory to the year's work, the new comittees will be appointed at Saturday's meeting of the Westminster College Women's Club. The members will gather in the Pittsburgh College Club, North Craig street, and will hear Mrs. Edward B. Reed, of Mercer, one of the Westminster trustees, tell of the activities of the house committee. There's to be tea, too, and this year's graduates will be welcomed into the organization.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be the membership committee, with Miss Ruth Houston as chairman, and Miss Mary Caldwell, Miss Catherine Dick, Miss Catherine Forsberg, Miss Mary Tea and Miss Norma Nevin as aides.

While the personnel of the committees will not be announced until Saturday, these chairmen already have been appointed: Program, Miss Emma M. Campbell; social, Mrs. H. H. Donaldson; finance, Miss Clara Dickey; ways and means, Mrs. R. C. McKelvey; membership, Miss Houston; publicity, Miss Mary McElree; memorial, Mrs. Thomas P. Trimble. Mrs. Scott N. Watt is president; Miss McElree, vice president; Miss Mary Jamison, recording secretary; Miss Lois Logan, corresponding secretary; Miss Alice G. McCrory, treasurer.

PLAYING AT HILLMANS'

MISS RITA WISE . . . PLAYING ON A NEIGHBOR'S TENNIS COURT

Miss Wise pictured as she prepared to play on the J. Hartwell Hillmans' tennis court. This is a Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph picture.

Helen Choate's Betrothal Is Announced

By CHOLLY KNICKERBOCKER

Universal Service Society Editor.

NEW YORK.—A most distinguished betrothal has just been announced — Helen Choate is the promised bride of Geoffrey Platt.

Helen is a granddaughter of the late Joseph H. Choate, who served as the American ambassador to the Court of St. James, her father being Joseph H. Choate, Jr., of New York and Mt. Kisco.

Helen made her debut in the winter of '25-'26, and she can point proudly to membership in the Colony Club. She attended the Brearly and Foxcroft schools.

Through her mother, the one-time Cora Oliver, Helen is a granddaughter of Gen. Robert Shaw Oliver, assistant secretary of war from 1903 until 1913.

Geoffrey, who is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Platt, of New York and Cornish, N. H., attended Harvard and was captain of the crew.

He was graduated in 1927 and is in his father's office—the senior Mr. Platt being one of the foremost architects.

No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Ruth Hadley's Betrothal To R. W. Buck Announced

Mr. and Mrs. J. Reed Hadley, of Sheraden, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Hadley, to Ross W. Buck, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Buck, of Edgeworth, at a recent bridge and buffet supper. Miss Hadley is a graduate of the kindergarten department of the Frick Training School, and has been the assistant in the Sewickley Kindergarten for five years. She is president of the Woman's Club of Sheraden, Junior Section.

Mr. Buck attended Bethany and Oberlin colleges and has been an assistant editor of the Sewickley Herald for the past five years. No date has been set for the wedding. Present at the buffet supper were Miss Hadley's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Garber, of Cincinnati and Mr. Buck's sisters, Miss Garnet Buck and Mrs. Raymond Lawrence, of Edgeworth.

President of Thornburg Club Holds Reception

Mrs. Harry S. McKinley, president of the Thornburg Community Club, held an informal reception yesterday afternoon at her home in Princeton avenue, at which she was assisted by the other officers. At the tea table, Mrs. D. T. Felix, a past president, had Miss Mildred McKinley, Mrs. Lambert Smith and Mrs. Einar Rugg as aides. The next meeting of the club will be held Monday afternoon, October 10, in Mrs. Allen B. Fink's home.

Jewish Home Auxiliary To Meet Tomorrow

A general meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society, Jewish Home for the Aged, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home in Breckenridge avenue.

Zoar Home Auxiliary To Elect Tomorrow

Officers will be elected at the afternoon session of the annual meeting of the Zoar Home Auxiliary to be held tomorrow at the home. The morning session begins at 10 o'clock.

ROOSEVELT BEAUTY SHOPPE

Entirely redecorated, remodeled and equipped with a hair drying capacity of 48 heads per hour—has pleased and satisfied more than 1,000 of Pittsburgh's most fastidious women in the last two weeks.

Why not let us please you too. Our entire staff of beauty experts are at your service.

Personality Hair Cutting By MR. ARNONE 25c

Personality HAIR DRESS By LA NORE Noted Hair Stylist (With Shampoo and Trim) $1

PERMANENT WAVE SPECIALS

Realistic	Genuine	Self-Setting	Easy Set
Croquignole	Eugene	Roosevelt	Gloria
$4	3.25	2.50	1.75
Wound from the ends up.	World Famous	Very Popular	Beautiful and Lasting

Complete with Shampoo and Finger Wave—No Extra Charge for Long Hair

ALL EXPERIENCED OPERATORS

601 PENN AVE. (2nd Floor) ATlantic 5197

OPEN EVENINGS EXCEPT WED. AND SAT.

Vacation Highlights' Given at Carnegie Club

"Vacation highlights" were given in response to roll call at the first meeting of the Monday Club of Carnegie yesterday. Mrs. H. S. Kane, of Library avenue, was hostess and her son, Barton Kane, furnished the music—several solos, in which he was accompanied by Mrs. John Bigham. Mrs. Arba Williamson received the gavel from Mrs. Charles Barnum. Mrs. George McFarland forecast the good things in store for the club and a review of Lewis Golding's "Magnolia Street," by Mrs. J. H. Mulvey, completed the program.

Mrs. Braun Chairman For Council's Party

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Rose Braun will be the chairman for the weekly card party at the Council House of the Pittsburgh Council of Catholic Women. Assisting Mrs. Braun will be her two daughters, Miss Hilda F. Braun and Mrs. L. C. Fierst, Mrs. Agnes Wanner and Mrs. Wallace Kolras. Chairmen for the following Saturdays are October 8, Mrs. J. H. Clark; October 15, Mrs. Harry Russell; October 22, Mrs. Mary Fagan, and October 29, Mrs. Margaret Murray.

Court Allegheny, C.D.A. To Give Benefit Party

A benefit card party will be held tomorrow evening by Court Allegheny, No. 664, Catholic Daughters of America, in the Knights of Columbus club rooms, Sterritt Building, North Side. Miss Clara Ubinger, general chairman, is assisted by Miss Marie Seidneck, Miss Caroline Claney, Mrs. Margaret Justus, Miss Mary E. Scheller, Miss Gertrude Funfar, Miss Rose Joyce, Mrs. Margaret Claney and Miss Collette Beck.

Daughters of Congress' Members to Be Aides

Mrs. T. M. Stahlman, president of the Congress of Clubs, has asked the young daughters of Congress members and their friends to serve as aides on the candy committee for the executive board's card party tomorrow afternoon.

Sloan Club Distributes $13,000 in Scholarships

In her greeting on the club's fifth anniversary, which was marked yesterday by a bridge luncheon in the South Hills Country Club, Mrs. John S. Sloan, life president of the Sarah Sloan Scholarship Club, said $13,000 had been paid out in scholarships since the club was organized. In appreciation of Mrs. Sloan's services as president, Mrs. D. Edwin Miller presented her with a beautifully-bound dictionary. There was music by Julius Glasser, violinist, and his sister, Ruth Glasser Belsmeier, accompanist.

Prof. and Mrs. Stiening Return From Europe

Prof. and Mrs. Frank H. Stiening, Washington road, Mt. Lebanon, returned home Wednesday on the Majestic from an extended tour of England and the continent. They were accompanied by Mrs. Steiening's mother, Mrs. W. S. Rae.

While abroad they visited, in addition to England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland and France.

Prof. Stiening will resume his duties next week in the department of mechanical engineering, University of Pittsburgh.

Mt. Lebanon Club Garden Group Meets Tomorrow

A meeting of the garden department of the Women's Club of Mt. Lebanon will be held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Root, Lebanon Hills Drive, Mt. Lebanon, tomorrow afternoon. The speaker will be Kenneth Phelp, who will have as his subject "Planting Bulbs for Spring Bloom and Color."

John Hay Whitneys Buy Noted Australian Filly

NEW YORK—The John Hay Whitneys are proud of themselves for having acquired the blue-blooded filly, Nea Lap, for their stables at Langolen, their Virginia estate. Nea Lap is to be brought immediately to this country from Sydney, Australia.

Nea Lap is the sister of Phar Lap, reputed to be the fastest race horse in the world before his death last spring.

Perrysville W. C. T. U. Changes Meeting Time

Perrysville Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold its monthly meeting this evening instead of this afternoon in the Perrysville Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Perrysville avenue and Cutler street. Mrs. W. T. Larimer, county director of Sabbath schools and the Bible in the public schools for the county W. C. T. U. will speak. Mrs. A. P. McCurdy, director of Christian citizenship, also will speak, and Mrs. Robert G. Callen and Miss Sarah Morgan will sing a duet, with Mrs. Ella Doerr as accompanist.

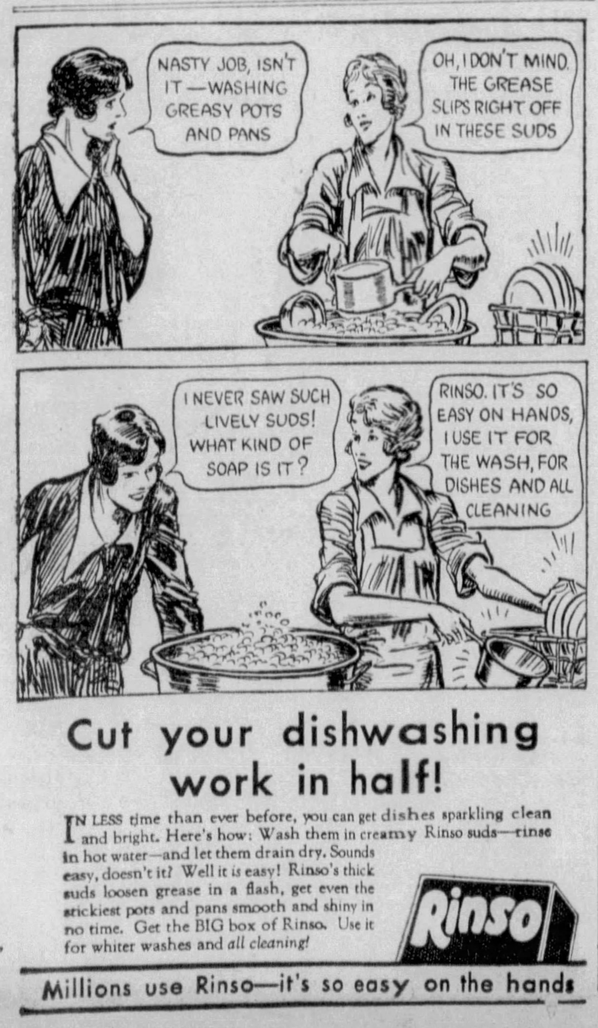
National P. T. A. Officer To Address W. Va. Meet

Mrs. Ada Hart Arlitt, of New York, chairman of the parent education committee of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, has accepted an invitation to address the West Virginia Congress at its annual meeting at Huntington, beginning October 24.

The convention will open with a dinner meeting at the Prichard Hotel and will close two days later on the eve of the opening of the annual state education association convention.

Miss Alice E. Maassen Weds Edward E. Dittmer

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Maassen, of Conestoga road, Wilkinsburg, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice Elizabeth Maassen, to Edward John Dittmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William John Dittmer, of Wilkinsburg. The ceremony took place at Holiday's Cove, W. Va., on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Dittmer are at home in Summerlea street, East Ennd.



NASTY JOB, ISN'T IT—WASHING GREASY POTS AND PANS
OH, I DON'T MIND. THE GREASE SLIPS RIGHT OFF IN THESE SUDS
I NEVER SAW SUCH LIVELY SUDS! WHAT KIND OF SOAP IS IT?
RINSO. IT'S SO EASY ON HANDS, I USE IT FOR THE WASH, FOR DISHES AND ALL CLEANING

Cut your dishwashing work in half!

IN LESS time than ever before, you can get dishes sparkling clean and bright. Here's how: Wash them in creamy Rinso suds—rinse in hot water—and let them drain dry. Sounds easy, doesn't it? Well it is easy! Rinso's thick suds loosen grease in a flash, get even the stickiest pots and pans smooth and shiny in no time. Get the BIG box of Rinso. Use it for whiter washes and all cleaning!

Rinso

Millions use Rinso—it's so easy on the hands

★

KROGER ANNOUNCES

A NEW PACKAGE - A NEW PRICE

BUT THE SAME FINE QUALITY

THE NEW DOUBLE BAG
This new container is most efficient. The inner bag is of hard surface, nonabsorbent glassine — the outer wrapper is of tough, heavy, shock resisting woven paper. It protects the Coffee perfectly, yet does not add to the price you pay as do expensive containers.
FRENCH BRAND COFFEE
THE NEW SEALED TOP
The new metal sealer at the top of each French bag keeps the fine flavor of the Coffee intact. This patented feature enables you to seal the bag again in your home after each coffee making.

Today that old favorite French Brand Coffee comes to you in a new package at a remarkably new, low price.

Here is a sensation—a Kroger scoop! Even though Coffee Markets have, and are advancing, the new price is made possible by the tremendous sale and popularity of this famous Coffee.

For over thirty years French Brand Coffee has been the favorite wherever there are Kroger Stores. Its consistent high quality, full body and fine flavor have attracted to it each week more and more people who appreciate fine Coffee.

Today you get that same fine flavor, that same full body, that same rich aroma, but in the new handy bag, and at the new, low price.

25¢

•ONE POUND PACKAGE• SENSATIONAL NEW PRICE

★ ★ ★

SPECIAL NOTICE

French Brand Coffee is roasted and delivered to Kroger Stores daily. It is packed in the whole bean and ground for you the way you want it when you buy it.

Thru this method all of the rich, essential oils that go to make the flavor in Coffee are retained until the very last moment. You can buy no fresher Coffee than at Kroger Stores.

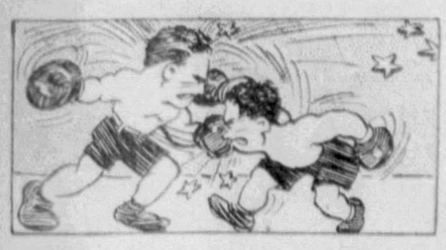
★

Jewel Coffee . . . . . Lb. 21c
Smooth and fragrant

Country Club Coffee Lb. Tin 30c
Fine, rich and distinctive

AT ALL KROGER STORES

TICKET PLAN CHANGE TO LURE SERIES FANS LOOMS



SUN-TELEGRAPH SPORTS

TWENTY-TWO — TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1932 — BEST IN PITTSBURGH

SCHMELING PROVES 'KILLER'

SPORT COMMENT

By James J. Long

Walker Game To Last.
Critics Overlook Adams.
Series With Buc Color.
Floodlight Sports Grow.
To Alter Stumble Rule.
Harman's Heavy Losses.

SCHMELING RING'S BEST HEAVYWEIGHT

THOUGH MAX SCHMELING did only what had been generally expected in scoring a decisive victory over Mickey Walker last night, the workmanlike manner in which he performed the job strengthens the opinion that he is destined to be the first dethroned heavyweight champion ever to regain the big title. They'll say now that it was no great trick for any first-class heavyweight to defeat the smaller and washed-up Walker, but that's not giving Schmeling his due. Only Phil Delmont in Mickey's starting days in 1919, and Joe Dundee with an eight-round technical knockout in 1926, ever before stopped the Toy Bulldog. Even in Mickey's state of decline it took a great fighter to whip him in eight rounds and give him such a terrific beating, and the result would appear to remove all doubt, if any has existed, that Schmeling, title or no title, is the best heavyweight now throwing leather. More than once last night he mercifully slowed down his attack, or he probably would have won in even quicker time.

Max Schmeling

All honor to Walker in defeat. He has been one of the greatest fighting machines the game ever knew in any class, with a heart to match his remarkable battling ability. Even in the face of the terrible beating that brought his finish, his gameness and courage stood out as an impressive feature of the one-sided fight. Mickey lost as he had always won—like a fighter and a champion bred in the bone.

THOUGH ADMITTING THE pitching ability of Johnny Allen and Lon Warneke, some baseball men express the opinion that it would be unwise to depend on them as main props in the world series, because of their inexperience. They hold that no freshman or near-freshman has ever starred in the classic as a pitcher.

Pittsburghers must disagree. They recall a youngster named Babe Adams, who, in his first full season as a Pirate, knocked the Tigers off three times in the world series of 1909 and gave them only five runs and 18 hits in 27 innings. He pitched the last two games within a space of four days and climaxed his string of brilliant performances with a shutout in the finale to win the series.

WITH NINE YEARS of experience as coach of the Yankees to back up his opinion, Charley O'Leary, now working in the same capacity for the Cubs, voices the belief that the hustle and pitching strength of the Bruins will overcome the foe's hitting power.

O'Leary says the Cubs have more drive and pepper than the veteran Yankee club because they are a young team. He declares the Yankee pitchers looked good this year only because they rode in on the heavy hitting of their mates.

WITH ALL DUE respect to Lon Warneke's record, Max Carey contends that the young Cub star is not the best pitcher in the National League, and predicts that next season will bear him out. "Not toking into consideration any one of my own hurlers, I think Dizzy Dean, of the Cardinals, is the best pitcher in our league," said the Brooklyn manager. "I put Dizzy ahead of Warneke and all others on our seven rival clubs, and I think he will be the standout of 1933. Dean has more speed than Warneke, and don't think Dizzy isn't a smart pitcher. He knows how to pitch to batters, and he has a great future. Dean is not only a first-rate pitcher, but he is also a good ball player. He can hit and field and run, and there is no end to his enthusiasm."

PITTSBURGHERS WILL FOLLOW the junior world series starting in Newark today with greater interest than usual, inasmuch as the opposing clubs will be directed by two former Pirate figures, Al Mamaux and Donie Bush, and there are ex-Buccaneer players in both lineups.

Al Mamaux

Mamaux and Bush placed to their credit two of the neatest managerial jobs accomplished in a long time in lifting Newark and Minneapolis to the pennant heights this year. The Bears had not finished first in the International League since 1913. The Millers had not won an American Association flag since 1915.

THE NEWARK catchers are Hargreaves and Phillips; the leading pitchers Brennan, Holsclaw, Rufus Meadows, Murphy, Jablonowski and Nekola; the infielders, Neun, Saltzgaver, Rolfe and Owen, and the outfielders Jensen, a Pirate farmhand; Jess Hill and Walker.

Minneapolis has Richards and Griffin as backstops; Petty, Carmen Hill, Donohue, Henry, Ryan, Benton and Van Gilder as pitchers; Hauser, Cohen, Ganzel and Smith in the infield, and Rice, Mowry and Ruble in the outfield.

Night sports outdoors have taken quite a grip on this district since Duquesne University brought in floodlight football in 1929 and Meyers Bowl in North Braddock introduced regular weekly boxing as a summer attraction in the same year. Football by artificial light has grown, in particular. The Dukes carded five games for this season, and have three yet to play against Grove City, Oglethorpe and West Virginia Wesleyan. Scott High School has an illuminated field in North Braddock, opened its season with a night game and will offer several more. Homestead High will play its home games at night, and Geneva College in Beaver Falls also has a field lighted for nocturnal contests. A number of independent games also will be played under the Mazdas.

MANY FOOTBALL MEN believe that before another season arrives, a change will be made in the stumble rule, the unpopular regulation that makes the ball dead when any part of the carrier's person except his hands or feet touches the ground, even though he is not in the grasp of an opponent.

One amendment likely to be proposed is that the carrier be permitted to advance if he is more than five yards from the nearest possible tackler. This season the ball is dead if the carrier slips or stumbles and touches a knee to the ground even if there is no opposing player within 50 yards of him.

ONE OF THE biggest players in college football this fall is presented by the Pacific Coast Conference players in George Theodoratus, of Washington State, at Pullman. He has a displacement of 235 pounds in playing condition.

Harvey Harman

Coach Babe Hollingbery plans to use the giant at tackle or fullback. Theodoratus used to be a shot-putter on the track team at Sacramento Junior College, where he also was the big noise of the football team.

HARVEY HARMAN, FORMER Pitt line star and now head coach at Penn, may be pardoned for singing the blues this fall. His squad has been depleted by one stroke of ill luck after another, until he has already lost no fewer than five men who had figured strongly in his plans for the season. The hardest blow fell when Monroe (Bud) Smith, the hero of Penn's 3-to-0 victory over Lafayette last year, and one of the seniors on the team, was ordered by the doctors to give up football on account of a chest condition. An attack of jaundice forced Edgar Moore, a regular guard on the freshman team of 1931, to retire from the gridiron for the year, and the others to abandon the game were Lee Klempner, Norville White and Bob Evans.

INTEREST LACK ALARMS; RAIN PREDICTED

Series Facts

By the Associated Press.

Contestants—New York Yankees, American League champions, vs. Chicago Cubs, National League champions.

Managers—Joe McCarthy, Yankees, and Charley Grimm, Cubs.

Conditions—Best four out of seven games.

Schedule of games—First game, Yankee Stadium, tomorrow; second game, Yankee Stadium, Thursday; third, fourth and fifth games, October 1, 2 and 3, at Wrigley Field, Chicago; sixth and seventh games, if necessary, at Yankee Stadium, October 5 and 6.

Postponements—In the event of a postponement, the teams will remain in whichever city they happen to be until they play the games scheduled for that city, dates for later games being shifted accordingly.

Time of games—1:30 p. m., standard time, eastern time at New York; central time at Chicago.

Probable first game batteries—For Yankees, Ruffing and Dickey; for Cubs, Bush and Hartnett.

Weather forecast for tomorrow—Probably showers, moderate temperature.

Seating capacities (approximate)—Yankee Stadium, 69,000; Wrigley Field, 52,000.

Umpires—William J. Klem and George M. Magerkurth, National League; William Dineen and Roy Van Graflan, American League.

Chief scorer—William Hennigan, New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The management of the Yankees, alarmed at the apathy shown by world series ticket buyers, is considering an appeal to Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis for permission to violate the present rule that reserved tickets can be sold only for three games and not for single contests.

A strip of three tickets costs $16.50 and baseball fans with $16.50 are not as numerous this year as they have been. Fans wishing to see a single contest have to buy tickets for three games and then hope they can dispose of the two not needed.

If Landis relents, single tickets may be bought for $5.50.

CUBS CALL OFF DRILL

The Chicago Cubs, full of vim and vigor, rolled into town on their special train at 10 a. m. today, anxious to get into their playing togs and get in a stiff practice at the Yankee Stadium, but after two glances at the sodden sky, Manager Charley Grimm decided his team would do no practicing before the first game of the series against the Yanks tomorrow.

A cold, drizzling rain fell most of the morning. It let up about noon, but even then it didn't look like world series weather.

The Cubs pennant party included 27 players, coaches and trainers, as well as some 50 club officials, reporters, photographers and plain, every-day baseball fans. There was only a small crowd to meet the special train, nothing like the send-off the Cubs got at Chicago.

GRIMM REVEALS PLANS

The Cubs' pilot hustled around to a nearby hotel to pay his respects and confer with Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis. On the way over he confirmed his choice of Guy Bush to face the Yanks in the first game tomorrow. He said:

"There's no secret about it. I figure on Bush stopping them in the first, and then we'll toss Lon Warneke at them in the second. Either Root or Malone will work the third game at Chicago. Can't tell yet which it will be."

Dr. James Kimball, of the weather bureau, the man who guesses right for the trans-Atlantic fliers, said he expected showers and cool weather tomorrow.

MISS ORCUTT ADVANCES

SALEM COUNTRY CLUB, WEST PEABODY, Mass., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Maureen Orcutt, of Haworth, N. J., the medalist, won her opening 18-hole match from Frances Snyder, of Rye, N. Y., by a 5-and-3 margin, in the women's national golf championship today.

Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, who has dominated this play for the past 10 years, gained a 7-and-5 victory over Mrs. Karl Scheidt, of Norristown, Pa.

Ada MacKenzie, of Toronto, defeated Jane Brooks, of Sparkhill, N. Y., 1 up, and Virginia Van Wie, of Chicago, co-medalist, played brilliantly to win over Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, of Silver Springs, Md., 5 and 4.

Mrs. Leo G. Federman, of Lakeville, N. Y., defeated Mrs. R. C. Lake, Flushing, N. Y., 3 and 2. The victor was 2 up at the turn.

Edith Quier, of Haverford, Pa., who picked pu seven holes against Mrs. N. S. Goldberger, of West Long Branch, N. Y., ended the match on the eleventh green to win by the decisive margin of 9 and 7.

GOLFERS HOLD REUNION

Old days of Pittsburgh golf were discussed at Schenley Park yesterday when Henry C. Fownes, Sr., one of the pioneers of the game hereabouts, greeted Bernie McFarland, his first caddie, during the Schenley open tournament. McFarland caddied for Fownes 35 years ago.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

(Reg. by U. S. Patent Office)

By RIPLEY

(On request, sent with stamped addressed envelope, Ripley will send proofs and details of anything depicted by him in these cartoons.)

GEORGE F. MORRILL of Portland, Ore.
HEARD THE LINCOLN-DOUGLAS DEBATE
© 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.
BAK
The ARMLESS PAINTER G.A. SHIRER PAINTS WITH THE BRUSH HELD IN HIS MOUTH -Uniontown, Pa.
"UNCLE BOB" SHERWOOD (Last of Barnum's Clowns) DROVE AN AUTOMOBILE 300,000 MILES WITHOUT ACCIDENT, SUMMONS, OR SOUNDING HIS HORN!
THE PLURAL OF LOLLIPOP IS BONBONS
Rip 9-27

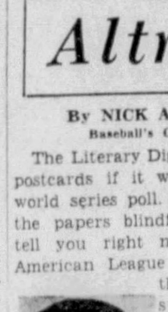
EXPLANATION OF RIPLEY'S CARTOON OF YESTERDAY: THE MASTER OF 301 TONGUES—Prof. Vilhelm Ludvig Peter Thomson (1842-1927), who occupied the chair of comparative philology at the University of Copenhagen from 1871, is the greatest name to date in the field of comparative linguistics. He mastered Latin, Greek, Hebrew, Icelandic, Spanish, Portuguese, German, French, Scandinavian and Finnish at an early age. As he grew older the prince of polyglots disdained to enrich his knowledge by the slow method of acquiring individual languages. He now mastered the human media of speech by entire groups. Prof. Thomson was the greatest master of the Finno-Ugrian group of languages, embracing nearly 100 languages and dialects, ranging from Finnish to Laplandish and Hungarian. He was just as well versed in the group of languages known as the Indo-European, covering the wide field of modern civilization. He was equally at home in ancient Sanscrit, Gypsy, Etruscan and Lycian, and in many languages at present extinct. Before Prof. Thomson's achievement the human mind can only stand in wordless admiration. It is curious that the master of 301 languages found the "How do you do?" of his native Danish the most difficult group of words to pronounce.

TOMORROW—A SACRED COMB.

Altrock Has Platform for the Series

By NICK ALTROCK
Baseball's Comedian.

The Literary Digest can save its postcards if it wants to take a world series poll. Even if I read the papers blindfolded, I would tell you right now that seven American League managers pick the Yankees and seven National loop managers choose the Cubs. In the big league baseball there is no such thing as the independent vote. Judge Landis, who could break up this tie in a minute, hasn't even registered since 1919.



Nick Altrock

In announcing my own choice, however, I want you to understand Uncle Nick is a liberal, and I will state how I stand on all the issues of the 1932 world series, as follows:

WATER POWER. In water power the Yanks are superior. With Babe Ruth, Gehrig, Lazzeri and Dickey in the lineup, the Yankees are capable of knocking the ball into Lake Michigan or Long Island Sound. I doubt if even the Cubs' best sluggers can lift the apple as far as the Chicago River.

NICK'S PLATFORM

THE BONUS. The bonus will amount to about $6,000 for each winning player, and I have already awarded this to the Yanks. The Cubs can have only partial payment, although they won't have to wait until 1945.

THE FORGOTTEN MAN. When the Cubs made up the list of boys who will collect a world series share, they made Rogers Hornsby the Forgotten Man. This is none of my business, and I am straddling this particular plank.

RAILROADS. Personally, I am going from New York to Chicago on the New York Central and coming back over the Pennsylvania route. That's what you call handling a delicate situation in a statesmanlike way.

FARM RELIEF. I will do everything I can to help the farmers. If they want to see the world series, I will relieve them of $6.60 per ticket and try to get them a bleacher seat.

ECONOMY. Just as soon as I get my press badge, on account of being an expert, I will start eating meals at press headquarters at the clubs' expense. In this manner, I expect to hold down my expense account to $1.75 a day.

PROHIBITION. Everybody knows how I stand, sit and roll under the table on this issue.

FALLS FOR YANKS

There, now, I think this cleans up the platform. As you can see from this fearless statement, I have come out flatfooted for the Yanks. In fact, last summer my arches started falling for them and I haven't changed my stance since.

Of course, Uncle Nick can be wrong, and this is a great year for upsets. In an annum when Maine goes Democratic and Wisconsin throws down the LaFollette boys, anything is liable to happen. There is nothing certain about a world series except that the umpires will drag down $2,000 apiece and Judge Landis will horn in on 80 per cent of the snapshots.

With the series almost poised on the starting blocks, there is only one economic thought I have in mind. As I gaze on the Cubs I realize Mr. Wrigley pieced this great ball team together with 5-cent sticks of gum. And, if the Yankees snatch the championship, I hope Ruppert will give us nickel beer next year.

TREAT FOR KIDDIES

In tomorrow's stupendous installment, I will discuss the Peter Rabbit baseball for the benefit of the kiddies. Don't fail to miss this, if it's the first thing you do.

(Copyright, 1932, Christy Walsh Synd.)

KID CHOCOLATE, PILOT SPLIT

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Kid Chocolate announced yesterday he no longer would recognize contracts arranged by Louis Guttierez, his manager for nine years.

The Cuban Negro, holder of the synthetic junior lightweight championship, said he would not appear in Detroit Thursday night for a match against Johnny Farr, of Cleveland.

Guttierez said his contract with Chocolate had five more years to run and that he would appeal to the courts in the event Chocolate attempted to sign another manager.

REED STOPPED

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Chino Alvarez, 135, of Havana, Cuba, knocked out Jimmy Reed, 137, of Erie, Pa., in the fourth round of a scheduled 10-round bout last night. Reed was floored five times before the final blow.

CUBS TO FIGHT HARD--GRIMM

The Chicago Cubs, who stopped off here last night for a few minutes, en route to New York, where tomorrow, they'll battle the New York Yankees in the first game of the world series, were more interested in the outcome of the Walker-Schmeling fight than in talking baseball. Manager Charley Grimm said:

"Every man is in shape and we hope to nab the first two games in New York and finish it right at Wrigley Field.

"We aren't afraid of the Yankee batting attack. We're the underdogs in this fight and I'm glad of that. We'll fight that much harder to win."

There were 85 in the Bruin party, including President William Veeck, the players, their wives and a number of Chicago baseball writers.

GERMAN STOPS WALKER; BOUT 'SLAUGHTER'

THIS FISTIC LIFE

Though countless citizens may lack
Necessities of life;
There seems to be a lot of jack
In pugilistic strife.
Depression does not linger where
A flock of knuckles fill the air.
—George E. Phair.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—In the stockyards, they are more merciful. All they do to the steer is cut his throat. But, in the ring at Long Island City last night, Max Schmeling, great in victory, was an executioner who had to batter and bash and frightfully maim the condemned man, Mickey Walker, equally great in defeat, before belated mercy roused itself and intervened. Seemingly, however, the horror of the thing went endlessly on, as Schmeling literally butchered Walker through three eternal minutes of the eighth and final round, and, back there in the blackness, the 60,000 witnesses finally were moved to protest:

Stop it! Stop it!! Stop it!!!"

But the referee, Jack Denning, was deaf to all entreaty, however urgent, and, standing uncertainly in midring, he permitted Walker to fight his way to the bell through a blear of blood, both eyes closed, his face a grim caricature, his mind a blank. And, finally, when action was taken, it didn't come from the man appointed by the state to maintain the ethics and preserve decorum. Sickened himself by what he had seen in the eighth and by what he knew was coming in the ninth, Jack Kearns, Walker's manager walked out to Denning between rounds and informed him that Walker was through.

MICKEY HELPLESS AT FINISH

By that time, Denning was the only human being in the place who hadn't known it all along. Walker, outclassed in ability, outpunched in the majority of the rounds, not to say outweighed and outreached, enjoyed his interval of momentary greatness through the middle rounds of the fight and then was done. It might be more accurate to say that he was undone by a series of tremendous right crosses to the chin that dropped him twice for counts of seven and nine and left him dazed, bloody and unprotected, a pitiful, yet wholly admirable figure that braced its drooling legs and refused to yield.

So, chin out and hands dangling helplessly, he offered himself for the "kill," and Schmeling, deadly hitter with that right of his, did his best to comply. He catapulted terrific punches to the jaw. They bounded off. He sank others to the body. It caved, but did not collapse. He closed both of Walker's eyes. He tore open his nose and ears. To [illegible] practical purposes, his fist was a stone mason's hammer and Walker's chin the block from which the chips flew.

It was an impressive exhibition of raw courage by one man and devastating hitting by the other. But I'll always feel that the stockyards do it better.

FLOORED IN FIRST ROUND

In a way, I suppose it was all Walker's fault. He ought to have been more reasonable. He just shouldn't have been so tough. Outside of the few flashes in the middle rounds, when he had Schmeling hurt and covering with rabid haste, the little Irish-American only succeeded in proving that most of his old speed has fled. He came in at the abnormal weight of 174½ pounds, which may have been a contributing factor, but age and riotous living

(Continued on Page Twenty-three)

BAER BATTERS GRIFFITHS

By WILLIAM L. COLLINS
International News Service.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Max Baer, the Livermore (Cal.), larruper, held a decisive but hollow technical knockout victory over Tuffy Griffiths, Chicago heavyweight, today.

Griffiths was no match for the handsome Californian, who could have put away Tuffy any time after the first round in their battle at Chicago Stadium last night.

Referee Phil Collins stopped the slaughter in the seventh round to save the game Griffiths from further punishment. The fight was billed for 10 rounds.

Griffiths, said to be the fastest of the heavyweights, was effectively stopped by Baer in the second round. Thereafter Tuffy's speed was a plantation shuffle.

Tuffy was game all the way and kept trying to hurt his opponent, to hang on, to last the full route.

Baer outweighed the Chicagoan 16 pounds, entering the ring at 204. Griffith weighed 188.

World Series Stars RING LARDNER NICK ALTROCK BABE RUTH | BUGS BAER AND OTHERS WRITE FOR THE Sun-Telegraph

MODERN FOOTBALL SUPERIOR TO THAT OF EARLIER DAY

WARNER TRACES PROGRESS OF GRID SPORT

By GLENN S. (Pop) WARNER
Member All-America Board of Football. (Reg. U. S. Patent Office.)

I often hear oldtimers talking about how the game of football has degenerated since the early days when they played the game and how much more of a "he man's game football was then. These oldtimers have predicted the game's downfall every time the rules committee has seen fit to change the rules.

Pop Warner

Having been actively identified with football for 40 years, I feel qualified to express the opinion that the game is much more interesting to both spectators and players today than it ever was before. It is more scientifically played, and the games are conducted under so much more favorable conditions that if we were able to go back 40 years and witness one of those college games we would think it was just a burlesque of the present game.

It was the custom of oldtime players to let their hair grow all summer so that when they appeared for practice in the fall they had long, tousled and bushy hair. This was for head protection because they knew nothing about helmets which all players wear now.

The oldtimer's uniform was heavy, so as to be durable, and it was loose fitting, so as to permit a large amount of soft padding about the knees, hips, shoulders and elbows. Contrast such a uniform with the trim, lightweight, close-fitting uniform of today with protecting pads so scientifically made that they give much more protection and yet are hardly noticeable to even close observers.

The oldtimer's uniform was not only bulky and cumberson but it was disgustingly dirty. Players gloried in looking as rough and uncouth as they possibly could. They could hardly be induced to don a clean uniform as long as the old one would be made to stay on them.

ROUGH PLAY RULED OUT

Nowadays most players have clean uniforms for every game, only using old ones for practice. These are frequently cleaned and put in a thoroughly sanitary condition.

Until recent years colors were seldom used in the players' uniforms except on stockings and jerseys. Now various colors of trousers and helmets are used, and the players present a much more spectacular appearance than formerly.

Games in the old days were rather poorly officiated, and there was a vast amount of unnecessary roughness and dirty tactics which went unnoticed and unpenalized by the arbiters of the games. It was no uncommon thing for players to have dirt or mud dashed in their eyes on the snap of the ball, or to receive an uppercut or swing on the jaw. Sure it was a "he-man's game," because it was a game of intimidation and punishment. The team which contained the biggest, roughest and toughest players simply overpowered their weaker opponents. It was not so much a game of skill, but rather a test of brute force.

Today we see very little unsportsmanlike conduct on the part of the players, and where it does occur it is promptly penalized by competent and fearless officials.

CONDITIONS IMPROVED

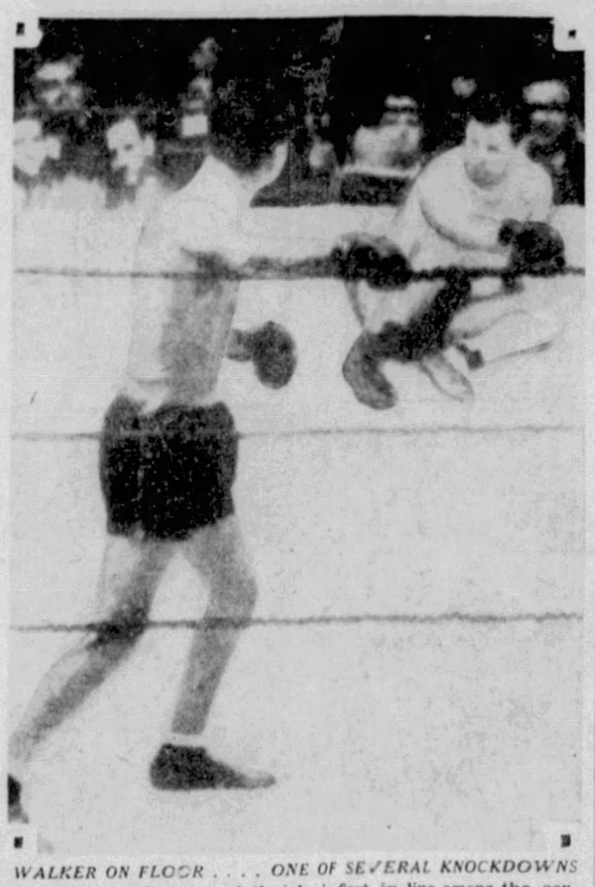
Now let us compare the conditions surrounding the games of today and of long ago. The oldtime playing fields were often unfit to play on. They were not properly cared for, and were too hard for safety during dry weather and, not being properly drained, they were mud holes in wet weather. The training quarters were generally makeshift affairs built under the bleachers, unheated and unsanitary. Today, even the smaller high schools have clean, comfortable and sanitary training quarters and dressing rooms.

Yes, football is played under vastly more favorable surroundings than it was years ago, and not only that, but instead of the game degenerating into a molly-coddle sport, the players tackle harder, block harder, run faster and handle the ball better, and the kicking is much more scientifically executed.

(Copyright, 1932, Christy Walsh Synd.)

How Schmeling Stopped Walker

MAX STABS MICKEY WITH LONG LEFT IN THE OPENING ROUND OF THE BATTLE



WALKER ON FLOOR . . . . ONE OF SEVERAL KNOCKDOWNS

Max Schmeling proved that he is first in line among the contenders for the heavyweight championship, which he lost to Jack Sharkey, when he technically knocked out Mickey Walker at the end of the eighth round of their scheduled 15-round battle at Long Island City last night. These are International News Photo Service telephoto pictures.

Walker Had No Chance, Jack Lait Writes

By JACK LAIT
Written Expressly for International News Service

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Broadway is in mourning today. So are both eyes of its favorite son—Mickey Walker. A game kid, but he had no business in the same ring with Max Schmeling.

I am no "expert." But I wrote that the referee would stop it because Walker is a "bleeder." He did, Mickey, poor kid, made a brave fight of it, but he never had a chance. The German butcher just cut him down.

Walker had no chance at all. The poor kids will get their share through the Milk Fund. That is okay. But, as a fight, it was not a sporting event. The harder Walker fought, the less chance he had. Schmeling couldn't lose.

MICKEY 'WASHED UP'

As a heavyweight, Mickey is washed up. Schmeling comes through again as the unbeatable champ. He licked Sharkey (decision all wrong), and he is the impossible phenomenon—nobody can wear him down. Walker hit him with everything, and Walker can hit. But he might as well have been hitting air. Schmeling can take it—all of it.

I gave Walker five rounds the best of it, but the outcome was a cinch. He made a man's battle. He gave the best he had—all he had—but he didn't have anywhere near enough; not for Max Schmeling. The Hun is the toughest heavyweight in all history, barring nobody. Walker is no heavyweight at all. Sharkey looked silly being introduced as the champion. Schmeling is the kaiser. He proved it again last night, recalling Walker fought Sharkey silly.

Teddy Hayes and Jack Kearns appeared sad and sick leaving the ring.

MAX TO REGAIN TITLE

Walker, both his eyes closed, couldn't see a thing. The boys who bet on Mickey could see red. Schmeling could see another match with Sharkey. And he'll clean the Boston mugger. The wish isn't father to the thought. Nothing could be farther from the wish. But Schmeling is the world's best heavyweight.

MAXIE OKAY --DEMPSEY

By JACK DEMPSEY
Former Heavyweight Champion of the World
(Copyright, 1932, Universal Service, Inc.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—So far as I'm concerned, Max Schmeling can keep on wearing my face as long as he likes. It's all right by me.

I had my first look at the young fellow against Mickey Walker last night, and he's a real good fighter—as good a fighter as I've seen in a long time.

Not much of a boxer, from what I saw last night, but a kind of a fellow who won't be bothered very much by boxers. He's tremendously strong, and he seems to get better the longer he goes. He was just beginning to put on the pressure when Doc Kearns threw in the towel for Mickey Walker.

I think the doctor did the right thing. Mickey gave the big fellow everything he had, but he never really recovered from the tough break he got in the first round.

I think Walker deserves all the credit in the world. He gave everything he had and there just wasn't anything left when Kearns surrendered.

ST. JUSTIN'S WINS

The St. Justin's High eleven defeated the Dormont High Reserves at Dormont yesterday, 7-0.

MAXIE PROVES 'KILLER'

(Continued from Page Twenty-two)

probably formed the abiding reasons. In any case, the tip-off on Walker was the fact that he could score with a left hook, but, once the punch was in, it seemed to stay in. He couldn't take it back in time to protect himself, and so he was an open target for Schmeling's countering right hand, a punch that few can weather and none can like.

It literally spattered Walker's features all over the premises, and, in fact, only his uncommon gifts saved him from a knockout in two rounds. He was on the floor under a six-count when the bell came to his aid in the first round. He took a man-sized beating for two more and then through the eighth he stood up under one of the most terrible punishments that ever the eye of man beheld. In fewer words, the legs and eye may have deserted him, but the durability remained great and the courage high.

As for Schmeling, he was making this fight to justify a return engagement with the champion, Jack Sharkey, next year. But so great was he, he may have defeated his own purpose. If he had merely beaten Walker all might have been well. But the Schmeling who knocked out Walker last night is, undoubtedly, the greatest of all living fighters, and none doubts it less than Sharkey, the champion, who sat there and saw him do it.

SCHMELING "KILLER"

He was just good enough to give Walker a boxing lesson in the first round, dropping him finally with a whistling right to the chin, after which he took the second, although the American lashed out near the end with a left hook and right cross that hurt Schmeling. He even was able to come back from a terrific belt to the stomach in the fifth. Walker landing so hard with a left hook that the German doubled in pain and was under heavy fire for the rest of the round.

Then, after tacitly conceding Walker the seventh while he himself took a "breather," Schmeling came out for the eighth clearly determined to end it. And end it he did, first with a right so authoritative that, staunch as he is, Walker suddenly found himself without knees and buckled all over the ring.

It was here, just as in the Risko fight some years ago, that Schmeling exhibited the hallmark of greatness. He was the efficient, merciless "killer," the type that hurts a man and then keeps him hurt. Weaving and punching, he clipped Walker on the chin and he went down for seven. He arose and fell headlong into a series of blinding rights, and over he went again, this time for nine.

MICKEY BUTCHERED

He barely was up with the count, and from that point it was sheer madness. Almost any punch could have finished him, but Schmeling was arm-weary now. He had given all he had and could only belabor that grotesque mask that, a few minutes before, had been Mickey Walker.

When the end came, there was some difference of opinion as to which round, the eighth that had ended and the ninth that never began, was entitled to the knockout. They had the same argument at Toledo when Willard was counted out in his corner, and, in both cases, the importance of the thing was nullified by the fact that a human being had been needlessly scourged.

Cub, Yank Pilots On Air Tonight

Joe McCarthy, manager of the New York Yankees, and Charley Grimm, manager of the Chicago Cubs, rivals in the world series opening tomorrow, will be interviewed during Ben Bernie's radio program over the NBC red network at 9 o'clock tonight.

It will be the first time managers have been on the air on the eve of a world series.

SCHENLEY OPEN TITLE WON BY KAUFFMANN

Carl F. Kauffmann, the sphinx of Schenley, three times National Public Links champion, and five times city champion, headed one of the classiest fields of amateurs and professionals ever to compete in a local tournament in the second annual Schenley Park Open yesterday. Carl shot a 64-67—131 to nose out Ted Luther, of Valley Heights, and Sam Parks, Jr., of the Summit Club, by two shots.

Luther was the defending champion, the popular Valley Heights pro, winning last year by the same score that Kauffmann turned in yesterday. Everett Comstock, a professional from South Dakota, playing unattached, collected third money with a gross 134. Bill Stocker, caddie master at Stanton Heights, was fifth with 135, while Andy Szwedka, of Schenley; Pete O'Hara, of the Westmoreland Country Club, and Fred Baroni, of Oakland Beach, tied for the last prize with 136s.

The former National Public Links champion gave a brilliant exhibition of golf over the terrain that he knows so well.

Both Luther and Parks had at least one bad hole. The long No. 4 hole in the afternoon caused Ted plenty of grief, and Parks faltered on the third hole of the morning round.

The famous Hole-In-One Club took in two new members yesterday. J. F. Stevens, of Oakmont, sank his tee shot on the 150-yard No. 13, using a No. 5 iron. Jack Ellen, of the Pittsburgh Field Club, scored an ace on the No. 4 hole.

Scoring a fine 77, Dr. W. L. Tnunhurst and Mrs. E. G. Miller led the field in the final two-ball mixed foursome tournament of the season at Edgewood yesterday.

The Pennsylvania Golf Association is holding a one-day tournament at Westmoreland today.

The Pennsylvania Golf Association will hold a one-day tournament at the Westmoreland Country Club tomorrow.

BURNS TO MEET OLYMPICS

By TOM BIRKS

The third game of the opening week's schedule in the Western Pennsylvania Independent Football Conference will be played tomorrow evening under the flood lights at New Kensington High School Field, when the Dan Burns club, of New Kensington, clashes with the Baehr Olympics, of McKeesport.

Coach Bill Sullivan, of the Tube City eleven, completed his preseason practice sessions Sunday afternoon, when he sent his gridders against the Twenty-sixth Ward Traders.

It is evident that Buzz Edwards, former W.-J. star, is going to call the signals for the Olympia Park outfit this season, and a number of former Tube City stars are going to be with the club.

Rudy Halpate, Mortak, Monessen's classy backfield player; Urban, Peeny Newlin, Steffler, Davis and Kaletz will do the ball toting for Sullivan. Contrella, former Port Vue tackle, will be back with the Olympics, with Minnick, Andy Sapp, Sullivan, Dombroski, Kramer, Simminds, Hettler, Woodward, Dunlevy and Tom McCurdy.

Sunday, the Olympics open at home with Bellaire offering the opposition. This collection of huskies from the Ohio River Valley is going to make things pretty tough for the clubs in the Conference. Officials who saw Bellaire beat West View say that Coach Hart Morris, former Pitt luminary, is going to get some place with the big club.

The other Conference game Sunday finds the Rooney and West View teams clashing at West View Park.

Indians Retain Peck as Manager

CLEVELAND, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Roger Peckinpaugh today was appointed manager of the Cleveland Indians, it was announced in a telegram received from Alva Bradley, president of the club, who is in New York for the world series.

Bradley also announced that Bib Falk, former Cleveland outfielder who managed the Toledo Club of the American Association this season, would become coach of the Indians.

The length and terms of Peckinpaugh's new contract were not announuced. In the past, however, he has been given a one-year contract, and it also has been reliably reported that he will have to take a salary reduction.

Davies Scores Technical K. O.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Sept. 27.—Willie Davies, of Charleroi, 116, won by a technical knockout over Johnny Devlin, local boy, 115½, in the seventh round of a scheduled 10-round bout here last night. The show was staged by the World War Veterans. Devlin held his rival even for the first two rounds, and opened an old cut over Davies' eye in the third, but Willie soon shot to the front, and after knocking down Johnny eight times in the sixth and seventh, Referee Red Robinson stopped hostilities.

RYAN, ARTHURS DRAW

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Charley Arthurs, 165, of Newark, N. J., and Frankie Ryan, 168, of Charleston, fought 10 rounds to a draw here last night. Lewis Cook, 145, of Huntington, knocked out Mickey Shannon, 143, of Charleston, in the second round of a scheduled 8-round semi-final.

BROWN'S PURSE HELD AFTER POOR BOUT

TONIGHT'S FIGHTS

Amateur bouts, St. Peter's A. A., North Side.

Amateur bouts, benefit of St. Vincent De Paul Society, Sullivan Field, Oakland.

Tony Canzoneri vs. Lew Kirsch (non-title); Jack Rosenberg vs. Marty Sampson and Eddie (Kid) Wolfe vs. Billy McMahon, 10 rounds each, Queensboro Stadium, New York.

Eddie Mack vs. Ah Wing Lee, 10 rounds, Denver.

Billy Jones vs. Unknown Winston, Tony Dominguez vs. Frankie O'Brien and Pancho Villa vs. Steve Halaiko, 10 rounds each, Boston.

Tracey Cox vs. Harry Dublinsky, 10 rounds, Indianapolis.

Tommy Herman vs. Freddie Steele, 10 rounds, Los Angeles.

By HARRY KECK
Sports Editor

Al Brown, Negro holder of the world bantamweight championship, who stalled through his 10-round non-title bout with Mose Butch, of Oakland, in the windup of the opening show of the season at Motor Square Garden last night, was back in New York today whistling for his money.

His purse was ordered held up by Deputy Commissioner Bill Gardner fololwing Brown's unsatisfactory exhibition. The referee had warned him several times to speed up his work, but had proved unsuccessful in his efforts to force the champion to give the fans a run for their money.

Action on the disposition of the purse will be taken at the next meeting of the boxing commission, in Philadelphia, Wednesday of next week.

FANS BOO EXHIBITION

The fans booed Brown's listless attempts to fight almost throughout and walked out on him at the end of the ninth round.

The show drew only $2,392.40 gross, one of the smallest box offices ever attracted here by a champion, and it was too much for what Brown gave the fans in return. He posed and stalled and acted like a prima donna throughout, merely registering annoyance at the referee's suggestions that he do something to really earn his money. His 20 per cent of the net receipts amounted to $632.98.

What earnest effort was offered in the bout was contributed by Butch, but he was outclassed physically with his 5 feet 1 inch of height and short reach against Brown's freakish 6 feet of angularity and long arms.

CHAMP HOLDS BACK

Butch won the first and sixth and seventh rounds on his trying, had his left eye cut in the eighth, the first even faintly interesting round of the fight, with Brown leveling a few right-handers off his chin, and was walloped by occasional hard rights to the body that hurt. It was apparent that Brown, who only a week before had knocked out Spider Pladner in one round at Toronto, was fighting only in spots and not extending himself, and his general conduct was such that the spectacle of seeing him tossed out of the ring without pay for his indifferent attitude would have been roundly applauded by the great majority of spectators, judging from their booing from the fourth round on.

The poor windup put a damper on an otherwise good opening show for the Garden, staged before a slim crowd, in keeping with the turnouts at the outdoor arenas throughout the summer.

KING BEATS RANDALL

Jack King, of Little Rock, Ark., rallied after being floored with a left hook for a count of nine in the second round to beat Tiger Joe Randall, Elizabeth Negro welterweight, in the eight-round semi-final. He polished off the job by knocking Randall to a sitting position on the bottom rope for a count of eight in the final round and having him clinching desperately and just about out on his feet at the final bell. The Tiger's left eye was almost completely closed over the last half of the route, but it was a close battle until King sewed it up with his strong finish.

Sid Silas, of New York, reversed a decision scored over him by Eddie Hebner, of Clairton, at McKeesport recently when he won the hard-fought six-round second bout despite the handicap of a badly cut eye from the second round on. The blood from the eye painted both crimson in a rousing final fighting round.

ZIVIC SCORES KAYO

Fritzie Zivic, of Lawrenceville, knocked out Young Dorsey, of East Liverpool, O., in the fourth round of the opener, after dropping him for counts of four in the first round and nine in the third. Dorsey was game, but Fritzie proved too strong and too good a puncher for him.

(Advertisement)

SPECIALIST
For Men

When suffering from BLADDER Conditions with frequent, painful and scalding sensations, KIDNEY disorders with swelling of feet and legs, BLOOD and SKIN diseases, old, discharging sores, rheumatism, WEAK, rundown and NERVOUS causing loss of pep, Liver and stomach conditions, causing bloating, RUPTURE, RECTAL conditions, gall stones or any TUMOR-like GROWTHS or any disease of men of a special nature, CONSULT old Dr. Mackenzie, free, 638 Penn Ave., whose best reference is the fact that he has been permanently located on Penn Ave. for the past 34 years. Hours: 9 to 8 P. M. Sundays and holidays, 9 to 2.

USE your telephone to reach your friends, to help you shop, to summon aid in case of need.

Telephone

As an everyday convenience the telephone is well worth its low cost—in emergencies it is priceless!

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNA.

Fight Fans Gasp When Dempsey Greets Kearns

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Jack Dempsey created the major sensation at the Walker-Schmeling heavyweight bout last night. He shook hands with Jack Kearns.

The bitter feud between aged Dempsey and the man who managed him into a world's heavyweight championship had become proverbial in fistic circles and had left the men so far apart that mutual friends had abandoned all hopes of ever getting them together again.

But last night, just before the main bout went on, Dempsey was called into the ring and amazed the critics by dashing over to grasp Kearns' hand and mutter a greeting.

Whether Dempsey's action meant a burial of the hatchet could not be learned.

Kearns, who now manages Walker, said he was as much surprised as any of the boxing writers and could offer no explanation.

AMOS IN NEED OF RESERVES

By JESS CARVER

If only Bill Amos, now in the saddle as head football coach at Grove City, where he succeeded Charley (White Sox) Berry, only had some reserves, he'd feel a lot better over his chances against Duquesne in the game here Friday night.

Bill Amos

Bill did not inherit a squad of Grovers calculated to adorn his honest pan with smiles. The former Washington-Jeff all-America fullbacker and coach found about 15 first-string players on hand when he called the Crimson squad together, and the number has not been augmented. His squad has the ambition and spirit, but lacks the experience and pre-college training.

"Boy, it's tough," Bill remarked here as he watched the Dukes beat West Virginia last week. "It's plenty tough. As long as I do not have to make any substitutions, I'm in pretty good shape. Yes, I'm not so bad off, but just let one of my boys get hurt! Tch, tch. I'm just going to turn around to the bench, wave my hand and say: 'You go in.' It won't make much difference which one answers."

DUKES CONFIDENT

But here is something Bill probably isn't figuring on. The good old fashioned bugaboo of over confidence is worrying Coach Elmer Layden not a little. The Dukes still are tingling from the elation of having whipped the Mountaineers, and they are taking the coming tussle with the Grovers a bit too lightly. Such a course will lead only to danger. The boss of the Night Riders called his players out yesterday and told them in no uncertain terms about the mistakes they made against the Mountaineers. A routine drill on the field followed a lengthy skull session. Harder work will be on tap today.

ANSWER TO QUERY

D. S. L., Pittsburgh—Umpires Quigley, Donnelly, Rigler and Moran officiated in the game played between the Pirates and Giants on July 5 at Forbes Field.

Between Rounds

Carl Gross, Braddock heavyweight, wants a return bout with Lloyd Clements, who knocked him out at the Meyers Bowl last Wednesday night, after Gross had stopped Lloyd's brother, Leo Clements, at Hickey Park.

Jimmy Belmont would like to be a member of the North Braddock Fire Department, which is staging his third clash with Buck McTiernan as a benefit in the Meyers Bowl tomorrow night. He has sold his automobile and given away his horse and craves excitement. He's been told to beat McTiernan again before his application will be considered.

Eight bouts make up the amateur program of the Chartiers Council, Knights of Columbus, at their outdoor arena in Crafton tomorrow night.

Outdoor amateur bouts are scheduled for tonight at Sullivan Field, Oakland, for the benefit of the St. Vincent De Paul Society, and at the St. Peter's A. A. arena on the North Side.

Announcement was made today by Promoter Eddie Kapphan that all ticket prices at his North Side Arena will be tax inclusive. Battling Gizzy and Joe Marcus are the topliners in his opening show, Friday night.

Johnny Datto and Frankie Goosby were introduced before the main bout at the Garden last night. The result of the Schmeling-Walker fight was announced at the end of the show, and was well received. The Garden is trying to sign an opponent for Ted Yarosz in the main bout next Monday night.

BEARS, MILLERS SET TO OPEN SERIES TODAY

SERIES HISTORY

Year.	Winner.	Won.	Loser.	Lost.
1904	*Buffalo (E.)	4	St. Paul (A.)	1
1905	Buffalo (E.)	4	Columbus (A.)	1
1907	Toronto (E.)	4	Columbus (A.)	1
1917	Indianap's (A.)	4	Toronto (E.)	1
1920	Baltimore (I.)	5	St. Paul (A.)	3
1921	Louisville (A.)	5	Baltimore (I.)	3
1922	Baltimore (I.)	5	St. Paul (A.)	3
1923	Kansas C. (A.)	5	Baltimore (I.)	3
1924	St. Paul (A.)	5	Baltimore (I.)	4
1925	Baltimore (I.)	5	Louisville (A.)	3
1926	Toronto (I.)	5	Louisville (A.)	3
1927	Toledo (A.)	5	Buffalo (I.)	3
1928	Indianap's (A.)	5	Rochester (I.)	3
1929	Kansas C. (A.)	5	Rochester (I.)	4
1930	Rochester (I.)	5	Louisville (A.)	3
1931	Rochester (I.)	5	St. Paul (A.)	3

*Last two games and series forfeited to Buffalo.

†Includes one tie game.

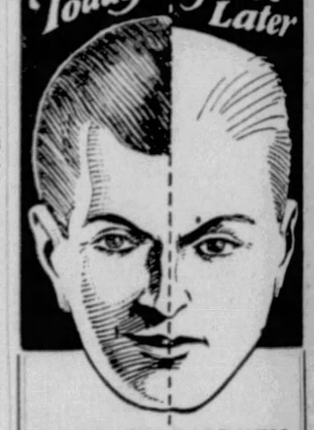
NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The Newark Bears and the Minneapolis Millers, champions of the International League and the American Association, respectively, were ready today to swing into baseball's second biggest attraction, the little world series. The opening game is scheduled for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

It will be the first little world series for both clubs.

Notables of the state and city and of the baseball world will be in Ruppert Stadium to aid in opening the seven-or-less-game series.

The Bears, owned by Col. Jacob Ruppert—perhaps better known for his New York Yankees—are favored to win the series, which after three games here, will move to Minneapolis. They will match youth, strength and speed against a more experienced, longer hitting and slower Miller combination.

YOUR APPEARANCE
Today | Years Later



PREVENT BALDNESS

That's exactly what the Alois Merke SCALP HEALTH INSTITUTE will do for you. A staff of scalp and hair specialists employing the most modern methods to combat scalp and hair ills at your disposal. Since you have nothing to lose, come in and have your scalp examined FREE. The examination will disclose if any of the UNSEEN GERMS that cause BALDNESS are doing their destructive work. You can be certain that DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR, ITCHY OR SCALY SCALP is the result of an impoverished scalp, and if neglected will lead to BALDNESS. If worried, you will worry no more when you see what we have done for others. We can do the same for you. To convince the most skeptical, we are offering for a limited time only a

One Month's Course of Treatments $5

Positively no extension after Sept. 30th. This is your last chance to enroll for this ridiculously low price.

We will Grow Hair for you.
We will remove Dandruff.
We will stop Falling Hair.
We will restore Scalp Health.
The treatments Penetrate and Nourish Scalp Tissues.

OUR TREATMENTS GROW HAIR FOR YOU

ALOIS MERKE, Inc.
Internationally Known Scalp Health Institute.
Office Hours, 9 A. M. to 8:30 P. M.
301 KEENAN BLDG.
ATlantic 7709. 7th St. & Liberty Ave.

SKIN DISEASES

All Chronic Ailments treated. Nerve, Skin Diseases, Chronic Ulcers, General Weakness, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Asthma, Bronchial Diseases, Stomach, Intestinal, Liver, Kidney. More than 40,000 men and women successfully treated.

Consultation, Advice, Laboratory Tests FREE. ATlantic 3734.

Hours: 9 to 5, Daily; also Mon., Wed. and Sat. Eve., 7 to 9. Sunday 10 to 1.

Pittsburgh Research Laboratory
403 Keenan Bldg., 7th & Liberty

BLUE BLADE NEVER CRACKS

● A patented slot, and specially tempered steel in the middle section, make the Gillette BLUE BLADE easy to flex, simple to adjust and entirely crack-proof. These are a few of the advantages you get when you shave with the Gillette Blue Blade.

SERIES PITCHERS EVEN—RUTH

BABE EXPECTS GREAT DUELS ON MOUND

By BABE RUTH
Baseball's Highest Salaried Player

Now we come to a very important feature of the world series—the pitching. In fact, I might call it the most important feature, because series of this kind are won on the superiority of the pitching, or lost because the pitching does not come up to expectations.

Babe Ruth

In regard to the pitchers of the Yankees and the Cubs there is one thing to bear in mind, and that is the difference in scoring power of the two clubs. During the regular season the Yankees scored about 270 more runs than did the Cubs.

What has that to do with pitching, you may ask? Well, it means that the Cub pitchers have had to work a lot harder to score their victories than the Yankee pitchers have been forced to work. An extra run here and there is the difference between a victory and a defeat, and it is only fair to stress this feature in any comparison of the two pitching staffs.

On the other hand, the American League ball is supposed to have more life than the National League ball, and such a condition imposes the handicap on the pitcher who has to use the livelier ball.

WARNEKE PRAISED

I think Warneke's record, in view of the lighter scoring of the Cubs—who have been excelled as run makers by three teams in their own league and by six in the American League—has been the most notable pitching achievement of the season. He has pitched 25 complete games and has 22 victories to his credit, despite the team's lack of scoring power, as compared with many other major league clubs.

The pitching offers all sorts of problems. I look for Bush or Root to start for the Cubs, with Warneke getting second call, and either Root or Bush—depending on which one was not used in the first game—as pitcher for the third. Malone is another starting possibility, and it would not surprise me if Burleigh Grimes should be saved for one grand effort.

As to our own pitching, I have not the slightest idea of Joe McCarthy's plans, nor do I care to appear in the light of telling him what I would do. Let me be understood here as merely guessing on what he plans to do. I look for Ruffing as the probable starter of the series, with Gomez coming in for the second game and Johnny Allen for the third. I am basing this guess on recent performances, and not because I have had an inkling of what Manager McCarthy has in mind.

STAFFS OF EQUAL STRENGTH

What happens after the first three games depends on the success of the three I have mentioned. We still have three starting pitchers in George Pipgras, who finished the season in brilliant fashion; Herb Pennock, the smartest pitcher in the game today, and Dannny MacFayden with a remarkable curve ball which may be just what the Cubs won't like.

Don't forget, either, that the Yankees have the game's best rescue pitcher in Wilcy Moore, who has been used occasionally, and with good results, as a starting pitcher.

Summing up, I would say that there is plenty of high class pitching talent on both sides, plenty of pitchers who have been quite successful this season. If either club has any advantage over the other in this department, I must confess that I cannot discern it, except that the Cub boxmen must face the heavier hitting team.

(Copyright, 1932, Christy Walsh Syndicate.)

Dixie Series Foes Resume Play Today

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Idle yesterday on account of rain, Chattanooga, of the Southern Association, and the Beaumont Texas League pennant winners will resume the Dixie series today with the fifth game of the seven-game schedule.

Chattanooga has a three-to-one lead and can win the championship with a victory today.

The Beaumont players will collect $8,982.15 if they win the series and $5,982.15 if they lose. If they win, Dallas will get $2,694.65 and Houston $1,179.43 for finishing in the money in the Texas League. If Beaumont loses, Dallas will get $1,179.43 and Houston $1,197.62.

Killefer, Injured In Wreck, Improved

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 27.—(INS.)—Injured in an automobile accident while en route to his home in West Chester, Pa., William (Bill) Killefer, manager of the St. Louis Browns, today was reported in a fairly satisfactory condition at Butler Hospital.

Killefer, suffering from a fractured right leg, contusions of the chest and lacerations of the face, may be discharged from the hospital and sent to his home within a week, hospital physicians reported.

Former Tribe Star Dies in Street

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Henry J. Gruber, 69, former pitcher with the Cleveland Indians, died of a heart attack yesterday while crossing a downtown street.

Foxx and Klein Named Most Valuable

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—The Sporting News today announced its selection of Chuck Klein, slugging outfielder of the Phillies, and Jimmy Foxx, the Athletics' new home run king, as the most valuable players in the major leagues for 1932.

It was Klein's second straight selection in the National League, the first for Foxx in the American. Lou Gehrig, of the Yankees, who was chosen the most valuable in the American last season, was runner-up to Foxx for the honor this year. Both are first basemen.

Foxx was given a total of 56 points out of a possible 88. Klein received 46 points, barely beating out Lefty O'Doul, of Brooklyn, with 40. Following are the leaders in each league as designated by the Sporting News:

National—Chuck Klein, Philadelphia, 46; Lefty O'Doul, Brooklyn, 40; Pie Traynor, Pittsburgh, 31; Bill Terry, New York, 19; Lon Warneke, Chicago, 16.

American — Jimmy Foxx, Philadelphia, 56; Lou Gehrig, New York, 47; Earl Averill, Cleveland, 29; Charley Gehringer, Detroit, 20; Monte Weaver, Washington, 19.

STEFFEN BACK WITH SKIBOS

Carnegie Tech's coaching staff is again complete, with the return yesterday of Judge Wally Steffen from his home in Chicago, and for the rest of this week some heavy licks are due to be put in by the Tartan footballers on both offense and defense.

The Skibo bosses naturally are worried over Geneva College's excellent showing in its handy defeat of the powerful Davis-Elkins outfit last Friday night. They realize that Howard Harpster and Don Lovewell will shoot the works in an effort to down their Alma Mater, and they also realize that their team, patched up at various points, has yet to be tested under fire.

SAYLES INJURED

Defensive qualities displayed by the first and second team lines in camp games have been about the best point of Carnegie's fall drills. It is no secret that Tech's offense has not yet begun to move. Just when the backfield seemed about ready to co-ordinate, Johnny Sayles, Wheeling boy, went out with a scrimmage injury, and some experimenting will be necessary the rest of this week to determine the identity of the fourth man in the offensive quartet.

Children under 12 years of age will be admitted for 10 cents Saturday afternoon. The youngsters will use the sections thrown open to them for several years. The Skibos will also admit youngsters to their W. & J. game on October 15 for the same price.

WORRY OVER GRAHAME

Red Jones seems to have grabbed the center job for the present, and Bunny Burzio has earned an edge over the other right guards. Ray Tesser seems sure to start Saturday at right end, and Bevevino continues to run the first team in signal drills. With Dutch Croft almost certain to be at left tackle and Joe Mihm at fullback, Carnegie will have six men starting this season who were not in there for the opening whistle last fall. Unless Sayles recovers before Saturday, Spisak or Carlson will take his place.

Art Grahame's brilliant passing is the chief worry in Skibo camp right now. Carnegie scouts brought back reports from Beaver Falls that the Akron boy is as great a passer as there is in college football today.

Schmeling's Purse For Battle Held

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(INS.)—While official figures were unavailable today, estimates of the attendance at the Walker-Schmeling fight last night varied from 40,000 to 60,000. The receipts were estimated from $150,000 up.

Schmeling's share of the receipts was tied up today, following granting of a temporary injunction by Supreme Court Justice Shientag restraining the promoters from paying Schmeling until Friday. On that day, the club must show cause why payment should not be delayed pending trial of a $100,000 suit against the German brought by Primo Carnera, Italian heavyweight.

Carnera sued on the grounds that Schmeling broke a contract to fight him in 1931.

Butler Club Ties World Gun Mark

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 27.—The Standard Steel Rifle Club equaled the world record made by the American International Fidac team at Camp Perry in 1930, when they shot 1948x2000 in the international inter-club match over the Standard Steel range.

A high wind and changing light conditions prevented the team from breaking the record. Other teams shooting were in France, Germany and England. The match was shot over the 50-meter course, 55 yards in length, with a 10-ring of $\frac{5}{8}$-inch diameter, a smaller target than that used in America.

Scores were: J. W. Crolley, 394; R. E. Louden, 390; H. D. Griffith, 390; M. Coleman, 387; L. L. Field, 387.

MARKOWITZ TO COACH

ELKINS, W. Va., Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Robert Markowitz, of Munhall, Pa., guard on the Davis and Elkins football team last year, has been named assistant line coach of the school. He will also scout opposing teams.

NEW CLUB ORGANIZED

The Bellevue Athletic Club has been organized for the purpose of promoting amateur athletics. J. Southwell has been elected president.

CHARLEROI SET FOR GAME AT NEW CASTLE

By JULIUS LEVIN

The long-awaited opening of the Class AA High School Football Conference will take place Friday night in New Castle when Coach Phil Bridenbaugh's Lawrence Countians and Coach Steve Stepanian's Charleroi Cougars clash under the floodlights at Taggart Field.

New Castle and Charleroi will take the field with clean records for the season to date, both scoring victories in their first two contests.

The Cougars defeated Ellsworth-Cokeburg, 44-0, and Scott High, of North Braddock, 14-0, while New Castle owns a 27-0 victory over Union Township and a 50-6 decision over Miles Bryan High, of McKees Rocks.

Last year the same two rivals played a nip-and-tuck battle which ended in a 14-6 victory for the Cougars. Naturally, New Castle will strive to turn the tables on the Stepanian boys this week-end.

Coach Bridenbaugh will present two fleet-footed backs in Nickum and Uram, both of whom stood out prominently in the first two games of the season. Nick Mahovlich is expected to bear the brunt of the Charleroi attack.

The contest stands out as one of the best games of the early season schedule and is expected to attract a capacity crowd to Taggart Field, the home gridiron of the New Castle eleven.

School Notes

The Washington-Monaca game, scheduled for Friday night, will be played in the Reeves Stadium, home of the Geneva eleven. The game originally was scheduled Saturday at Washington, Pa.

The fine showing of Coach Burton's Westinghouse eleven in its annual battle with Wilkinsburg, stamps the Silver Lake machine as one of the strongest contenders for the Section 1 crown, now held by Schenley. The Silver Lakers entertain Coach Harry Springer's Allegheny eleven in an intersectional game Friday.

The first feature attraction offered by Monongahela Valley schools is up for disposal Saturday afternoon when California and Donora lock horns at Donora. Both showed fine form in their opening games, strengthening the belief that they stand out as the strongest contenders in the W. P. I. A. L. race from that sector. Jimmy Russell has a veteran team at Donora.

Judging from the form shown by Elna in scoring a 19-0 victory over Tarentum High, Miles Bryan, of McKees Rocks, will have its hands full when the two teams clash at McKees Rocks Friday afternoon. With the passing of Surdock, now at Waynesburg, and Janerek, now at Catawba, Coach McHenry is in for a tough season at Miles Bryan.

Clairton High, last year's Class A champion, faces its first hard test of the season Saturday when Uniontown appears in Clairton. Clairton had quite a time defeating Central Catholic in its opener and will have to show a big improvement to turn the trick on Uniontown.

Coach Bill Campbell's Homestead High eleven, victor over the Duke Preps, will be the attraction of Ed Paule's Swissvale machine at Swissvale Saturday. Homestead hopes to repeat last year's 13-0 victory.

Two undefeated scholastic rivals are to tangle at Ambridge Friday afternoon when Mt. Lebanon coached by Henry Leicht, engages Moy Rubenstein's grid machine. Ambridge has scored 7-0 victories over East Liverpool and Rochester, while Mt. Lebanon owns a 26-0 triumph over Crafton. If the Mt. Lebanon boys can pass this hurdle successfully they stand a chance of finishing the season undefeated.

SIMMONS' FALL NOT SO LOW

By CHARLES J. DOYLE

Sad, indeed, mates is the tale of Al Simmons, once a great hitter for Connie Mack. Perhaps it is very much in bad taste these hard times to print the weeping details of the fall of the de luxe slugger of the Athletics, but the public seems to want this sob stuff, so here goes.

Al Simmons

The great outfielder ran into an off year. Maybe it was bad investments and all that sort of stuff that brought it about, but the American League race was not half over before the writers were singing a requiem over the boy whose marvelous outfield work and great batting had been a feature of that league for eight banner years.

OBJECT OF PITY

If Simmons is a bit sensitive he should go and hide himself for several months on top of his dud achievements. His anguish surely will be painful when he learns he scored only 145 runs—and can you imagine his feelings when he sees only 215 hits after his name. Al's closest friends will not be able to comfort him as he senses the full blow of having driven in but 135 runs, and he is sure to collapse in grief that won't be assuaged when they tell him that he did not make any more than 35 homers.

Simmons' terrible year, we learn, is attributable to Jimmy Foxx who was out to break Babe Ruth's home-run record, but missed fire.

SHOULD BE BENCHED

Well, anyhow, the Pirates are lucky they did not have to stagger along with such a lemonade outfielder. Why Al drove in only 50 more tallies than the honor man on the Buccos, and his 140 odd runs scored—bush league stuff! That's only twice as much as two Buccaneer regulars could score.

That's life, dear reader—when a fella starts to slip in baseball it's tough. If Mack can get waivers on Al he'll probably send him to Medicine Hat or some other bush town where he can hang on for a year or two.

By the way, Al's batting mark since he joined the A's nine years ago is approximately .360, a target too high for Ruth, Gehrig, the Waner boys, Klein, Terry, et al., to reach. In other words, fans, Simmons is just about the best hitter in the game. And he's only 29.

Fight Results

At Moior Square Garden—Al Brown defeated Mose Hutch, 10 rounds; Jack King defeated Tiger Joe Randall, 8 rounds; Sid Silas defeated Eddie Hebner, 8 rounds; Frankie Zivic knocked out Young Dorsey, 4 rounds.

At New Castle—Willie Davies won by a technical knockout over Johnny Devlin, 7 rounds; Billy Joyce defeated Frankie Stellmack, 6 rounds; Pee Wee Carney defeated Teddy Mancuso, 4 rounds; Marty Touchman knocked out Vito Maggino, 2 rounds.

At New York—Max Schmeling won by a technical knockout over Mickey Walker, 9 rounds; Tony Shucco and Charley Belanger drew, 8 rounds; Vicente Parille defeated Al Fay, 8 rounds; Bob Godwin defeated Donald Barry, 6 rounds.

At Chicago—Max Baer won by a technical knockout over Tuffy Griffiths, 7 rounds; Charley Retzlaff knocked out Lee Kennedy, 2 rounds; Paul Dazzo defeated Jess Palazzo, 6 rounds.

At Charleston, S. C.—Chino Alvarez knocked out Jimmy Reed, 4 rounds; Tex Mills defeated Charley Goner, 10 rounds.

At Holyoke, Mass.—Battling Archie knocked out Joe Venuti, 2 rounds; Nick Pastore knocked out Billy Bridges, 4 rounds; Johnny Gaito defeated Roland Le Cuyer, 10 rounds.

At Sioux City—Kenny Austin defeated Harold Hoxwood, 8 rounds.

At Charleston, W. Va.—Charley Arthurs and Frankie Ryan drew, 10 rounds; Lewis Cook knocked out Mickey Shannon, 2 rounds; Mickey McAllister knocked out George McArthur, 6 rounds; Vince McNeil knocked out K. O. Wills, 2 rounds.

At Trenton, N. J.—Paulie Walker won by technical knockout over Young Terry, 4 rounds.

W. VA. WORRIES PITT COACH

Jock Sutherland wasn't very well pleased with the way his Pitt Panthers performed in their setto with Ohio Northern on Saturday and he gave them a scrimmage session yesterday.

Sutherland remembered the way in which the West Virginia tackles and ends bottled up Elmer Layden's running attack and then started to brush up on the old off-tackle play, for unless the guards pull out better against the Nealemen than they did on Saturday, the play may meet a premature end at the line of scrimmage when the Panthers get to Morgantown.

Jock figures that the Mountaineers have a defensive edge due to the fact that Neale has two big tackles like Vargo and Schweitzer available and also due to the presence of such ends as Goodwin and Sortet.

In addition to his worries about the Pitt chances of making any headway through the West Virginia line, Sutherland has fears for his aerial defense. The Mountaineers, once they clicked, were completing passes with deadly regularity. Pitt completed but three out of 14 against Ohio Northern.

Capt. Reider took part in the practice yesterday as did Ted Dailey. The latter is about the only Panther who may not start in the West Virginia game. If he is on the bench, Lou Wojichovski, of Weston, W. Va., will be used.

INVESTMENT TRUSTS

	Bid.	Asked.
Am & Gen Sec A	5	10
Do B	¼	1
Do $3 pfd	30	40
Am Bank Stock	2⅛	2⅜
Am Br & Con 6s pfd	6	10
Am Comp Tr Shrs	⅛	⅜
Am Fdrs 6s pfd	16	24
Do 7s pfd	18	24
Am Ins Stocks	1⅛	2⅛
Assoc Stand Oil	3⅝	4⅛
All & Pac Int units	12⅛	.....
Do com ww	⅛	.....
Do pfd war	12	.....
Bancamer Blair	2⅝	3⅜
Bankers Nat Inv	10⅝	14⅝
Bansicilia Corp	⅜	3⅝
Basic Industry	⅜	.....
British Type Inv	80	1.05
Bullock Fund	12⅝	13⅝
Central Nat Corp A	18	22
Central Nat Corp B	1	2
Century Tr Shrs	16½	17⅛
Chain & Gen Equities	⅛	.....
Chartered Invest	1	2
Do pfd	50	55
Cheviots Exch A	⅛	.....
Do B	1-16	3-16
Consol Equit	2	3
Cumulative Tr Sh	2.10	.....
Corporate Trust	2.02	.....
Do A A	1.85	2.10
Do Accum Ser	1.85	2.10
Crum & Foster	9	13
Do 8s pfd	78	82
Crum & Fost Ins	8	10½
Do 7s pfd	70	77
Depos Bk Shrs N Y	3.20	.....
Do A	3⅛	3⅜
Depos Ins Shrs A	3	3⅝
Diversified Tr A	5⅛	.....
Do B	6	.....
Do C	2.45	2.70
Do D	4⅛	4⅝
Dividend Shares	1.21	1.29
Equity Invest conv stpd	1	.....
Equity Trust Shares	2.35	2.60
Five-Year Fixed Trust	⅜	.....
Fixed Trust Shares A	1	.....
Do B	⅜	.....
Fund Trust Shares A	3⅛	3⅜
Do B	3⅛	3⅜
Gude Winmill Trad	30	.....
Huron Holding	1	1½
Incorp Investors	14⅛	15⅝
Independ Trust Shares	2.00	2.20
Int Sec Corp Am A	⅝	2
Int Sec Am 6s pfd	12	22
Do 6½s pfd	12	22
Inv Trust N Y Coll A	4⅛	4⅞
Invest Trustee Shares	4⅛	.....
Leaders of Indust A	3	.....
Do B	22.22	23.22
Do C	2.37	2.62
Low Priced Shares	2⅛	.....
Major Corp Shrs	1⅝	2⅛
Mass Invest Tr	15⅛	16⅛
Mutual Inv Tr A	3⅝	4⅜
Mutual Manage	.....	2⅝
Nation Wide Sec	2.80	3.00
Do vtc	9⅛	9⅝
Nati Indust Shrs	2.40	.....
Nati Tr Shrs	5⅛	6
N Y Bk Tr Shrs	4⅛	4⅝
Nor Am Tr Shares	2.01	.....
Do 1955	2.09	2.25
Do 1956	2.09	2.25
Northern Secur	36	42
Oil Shares units	4	6
Old Col Inv Tr	2⅛	3⅛
Old Col Tr Assoc	11	.....
Petrol Trad A	7	11
Public Serv Tr	2.95	.....
Repres Tr Shrs	7.16	7.66
Second Int Sec A	1	3
Do B	⅛	⅝
Do 6s 1st pfd	18	28
Secur Corp Gen $6 pfd	31	.....
Selected Am Shares	2.20	2.30
Do Accumulative Shares	8	8⅝
Do Income Shares	3⅛	3⅞
Do Manage Trust	4⅝	5⅛
Spencer Trask Fund	11⅝	12⅝
Standard All-Am Trust	3.40	.....
Standard Am Trust Shares	3.15	.....
Standard Collateral Trust	⅝	1⅛
State Street Invest	44	48
Super of Am Trust A	2.90	.....
Do AA	1.75	1.90
Do B	3	.....
Do BB	1.75	1.90
Do C	5	5⅛
Do D	4.70	5.20
Trust Fund Shares	3⅛	3⅝
Trust Shares of Am	2⅝	3
Trustee Standard Invest C	1.80	2.00
Do D	1.75	1.95
Trustee Standard Oil A	3⅛	.....
Do B	3⅛	3⅞
Trusteed N Y C Bank	4⅛	4⅝
Trusteed Am Bk Sh	3⅝	.....
Trusteed Am Bk A	3⅛	3⅜
Twentieth Cent Fixed Tr	2	.....
Do B	2.20	2.50
Two Year Trust Sh	9½	11
United Fixed Shrs	2	.....
Unit Pdrs 1-70 com	.01	.05
United Ins Shrs	4⅜	.....
United Bank Tr	4⅜	.....
U S & Brit Int Ltd A	⅜	1⅛
Do B	⅜	1
U S & Brit Int $3 pfd	10	17
U S Elec Lt & Pow A	16½	18½
Do B	2.90	3.00
Do B vtc	9⅜	10⅛
Universal Tr Sh	2.33	.....

Chicago Butter Market.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Butter—Receipts, 12,423 tubs; creamery extras and standards, 19½c; extra firsts, 18@18½c; firsts, 16½@17½c; packing stock, 10c; specials, 19⅝@20½c.

Eggs—Receipts, 4,650 cases; ordinary current receipts, 19@21½c; fresh graded extra firsts, less than cars, 23½c; cars, 24½c; fresh graded firsts, less than cars, 22½c; cars, 23c; dirties, 12@18c; checks, 12@16c.

Cheese—Young Americas and longhorns, 13½@13⅝c; brick, fancy, 11c; daisies and prints, 13¼@13½c; twins, 13@13¼c.

Live poultry—Turkeys and hens, 14c; young toms 12c; old, 10c; No. 2, 7c; hens, 4½ pounds and up, 16@16c; under, 12c; No. 2, 9c; leghorn hens, 10c; chickens, 9c; No. 2, 9c; leghorn broilers, 11c; roosters, 9½c; No. 2, 4c; ducks, spring, 4½ pounds and up, colored, 13c; white, 12½c; under, 11c; old, 4½ pounds and up, 12c; under, 11c; geese, 11c.

GASOLINE CUTS THREATEN $1 OIL

International News Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A battle was on today between independent producers and the Rockefeller-controlled Standard Oil companies and affiliated units over the nation's crude oil price structure.

Recent price cuts made by Standard of New Jersey and Atlantic Refining, in which the Rockefellers have a big interest, threatened to upset the $1-a-barrel price for crude oil, achieved early this year after a long battle in which martial law clamped the lid on prolific gushers in Oklahoma and East Texas.

Today the Standard Oil Company of Ohio joined the price cutting by reducing prices in its territory ½ cent a gallon.

INDEPENDENTS WORRIED

The independents were lining up to save the present crude oil prices. Frank Phillips, president, Phillips Petroleum Company, voiced his opposition to any cut. He echoed the recent declaration of Harry F. Sinclair, head of the new $500,000,000 Consolidated Oil Corporation, that a reduction was unwarranted.

Aiding them was Amos L. Beaty, president, American Petroleum Institute, who called on producers to curtail crude output to prop the tottering price structure.

STANDARD'S POSITION

Action of the Standard Oil companies in petroleum circles was attributed to the fact they had reduced inventories sharply this year and would welcome lower prices. Furthermore, it was said, they feared further difficulties in mid-continent pro-ration following failure to cut output to 2,000,000 barrels a day this summer.

Daily crude oil production for the week ended last Saturday, according to the Oil and Gas Journal, was 2,169,241 barrels, a decrease of 5,886 barrels from the week before, but still substantially above the summer's goal.

Beaty urged producers to limit their output to refinery demand and hold it there until conditions improved. Sharp decline in gasoline consumption this year is responsible for thet rouble in the industry.

COAST ALLOWABLE CUT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—Early indications that the executive committee for equitable oil curtailment of production in California oil fields would approve the present allotment of 475,800 barrels daily were entirely reversed when that body decided that the daily yield should not exceed 440,000 barrels daily. The executive committee adopted resolutions supporting the new schedule for October, November and December. It is expected to become effective October 1.

Business

Rail Equipment Makers To React Slowly To Recovery

By GEORGE H. SNYDER

JUST HOW QUICKLY will the makers of railroad equipment respond to a recovery in general business? This question is of particular interest to Pittsburgh because of the large share of its industrial activity which is dependent, either directly or indirectly, on railroad purchases.

Railroad buying is, of course, dependent on railroad earnings and ability to finance. In a recent column of the present series devoted to the promptness with which various industries will share in recovery, the opinion was expressed that the railroads will immediately reflect better general business in gains in car loadings. It was pointed out that the current difficulties facing the steam lines are attributable to the fact that they cannot cut down their expenses as rapidly as a manufacturing organization.

A railroad cannot confine its operations to one or two days a week. In addition most railroads derive a larger share of their capital from bonds than do industrial companies. An industrial organization meets depression troubles by omitting dividends, while a railroad cannot omit payment of its bond interest without going into bankruptcy.

* * *

Rail Buying to Be Slow in Starting

WITH A RETURN to satisfactory business conditions, railroad earnings may be expected to show a corresponding recovery. But the railroads may not be prosperous until their traffic has expanded to such an extent that it permits the covering of their heavy fixed interest bearing obligations. Government formed agencies to help the railroads have saved them from receiverships, but the aid has been in the form of loans and must be repaid at some time in the future.

Consideration of these factors makes it quite obvious that the railroads will indulge in only the most essential purchases of equipment until traffic has shown a material increase from its current low levels, until at least part of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation loans have been paid, until the problem of meeting maturing bond obligations has been solved and until the bond market reaches a state which will permit the sale of new securities.

* * *

Later Participation May Be Substantial

THESE CIRCUMSTANCES appear likely to result in slow response by railroad equipment makers to recovery in general business. There is another side to the picture, however, which may work to the advantage of the builders of railroad cars, locomotives and other equipment within a few years.

The railroads have reduced their purchases of equipment to a negligible level during the past two years. This followed a period of relatively small purchases in the preceding five years. More recently the small purchases have been attributable to business conditions. Previously, the small purchases were due to increased railroad efficiency which made it possible to handle the nation's traffic with less equipment.

Within a few years, however, it appears quite likely that the railroads will find much of their rolling stock to be obsolete. At some time in the future they will have to replace worn out equipment if they are to handle a normal volume of business. The railroads do not have any money to spend at present and probably will wait as long as they can before spending money when they do have it. But some day they must buy. The longer they wait the more they must buy. This makes a boom in railroad buying some years away quite probable.

Rubber Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Futures opened barely steady. September, 3.50@3.65c; December, 3.71@3.72c; January, unquoted; March, 3.90@3.91c.

BIG CANADIAN ISSUE SOLD

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—A new issue of $60,000,000 government of the Dominion of Canada one-year 4 per cent gold notes was marketed here today, and promptly oversubscribed.

The offering was made by a banking group, headed by Chase Harris Forbes Corporation. It was one of the largest pieces of financing undertaken this year and represented the only sizeable offering done this year for foreign account.

The notes were priced at par to yield 4 per cent. They mature October 1, 1933, and are payable in New York in gold.

Proceeds, it was stated, will be used in part to meet a December 1 maturity of $40,000,000 of the Dominion government's 5½ per cent bonds sold 10 years ago in exchange for a like amount of Victory loan 5½ per cents, floated during the war.

Harbison Walker Reduces Capital

Directors of the Harbison Walker Refractories Company have authorized a reduction in common capital stock from 1,440,000 shares without par value with stated capital of $25 a share, or a total stated capital of $36,000,000, to 1,380,000 shares without nominal or par value with a stated capital of $25 per share or a total capital of $20,700,000. Stockholders meet December 19 to vote on the proposition. Stockholders of record October 19 are entitled to vote.

American Smelting Cuts Price of Lead

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The American Smelting and Refining Company has reduced the price of lead 10 points to 3.30 cents a pound.

Complete
Investment and Brokerage Service

Accounts Carried on Conservative Margin

Morris, Brown & Co.

Established 1885 COurt 6300

916 Commonwealth Bldg.
316 Fourth Ave.

In a world of conveniences, the telephone is undoubtedly one of the greatest. But, like most conveniences, it is accepted so much as a matter of course that its users are apt to lose sight of its value. Paying the monthly telephone bill is a transaction quickly and safely completed by mailing a check to the telephone office. The canceled check is your receipt . . . In a world of conveniences, the checking account plays an important part.

MELLON NATIONAL BANK

STOCKS STEADY AFTER EARLY WEAKNESS

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Stocks wavered for a while at the start of trading today, but later advanced moderately, under leadership of the rails and motors, in a quiet and largely professional market.

There were some soggy spots, but most of these were cared for when the general list turned upward. Drug dropped 6 points at one time, then steadied. Allied Chemical, Woolworth, Delaware and Hudson and Lehigh Valley were also under pressures at times, although Allied Chemical erased all of its early loss when directors declared the regular $1.50 quarterly dividend. Union Pacific converted an early loss of 1 point into a gain of nearly 2. Santa Fe, Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Lackawanna, Illinois Central, Baltimore and Ohio and Chesapeake and Ohio gained 1 or more.

General Motors advanced a point in fairly animated trading and gains of equal scope were made by Chrysler, Nash, Mack Trucks and some of the accessory shares. Utilities were firm, but not particularly active. Consolidated Gas, American Telephone, Public Service and American Water Works were up a point or more. Gains of around 2 were made by du Pont, American Can, American Smelting, Eastman, Air Reduction and Westinghouse Electric.

August earning reports of the railroads continued to show improvement over July, although the figures were naturally well below those for last year.

Special weakness of Drug, Inc., shares was attributed to the announcement that a reorganization would be asked for its subsidiary, the Louis K. Liggett Company in case the latter could not obtain concessions on its store leases.

The extrordinary plethora of funds now available for high-grade investment was again emphasized when it became known that the Treasury had sold a 91-day issue of $100,665,000 bills at a price equivalent to an annual interest yield of less than ¼ of 1 per cent—0.23 per cent to be exact.

Another incident illustrative of easing money conditions was the quick oversubscription today of a $60,000,000 issue of Dominion of Canada 4 per cent one-year notes, which were sold at par.

LIVESTOCK MARKETS

Pittsburgh.

(U. S. Department of Agriculture.)

Number of cars, 16.

Hogs—Receipts, 1,200 head; market mostly 10 to 15 cents lower. Good and choice grade, light lights, 150-160 pounds, $4.25@4.45; light weights, 160-200 pounds, $4.60@4.70; medium weights, 200-250 pounds, $4.45@4.70; heavy weights, 250-350 pounds, $4.00@4.50; slaughter pigs, 100-130 pounds, $4.00@4.25; packing sows, medium and good, 275-500 pounds, $3.00@3.50.

Cattle—Receipts, 50 head; market steady. Vealers, milk-fed, good and choice, $8.00@7.50; common and medium, $3.75@6.00; calves, 250-500 pounds, medium to choice, $3.75@6.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 2,000 head; market steady to 10 cents lower. Lambs, 90 pounds down, good and choice, $4.50@6.25; common and medium, $2.50@4.50; 91-100 pounds, medium to choice, $3.75@5.75; yearling wethers, 91-110 pounds, medium to choice, $2.35@4.25; wethers, 2 years and older, 90-130 pounds, medium and good, $1.50@2.65; ewes, 90-150 pounds, medium to choice, $1.00@2.15.

Chicago.

Hogs—Receipts, 22,000 head, including 3,000 direct; slow, mostly 10-15c off; underweights 25-40c lower; 180-250 pounds, $4.15@4.25; top, $4.35; 230-260 pounds, $4.05@4.20; 140-170 pounds, $3.85@4.15; pigs, $3.50@4.00; packing sows, $2.85@3.50; light light, good and choice, 140-160 pounds, $3.75@4.15; light weight, 160-200 pounds, $3.90@4.35; medium weight, 200-250 pounds, $4.05@4.35; heavy weight, 250-350 pounds, $3.60@4.15; packing sows, medium and good, 275-500 pounds, $3.00@3.60; pigs, good and choice, 100-130 pounds, $3.50@4.00.

Cattle—Receipts, 7,000 head; calves, receipts, 2,000 head; trade slow; generally steady on all classes; early top fed weighty steers, $10.25; slaughter cattle and vealers, steers, good and choice, 600-900 pounds, $7.00@9.50; 900-1,100 pounds, $7.00@9.75; 1,100-1,300 pounds, $7.25@10.35; 1,300-1,500 pounds, $7.50@10.35; common and medium, 600-1,300 pounds, $4.00@7.50; heifers, good and choice, 550-850 pounds, $6.00@8.25; common and medium, $3.25@6.25; cows, good and choice, $3.25@4.50; common and medium, $2.50@3.25; low cutter and cutter, $1.50@2.50; bulls, yearlings excluded, good and choice beef, $3.25@4.75; cutter to medium, $2.00@3.25; vealers, milk fed, good and choice, $6.00@7.00; medium, $4.50@6.00; cull and common, $3.00@4.50; stocker and feeder cattle, steers, good and choice, 500-1,050 pounds, $5.25@6.75; common and medium, $3.50@5.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 21,000 head; weak to unevenly lower than yesterday's close; good native lambs, $5.00@5.25; choice kinds, $5.50@5.75 to all interests; asking above $5.75 for strictly choice Colorados; feeders, $4.75@5.25; lambs, 90 pounds down, good and choice, $5.00@5.85; medium, $4.25@5.00; all weights, common, $3.50@4.25; ewes, 90-150 pounds, medium to choice, $1.25@2.50; all weights, cull and common, 75c@$2.00; feeding lambs, 50-75 pounds, good and choice, $4.75@5.25.

East Buffalo.

Hogs—Receipts, 1,500 head; slow; weights above 160 pounds mostly 15c lower; lighter averages off 15c to 25c; desirable 160-220 pounds, $4.60, sparingly; $4.65; weights below 150 pounds, $4.25@4.45.

Cattle—Receipts, 100 head; holdovers, 200 head; little done; outlet extremely narrow; few cutter cows steady at recent decline; $1.25@2.00; holdover steers ungrd.

Calves—Receipts, 50 head; vealers unchanged; $8.00 down.

Sheep—Receipts, 300 head; lambs barely steady; quality and sorts considered; good to choice, $6.35; mixed offerings including sprinkling of bucks, $5.25.

Cincinnati.

Hogs—Receipts, 3,200 head; no direct or through; moderately active; unevenly steady to mostly 10c lower; spots, 15c off on underweights; better 180 to 220 pounds, $4.40; some 225 to 260 pounds, $4.15@4.30; heavyweights down to $4.00 or below; 130 to 180 pounds $4.00@4.15; some 160 to 180 pounds, $4.25; sows, $3.00@3.25 mostly.

Cattle—Receipts, 650 head. Calves—Receipts, 450 head. Slow; steers and heifers draggy; few scattered sales around steady; common and medium, $3.50@5.00; cutters down to $2.50 or below; good kinds practically absent; grassy beef cows, $2.75@3.25; low cutter and cutter, $1.50@2.25; bulls, $2.75@3.25; best quality to $3.50; vealers mostly 50c lower; good and choice, $5.50@6.00 largely; few select, $6.50; lower grades generally, $5.00 down.

Sheep—Receipts, 1,500 head; about steady; quality not very desirable; few medium to good lambs, $5.50@6.00; good quotable to $6.50; common and medium, $3.00@5.00; fat aged ewes, $1.00@1.50.

CORPORATE EARNINGS

American Gas and Electric Company reports for 12 months ended August 31 surplus of $11,163,850 after interest, subsidiary dividends and preferred dividends of parent company, depreciation, etc., and available for common stock, against $10,-936,800 in preceding 12 months. This equals $2.69 a share on the common, against $4.01 in 1931.

Metal Market.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Copper—Standard spot and future, £34 5s. Electrolytic—Spot, £38 10s; future, £39. Tin—Spot, £151 15s; future, £153. Lead—Spot and future, £12 12s 6d. Zinc—Spot and futures, £15.

NEW YORK CLOSE WITH NET CHANGES

Indicates actual number of shares sold. All other sales figures are in hundreds of shares (00 omitted). Closing prices in this table. Year's high and low corrected to the previous close (Volume of sales computed to 2:10 p. m.)

Ticker reported "close" at 3:06 P. M.

—A A A—

1932 High	1932 Low	Stocks and Rate	An Div	Sales	High	Low	Close	Net Chge
3	¾	Abitibi P & Pap.		59	⅞	¾	¾	— ½
9¼	1½	Abitibi P&P pf.		8	2	2	2	— 1½
24½	10	Abrhm&Strs .37½		1	22¼	21¾	22¼	+ 1¼
9½	1½	Adams Express		18	7¾	7¼	7¾	+ ⅛
14	3½	Adress-Grph M Co		4	12	11⅝	11⅝	+ ⅛
15½	4⅝	Affiliate Pfd 1.60		2	9⅛	9	9⅛	+ ⅛
63½	30½	Air Reduction 3..		17	60½	58	60½	+ 2¼
15⅝	1⅝	Alaska Juneau .50		12	11⅜	10	11⅛	+ 1⅛
3⅝	⅝	Alleghany Corp.		18	2⅝	2½	2½	0
88¼	43½	Allied Chem&D 6		67	82½	78	79⅝	— ⅛
15⅝	4	Allis Chalmers...		4	10¾	10	10¾	+ ¾
22½	12	Amerada Corp 2.		8	21¼	20½	20¾	— ½
15½	3¼	Am Ag Che Del..		1	10¾	10⅜	10⅜
22½	5	Am Bank Note..		5	17¼	16⅜	17⅛	— ⅜
73½	29¼	Am Can 4.....		111	56⅜	53½	54	0
129	93¼	Am Can pf 7....		2	120	120	120
17	3¼	Am Car & Fdy..		1	12½	12	12½
26½	11	Am Com Alcohol..		2	24½	24½	24½	0
15	2	Am & For Pow...		47	11⅛	10½	10¾	— ⅛
38½	3¼	Am & For Pow pf		1	20	20	20	— 1
33	3¼	Am&ForP 6% pf.		1	17	17	17	— ⅜
6½	1	Am H & Leath..		2	5	4½	5	— ⅛
51⅝	15	Am Home Pd 4.20		17	41	39½	40¾	— 1⅜
21⅜	7⅛	Am Ice 4.....		8	9¼	8⅜	9⅛	— ⅛
12	2¼	Am Internal.....		11	9½	8¾	9⅜	— ⅝
22¼	7¼	Am Mach&F .80..		2	15½	15	15	— ½
2¼	1	Am Mach&M ctfs		1	1¼	1¼	1¼
9¼	1¼	Am Metal.....		1	6⅝	6⅜	6⅜
17⅜	3	Am Pow & Lt...		82	13⅜	11⅞	12½	— ⅛
49⅜	10	Am P&Lt 5% pf 4		1	88	88	88	— ⅜
12¼	3¼	Am Rad & Std S.		58	10¼	9½	9⅝	— ⅛
18½	3	Am Roll Mill....		81	14⅞	13¾	14¼	+ ⅛
⅜	⅛	Am Ship & Com..		2	½	½	½
27¼	5¼	Am Smelt & Ref.		25	20¼	19¾	19¾	— 1¼
85	22	Am Sm & Ref pf		2	45	44	45
15⅜	3	Am Steel Fdy....		8	10¼	9¾	10	0
39½	13	Am Sug Ref 2....		4	26	25½	26	— ¾
10¼	2¾	Am Sumatra Tob.		1	6	5⅞	6
137⅜	70¼	Am Tel & Tel 9..		119	114¾	111¾	112¼	— ½
86⅛	40¾	Am Tob 5a.....		4	78¾	77½	78⅝	+ ¾
89¾	44	Am Tob B 5a.....		24	83¼	80¼	82	— 1
115	98¼	Am Tob pf 8.....		4	116	114½	115	+ 1
34⅜	11	Am Wat Wrks 3..		6	27⅜	26½	26½	— ¾
75	26	Am W W 1st pf 6		1	64¾	64¾	64¾
31	11	Am W W offs 3...		1	24¾	24¾	24¾	— 1⅜
10	1⅜	Am Woolen.....		1	8	8	8	0
39⅝	15⅛	Am Woolen pf....		8	35	33⅜	33⅜	— ½
19⅜	3	Amazon-Js Cop...		94	18¾	18	18	0
17⅜	5¼	Anch Cap Cp 1.20		1	11¾	11¾	11¾	— ¾
9	1⅝	Andes Copper....		1	6	6	6
15¾	7	Archer-D Mid 1..			13¾	13¼	13⅜
64	24	Armour Del pf 7.		1	48	48	48	+ 1½
2¾	⅝	Armour of Ill A.		4	2	1⅞	2	0
2	⅝	Armour of Ill B..		2	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	— ⅛
13½	3½	Armour of Ill pf.		1	10½	10¼	10½	— ½
11	3	Asso Dry Goods..		8	9¾	9¼	9⅜	— ⅛
94	16¼	Atchison T&S F..		86	86⅜	83½	84¼	— ⅜
86	35	Atch T&S F pf 5		2	71	71	71	0
44	9¾	Atlantic Cst Line.		1	32	31½	32	0
21⅞	8¾	Atlantic Ref 1....		22	17¼	16⅝	16¾	— ⅛
151¼	98¼	Auburn Auto 4a.		24	85¾	83	84	+ 1
7¼	1¾	Aviation Corp....		77	6⅝	6¼	6¼	0

—B B B—

12	5	Baldwin Locomo.		4	8⅝	8½	8⅝	— ⅛
21¾	3½	Baltimore & Ohio		46	19	17¾	18¼	— ½
41½	6	Baltimore & O pf		5	22	21½	21¾	— ½
32½	9½	Bangor & Aroos 2		1	29½	29½	29½	— ½
7	3¼	Barnsdall Corp A		4	5¼	5	5¼	— ⅛
42¼	16½	Beatrice Cream 4.			17⅝	17⅜	17⅜	— ⅛
18⅝	4½	Bendix Aviation..		92	15¼	14⅜	14⅝	— ½
24⅜	5½	Best & Co.....		4	14½	13⅝	14½	0
29⅝	7½	Bethlehem Steel..		28	24⅜	23	23½	— ¾
74	16½	Bethlehem 7% pf		1	46½	46½	47½	— 8½
9¼	3½	Blaw Knox.....		1	8	8	8	— ⅛
22¼	4½	Bohn Alu & Brass		11	15½	14¼	15	— ⅛
43¼	20	Borden & Co 2..		25	29¾	28¾	29¼	— ⅜
14¾	3½	Borg Warner.....		26	12¼	11¾	11⅞	— ⅛
11¾	2½	Briggs Mfg Co...		8	6¾	6¼	6½	0
50¾	11⅝	Brooklyn M T....		63	22	20½	21⅞	— ⅛
78¾	31½	Brooklyn MT pf 6		5	61¾	61	61½	— ⅛
3¼	¼	Budd Mfg. Co....		8	3¼	2¾	3¼	— ⅛
4¼	¼	Budd Wheel.....		9	3¾	3½	3¾	— ⅛
8	2½	Bullard Co.....		1	6	6	6	0
13¼	6½	Burroughs AM .80		5	10½	10¼	10½	0
21¾	3½	Bush Term.....		1	7¼	7¼	7¼	0
2	½	Butte Cop & Zinc		3	1¼	1¼	1¼
24¾	7	Byers (A M) Co.		17	18¾	17⅝	18¼	0

—C C C—

19	7	California Pckg..		1	18⅞	18⅛	18¾	— ⅛
1¾	½	Callahan Z & L...		2	⅞	¾	¾	0
7¾	1½	Calumet & Hecla.		6	8⅛	8	8	— ⅛
9¼	2¾	Campbell W&C F.		1	8	8	8
15⅛	6	Canada DGA 1.20		18	12	11½	12	— ⅛
20⅜	10½	Canadian Pacific.		181	17⅜	17	17¼	+ ⅛
9¼	2¼	Capital Adminis..		2	7¼	7¼	7¼
85¾	16½	Case (JI) Th Ma		149	86⅛	83¼	84⅛	+ ⅛
15	4⅝	Caterpillar T .50.		7	11¼	10½	10½	0
20½	7⅛	Cen Aguirre 1⅛..		1	17½	17½	17½	— ½
6¼	2⅛	Century Rib Mills		1	4¾	4¾	4¾	— ⅛
20⅜	3⅛	Cerro de Pas Con		6	10½	10	10¼	— ⅛
31¼	9⅞	Chesapeake&O 2½.		61	25	23¾	24¼	— ¼
20¾	4⅝	Chesapeake Corp.		5	17	16½	16½	— ½
5	⅛	Chi & E Ill pf...		1	2¼	2¼	2¼
5¾	1¼	Chi Gt Western..		1	4⅜	4¾	4¾	0
15½	2¼	Chi Gt West pf..		16	13	12¼	13	0
8	⅛	Chi M & St Paul.		1	8	8	8	0
4½	1⅛	Chi Mil & St P pf		13	5½	5	5¼	— ⅛
14½	2	Chi & Northwest.		46	10¾	9¼	9⅞	— ⅛
31	1¼	Chi & NW pfd...		2	16½	16½	16½	— ¼
6¾	1	Chi Pneumatic T.		1	8¾	8¾	8¾	+ ¼
16⅝	1¼	Chi Rock I & P..		8	9⅝	9¼	9½	— ⅛
27½	4¼	Chi R I&P 7% pf		1	18	18	18	— 1¼
8	1½	Childs Co.....			8¾	8¼	8¾
21¾	5	Chrysler Mot 1...		265	19⅜	17¾	18⅝	— ⅜
2⅞	¼	City Stores.....		1	1	1	1	0
120	74¼	Coca Cola 7a....		8	98¼	97	97¾	+ ¼
10⅞	2¾	Colins & Aikman		1	7½	7½	7½
41⅞	13¼	Col Carbon 2....		7	36¼	33¼	35	— 1⅝
21	4¼	Colum G&E 1[1]..		55	17¾	16¼	17	+ ¼
11	3¾	Com Credit.....		8	6¼	6	6	— ⅛
27⅝	10½	Com Inv Tr 2....		2	21	21	21	— 1
13⅞	3¼	Com Solvent .60.		43	11⅜	11	11⅛	0
5¼	1¾	Com & South		2½	4	3⅞	4	0
68½	27⅝	Com & So pf 6..		1	59	59	59	— ½
12	6½	Congoleum-N .25.		1	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝	— ⅛
5⅝	1	Cons Fium Ind...		5	3⅞	3½	3⅝	— ⅛
11⅝	2⅜	Consol Film pf..		7	7½	7¼	7¼	— ⅛
68	31½	Consol Gas 4....		77	61⅝	58⅝	60¼	— ⅛
97½	72½	Consol Gas pf 5.		2	97	97	97
9	4	Consolidated Oil..		16	6⅞	6¾	6⅞	— ⅛
2¼	⅝	Consol Textile....		8	1	⅞	1	0
1⅝	½	Contin Baking B.		2	1	1	1	0
41	17⅛	Contin Can 2....		12	33	32½	32⅝	— ⅛
8½	3	Contin Diamond..			4⅛	4¼	4⅛
25¾	6⅝	Coninsurance 2.40		1	19¼	19	19¼	+ ¼
3⅝	⅛	Contin Motors....		35	3½	3½	3½	— ⅛
9⅝	3¼	Contin Oil.....		12	6⅞	6⅝	6⅝	0
54⅞	24½	Corn Prod Ref 3.		35	54¾	51¼	54½	— 2½
7⅝	1¼	Coty Incorp.....		2	8½	8¼	8¼	— ⅛
3½	½	Cuba Co.....		18	2	1¾	2	0
3¾	⅝	Cuban-Am Sugar.		1	2¾	2¼	2¼	— ⅛
31	7	Curtis Publishing.		1	20	20	20	+ 1
86	47	Curtis Pub pf 7.		2	70½	70¼	70½	0
3¼	⅛	Curtiss Wright Cp		68	2¼	2¼	2¼	0
4¾	1½	Curtiss-W Corp A		14	4¾	4	4	— ⅛

—D D D—

9¼	1	Davison Chemical		1	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝	— ⅜
92½	32	Del & Hudson 6..		4	78	76	78	— 3
45⅞	8½	Del Lack & West		228	41¾	38½	39½	— ⅛
19⅛	12	Diamond Match 1		1	17⅞	17⅛	17⅞	0
26	20½	Diamond M pf 1⅛		1	25½	25½	25½	— ⅛
12¾	7½	Doms Mines 1....		8	11¾	11½	11¾
18⅛	11¾	Domin Stores 1.20		1	16⅝	16¾	16⅝	— ½
18⅝	5	Doug Aircraft .75		83	16½	15	16	— ⅜
57	23	Drug Incorp 4...		859	41½	37⅛	38⅜	— 5⅛
59¾	22	Du Pont de N 5..		151	48⅝	41¾	42¼	— 1

—E E E—

57⅞	35¼	Eastman Kdk 3..		8	57	55¾	56¼	— 1½
9⅜	3	Eaton Mfg Co..		4	8	8	8	— ½
32⅝	8¼	Elec Autolite 1.20		51	22¼	20¾	20¾	— ½
16	2¼	Elec P & Lt....		41	11⅞	11¼	11⅝	— ⅛
33¼	12⅝	Elec Stor Bat 2..		8	27¼	27	27¼	— ¼
4	⅝	Elec & Music Ltd		74	2¾	2½	2½	0
37¼	13	Endicott-Johnsn 3		1	33	33	33	— 1½
19	12	Equit O Bldg 1.50		4	17	16½	17	0
11¾	2	Erie R R.....		8	9½	9	9	0
15¾	2⅜	Erie R R 1st pf..		4	11½	11¼	11½	— ¾
10⅜	2	Erie R R 2nd pf.		1	8¼	8¼	8¼	0

—F F F—

1¾	1	Fairbanks Co....		1	1½	1¼	1¼	— ⅛
15¾	6½	Feder Dept St .60		2	14½	14½	14½	— ½
27⅜	6	Fidelity F F 1 2.60		3	18¾	18½	18⅜	— ⅛
68	45	Firestone T&R p 6		2	59½	59	59½	+ ⅜
54⅛	35	First Nat S 2½..		13	53	51	51	— 1
⅝	⅛	Fisk Rubber.....		18	⅜	¼	⅜	+ ⅛
1⅛	¼	Fisk Rub 1st pf.		26	⅞	¾	¾	— ⅛
15⅞	3	Foster Wheeler..		3	12¼	12	12	0
22⅜	10	Fourth N Inv 1.20		4	20	19	19	— 1
5⅜	1	Fox Film A.....		6	4	3⅝	4	+ ⅛
26⅞	10	Freeport Tex 2..		5	25½	24¾	25½	+ ½

—G G G—

5¾	½	Gen Am Invest..		3	4⅝	4¼	4⅜	— ⅛
35⅜	9½	Gen Am Tnk G 4		10	19½	19	19½	+ ½
15⅜	4¼	General Asphalt..		1	11	11	11	— ½
19⅝	10½	General Baking 1		1	15¼	15¼	15¼	+ ¼
11⅜	1½	General Cable A.		2	7	6¾	7
26⅛	8½	Gen Elec .40....		106	19¼	18¼	18⅝	— ⅛
40⅜	19¼	Gen Foods Corp 2		80	31¼	30¼	31	— ¾
2⅝	⅛	Gen Gas & Elec..		2	1½	1½	1½	0
24⅝	3	GenG&E cv pf 6e		1	15	14¾	15	0
25	18¼	Gen Ital El 2.61.		1	23⅝	23⅝	23⅝
48½	28	General Mills 2..		1	45½	45½	45½	— ¾
95	76	Gen Mills pf 6...		1	95	95	95
24⅝	7⅝	General Motors 1.50		0	18¾	17¼	17⅝	— ⅝
87¼	56¼	Gen Mot pf 5....		8	82¼	82	82	— 1
9	4	Gen Outd Adv A.		1	7	7	7
7¼	1	Gen Pub Service..		8	4⅝	4¾	4⅝	— ⅛
2¼	¼	Gen Realty & Ut.		8	1⅞	1¾	1⅞	— ⅛
24¼	10⅝	Gillett Saf Ras 1		21	19½	18¾	18¾	— ¼
10⅝	3¼	Gibbden Co.....		8	8	8	8	— 1
8	2⅝	Gobel Incorp....		1	5¼	5¼	5¼	— ⅛
20⅝	8¼	Gold Dust 1.60...		8	18⅝	18	18⅛	+ ⅛
12⅝	2	Goodrich (BF) Co		11	8½	7⅞	8¼	+ ⅛
33¾	5⅜	Goodrich (BF) pf		2	22½	22½	22½	— ½
29⅝	5½	Goodyear T&Rub.		18	23¼	20¾	22	+ ⅜
30⅝	7¼	Gotham Silk Hos.		11	22¼	21½	22½	0
4⅝	1	Graham-Paige Mt		18	3⅛	2⅞	3⅛	— ⅛
11⅝	2⅜	Granby Copper...		1	8⅛	8⅛	8¼	— 1
9¾	3½	Grand Union....		1	7¾	7¾	7¾
38¼	22	Grand Union pf 5		1	33	33	33

—H H H—

4¼	⅝	Hahn Dept Store.		2	2⅝	2¾	2¾	0
28	7½	Hahn Dept St pf.		1	19	19	19
11¼	3½	Hall Printing.....		2	5¼	5⅛	5⅛
18	7	Harbison Walk...		1	16	16	16
2	½	Hartman Corp B.		1	1	1	1
3½	⅝	Hayes Body.....		2	2½	2⅛	2½	0
83	43⅛	Hershey Choco 6.		2	62⅝	61	62¼	— 1⅜
13½	7⅜	Holland Furnace..		8	10⅝	10⅜	10⅜	— ⅛
10⅜	3	Hollander & Sons		2	6⅝	6	6	— 1
57¼	42¼	Household Fin pf 4		1	50½	50½	50½	0
28¼	8¾	Houston Oil.....		9	18⅝	18	18¼	— ¼
7⅜	1¼	Houston Oil: new.		8	3⅞	3¾	3⅞	— ⅛
14½	5	Howe Sound .40..		1	11	11	11	— ⅝
30⅜	8	Hud & Man 3.50..		2	20	19⅛	19¼	— ⅝
11⅜	2⅜	Hudson Motor....		8	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞	— ½
5⅜	1	Hupp Motors.....		1	4¼	4	4	— ⅛

—I I I—

24½	4⅜	Illinois Central...		29	21½	19⅛	19⅜	— ⅝
2¼	⅛	Indian Motocycle.		1	1¼	1¼	1¼
2¼	1	Indian Refining..		8	2	2	2	— ⅛
40	7¼	Indust Rayon 4..		8	35	34	34¾	— 1¼
44½	14¾	Ingersoll Rand 3.		4	37¼	35½	37¼	— ⅝
27½	10	Inland Steel.....		2	19¼	18⅞	19¼	— ½
8¼	⅝	Inspiration Cop...		3	8	8	8	— ⅛
14⅝	2¾	Interboro Rap T.		2	4½	4½	4½	— ⅛
117	42¼	Inter Bus M 6a..		2	101¼	100	101¼	— 1¼
5⅛	1¼	Inter Carriers .20		1	4¾	4¾	4¾	— ⅛
18⅛	3⅜	Internat Cement..		6	14	12⅜	14	— 1½
1⅜	⅜	Inter Com Eng...		1	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	— ⅛
21	4⅜	Inter Com E pf f		1	9	9	9
34¼	10⅜	Int Harvest 1.20.		208	28¾	26⅝	27½	— ¼
11⅜	2⅜	Inter Hydro Elec.		8	7¾	7¾	7¾	— ⅛
12½	3½	Inter Nickel Can.		22	10⅝	9½	9¾	— ⅛
1⅜	⅛	Inter P&P C.....		1	⅜	⅜	⅜	0
23¼	9⅝	Internat Hall 1.50		1	16	16	16
44¾	20½	Internat Shoe 2..		4	29¼	29¼	29	— 1
15⅝	2⅝	Internat Te & Te		280	13¾	12¾	13¼	— ½

—J J J—

33⅜	10	Johns-Manville Co		120	30¼	28¼	29½	— ½
84

POLITICS ERECT FREE TRADE BARRIERS

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
Universal Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The nature of international trade has been restricted by recent political developments, including the British Ottawa conference on imperial preference and also the adoption of a tariff by England.

With free trading held in check, there will doubtless be an increased effort on the part of American corporations to get inside tariff walls by opening foreign branches.

Mr. Rukeyser

Without hesitation to gild the lily, the London, Midland and Scottish Railway, of Great Britain of which the eminent Sir Josiah Stamp is the head, attempts in its advertising to show American business interests how to evade the new blockade against the foreign label on merchanndise.

UPHOLDS MOVE

Under the caption "Mr. John Bull Will Listen To Reason," the railroad, seeking tonnage irrespective of the flag, said:

"The 'Buy British' movement has been a God-send to England. It has forced British manufacturers to recognize the value of their own market.

"American manufacturers can no longer overlook the necessity of meeting this encouraged British competition. They must either establish their own factories in England or retire gracefully."

After calling attention to factory sites along its line, the railroad further states:

"Cheaper labor and carrying charges make operation most economical. And, of course, a 'Made in England' label for your product eliminates all buying prejudice.

Thus an alert transportation system merchandises national prejudices.

TARIFF FAILURE

To the extent that the British tariff is retaliation toward us, the American tariff, which spellbinders allege is intended to protect American labor, has failed to do its job. Capital, which is more mobile and less nationalistic, however, finds a way to leap over the barriers erected by politicians.

Commenting on Gov. Roosevelt's railroad address, Percy R. Todd, president, Bangor and Aroostock Railroad Company, said:

"I think exceedingly well of it and I do not know that I could offer any additions or eliminations to that speech provided it is carried out in fact absolutely.

"I do not see any signs of revival in business in our territory as yet. There is this, however, to be borne in mind, that depressions always arrive in Maine about six months after they commence elsewhere and are always about the same length of time behind in recovery."

(Copyright, 1932, Universal Service, Inc.)

CORN REACHES SEASON'S LOW

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Downturns in grain values took place early today as a result of scattered selling which found the market without aggressive support. Corn touched a new bottom price record for the season. Opening ¼ to ⅜ lower, wheat continued to sag. Corn also started ⅛ to ⅜ off and later held near the initial limits.

A gradual decline of about 1 cent a bushel in the value of wheat ensued, with lack of purchases rather than any material selling pressure the outstanding characteristic. Selling for cash interests in the corn pit put corn and oats on the downgrade.

Provisions went lower with hog values and cereals.

The following quotations on the Chicago Board of Trade are reported by A. E. Masten & Co.:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Yester-day.
WHEAT—
May	60⅝	60⅝	59¼	59¼	59¾
Sept.	61⅞	62⅛	61⅛	62⅛	61⅞
Dec.	54¾	54½	53⅝	54⅜	54⅝
CORN—
May	33⅝	34	33⅜	34	34
Sept.	27	27⅛	26⅝	26⅞	27⅛
Dec.	28⅝	28⅝	28⅛	28⅝	28⅝
OATS—
May	20⅝	20⅝	20⅝	20⅜	20⅜
Sept.	16⅛	16⅜	16⅛	16⅜	16⅜
Dec.	18	18	17⅞	17⅞	18
RYE—
May	38⅛	39	38½	39	39
LARD—
May	4 80	4 82	4 80	4 82	4 87

RAILROAD EARNINGS

Baltimore & Ohio:

	1932	1931
August net operating income	$2,159,398	$2,657,050
Eight months	12,843,156	17,915,802

Norfolk and Western:

August net	$1,272,316	$ 2,038,595
Eight months	9,337,503	14,698,485

New Haven:

	1932	1931
August deficit	$478,533	*$ 572,272
Eight months	75,243	6,271,789

*Surplus.

Illinois Central:

	1932	1931
Aug. net oper. income	$ 929,035	$1,422,062
Eight months	6,385,882	8,931,447

Chicago and Northwestern:

	1932	1931
Aug. net oper. income	$ 675,867	$1,136,164
Eight months	†796,978	278,849

†Deficit.

Dividend Notices

HARBISON-WALKER REFRACTORIES COMPANY.
Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 26, 1932.
DIVIDEND—Directors have declared for quarter ending September 30, 1932, dividend of One and One-Half (1½%) Per Cent on Preferred Stock, payable October 20, 1932, to stockholders of record October 10, 1932. Checks will be mailed.
P. R. HILLEMAN, Secretary.

THE COLONIAL TRUST COMPANY, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Sept. 22, 1932.
The Board of Directors of this company has declared a dividend of 2½ ($2.00 per share) on the capital stock, payable October 1, 1932, to stockholders of record at the close of business September 28, 1932. Checks will be mailed.
GEORGE A. YOUNG, Treasurer.

DUQUESNE NATIONAL BANK,
Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 23, 1932.
The directors of this bank have this day declared a quarterly dividend of two (2%) per cent on the capital stock, payable October 1, 1932, to stockholders of record September 30, 1932. Checks will be mailed.
DURBIN S. KERR, Cashier.

NEW YORK CURB MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Curb price levels improved slightly today after a forenoon of heaviness. Trading continued in small volume.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP.)—Following is the list of transactions on the New York Curb Exchange, giving all stocks and bonds traded (00 omitted in sales column of stock list; 000 omitted in sales column of bond list):

STOCKS

Sales.		High.	Low.	2:45.
	—A—
*250	Alum Co Am	71⅞	67	71⅞
1	Do pref	61½	61½	61½
1	Alum Ltd pfd	35½	35½	35½
*24	Do war	6½	6½	6½
5	Am Beverage	7	7	7
4	Am Cit P & L B	6¾	6¾	6¾
4	Am Cyan B	6	6	6
4	Am Equities	3	3	3
3	Am Gas & Pwr w w	3	3	3
3	Am Founders	1	1	1
14	Am Gas & Elec	35¾	34½	35¾
5	Am Maracaibo	7-16	7-16	7-16
50	Am Sup Power	6⅞	6⅞	6⅞
1	Do pfd	50	50	50
	—B—
1	Blue Ridge	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
1	Brazil T&L	6¾	6¾	6¾
1	Brill A	1	1	1
1	Do B
	—C—
1	Cable R Tube vtc	⅛	⅛	⅛
3	Can Marc Wirel	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
25	Celanese 1st pfd	45	45	45
1	Con Pub Ill A	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
1	Con G & E Balt	65	65	65
13	Con St El	4½	4½	4½
21	Cities Service	4½	4½	4½
2	Claude Neon Lts	2¾	2¾	2¾
1	Creole Tract	3½	3½	3½
1	Comwlth Edis	77	77	77
18	Comwlth & So war		11-16	5
1	Comstock Tun	5-16	5-16	5-16
1	Cons G & E Balt	65	65	65
1	Cont Sil Corp	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝
2	Cord Corp	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
1	Cosden Oil pfd	5	5	5
2	Creole Pet	2½	2½	2½
	—D—
5	Deere & Co	15	13½	15
3	De Forest	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	Dow Chem	39	39	39
1	Duval Tex	⅝	⅝	⅝
	—E—
2	Easy W Mach B	2	2	2
269	Elec Bond & Share	35⅝	32½	35⅛
1	Do pfd	80½	80½	80½
1	Do 5s pfd	50½	50½	50½
*50	Emp Dist El pfd	20	20	20
	—F—
1	Fairchild Avia A	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
*50	Fajardo Sugar	49¾	49¾	49¾
7	Fisk Rubber new	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜
1	Do N pfd	26	26	26
1	Ford M France	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
4	Ford Motor Ltd	2¾	2¾	2¾
2	Franklin Mfg	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
	—G—
1	Gen Aviation	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜
1	Gen G&E cv pfd B	15	15	15
9	Gen Th Eq cv pfd	1	1	1
1	Globe Underwr	4	4	4
1	Goldman Sachs	3	3	3
*20	Gt Atl & P mv	150	150	150
*50	Greif & Bros	8	8	8
2	Groc Str vtc	1	1	1
1	Gulf Oil Pa	32	32	32
	—H—
1	Hay Candy St A	⅞	⅞	⅞
1	Hir Walker	3½	3½	3½
2	Do pfd	84	84	84
7	Hudson Bay M&S	3⅜	3⅛	3⅜
	—I—
1	Ill P & L 86 pfd	43¼	43¼	43¼
1	Ind Pow & Lgt	9⅞	9⅞	9⅞
8	Insull Util
2	Insuran Sec	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
2	Internat Pet	10½	10½	10½
1	Int Sup Pow	15⅝	15⅝	15⅝
1	Interst Equit	⅛	⅛	⅛
12	Do cvt pfd	16	15¾	16
	—J—
1	Jonas Naum	⅝	⅝	⅝
	—K—
5	Kerr Lake	¾	3-16	3-16
	—L—
2	Lake Shore Min	27	27	27
6	Lefcourt Realty pfd	2¾	2¾	2¾
1	Lib McN & L	3½	3½	3½
5	Louis L & E	1¼	1¼	1¼
	—M—
5	Midwest Util	⅝	⅝	⅝
2	Mo Kan P L	5-16	5-16	5-16
2	Mount Prod	3¾	3¾	3¾
	—N—
60	Nat Bellas Hess	2¼	2	2¼
1	Nat Fuel G	12½	12½	12½
2	Nat Investors	2¾	2¾	2¾
	Do war	⅛	⅛	⅛
*50	Nat P&L 6s pfd	74	74	74
6	Nat Steel war	1	1	1
1	New Haven Clock	1	1	1
4	N Mex & Ariz	1	1	1
2	Newmont Min	19	18	19
2	Niag Hud Pow	16	16	16
6	Do A war	1¼	1¼	1¼
1	Niag Sh Md B	8½	9½	9½
20	No Cent Tex	1¼	1¼	1¼
1	No Europ Oil	3-16	3-16	3-16
	—O—
13	Ohio Cop	5-16	¼	5-16
	—P—
2	Pan-Am Airways	26½	26½	26½
1	Parker Rust-Pr	39	38½	39
9	Pennroad	3¼	3	3
1	Phila Co	12⅝	12⅝	12⅝
2	Philip Morris Cons	2¾	2¾	2¾
1	Pierce Governor	2¾	2¾	2¾
1	Pilot Radio A	2½	2½	2½
1	Pioneer Gold	3½	3½	3½
1	Pitts Lake E	47⅞	47⅞	47⅞
1	Plymouth O	11	11	11
11	Pub Ut Hold war	3-16	3-16	3-16
3	Do xwar	1¼	1¼	1¼
	—R—
*75	Rwy & Lgt Sec	13½	12⅝	12⅝
20	Reybarn Inc	1¾	1¾	1¾
1	Rhode Is P Svc pfd	23½	23½	23½
2	Root Rfg pr pfd	7½	7½	7½
	—S—
1	Safety Car H & L	39	38	39
18	St Regis Pap	5¼	⅝	5½
2	Salt Cr Con	⅛	⅛	⅛
2	Seaboard Util	1¾	1¾	1¾
1	Sec Allied nv	9	9	9
1	Sentry S Con	⅝	⅝	⅝
2	Shenandoah pfd	21	21	21
1	Silica Gel ctf	1¼	1¼	1¼
*10	Singer Mfg	111	111	111
1	So Am G & Pl	1	1	1
1	So Penn Oil	13	13	13
12	St Oil Ind	21¾	21¼	21⅝
2	St Oil Ky	12⅞	12¼	12¼
1	Stutz Mot Am	11	11	11
8	Swift & Co	9¼	9¼	9¼
6	Swift Int	18⅜	18⅛	18⅛
	—T—
2	Technicolor	3½	3½	3½
9	Teck Hugh G	3	3	3
	—U—
1	Union Am Inv	13	13	13
1	Unit Dry Dock	½	½	½
19	Unit Founders	2½	2½	2½
13	United Gas	3¼	3	3¼
17	Do war	1¼	1¼	1¼
2	Do pfd	41¾	40	41¾
11	Un Lt & Pow A	3	3	3
3	Do cv pfd	28½	28½	28½
1	U S Dairy B	3	3	3
2	U S Elec Pow	1½	1½	1½
*225	U S Play Cd	14	13¾	14
2	Unit Stores vtc	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	Utah Apex M	⅛	⅛	⅛
8	Util Pwr & Lt	3	2⅞	3
	—V—
7	Van Camp	⅛	⅛	⅛
3	Do pfd	⅝	⅝	⅝
5	Vick Finance	4¼	4¼	4¼
	—W—
2	Walgreen	14	13¾	14
1	Watson J W	⅛	⅛	⅛
20	Wenden C M	⅛	⅛	⅛
4	Wil-Low Cafe	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	Woodley Pete	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
13	Woolworth Ltd	10	10	10

DOMESTIC BONDS.

Sales.		High.	Low.	2:45.
5	Ala Power 5s 46	97	96⅛	97
2	Do 5s 68	88	88	88
4	Do 4½s 67	83	82⅜	82¾
3	Do 5s 56	92	92	92
3	Alumin Co 5s 52	98⅜	98⅜	98⅜
1	Am Com Pow 6s 40	3	3	3
10	Am & Cont 5s 43	60	56	56
7	Am El & P 6s 57A	40	39½	39½
29	Am G&E 5s 2028	85½	84⅞	85
1	Am G&P 6s 39	40	40	40
2	Do 5s 59	34⅝	34½	34½
13	Am P & L 6s 2016	69	68⅛	69
11	Am Roll Mill 5s 48	58	57	57
2	Do 4½s 33	72¾	72¼	72¼
1	Am Seaf 6s 36	35	35	35
1	Am Thread 5½s 38	95	95	95
5	Appalach Pw 5s 56	93	93	93
10	Ark P&L 5s 56	88¼	87½	87¾
8	Assd Elec 4½s 53	47⅞	47⅛	47⅛
4	As G&E 5½s38in ct	28⅛	28	28⅛
29	Am G&E 5s 2028	85½	84⅞	85
1	Am G&P 6s 39	40	40	40
2	Do 5s 59	34⅝	34½	34½
13	Am P & L 6s 2016	69	68⅛	69
11	Am Roll Mill 5s 48	58	57	57
2	Do 4½s 33	72¾	72¼	72¼
1	Am Seaf 6s 36	35	35	35
1	Am Thread 5½s 38	95	95	95
5	Appalach Pw 5s 56	93	93	93
10	Ark P&L 5s 56	88¼	87½	87¾
8	Assd Elec 4½s 53	47⅞	47⅛	47⅛
4	As G&E 5½s38in ct	28⅛	28	28⅛
11	Do 5s 50	30¼	29⅝	29⅝
2	Do 5½s 77	37	37	37
25	Do 5s 68	29	28	28
19	Do 4½s 48	27¾	26⅝	27½
1	Assd Rayon 5s 50	45	45	45
16	As Tel Ut 5½s44C	26½	26	26
1	Do 6s 52	49½	49½	49½
4	Assd T&T 5½s 55A	38¾	38¾	38¾
16	But T Can 5s 55 A	98⅛	98	98
17	Do 5s 57 B	98¼	97⅞	98
1	Do 5s 60 C	98	98	98
4	Birming Gas 5s 59	61⅝	61⅛	61⅜
1	Can Nor P 5s 53A	71½	71½	71½
5	Cap Adm 5s 53Axw	75	75	75
35	Can Pac Ry 6s 42	97⅝	96⅞	97⅝
19	Caro P&L 5s 56	79	78¾	79
1	Cen Ariz P&L 5s 60	90	90	90
2	Cen Ill PS 5s 66G	78	76⅝	78
2	Do 4½s 67F	72	72	72
4	Cen P&L 5s 56	71⅝	71⅛	71⅝
5	Cen Pow 5s 57D	72	72	72
21	Cen P Ser 5½s 49	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
1	Do 5½s 49xw	11	11	11
2	Cen St El 5½s 54	52	51	51
1	Do 5s 48	48½	48½	48½
4	Cen St P&L 5½s53	49⅛	49⅛	49⅛
3	Chi D El 4½s 70A	80	80	80
1	Chi P Tool 5½s 42	42	42	42
10	Chi Ry cod 5s 27	50	50	50
29	Cit S R 5½s 49A	20¾	20	20⅛
1	Cit S Car 6s 55B	61⅛	61⅛	61⅛
2	Cities Service 5s 66	42	42	42
69	Do 5s 50	43	42⅝	43
22	Cit S Pow 5½s 52	45⅝	44⅞	44⅝
13	Do 5½s 49	47	46⅝	46⅝
5	Clev E Ill 5s 39	106	105¼	105¼
5	Comw Ed 5s 54B	100½	100½	100½
2	Comwl Ed 4½s 57D	92⅞	92⅜	92⅞
1	Do 4½s 60 E	92⅝	92⅝	92⅝
55	Do 4s 81 F	84⅛	84⅛	84⅛
45	Do 5½s 62 G	103½	103	103½
11	Com Sub 5½s 48A	76	75¾	75¾
7	Commun P&L 5s 57	56⅛	55	55
3	Conn L&P 5s 52 D	103⅞	103⅞	103⅞
2	Con G Balt 4½s 54	102	102	102
13	Do 4½s 69 G	104	104	104
1	Do 4s 81	96⅜	94⅜	94⅜
3	Con GE&P 4½s 35	102⅜	102⅜	102⅜
3	Con G Ut 6½s 43A	19	19	19
16	Do 6s 43 A	30½	30	30
10	Consum P 5s 36	104¼	104	104
12	Cont G&E 5s 58 A	60½	60	60½
1	Cont Oil 5½s 37	94¼	94¼	94¼
15	Cudahy P 5½s 37	86⅝	86	86
5	Do 5s 46	98⅝	98	98⅝
20	Dallas P&L 6s 49A	105⅝	105⅜	105⅝
1	Dayton P&L 5s 41	102⅛	102⅛	102⅛
3	Det Int Bdge 6½s 52
2	East Ut Inv 5s 54A	27⅝	27	27⅝
5	El Ill 5s 63	102	102	102
2	Do 5s 54	102	102	102
10	Do 5s 55	101	101	101
41	Elec P&L 5s 2030	54	52½	54
4	Emp O&R 5½s 42	50⅛	50⅛	50⅛
6	Fed Water 5½s 54	48½	47¾	47¾
2	Firestone Tire 5s42	86	86	86
31	Fisk Rub 5½s 48	45	45	45
	Do 5½s 53 cod	45½	45½	45½
19	Fla P&L 5s 54	75½	75	75½
3	Do 5½s 79 A	69	68	68
42	Garr E&G 5s34A	74	72½	72½
5	Gatin P 5s 56	70	70	70
2	Gen Pow 5s 48	68	68	68
10	Gen Mot Ac 5s 53	101¼	101	101¼
	Do 5s 54	101¼	101¼	101¼
	Do 5s 55	101¼	101⅜	101¼
	Do 5s 65	101¼	101¼	101¼
8	Gen P Utl 6½s56	33⅜	32½	32½
7	Gen Refract 5s 53	60	59	59
3	Gen W Wk 5s45A	42	41½	41½
9	Geo P 5s 57	87	87	87
49	Geo Pow 5s 67	88⅝	88⅛	88⅜
	Geo P & L 5s 78	65¾	65¼	65¼
	Glen A Coal 4s65	57	56¾	56¾
8	Grand Tr 6½s 36	27⅝	27⅜	27⅜
6	Gulf Oil 5s 47	99	99	99
	Do 5s 57	100	99⅞	100
10	Gulf St Ut 4½s61B	73¾	73	73
	Do 5s 56 A	85	85	85
4	Hall Print 5½s47	66	66	66
1	Hud Gas 5s 51	50	50	50
1	Hood R 5½s 36	41	41	41
1	Houst Gulf 4½s47A	49½	49½	49½
2	Hou L&P 4½s81E	83½	83½	83½
	Do 5s 53A	89½	89½	89½
17	Hygrade Fd 6s 49A	43	41½	42½
1	Do 6s 49 B	41¾	41¾	41¾
2	Ill Cent 4½s 55	48	48	48
8	Ill P & L 5s 56C	68	68	68
	Do 5½s 57	62½	62½	62½
6	Do 6s 53 A	78	78	78
6	Ind Svc 5s 63A	38⅜	38⅜	38⅜
1	Iroquois Gas 5s	72	71½	71½
1	Ind P & L 5s 57A	87½	87½	87½
1	Insull Ut Invs 6s40B	41	41	41
1	Inter P Sec 7s 57E	88½	88½	88½
3	Inter P Sec 6½s54B	104½	104½	104½
1	Int Sil 5s 51	97	97	97
1	Inter Met A 5s 47	31	31	31
5	Inters Pow 6s 52	47⅜	47⅛	47⅜
7	Do 5s 57	67½	67½	67½
2	Int P Sv 5s 56D	75	75	75
1	Iowa G & E 5s 58	69	69	69
5	Int Tel 5s 61A	65	61	61
2	Ja-Neh L&P 5s 57	79	79	79
14	Jer CenP&L 5½s61C	90½	90½	90½
2	Kelly Spg 6s 33	54½	53½	53½
2	Ky Util 6½s 48 D	90	90	90
1	Ky Util 5s 61 H	77	77	77
1	Key Tel 5½s 55	55	55	55
1	Key Ut P 5½s 57	82	82	82
6	Do 5s 58	87	87	87
2	Kresge 5s 45 ctf	85½	85½	85½
1	L McN & L 5s 42	87	87	87
1	Long Isl 5½s 51 A	90	90	90
13	Louis P&L 5s 57	89½	89½	90
4	Mass Gas 5½s 46	92½	91½	92
1	Memphis P&L 5s 48	98	98	98
8	Metro Ed 5s 52 F	98	98	98
	Midwest Ut 5s 50	73	73	73
2	Mid West Ut 5s 33	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
	Do 5s 35	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
1	Milw G Lt 4½s67	98	98	98
1	Minn G Lt 4½s 50	83½	83½	83½
2	Minn Gen 5½s 34	13½	13½	13½
1	Miss Pow 5s 50	101	101	101
2	Miss Riv P 5s 51	102	102	102
3	Mo P Svc 5s 47 A	62½	62½	62½
1	Mon W P Co 5s 43B	74½	74½	74½
27	Montri LH&P 5s61A	66	65½	65½
2	Narragansett 5s 57	99½	99½	99½
8	Nat Aviation	20	20	20
8	Nati El P 5s 78
21	Nat P Pr 5s 57	20½	20½	20½
	Nevada Cal E 5s 56	69	69	69
6	N Eng G&E 5s 50	60½	60½	60½
	Do 5s 47	60½	60½	60½
1	N Eng P 4½s 61	67	67	67
11	Do 5s 48	65¾	65¾	65¾
	NY Chic &St L 6s 35	27¾	27¾	27¾
4	NY Forgn 5½s48xw	75	74	75
21	NY P&L 4½s 67	92	91½	92
20	NYStG&E 4½s80	87½	87½	87½
6	Niag Fall P 6s 50	106½	106	106½
2	Nor Am L&P 5s 34	86⅝	86⅝	86⅝
36	Do 5½s A 56	47	46¾	46¾
	Do 5s 38	46½	46½	46½
	Nor Ind G&E 6s	85	85	85
1	Nor Ind Pub Ser 6s C	85	85	85
	Nor O P&L 5½s 51	97½	97½	97½
	Nor O P&L 5s 56	93½	93½	93½
1	Nor Ont Lt&P 5s 59	87½	87½	87½
	Nor West Pow 6s60	18⅜	18⅜	18⅜
4	Ohio Edison 5s 60	95¾	95¾	95¾
13	Ohio Pow 5s 52 B	102	101½	102
1	Do 5s 56 C	101	101	101
1	Ohio PS 5½s 61 E	88	88	88
	Do 5s 54 D	84	84	84
8	Okla G&E 5s 50	87¾	87¾	87¾
2	Okla P&W 5s 48 A	60	60	60
	Oswego 6s 43	60	60	60
23	Pac G&E 4½s 57 E	68	68	68
25	Do 4½s 60 F	55⅝	55⅝	55⅝
1	Do 5s 55 D	100	100	100
	Do 5s 53 A	78	78	78
1	Pac Pr & L 5s 57C	103½	103½	103½
1	Pa Cen P&L 5s 79	74	74	74
1	Pa Gas 6s 43	78½	78½	78½
1	P-O Edis 5½s 59B	77	77	77
18	P-O P&L 5½s 54A	89	89	89
1	Pa Pwr 5s 66	87	87	87
4	Pa Ry 5s 57	88	88	88
4	Pa W&P 5s 40	105	104½	104½
25	Peo GL&C 6s 57C	102	101½	102
14	Phila El P 5½s 72	106	105¾	105¾
	Phil SubG&E 4½s57	101	101	101
1	Pub Sv N Ill 5s 56	91	91	91
	Do 4½s 81	79½	79½	79½
	Do 6½s 37 G	99½	99½	99½
11	Pub Sv Sub 5½s49A	67½	67½	68
3	Pug Sd P&L 5½s 49	68	68	68
	Pwr & Lt 5½s 47	88½	88½	88½
14	Rem Arms 5½s s 33	93	93	93
2	Rep Gas 6s 43 A	18½	18½	18½
6	Roch Gen P 5s 48	48½	48½	48½
1	Roch G&E 5s 62 E	100¼	100¼	100¼
1	Ryerson & S 5s 43	72	72	72
9	St L Gas&C 6s 47	19⅝	18	19⅝
8	Saf Har W 4½s 79	98	97⅝	98
1	Salmon Riv P 5s 52	104	104	104
	San Ant PS 5s 58 B	80½	80½	80½
2	S Joan G L&P5s57	92	92	92
2	Schulte R E 6s 35	14¼	14¼	14¼
1	Scripps 5½s 43	66	66	66
1	Seattle Lt 5s 49	60¾	60¾	60¾
7	Shaw W&P 4½s67A	71⅞	71¼	71¼
1	Do 5s 70 C	79¼	79¼	79¼
1	Sher-Wro 6s 47	30	30	30
3	Silica Gel 6½s 52	45¼	45	45
6	SEP&L 6s 2025Axw	77	76¾	77
1	So Cal Edis 5s 39	108	108	108
17	Do 5s 51	101½	101½	101½
1	Do 5s 52	101¾	101¾	101¾
16	Do 5s 54	101¾	101¾	101¾
	So Car Pow 5s 57	67¾	67¾	67¾
16	So Ind G&E 5½s57	101½	100⅝	100⅝
3	Sou Nat Gas 6s 44	48½	47½	47½
1	Swst Nat G 6s 45	34	34	34
1	Stand G & E 6s 35

Death Notices 1

BEAMON—On Sunday, September 25, 1932, at 6 a. m., MARTIN J. BEAMON, husband of Mildred E. Tremer Beamon, aged 36 years. Funeral from the family residence, 2008 Duquesne avenue, McKeesport, Pa., on Wednesday, September 28, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem high mass at St. Pius' Church, Mckeesport, at 9 a. m. Friends invited.

BENDTSEN—CHRISTINA (nee Petersen), wife of the late K.L. Bendtsen, of 5165 Columbo street. Funeral from the funeral home of W. N. Winter, 4730 Friendship avenue, on Wednesday, September 28, at 2:30 p. m. Friend, invited.

CAVANAGH—On Monday, September 26, 1932, at 9:45 p. m., at the family residence, 2908 Webster avenue, Mary A. Creed widow of James Cavanagh, mother of Edward J. Cavanagh. Notice of funeral later.

CAMPBELL—On Sunday morning, September 25, 1932, at 6:15 o'clock, DANIEL W., husband of Elma Hartman Campbell and father of Ejvera and Mildred Campbell. Services at his late home, 318 East Ninth avenue. Homestead on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

CONNELLY—Suddenly, on Tuesday, September 27, 1932, at 7 a. m., ANN CONNELLY, widow of Thomas, aged 87 years. Funeral from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Patrick A. Comer, 1616 Brilliant avenue, Aspinwall. Notice of time later.

EGGERS—Suddenly, on Sunday, September 25, 1932, at 5:30 p. m., LAURA M. DONAHUE, widow of William P. Eggers, mother of J. Howard, George J. and James D. Eggers. Funeral from the family home, 2791 South Pergman avenue, Sheraden, on Wednesday, September 28. Solemn high mass of requiem at Holy Innocents' Church at 9:30 a. m. Friends invited.

IMHOFF—On Monday afternoon, September 26, 1932, ANNA MYLER, widow of Edward W. Imhoff. Remains at the home of the T. B. Moreland Co., North Highland avenue at Rippey street, East End, where services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment private.

KELLEY—On Monday, September 26, 1932, at 1:30 p. m., ANNA L., widow of David D. Kelley, at her late home, 2733 Bergman street, Sheraden. Remains at the funeral home of T. D. Turner, 619 Penn avenue, Wilkinsburg, where services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

LAMPERT-ZOOG—On Sunday, September 25, 1932, at 7:05 a. m., MARY ZOOG LAMPERT, wife of John Lampert, and mother of Charles J. and Joseph Zoog and Mrs. Marcella Corcoran, at her residence, 94 Twenty-fourth street, S. S. Funeral on Wednesday, September 28, at 8:15 a. m. High mass of requiem at Holy Cross Church at 9 a. m. Friends and members of the Ladies of Blessed Sacrament and Women's Benefit Association, Hill Top Review No. 215, are invited. Review services Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. (Norristown and Danville, Pa., papers please copy).

LIPPINCOTT—On Monday, September 26, 1932, at 3 p. m., SARAH JANE CLARK McCRICKERT, wife of Henry W. Lippincott. Funeral services at H. Samson's, 557 Neville street, on Thursday at 2 p. m. Interment private.

MATTHEWS—On Sunday, September 25, 1932, JOHN K., father of James T. Matthews. Funeral services at his late residence, 1616 Garford avenue, Dormont, Wednesday at 2 p. m. Friends are invited. Interment private.

MURRAY—At Mercy Hospital, on Sunday, September 25, 1932, at 4:40 p. m., JAMES MURRAY, beloved husband of the late Margaret Anne Murray (Travis). Funeral from the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Parrish, 7207 Witherspoon street, Morningside, on Wednesday, September 28, at 9:30 a. m. Solemn requiem mass at St. Lawrence's Church at 10 a. m. Friends invited.

PHOENIX—On Monday, September 26, 1932, at 2:15 a. m., JOHN B. PHOENIX, husband of Betty Vance Phoenix and father of Helen, Arthur, Betty and Mrs. Mildred Williams. Funeral from the home of Schellhaas & Son, 707 East street, N. S., on Wednesday, at 2:15 p. m. Friends invited.

REED—On Monday, September 26, 1932, at 8:15 p. m., ELLA HAGAN REED, wife of the late William H. Reed, mother of Mrs. Paul P. Payne, Mrs. H. A. Tuck and Dr. Edward H. Reed, at his late home, 303 South avenue, Wilkinsburg. Remains at the funeral home of T. D. Turner, 619 Penn avenue, Wilkinsburg. Services will be held Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Interment in Richland Cemetery, Dravosburg, Thursday morning.

SMITH—On Sunday, September 25, 1932, at 9:25 p. m., at his late residence, 123 South Kingsley avenue, WILFRED L. SMITH. Solemn mass at Sacred Heart Church, corner Shady avenue and Walnut street, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

WERNER—Suddenly, on Monday, September 26, 1932, at 11:40 p. m., MARSHALL O. WERNER, beloved husband of Jane Kean Werner and son of the late Edward and Dorothea Werner, in his 30th year. Funeral services on Thursday, September 29, 1932, at Hershberger's Sons' chapel, 426-428 Main street West End, at 3:30 p. m. Fort Pitt Lodge No. 634, F. & A. M., and friends invited.

ALEGHENY COUNTY MEMORIAL PARK INFORMATION PHONE ATLANTIC 9847.

MOUNT ROYAL MAUSOLEUM. Entombment space available. AT 3829.

Florist 1-C

GIDAS Spray, $3; basket, $5. 3707 Forbes st. MA 1753.

Funeral Directors 1-D

FUNERALS COMPLETE FROM $135.00 UP

Grime & Blair

4112 Main St. Schenley 3000.

Lost and Found 2

Lost and Found ads are broadcast over WCAE, Radio Voice of Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

DOG—Brown Pomeranian, white breast and tail, lost in Herron Hill district; has harness on bearing 1930 license; lost Sept. 2; reward. 3389 Milwaukee st., city.

DOG—Small black and tan, male, Sept. 13, Knoxville district; reward. EV 3357.

FUR trimming, black skunk, lost, S. Aiken ave. or 5th ave.; rew. WE 0915-J.

GLASSES lost near Fifth ave. synagogue or Kaufmann's; reward. LE 3565-R.

LOST—Large fox hound in the vicinity of Rennerdale, Pa. Reward. Phone Carnegie 351.

LOST—Blue purse, containing papers, tan wallet, cash, checks; lib. rew. CH 1766.

PURSE, keys, name on holder, money, Sun. eve., front Syria Mosque; rew. SC 4976.

RING with blue square cut stone; downtown section Saturday, 24; reward. HI 1286-W.

WRIST watch, 2 diamonds, 4 sapphires; downtown Sat. morn.; reward. GR 3076.

FOUND ON STREET CARS AND BUSES FRIDAY, SEPT. 23.

Purse, route 40.
Rosary beads, route 54-77.
Purse, Mt. Lebanon motor coach.
SATURDAY, SEPT. 24.
Purse, route 81.
SUNDAY, SEPT. 25.
Watch, route 68.
Information concerning these articles may be had by calling Pittsburgh Railways Company, Lost Department, Grant 7450. Ask for Extension 148.

Personals 3

YOUR SKIN Can Be Free From Pimples and Disease.

DO IT with OINTMENT G

The wonder ointment for Acne, Pimples, Red Nose, Oily Skin, Large Pores, Eczema, Psoriasis, etc. Call in person if possible or when sending for it, state particulars. It costs only $2 and is positively guaranteed. Dr. Gehrs treats skin and chronic diseases and removes Moles, Birthmarks, Superfluous Hair and all disfigurements; 20 yrs. exp. Send 10c in stamps for booklet and particulars.

Dr. F. C. Gehrs, Skin Specialist, 402 NIXON THEATER BUILDING 10-5 daily. Mon. & Thurs. eve. till 9. Phone—Atlantic 1104. (Licensed.)

Storage for Furniture.
FIREPROOF WAREHOUSES.
HAUGH & KEENAN
STORAGE & TRANSFER CO.,
Center and Euclid Aves.
Montrose 6700.

CASH FOR OLD GOLD, SILVER, GOLD BRIDGE WORK, AT 4318. PGH. GOLD REFINING CO., 518 PGH. LIFE BLDG.

AN ACRE OF LAND and a small cottage for less than you are paying for rent. Let us show you; 15 miles from Courthouse, on new KDKA blvd. North Allegheny Acres. Hazel 7070.

CASH For old gold, silver, bridge work, AT 0621. H. & L. REF. CO., 515 CLARK BLDG.

DIVORCES in Mex o; ten days; free information. International Law Office, 441 First Natl. Bank Bldg., El Paso, Tex.

DR. JANE BLANCHARD'S true medicine for women; no equal. 2817 East, N. S.

ENTERTAINER for parties, stags and banquets. Call Miss Martin, FA 0231.

PIANOS tuned, repaired; professional references. R. Schoenberger, FA 6307.

ENTERTAINERS for stags, banquets; reas. Tommy Nolan. FA 8946, CO 7777.

RATS, Mice, Roaches, Bedbugs exterminated, Rose Co., 321 Fulton Bldg. AT 8147

VIBRATORY SUN Violet Ray for colds, sore muscles, neuritis nervousness. SC 3246.

CHATEAU shop under new management, new assistant. CE 6717.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Male & Female 8

Salespeople Who Served GIMBELS

Since December First of the past year, will be interviewed immediately at the Employment Office, Tenth Floor.

Barbers 3-A

BARBER COLLEGE—3-mo. course, $25; working permit guaranteed. 408 3d ave.

Male Help Wanted 4

AIRWAY, Law & Finance Bldg., can use 2 experienced salesmen.

CAN put to work 5 local Catholic salesmen at once. Aver. $25 wkly. Apply 9-10:30. 317 Investment Bldg.

ELECTROLUX, INC., Investment Bldg., wants 2 district representatives.

MAN wanted, 18 to 22, high school graduate; salary; good opportunity for advancement. Apply 1018 Empire Bldg., 2 p. m. or 9 a. m. Wednesday.

MAN, 25-40, for excellent opening. Apply 304 Investment Bldg.

MEN—If tired looking for a job we'll employ (10) ambitious men at about $18 week to start; selling experience helpful but not nec. $12 exp. money to a man with a car. 804 Magee Bldg., after 3 p. m.

MEN (14) at once. We can put to work 14 men who will work for $25 a day. We start you off at $15 per week, conditional; no floaters. Call after 5 p. m., 104 4th st., Monessen, Pa.

MEN (16)—$18 per week conditional to start; no experience necessary, local men only; one man with five-passenger car on special proposition. Call after 4 p. m., Room 410, 319 Third ave.

MEN—To handle profitable specialty. 201 Law & Finance Bldg.

2 MEN to take care of increased fall trade; aver. $24 wkly. Residents of Tarentum, Springdale, Oakmont, vicinity pfd. Call or write 805 Bessemer Bldg., 2-5.

SALESMEN—Dist. Altoona, Butler or West, Pa. make $2-$4 day; new 25c staple item. Write Box A, Wesley, 1418 Investment Bldg.

SALESMEN, Catholic, 6 locals men, $2-$6 daily, 8:30-5 p. m. 516 Investment Bldg.

WANT a man with truck, $50 cash, for Greenford district; restricted. Walter Murrer, 1909 River st., McKeesport.

Male Help Instruction 4-A

POSITIONS open for well-trained men. Let us prepare you for one of today's best-paying trades. Pgh. School of Trades, Dept. "6," 405 Penn ave.

WANTED—Names men-women, 18 to 50, wishing steady post-depression gov't jobs, $105-$158 mo., common education sufficient. Full particulars, sample coaching FREE. Apply today T-233 Sun-Telegraph.

Female Help Wanted 6

MAKE 100% profit selling Xmas cards. Pgh. Art, 1118 Investment Bldg., 239 4th ave.

REFINED women over 25; old estab. firm can put to work 5 more ladies (46) local women exp. Can use (2) inexperienced women, good earnings while learning. Apply 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. Mrs. Cleary, 7th Ave. Hotel. Out-of-town women write.

REPRESENTATIVE for new item of merit. State exp. W-233, Sun-Telegraph.

WOMAN—Over 30, married preferred; responsible work; no experience required; will be instructed if suitable; pays above average; appointment necessary. Call Atlantic 2679

WOMEN (6)—Local women to work with mgr.; drawing act., comm., bonus and transportation. Gard avenue, Dormont, Wednesday at 2 p. m. Friends are invited. Interment private.

WOMEN (10) $18 and liberal bonus conditional to start; short hours and easy work. Call after 5 p. m., 104 Fourth st., Monessen, Pa.

WOMEN (6) to work with supervisor in Pgh. and small towns; large comm. and bonus. Apply 506 Pgh. Life Bldg.

Female Help Instruction 6-A

LEARN BEAUTY CULTURE at GRIFFITHS BEAUTY SCHOOL
Day and Night Classes. Terms Arranged.
Cor. Penn Ave. and Stanwix St. AT 4034.

Female Help Special 7

EARN money sewing at home; we teach you, supply material and buy finished product; no canvassing. Traybar Co., Box 677, Burlington, Vermont.

GIRLS to train as fashion models; 3rd floor Wurlitzer Bldg., 719 Liberty ave.

Work Wanted 10

Furnace installed, repaired; comp. overhauled, $7. Rooms, CH 7128.

Moving $3 rm., hauling $1 hr. Castle Shannon lump coal $5.50 ton. FA 1625.

CARPET and linoleum laid, new work measured, sewed and laid; remodeling a specialty; estimates furn. Penhurst 7198.

PAPERING, PAINTING, PLASTERING Sanitas, expert hanging, $2.50 up, with paper $4 rm.; removed, $2.50. HE 3066.

PAPERHANGING $2.50 and up; paper ½ price; paper removed; interior decorating. EV 5659.

CARPENTER with good local reference wants work of any kind. Montrose 0110.

LIBERTY Mattress Co. Matresses sterilized, rebuilt, feather comforts made. SC 4239.

PAPERHANGING, 12c roll; work guar.; go anywhere; paper if desired. HA 2447.

PAPERHANGING, $2.50 room; both edges trim.; plast., sign pt. MA 2064; SC 9455.

PAPERHANGING — AVERAGE ROOM WITH PAPER, $4.90. Fairfax 4356.

PITTSBURGH ASSN IMP. OF POOR. Free Employment Bureau.
SKILLED MECHANICS, HANDY MEN. Carpenters, Painters, Plumbers, Electricians, etc. Coal Carriers, Housemen, Orderlies, Handy Men, Farmers, Pick and Shovel, etc. Capable, dependable, family men personally known to us. Help us find these men work. Free Employment Bureau, 428 Duquesne way. Atlantic 4183.

YOUNG man desires pos. chauffeur, gar., work any kind. Ref. Box R. 165, Sun-Tele.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Situations Wtd., Female 11

CHILDREN, upstairs work, waiting or general; refined; ref. HI 7590-J.

COLORED girl desires part or steady work of any kind. SC 1933.

COLORED girl wants week work; stay nights; ref. SC 4928.

EXPERIENCED colored girl, general housework by week, part time; ref. HI 7536-M.

EXPERIENCED col. girl wants gen. housework, cook.; home nights; ref. CO 7052.

EXPERIENCED colored girl wants work of any kind, reference, Grant 8887.

HEALTHY reliable girl wants housework. Cedar 9282.

HOUSEWORK by exp., reliable white woman; cook; excellent ref. LI 3972-W.

RELIABLE colored woman wants day's or week's work; good ref. Call SC 1565.

STENOGRAPHER, experienced, general office work, good reference, CH 3944.

WHITE girl wants general housework Wed., Thurs.; ref. Cedar 3877-R.

Sale, Business Opportun. 12

CONFECTIONERY & GROCERY worth $1,000; will sacrifice for $500 cash; well established business, wonderful location; living quarters, cheap rent; free phone. 5831 ELLSWORTH AVE., E. E. SC 9921

CONFECTIONERY—Modern fountain, light lunches, etc.; well traveled location; excellent trade; $5,000 cash; $1,300 monthly receipts; rent $50; reasonable upkeep. Call HE 6092.

SHOE REPAIR SHOP
Fully equipped, reasonable price, good location with steady trade; must sell owing to bad health; must change climate. 138 Brownsville rd., Mt. Oliver, Boro.

CLASSIFIED ADS ARE AMONG THE GREATEST MONEY-SAVERS KNOWN

Schools & Instructions 16

ENROLL now in Pittsburgh's first Beauty School. Maison Frederic Beauty School, 207 Fifth ave. Atlantic 0884.

Private Instructions

SHORTHAND in 18 lessons, $35 complete course, guaranteed. Montrose 6928.

Male & Female 8

Blinds

BLINDS Cleaned. Lower prices. Inst. Crystal Process. Sterling 2953.

BLINDS CLEANED LIKE NEW, 25c; ACE PROCESS. MO 2112.

BLINDS CLEANED—Acme Pro. Co. CH 1910.

Brickwork

BRICK-WORK, chimney repairs, hse. pointing, garages; cheap; guar. BR 1571-J.

Carpenter and Roofer

GENERAL repairs, brick shingling, roofs patched, gutters and spouts painted; very reasonable. HA 0997; CA 0318-R.

Furnace Cleaning

$2.75— Furnace or Boiler cleaned. Fairfax 5553.

Painting & Papering

3 rm. up; papering by skilled workman; $5 also painting reas. Mason, HI 0515-J.

Plastering

PATCH PLASTERING $1 up; no job too large or too small. Call MO 6796.

Business Schools 15-A

BUSINESS, secretarial, academic courses; day, evening. Goodwin School. MO 6041.

SHORTHAND—Business & Secretarial; low rates. Boyd College, 535 Penn ave.

Liquor & Drug Treat. 18-B

LIQUOR AND DRUG DISEASE.
ARE YOU SACRIFICING your life, position and home? Information and literature free.
SHADYSIDE SANITARIUM,
FORMERLY KEELY INSTITUTE,
265 Shady Ave. Emerson 9382.

Transfer & Storage 19

RENT A TRUCK
Drive it yourself. It's cheaper.
Six cents a mile, 50 cents an hour.
KISSEL-SKILES CO.
Atlantic 7217. 409 Penn Ave.

CALL SCHENLEY 6000
Need immediately load to Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Cincinnati, Buffalo and New York. Pittsburgh warehouse.

Ed Werner— Fireproof warehouse; needs immediately load from Wash., D. C., Balt., way points. CA 4425.

O'ROURKE STORAGE & TRANSFER CO. Return loads from N. Y., Phila., or way points, Oct. 5th; reas. price. MO 4450.

IVORY, BROOKS, KAUFMANN, INC., Need load to Det and N. Y. return load rates, At 1658. Glenshaw 780 eves.

C. E. Sample, Federal 9157. Load from N. Y., Chi., return rates.

WILL accept saleable furniture for moving charge. Belmar Storage, CH 3164.

Coal, Oil & Wood 21

A-1 BEST double screen lump coal, $3 ton; frn. lump, $2.75; del. anywhere, FI 1042.

DOUBLE scn'd 4 in lp., $2.90; egg, $2.75. J.&B. Coal, 11th & Wood, Brad. BR 3322

BEST 6-in. lump, $2.75; egg, $2.50. Carlson & Granny, 1246 Potomo, PE 0183.

BEST doub. screened dustless lump, $3 del. Egg, $2.75 del. MA 6218 or PE 7798.

Landscape Gardeners 22

POTTED roses, perennials. SPRAYING, nursery stock. F. C. Honess, Linden 0743.

FOR RENT Furnished Rooms 30

AIKEN AVE., S., 470—Lovely sleeping rm., free phone, parking. Montrose 0745.

ALDER ST., 5919—3 rms., 2d flr., bath, furnace heat, light, gas inc., $30. SC 7158.

ATTRACTIVE private home, communicating bedroom and sitting room, for 1 or 2. Also single bedroom. Hazel 1447.

ATWOOD, 237—Des. fur. rms., all conv., also light hskpg. rms., Reas, MA 2231.

BAYARD ST., 4501—Attractive front rm., teacher's private home, reas. MA 3580.

BEACON St.—Attractive room for 1 or 2, private family; reas. Hazel 1352-R.

COLLEGE Ave., 643, E. E.—Rm. for 1 or 2 men; unlim. phone; priv. fam. MA 1735

CRAFTON—Now furn., next bath, quiet adult home, furnace, $5. WA 3912-J eves.

DORMONT—Large front rm., semi-shower bath, gent.; private home. LE 0638.

E. E., 5914 Rural St.—Cozy room, steam heat, nr. cars; garage opt. MO 6949.

E. E.—S. Pacific ave., single or two con. rooms, priv. bath, priv. home. MO. 1503.

E. E., 823 Mellon st.—Nice rm., next bath, $10 for 1, $13 for 2 a month. MO 0149.

FIFTH AVE., 4709 — Near Pitt-Tech rooms, $3.50 up. Schenley 6580.

IF YOU do not find what you want in this column, phone Rental Service, Grant 5400 for additional listing of furnished rooms.

McKEE PLACE, 358—Large front room; shower bath, privileges. SC 8184.

MT. LEBANON—Attrac. rm. for gentleman; pri. home; gar. avail. LE 2957-J.

MT. LEB.—Beautifully furn. rm., private bath, for 1 or 2. Lehigh 2609.

NEAR Forbes-Murray — Well furn. front rm., near cars, bus, reas. HA 1052-M.

PARKVIEW AVE., 3330—Room, suitable 1 or 2, next bath shower, use phone; home priv.; walk distance Pitt. Tech. MA 0638

PERRYSVILLE Ave., rm., board, ldy., $8. Widow's home; lady or gent. FA 1493.

PT. BREEZE—Bedrm., sitting rm., only $30 for 2, h. w. ht., gar. opt. MO 2366.

ROOM with board, $35 mo. for student. Emerson 9736. Torgesen.

ROSEMARY RD., 7521, opp. Briarcliff rd., E. E.—Fur. rm., pvt. home. CH 1743

SCHENLEY Farms Dist.—Beaut. lrg. rm., next bath, pvt. home; gent; ref. MA 8565

SHADYSIDE Dist.—Nicely furn. rm. pvt. bath, gar., private family. SC 7626.

SO. NEGLEY AVE., 335—Attractive room, twin beds, garage opt. EM 1294.

SQ. HILL—1 or 2 furn. rms., semi-bath priv. home, near cars, reas., HA 1596-J.

SQ. HILL, nr. Wilkins and Shady—Large rm., 1 or 2, priv. home, reas. HA 2067-J.

THE HEDGES
Single and large studio room suitable for 1 or 2 business women; use of sun porch, living room; excellent meals. SC 5063.

WALNUT St., 5800, E. E.—Cheerful room, priv. apt., business girl, $4 wk. MA 4467.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Rooms in Hotels 30-A

HADDON HALL HOTEL, 4730 Center Ave. Rooms with private bath, $1.50 day. Mayflower 7123.

PENN SHADY — 226 Shady ave., $1.50 day or $30 month. Hiland 6277.

Housekeeping Rooms 32

BEECH AVE., 910—Rm. and kitch., hot, cold water, range, all conv., $5 CE 4574-J.

BEECHVIEW, 1424 Methyl St. 2 lge. rms., lt. bt. 2d fl. $7.50; 3d fl. $6. LE 8595-J.

BELLEVUE—Kitchen and bedroom; light, heat included. $5 wk. LI 2235-W.

BRIGHTON RD. DIST.—3 rms., frigidaire, light, heat, $40. Linden 3207-R.

CARRICK—2 warm connect. rms., all conv., nr. cars; reas.; adults. CA 1243-R.

E. E., 649 Maryland av.; 1 or 2 lge. rms. for hskpg.; all conv.; rent reas. MA 9842.

E. E., 5644 Rippey st.; 1-2-rm. apts., frig., Murphy bed, semi-private bath, $25 up.

INGRAM—2 rms., light, heat, everything furnished; adults, $6.50 wk. WA 0208-W.

SHADYSIDE—2 lovely rooms, bath, garage, phone, cars, bus, reas. MA 1931.

CLASSIFIED ADS ARE AMONG THE GREATEST MONEY-SAVERS KNOWN.

Wanted, Business 14

Blinds

BLINDS Cleaned. Lower prices. Inst. Crystal Process. Sterling 2953.

BLINDS CLEANED LIKE NEW, 25c; ACE PROCESS. MO 2112.

BLINDS CLEANED—Acme Pro. Co. CH 1910.

Brickwork

BRICK-WORK, chimney repairs, hse. pointing, garages; cheap; guar. BR 1571-J.

Carpenter and Roofer

GENERAL repairs, brick shingling, roofs patched, gutters and spouts painted; very reasonable. HA 0997; CA 0318-R.

Furnace Cleaning

$2.75— Furnace or Boiler cleaned. Fairfax 5553.

Painting & Papering

3 rm. up; papering by skilled workman; $5 also painting reas. Mason, HI 0515-J.

Plastering

PATCH PLASTERING $1 up; no job too large or too small. Call MO 6796.

Business Schools 15-A

BUSINESS, secretarial, academic courses; day, evening. Goodwin School. MO 6041.

SHORTHAND—Business & Secretarial; low rates. Boyd College, 535 Penn ave.

Liquor & Drug Treat. 18-B

LIQUOR AND DRUG DISEASE.
ARE YOU SACRIFICING your life, position and home? Information and literature free.
SHADYSIDE SANITARIUM,
FORMERLY KEELY INSTITUTE,
265 Shady Ave. Emerson 9382.

Transfer & Storage 19

RENT A TRUCK
Drive it yourself. It's cheaper.
Six cents a mile, 50 cents an hour.
KISSEL-SKILES CO.
Atlantic 7217. 409 Penn Ave.

CALL SCHENLEY 6000
Need immediately load to Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Cincinnati, Buffalo and New York. Pittsburgh warehouse.

Ed Werner— Fireproof warehouse; needs immediately load from Wash., D. C., Balt., way points. CA 4425.

O'ROURKE STORAGE & TRANSFER CO. Return loads from N. Y., Phila., or way points, Oct. 5th; reas. price. MO 4450.

IVORY, BROOKS, KAUFMANN, INC., Need load to Det and N. Y. return load rates, At 1658. Glenshaw 780 eves.

C. E. Sample, Federal 9157. Load from N. Y., Chi., return rates.

WILL accept saleable furniture for moving charge. Belmar Storage, CH 3164.

Coal, Oil & Wood 21

A-1 BEST double screen lump coal, $3 ton; frn. lump, $2.75; del. anywhere, FI 1042.

DOUBLE scn'd 4 in lp., $2.90; egg, $2.75. J.&B. Coal, 11th & Wood, Brad. BR 3322

BEST 6-in. lump, $2.75; egg, $2.50. Carlson & Granny, 1246 Potomo, PE 0183.

BEST doub. screened dustless lump, $3 del. Egg, $2.75 del. MA 6218 or PE 7798.

Landscape Gardeners 22

POTTED roses, perennials. SPRAYING, nursery stock. F. C. Honess, Linden 0743.

FOR RENT Furnished Rooms 30

AIKEN AVE., S., 470—Lovely sleeping rm., free phone, parking. Montrose 0745.

ALDER ST., 5919—3 rms., 2d flr., bath, furnace heat, light, gas inc., $30. SC 7158.

ATTRACTIVE private home, communicating bedroom and sitting room, for 1 or 2. Also single bedroom. Hazel 1447.

ATWOOD, 237—Des. fur. rms., all conv., also light hskpg. rms., Reas, MA 2231.

BAYARD ST., 4501—Attractive front rm., teacher's private home, reas. MA 3580.

BEACON St.—Attractive room for 1 or 2, private family; reas. Hazel 1352-R.

COLLEGE Ave., 643, E. E.—Rm. for 1 or 2 men; unlim. phone; priv. fam. MA 1735

CRAFTON—Now furn., next bath, quiet adult home, furnace, $5. WA 3912-J eves.

DORMONT—Large front rm., semi-shower bath, gent.; private home. LE 0638.

E. E., 5914 Rural St.—Cozy room, steam heat, nr. cars; garage opt. MO 6949.

E. E.—S. Pacific ave., single or two con. rooms, priv. bath, priv. home. MO. 1503.

E. E., 823 Mellon st.—Nice rm., next bath, $10 for 1, $13 for 2 a month. MO 0149.

FIFTH AVE., 4709 — Near Pitt-Tech rooms, $3.50 up. Schenley 6580.

IF YOU do not find what you want in this column, phone Rental Service, Grant 5400 for additional listing of furnished rooms.

McKEE PLACE, 358—Large front room; shower bath, privileges. SC 8184.

MT. LEBANON—Attrac. rm. for gentleman; pri. home; gar. avail. LE 2957-J.

MT. LEB.—Beautifully furn. rm., private bath, for 1 or 2. Lehigh 2609.

NEAR Forbes-Murray — Well furn. front rm., near cars, bus, reas. HA 1052-M.

PARKVIEW AVE., 3330—Room, suitable 1 or 2, next bath shower, use phone; home priv.; walk distance Pitt. Tech. MA 0638

PERRYSVILLE Ave., rm., board, ldy., $8. Widow's home; lady or gent. FA 1493.

PT. BREEZE—Bedrm., sitting rm., only $30 for 2, h. w. ht., gar. opt. MO 2366.

ROOM with board, $35 mo. for student. Emerson 9736. Torgesen.

ROSEMARY RD., 7521, opp. Briarcliff rd., E. E.—Fur. rm., pvt. home. CH 1743

SCHENLEY Farms Dist.—Beaut. lrg. rm., next bath, pvt. home; gent; ref. MA 8565

SHADYSIDE Dist.—Nicely furn. rm. pvt. bath, gar., private family. SC 7626.

SO. NEGLEY AVE., 335—Attractive room, twin beds, garage opt. EM 1294.

SQ. HILL—1 or 2 furn. rms., semi-bath priv. home, near cars, reas., HA 1596-J.

SQ. HILL, nr. Wilkins and Shady—Large rm., 1 or 2, priv. home, reas. HA 2067-J.

THE HEDGES
Single and large studio room suitable for 1 or 2 business women; use of sun porch, living room; excellent meals. SC 5063.

WALNUT St., 5800, E. E.—Cheerful room, priv. apt., business girl, $4 wk. MA 4467.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Rooms in Hotels 30-A

HADDON HALL HOTEL, 4730 Center Ave. Rooms with private bath, $1.50 day. Mayflower 7123.

PENN SHADY — 226 Shady ave., $1.50 day or $30 month. Hiland 6277.

Housekeeping Rooms 32

BEECH AVE., 910—Rm. and kitch., hot, cold water, range, all conv., $5 CE 4574-J.

BEECHVIEW, 1424 Methyl St. 2 lge. rms., lt. bt. 2d fl. $7.50; 3d fl. $6. LE 8595-J.

BELLEVUE—Kitchen and bedroom; light, heat included. $5 wk. LI 2235-W.

BRIGHTON RD. DIST.—3 rms., frigidaire, light, heat, $40. Linden 3207-R.

CARRICK—2 warm connect. rms., all conv., nr. cars; reas.; adults. CA 1243-R.

E. E., 649 Maryland av.; 1 or 2 lge. rms. for hskpg.; all conv.; rent reas. MA 9842.

E. E., 5644 Rippey st.; 1-2-rm. apts., frig., Murphy bed, semi-private bath, $25 up.

INGRAM—2 rms., light, heat, everything furnished; adults, $6.50 wk. WA 0208-W.

SHADYSIDE—2 lovely rooms, bath, garage, phone, cars, bus, reas. MA 1931.

CLASSIFIED ADS ARE AMONG THE GREATEST MONEY-SAVERS KNOWN.

FOR RENT Unfurnished Rooms 31

BARTLETT ST., Sq. Hill—3 rooms, heat, elec. incl.; reasonable rent. Hazel 3487-R.

BEECHVIEW—2 rms., kitchenette, light, heat, all conveniences; $22. LE 7780-J.

CARRICK—4 rms., bath, 1st fl., sly. porch, rear 2 car lines, $19. Call SC 9510—9-6.

CARRICK, 1616 Delrose—3 rms., bath, laundry; 1 sq. cars; $21. CA 1267-W.

DORMONT, Hillsdale Ave.—3 rms., all conven., heat furnished, $35. LE 6631-J.

EMERSON ST.—3 large rms., 1st flr., furnace heat, hot wat. incl. Hiland 2860-R.

FORTIETH ST., 297—1st floor, 3 rms., use bath, lt., ht., newly decor. FISK 2129-J.

NR. FORBES-MURRAY—2 or 3 rms., furnished or unfurnished. Hazel 4662-J.

NORTH AVE. W., 1304—3-4 rms., bath, 2d fl., st. ht. incl., $23-$28. CE 4208-M.

PHONE Rental service. Grant 5400 for additional listing of unfurnished rooms.

SHEFFIELD ST., 1209—5 rooms, 1st fl., 2 rms., 2nd fl., rent reduced. CE 0451.

32ND ST. HILL, nr. Arlington—2 rms., unpaved; $8 mo. Inq. 116 Charles st., Knoxville, EV 2032.

WILKS, 1415 Swissvale ave.—3 nice rms., 2nd fl., very reasonable.

Wanted, Boarders 33

BARTLETT ST., 5866—Large rm. for 2; also single rm.; meals opt. HA 2866.

BELLEVUE, 121 Watkins; nicely furn. rm.; nr. cars, bus; gar.; pvt. home; reas. LI 0560-J.

CHILDREN over 3 boarded; nr. schools; sep. beds; clothes opt. HA 4829-M.

E. LIBERTY—Rm. brd., dry. for 2 gents, $9 wk., gar. optional. N-248. Sun-Tele.

KNOXVILLE—Nice airy rm., ldry., board; garage opt.; priv. home; $8. EV 5648.

MT. OLIVER, 209 Quincy st., rm., board opt. with y'ng couple, all con. lady pref.

MT. WASH.—Rm., board, in private home; lady or gent; gar.; reas. EV 7212.

ROOM and board, 1 or 2, $8 week; conv. location; 20 minutes to city. HI 3062.

Apartments 35

BRADDOCK Ave., E., $16, Pgh.—New, 4 rooms, steam heat, hot water, Frig., janitor; $50. HA 1174-J.

$28— Lovely 5-rm. apt., bath, porches, janitor service; handy to cars and train. Call Mr. Reynolds. MO 4025.

EDGEWOOD, 128 Maple ave.; 4 r., bath, frig., ht. furn.; nr. school; reas. PE 7269

WILK., 1612 Laketon rd.; 6 rms., bath, individual ldry.; h. w. heat included, $40.

CRAFTON, S. Grandview—4 rooms, bath, garage, $45. Walnut 3862-R.

Apartments, East End 36

WE ARE CONVINCED
Rental Values in the
CORONADO APARTMENTS
Center and Aiken Avenues
Are the Best Available in
BACHELOR ROOMS
EFFICIENCY SUITES
FAMILY APARTMENTS
"Inspect and Convince Yourself."
Phone Montrose 2800 or
Albert M. Greenfield & Co.
702 Clark Building. Grant 0515.

THE FRONTENAC
SOUTH HIGHLAND AT HOWE
Pittsburgh's finest and most convenient residential location. Two and three-room apartments. Furnished if desired. MO 6895

OAKLAND—2-3-4-room apts. Frigidaire, steam heat, convenient location; reas. Owner, 306 Oakland ave. MA 7351.

$35— 5704 Jackson st., 4 rooms, tile bath, frigidaire; steam heated. A. O. PYLE, Peoples E. E. Bldg. MO 0826.

N. NEGLEY, 214-204.
5-6-rm. duplex, porch, $50, nr. 71-88-96 car. 6 rms., st. heat, frig., $45, $70. HA 3754.

$45—ULTRA modern duplex; tile bath and lavatory in flow, coal furnace. DICKIE & BROWN, MONTROSE 0200.

Wilson Arms 549 Neville; attic apts., $40 up. SC 1650.

$50—S. Graham st., E.E., 1st fl. dup., 5 lrg. rms., tile b., h. w. fs., st. ht. incl. MO 8623

WOODWORTH, 5170, off Baum blvd.—4 rms., pri. bath, furnace, $30. MO 3296.

SHADYSIDE, 616 Copeland—4 rms., tile bath, heat, hot water incl., $50. MA 6912.

THOMAS Blvd.—4 rms., bath, porch, 3 flr., pri. ent., ht. ll. inc., adults, $30. MO 4350

DARLINGTON rd., 5740—4-rm. priv. apt., bath, heat furn., gentiles. HA 1603-W.

SQ. HILL—6 rms., 2 baths, mod. duplex, low rent, 2709 Tilbury st. HA 5553.

EAST END—Nice location; 4 rooms, bath; adults; gentiles. Montrose 8025.

CLASSIFIED ADS ARE AMONG THE GREATEST MONEY-SAVERS KNOWN.

Apartments, East End 36

WE ARE CONVINCED
Rental Values in the
CORONADO APARTMENTS
Center and Aiken Avenues
Are the Best Available in
BACHELOR ROOMS
EFFICIENCY SUITES
FAMILY APARTMENTS
"Inspect and Convince Yourself."
Phone Montrose 2800 or
Albert M. Greenfield & Co.
702 Clark Building. Grant 0515.

THE FRONTENAC
SOUTH HIGHLAND AT HOWE
Pittsburgh's finest and most convenient residential location. Two and three-room apartments. Furnished if desired. MO 6

VALENTINE

Captivating Story of a Shy Girl Rushed Into Love

By HAZEL LIVINGSTON

(Continued from Yesterday.)

Joe's Mother Complains to Him About Troubles Of the Family

CHAPTER XXXII.

After Mrs. Peacock was gone Val went back to the davenport and sat there, hands folded in her lap, looking around the awkward, uncomfortable room. A mess, that was what it was. And she hadn't been able to fix it. And now Joe was getting sick from her cooking, and worrying, keeping things from her . . .

Slow tears trickled through her fingers.

That's it, stupid! Sit there and cry and let Joe come home and find her, with no dinner ready as usual.

She jumped up, upsetting the spindly-legged tabouret, beside the davenport. A wedding present. Bohemian glass bowl shattered into a hundred pieces.

"Damn!"

But she whistled a little as she swept up the wreckage and banged ice-box and oven doors capably in the kitchen. Dinner was going to be ready on time for once. That was SOMETHING.

It looked pretty good, too. Canned tomatoes and fried potatoes and chops. That ought to be nourishing. And bananas and cream and ladyfingers for dessert.

What could be keeping Joe? He ALWAYS got home early, and this night, with everything ready, of course he'd have to be late.

LETTERS FROM MOTHER

It wasn't fair of him not to tell her what was going on. He was always so secretive about his mother's letters—not that she cared what Mrs. Carey had to say. Her letters even looked like her. Squeezed into envelopes too small for her, so that they bulged and strained at the seams. It took Joe ages to read them. He read every word patiently, then set them aside with a little frown, or a sigh. He never said what was in them. But she could well imagine. Complaints. Gossip. Demands for money. If anything really serious had come up he should have told her. It wasn't fair of him not to.

The chops hissed in the pan, she jumped up to turn them, whimpering a little as she scorched her arm on the oven door, and spattered hot grease on her stockings.

The chops were dark brown chips floating in fat when Joe finally came—20 minutes late. She served them sadly. It didn't seem to matter whether you tried or not. There was always something to make everything turn out a failure.

"The tomatoes are fine, honey. May I have some more?"

"Yes, do. That's one thing about canned tomatoes, they're so durable. Practically impossible to ruin them!"

She waited, nervous taut, for him to finish his dinner.

"Why, Val, you aren't eating a thing!"

"I'm not hungry. Had some cakes and things with Mrs. Peacock this afternoon."

Perhaps that would remind him of what he had told Mrs. Peacock.

"Mrs. Peacock is quite worried about you. She thinks I don't feed you right."

"Nonsense! She was just teasing you—"

"No she wasn't. She said you were worrying, too."

"Do I look worried? Val! Don't duck like that! I want to kiss you!"

"Joe, you've been telling her things. Things you haven't told me. Is that fair to me?"

"Oh, Val, please don't be hurt! I just didn't want to worry you."

"It does hurt me. It makes me look silly. Besides, you haven't told me yet—"

"Oh, just home things—my family—"

"What kind of things?"

"Oh—Elwyn quit school and came home, for one thing. He won't go back to public school and he can't get a job and Ma says he's up to mischief with a fast crowd. She wrote to my uncle, and he wrote back, telling me to let him come on out here and keep an eye on him."

She waited.

"You're not going to?" she asked, when he said no more.

"I'm afraid I'll have to. He—he's likely to get into real trouble if I dont."

"I won't live in the same house with him! I don't care!"

"Val, darling! You don't think I'd ask you that? It's just to get him a job in town, and board him somewhere. Mrs. Peacock might take him—"

"Oh."

FINANCIAL DIFFICULTY

Another long silence.

"Was that all?"

"No. But the other things are just financial."

"I've been spending too much money? I'm an extravagant housekeeper? I know I am. I try, but I—"

"Oh, no, that's not it. Though we do have a lot of restaurant meals and that counts, of course. But I wasn't thinking of that. It's Ma—you know how she—well, we—have always babied Vivian—"

Did she KNOW? Wait till she wrote that to Aunt Julia!

"Well, Vivian has been reading boarding school stories and has got hipped on the subject of boarding school. Now Ma thinks the kid ought to go—"

"And you ought to pay for it, I suppose!"

"She asked Uncle Joe. He worked up quite a temper over it."

"I don't blame him," Val said dryly.

"Now he wants me to come to see him, and bring you, next Sunday. Will you mind, awfully? He's likely to be pretty nasty!"

He put his arm around her, holding her to him with sudden, yearning tenderness. Poor Val, poor little girl, coming way out here to be with him, and burning her poor little hands cooking, and now having to be shouted at by Uncle Joel.

And she surprised him, saying naturally, "Heavens, Joe! I don't mind. He won't bite me!"

DULL PARTIES

Joe thought it was wonderful of her to take it that way, and she saw that he did, and didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He thought it was wonderful because she didn't mind going once, to visit a harmless if cantankerous old man, who after all had given Joe his start in life. And he never seemed to guess how she suffered going around to all these miserable, dull parties that he liked so much.

The Willowes. Crane and Stella Willowes. Crane, bald and a victim of halitosis. Stella, given to nervous laughter, and readings from the latest dramas. The dramas were all right—she did get marvelous plays to read, but she spoiled them for you, reading all the parts "with expression" as Aunt Julia used to call it when anyone tried to be stagey, and clearing her throat every few minutes, until you wanted to scream.

Then there were Pancoast Whitely, who was supposed to be brilliant because he was a Beaux Arts man, and his wife, Jill, who had some sort of teaching position in the university, and thought you were illiterate if you didn't have a master's degree anyway.

But neither the Willowes nor the Whiteleys were as deadly as the Murphys who were supposed to be "all kinds of fun" and made you play rummy and Michigan and games like that whether you wanted to or not.

And compared to the Claus couple even the Murphys were wonderful. Next to Pearl Neely the Claus' were the worst of all. Merritt Claus was senior partner in Joe's firm, and patronized Joe until Val felt she couldn't stand it another minute. And his wife . . . another intellectual, and worse than Jill Whitely. Always looking down her nose at something, and sneering at women who dressed well.

This, Val was sure, was particularly aimed at her, since getting dressed was about the only fun she got out of going to their stupid parties, and she did lay it on a bit thick, wearing the exquisite things Millie had given her, the ermine jacket, the delicate, formal gowns, deliberately "rubbing it in" because they pretended to be above all that sort of thing. She might not understand all the high-brow things they talked about, but anyway she LOOKED nicer than they did. Their husbands certainly looked at her enough, and Joe was so proud of her.

"Sincerely proud," he said, which delighted Val, made her work all the harder to be beautiful . . . Maybe she wasn't a cook, but she WAS pretty.

She planned what she'd wear for the Sunday trip to Uncle Joel's place. Maybe the old man wouldn't be so bad after all. Maybe he'd do something rather nice for Joe.

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Synopsis

Valentine Macfarlane is practically deserted at the age of 8 by her gay, widowed mother, Millie. She is brought up by a manhating maiden aunt, Julia, and becomes a stenographer. After a brief infatuation for the dashing Lester Sherwood, she marries a neighbor boy, Joe Carey, and goes to Minneapolis, where Joe is an architect. Val knows little about housekeeping or cooking. To return favors of a neighbor woman, Mrs. Peacock, Val and Joe plan a dinner. They also invite Pearl Neely, a friend of Joe's. Pearl begins to take liberties about the apartment. Val disapproves, but says nothing.

Now Go On

"Joe, you've been telling her things," said Val.

Heart of a Wife

By ADELE GARRISON

Hugh Grantland Is Eager to Make Amends

So relieved was I at Hugh Grantland's sudden transition from fierce, crass comment upon the news that I had written a play for Philip Veritzen, to quiet inquiry concerning my party, that I caught his cue with alacrity, glad indeed to have averted what might have been an unpleasant recollection for both of us.

"It's quite an ambitious party that I'm giving," I told him, "and I think I shall be glad of the help of all my friends before I'm through. Mrs. Arlen, who is the widow of Mr. Veritzen's best friend, is spending the summer near here with her daughter. Mr. Veritzen, I think, wishes to have his son marry Miss Avis, but Noel, as you know, has other plans."

"He and your husband's niece are betrothed, are they not?"

"Yes, and Mr. Veritzen, who opposed the match bitterly, last Christmas gave his consent and settled upon Noel his mother's money, that he had kept away from the boy. But that does not prevent him from maneuvering to keep the two apart, or to throw another girl in Noel's way."

"Then why?" he checked himself, but I promptly finished his question.

"Why am I giving a party for her?" I said, smiling. "In the first place neither my husband nor I feel that we can refuse Mr. Veritzen's request to do something for his friends socially; and in the second place—please don't think me catty—the very surest way of riviting Noel's allegiance to Mary is to see her in the same room with Avis Arlen."

SUGGESTS THE LARCHES

"Is this Miss Arlen so unattractive, then?"

"At first sight she is very attractive, or some people appear to think so. But—well I'll let you judge for yourself."

"You rouse my curiosity," he said, smiling. "Never before have I known you to speak disparagingly of any human being."

"I loathe her," I said quickly, and then as quickly apologized. "Please forget that I said that," I added contritely. "I have no right to say that."

"It is already forgotten," he assured me. "Are you going to have a house party, or are your guests to come from near here?"

"A house party practically. There will be a few guests from Sag Harbor, but besides the people already in the house, I shall have four older people, four or five college boys and cadets, and two more girls from Marion's school."

"Good heavens!" he ejaculated. "Where will you put them all? I know the farmhouse is large, but that number would tax a hotel. However, here is my opportunity. You must let me take all the men over to The Larches."

"We are used to doubling up," I told him, "and I had planned to put cots in my bungalow studio for the boys."

"But how unnecessary," he persisted, "when The Larches simply yearns for occupants! The two sick men and I are housed in one small wing, and the servants have nothing to do in all the chambers except ours. I rattle around in the drawing room and the billiard room and library like a dry bone. It will be jolly to have a houseful."

CHINESE RECOVERING

"How about your patients?"

"Lee Chow will be a patient no longer by the end of the week," he said. "His recovery is as rapid as his illness, caused by that poison. He will be perfectly able to attend your party, and I am sure he will be delighted to come, as well as to share with me in making your masculine guests comfortable."

"As for the other man, he is slowly getting better. Our wing is isolated, and he is deaf. Nothing can disturb him. Have you any more objections?"

"Not a single one. It is awfully good of you, and I accept your offer gratefully."

"Thank you." He spoke the words as fervently as if I had just done him a signal favor. "Now, please understand, I mean all the men—the ones of your own household included. With so many guests, I should imagine it would be much pleasanter if the household for the night were entirely feminine."

Like a sorority house or a boarding school," I said, smiling. "If you had ever entertained school girls with their dashes through the halls, your imagination would become concrete."

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

SUN-TELEGRAPH-WARNER THEATERS JUNIOR KOMIC CLUB

With the Junior Komic Club Orchestra of the Rowland Theater, Wilkinsburg, playing "America" the regular meeting Saturday was called to order by Miss Mildred Rotthoff, cashier of the Rowland Theater.

Following the recitation of the club pledge all the members who had celebrated birthdays during the past week were called to the stage and each presented with a birthday cake and two tickets to the theater. The members then sang "Happy Birthday" in their honor.

The Komic Club Orchestra, under the direction of John Gilbert, played several popular numbers. Some of them were: "Goofus," "A Shanty in Old Shanty Town" and "Bend Down Sister."

The orchestra after several changes consists of the following boys and girls: John Gilbert, David Bookwalter, Joseph King, Lawrence Coates, William Willer, Arnold Biron, Jack Webb, Robert Close, Robert Hays, Malcolm Sloan, Alice Cleveland, Adelaide Schleicher, Harriet Simpson, Jack Ray, William Baer, William Patterson, Mary Orsini, Joseph Orsini, John Langdon, Virginia Gilbert, Herman Willis, Russell Langdon, Dorothy Ey, Harold Wittinberg, Louis Ellrod, June Apel, Ruth Bartley, Cynthia Stanley, Hannah Dalzell, William Kraph, Gerbert Earheart, John Mellett and Hamilton Whittinger.

Following the orchestra the members participated in a song contest, with the boys singing the loudest and therefore judged the winners. Then after all the youngsters had loosened up their vocal cords a singing class was held. Some of the numbers presented were, "Sweet Jenny Lee," "Shine on Harvest Moon" and "I Don't Know Why."

VAUDEVILLE ACTS

Then came the vaudeville acts furnished by the Bowman School of Dancing.

The first number was a very clever "Sis Hopkins" dance by Little Polly Chamberlain.

Audrey Walters sang "A Shanty in Old Shanty Town" and finished by doing a very difficult acrobatic dance.

The third number was a song, "My Life Is Just a Bed of Roses" and a soft shoe dance by Miss Jane Louise Chautler.

Eleanor Barno, who recently appeared in "Pittsburgh On Parade" offered for the amusement of the members the acrobatic dance which won her much praise at the Stanley.

"Hello Gorgeous" sang little Dolores Pagruse. And was she cute! Dolores finished by offering a splendid tap dance.

It was noticed particularly that there were many new faces at the meeting last week and everyone present had a great time.

The club meeting was brought to a close with everyone singing "Now's the Time to Fall in Love," which is the number most popular with the members of the Rowland Chapter of the Sun-Telegraph-Warner Theaters Junior Komic Club.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAYS

Congratulations to the following boys and girls, all members of the Sun-Telegraph-Warner Theaters Junior Komic Club who are celebrating their birthdays today:

Etna—Ruth Besch, Charles Carney.

Arsenal—Rupert Dengler, Steve Spehar, Ralph Donovan.

Belmar—Margaret Vaur, Henry Trotto.

Enright—Bill Miggins, Mary Conway.

Schenley—Eugene Catus, Irwin Herskovitz, Herma Lang.

Rowland—Bobby Williamson, William Snyder, Betty Biron, Margaret Kirchartz.

Manor—Jack Harper, Henry Gribben, Perry Jubelier, Marion Wyner.

South Hills—Preston Breeden, Paul Siantis, Thomas Boyle, Virginia Contis, Anna Mae Joy, Ruth Laydon, Dick Louis.

SHE FOUND THE WAY

REGULARLY—once a month—many a girl decides to do something about it. Surely there must be something to help such pain, such weakness . . . some way to get relief.

Then the period passes. She forgets. But next month she suffers again.

Now—today—is the time to do something. Buy a bottle of this Vegetable Compound. Keep it ready. It has been a godsend to thousands. 98 out of 100 women who try it report benefit. Through its tonic action it built them up and relieved the pain. They depend on it. You can depend on it too.

Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

KEPT RIGHT IN CELLOPHANE

THIMBLE THEATER—STARRING POPEYE — Now Showing—"The 'Rest' of His Life"

LET'S REST! I'M ALL IN! YA'LL GET A REST IN A MINUTE—A LONG REST!
'SMATTER, YA WEAKLIN', AIN'T YA GOT NO VITALIKY?
SMACK
SWISH
© 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.
SEGAR 9-27

POLLY AND HER PALS — Clothes Make the Man

PAW DON'T REALIZE THAT IF I EXPECT T'BE ELECTED TO THE SENATE, I GOTTA DRESS LIKE A SENATOR!!
TH' HECK WITH UNK, AUNT SUSIE! LET HIM RAVE!
THEM AS DISAPPROVES OF MY APPAREL KIN LOOK THE OTHER WAY!
WAIT A MINUTE, MAW!
HOLD EVERYTHING!
WHILE YER AT IT, Y'MAY AS WELL GO THE HULL HAWG!!
CLIFF STERRETT 9-27

TIM TYLER'S LUCK — The Startled Nambi

ZEY ZINK ZEY CAN KEEP BARKOFF PRISONER,-EH? WE SEE!! AND NAMBI, SHE DESERT ME-EH? WE SEE!!
WE'RE HOLDING YOU RESPONSIBLE FOR HIM, BEETLE! WE CAN'T LET HIM ESCAPE AND EXCITE THE SAVAGES AGAINST US! HE'S A REAL BAD EGG!
ME AN' UM WABAMI WARRIORS WATCH UM PLENTY GOOD, MASSAH ROY!
I'LL BE BACK SHORTLY, SPUD! I WANT TO MAKE ANOTHER SEARCH THROUGH THE WITCH-DOCTOR'S CAVE—!
NAMBI!
MASSAH ROY! Y-YOU FRIGHTEN ME! GO 'WAY! GO 'WAY!
© 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.
LYMAN YOUNG 9-27

KRAZY KAT — Food for Thought

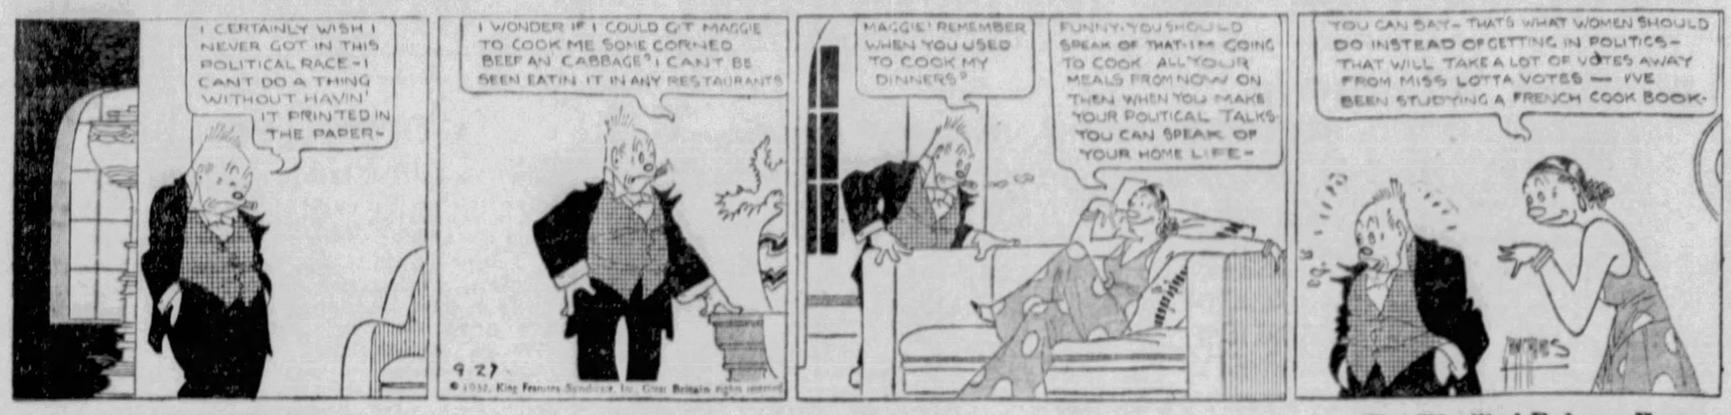
TELL ME, L'IL "BOWL WIVVIL"— WHY DO YOU OLLIZ FOLLY MY 'UNKIL TOMM" AROUND SO MUCH?
HE HAS A KOTTON FIELD, HAS NT HE?
SURE, HE HAS GOT A "KOTTON FEEL".
WELL, I WANT SOME OF THAT "KOTTON"
TO STUFF A 'KWILT' WIT'?
NO, TO STUFF MYSELF WITH, IDIOT!!
I DUNT BILLIV IT. IT AINT POTSIBBIL. —NO—
NO?
OF COURSE NO!!
© 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.
HERRIMAN 9-27

Mark Hellinger's 'All In A Day' Feature in the Daily Sun-Telegraph Is Crowded With Heart-Throbs

BRINGING UP FATHER



I CERTAINLY WISH I NEVER GOT IN THIS POLITICAL RACE-I CANT DO A THING WITHOUT HAVIN' IT PRINTED IN THE PAPER-
I WONDER IF I COULD GIT MAGGIE TO COOK ME SOME CORNED BEEF AN CABBAGE? I CANT BE SEEN EATIN IT IN ANY RESTAURANTS
9 27
© 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc. Great Britain rights reserved
MAGGIE! REMEMBER WHEN YOU USED TO COOK MY DINNERS?
FUNNY-YOU SHOULD SPEAK OF THAT-I'M GOING TO COOK ALL YOUR MEALS FROM NOW ON THEN WHEN YOU MAKE YOUR POLITICAL TALKS YOU CAN SPEAK OF YOUR HOME LIFE-

TILLIE THE TOILER

Home Life

YOU CAN SAY- THAT'S WHAT WOMEN SHOULD DO INSTEAD OF GETTING IN POLITICS- THAT WILL TAKE A LOT OF VOTES AWAY FROM MISS LOTTA VOTES — I'VE BEEN STUDYING A FRENCH COOK BOOK-

The Thrill of Being a Hero

OH!
MEOW
OOF!
COME HERE, KITTY. YOU POOR LITTLE FELLOW
OH, MAC, THAT WAS SWEET AND BRAVE OF YOU, SAVING THIS LITTLE WILD KITTEN FROM THAT EAGLE
SMACK!
THINK NOTHING OF IT, TILLIE
I HOPE ANOTHER EAGLE SEES YOU
9 27

MICKEY MOUSE

The Weaker Sex

THE VERY IDEA-- GOING AROUND TRYING TO HURT PEOPLE!
PLOCK!
YOU OUGHT TO BE SPANKED-- THAT'S WHAT YOU OUGHT TO BE!
WHOP!
I JUST DON'T KNOW WHAT'S GETTING INTO PEOPLE THESE DAYS!
9 27
I'MAGINE! A GROWN MAN PICKING ON A POOR, DEFENSELESS WOMAN!
WALT DISNEY

THE NEBBS

Sentiment

OH, LOOK! THERE'S MR. NEBB'S PICTURE!
THEY AIN'T NOBODY ELSE GOIN' TO CLAIM IT
VOTE FOR RUDOLPH NEBB FOR SENATOR
9-27
CAN YOU IMAGINE ME WORKIN' FOR A MAN THAT'S RUNNIN' FOR SENATOR AND HAS GOT HIS PICTURE ALL OVER EVERY PLACE?
IMAGINE? YEAH, I CAN SHUT MY EYES AND SEE YOU SCRUBBIN' OUT HIS OFFICE WITH A FLAG IN YOUR BONNET SINGIN' PATRIOTIC SONGS FOR SMALL DOUGH
YOU AINT GOT NO SENTIMENT
I AIN'T NEVER HAD NO TIME FOR SENTIMENT- I SUPPOSE YOU GOT FULL OF IT HANGIN' OVER A GAS STOVE?- DON'T START CHEERING AND CLAPPIN' OVER OTHER FOLKS' LUCK-YOU LOOK LIKE A LITTLE LUCK WOULDN'T MAKE NO MISTAKE HOPPING ON YOU FOLKS, THERES A GREAT TREAT AWAITING YOU NEXT THURSDAY - THE DEBATE BETWEEN THE SENATORIAL CANDIDATES ROSCOE NOODLE, AND RUDOLPH NEBB. DONT MISS IT!

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Castles in the Air

GEE, ZERO I HAD THE GRANDEST DREAM YOU EVER SAW- I WAS DREAMING THERE WAS A LOVELY LITTLE SCHOOL-HOUSE BUILT RIGHT NEAR THE CORRAL
AN' I WAS TENDING SCHOOL WITH JOAN AN' NANCY AN' LOTS OF THE NICEST KIDS YOU EVER SAW- AN' OUR TEACHER WAS SWELL- AN' I WAS GETTIN' SO I COULD SPELL THE BIG WORDS JUST AS EASY AS LITTLE ONES
© 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved
'COURSE, IT WAS ONLY A DREAM- 'CAUSE IF IT WAS A REAL SCHOOL, I COULD NOT LEARN AS EASY AS I DID — YOU KNOW, EVER SINCE SCHOOL VACATION'S BEEN OVER- I'VE BEEN WISHIN' I COULD GO TO SCHOOL
HONEST- I'LL BETCHA YOU THINK I'M A DUMB OX!- HERE I AM ON THIS WONDERFUL RANCH- EVERYBODY TREATS ME SWELL— AN' I GO WANTING TO HAVE A SCHOOL— AIN'T IT ALWAYS THE WAY? FOLKS ALWAYS WANT THE THING THEY AIN'T GOT!!
DARRELL McCLURE
9-27

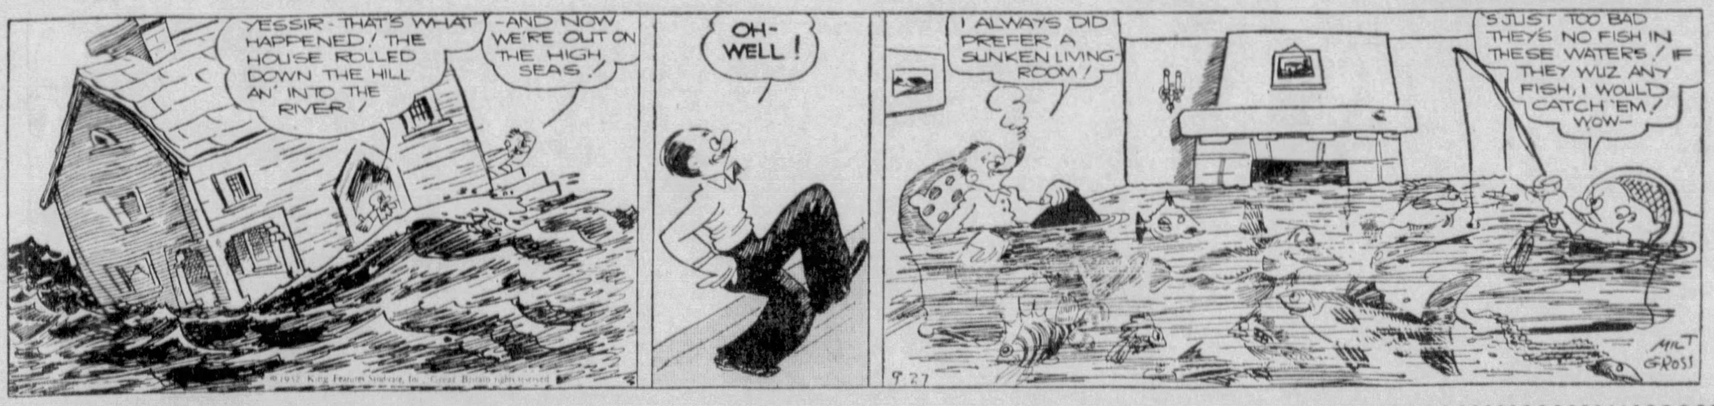
THE BUNGLE FAMILY

Opportunity

MIDNIGHT CRIES FOR HELP AND A ROBBERY VICTIM'S FEAR OF POLICE-AID, SURPRISED AN INQUISITIVE PASSER-BY INTO OBLIGING TWO EXCITED MEN WHO HURRIEDLY ESCORTED GEORGE BUNGLE INTO A LUXURIOUS HOME.
9-27
GONE! MY STAMPS! MY EARLY AMERICANS, MY ABYSSINIANS, MY SAN DOMINGOES! DINKLE, COME AWAY FROM THAT WINDOW! THE POLICE MUST NOT INTERFERE IN THIS. THEY'RE ALTOGETHER TOO NOSY.
AH, STAMPS! A VALUABLE COLLECTION.
WORTH MILLIONS! THIS IS GRUBBER THE STAMP KING.
THE POLICE PASSED HERE. THEY DIDN'T SEE US COME IN.
McNaught Syndicate, Inc., N. Y.
GONE! MY STAMPS! MY LIFE! OH SIR, DO YOU BY ANY CHANCE KNOW OF A GOOD PRIVATE INVESTIGATOR... A DETECTIVE?
AHEM! WELL I HAPPEN TO BE INTERESTED IN THE PROFESSION. I'M VERY WELL READ ON THE SUBJECT.
WELL READ! A STUDENT! ONE OF THOSE SCIENTIFIC CHAPS! JUST WHAT I WANT. I'LL PAY WELL. WHEN CAN YOU START ON..?
RIGHT NOW! WHERE IS THE SCENE OF THE CRIME?
THIS WAY SIR.

DAVE'S DELICATESSEN

Sailing Right Along



YESSIR- THAT'S WHAT HAPPENED! THE HOUSE ROLLED DOWN THE HILL AN' INTO THE RIVER!
-AND NOW WE'RE OUT ON THE HIGH SEAS!
© 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved
OH- WELL!
I ALWAYS DID PREFER A SUNKEN LIVING-ROOM!
'S JUST TOO BAD THEY'S NO FISH IN THESE WATERS! IF THEY WUZ ANY FISH, I WOULD CATCH 'EM! WOW-9 27
MILT GROSS

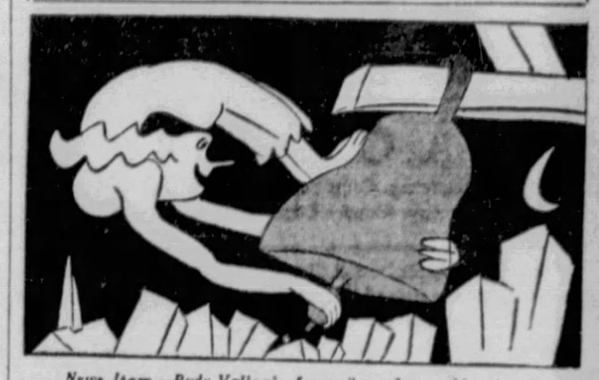
Read Brisbane's 'Today' Column—Join the Nation-Wide Army of 5,500,000 Intel

COOK-COOS

By TED COOK

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

RISE AND FALL OF THE NATIONAL PULSE



News Item—Rudy Vallee's fan mail took a sudden jump after announcement of his proposed separation indicating he would soon be in circulation again. His mail slumped when his wife changed her mind.

Hear the bells ringing! Listen to the sirens
In hamlet, metropolis and their environs!
Is it the end of the gol darn depression?
Why is the cabinet in star-chamber session?
Millions of women show violent elation!
What is the news that is sweeping the nation?
Rudy Vallee and his bride of a season
Threaten divorce for no very good reason,
That's why the stock market suddenly rises
And gives all the bears unpleasant surprises.
That's why the dishes are piled in the sink
While millions of morons write notes to the gink.
That's why the President, usually serious,
Gets himself photographed smiling mysterious.
Alas! It is only a flash in the pan—
The bride now decides she will stick to her man!
Down go the stocks like a fish on the hook,
Women return to the sink they forsook,
The President's face that registered gladness
Again is a study in consummate sadness,

* * *

"All this country needs," says editorial, "is more optimists."

Then we can all operate punch boards.

* * *

And Moronia likes to tell about the gal they called Dollar because she was always going further than ever before.

* * *

Clear the floor.

* * *

CHANCE OF A LIFETIME
(Lamar, Mo., Democrat)

Bring your wives and sweethearts to hear Crumbaugh and Mallory Bros. Minstrel Company at the opera house on the 29th. No old gags. No smutty sayings.

* * *

Red heads with two shapely limbs Attract a multitude of hims.

WHY PITTSBURGH IS GREAT
Its People Earn Much, Spend Freely and Save Wisely

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

BE A PITTSBURGH BOOSTER
To Your Friends in Other Cities

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1932

Established 1927, by Pitt Publishing Co., Pittsburgh, Pa. President, William Randolph Hearst; Vice-President and Publisher, R. M. Bitner; Treasurer, A. W. Clark; Associate Editor, C. W. Dannenger; Managing Editor, Dwight Fee; Secretary, McHenry Browne. Entered as second class matter in the postoffice at Pittsburgh, Pa.

National advertising representatives Paul Block and Associates, 247 Park avenue, New York; Palmolive Bldg., Chicago; General Motors Bldg., Detroit; Little Bldg., Boston; Guarantee Trust Bldg., Philadelphia; Russ Bldg., San Francisco; 1151 South Broadway, Los Angeles.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for re-publication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of re-publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

A Clean Slate

The State Supreme Court Sets a Good Example for the Allegheny County Common Pleas Court

Chief Justice Robert S. Frazer, of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, announced yesterday that with the opinions just handed down, every case argued and pending before the court had been disposed of. He added, with justified pride, that the work of the court recently had been greater than usual.

The Supreme Court, surmounting the obstacle of increasing work and succeeding in clearing its docket, sets an example for the Common Pleas Court of Allegheny County.

The local tribunal has been a year and more behind in its work for a long, long time. And its work has been increasing, too.

It is true that things are not so bad as they once were. When the Common Pleas courts were consolidated, old No. 1 court was three years and five months behind. The increase in the number of judges from 12 to 14 and the employment of visiting judges from other counties in Criminal Court helped to improve conditions.

But to keep up with the work requires continuous activity of all the judges, and that has not been given. Judge Joseph M. Swearingen has been absent for nine months because of illness. The long summer vacation increases the congestion.

It is unfair to litigants that cases should be so long in coming to trial.

A Monument at Logstown

Daughters of the American Revolution Are Doing Good Work in Marking the Scenes of Great Events.

If every book dealing with the history of Western Pennsylvania were to be destroyed we would still have an outline of the story of this region in the bronze tablets set up by the Daughters of the American Revolution and kindred societies on the sites of historical events.

A new marker will be unveiled on October 16 by Fort

Wanted: A Wirecutter

By Nelson Harding

They're in a hole, these business men
And caught in No Man's Land,
By high barbed wire barriers
Shut in on every hand.

Entanglements that must be cut
To set these prisoners free,
Let's get that wirecutter known
As Reciprocity!

complaints. Gossip. Demands for money. If anything really serious had come up he should have told her. It wasn't fair of him not to.

The chops hissed in the pan, she jumped up to turn them, whimpering a little as she scorched her arm on the oven door, and spattered hot grease on her stockings.

The chops were dark brown chips floating in fat when Joe finally came—20 minutes late. She served them sadly. It didn't seem to matter whether you tried or not. There was always something to make everything turn out a failure.

"The tomatoes are fine, honey. May I have some more?"

"Yes, do. That's one thing about canned tomatoes, they're so durable. Practically impossible to ruin them!"

She waited, nervous taut, for him to finish his dinner.

"Why, Val, you aren't eating a thing!"

"I'm not hungry. Had some cakes and things with Mrs. Peacock this afternoon."

Perhaps that would remind him of what he had told Mrs.

says he's up to mischief with a fast crowd. She wrote to my uncle, and he wrote back, telling me to let him come on out here and keep an eye on him."

She waited.

"You're not going to?" she asked, when he said no more.

"I'm afraid I'll have to. He—he's likely to get into real trouble if I dont."

"I won't live in the same house with him! I don't care!"

"Val, darling! You don't think I'd ask you that? It's just to get him a job in town, and board him somewhere. Mrs. Peacock might take him—"

"Oh."

FINANCIAL DIFFICULTY

Another long silence.

"Was that all?"

"No. But the other things are just financial."

"I've been spending too much money? I'm an extravagant housekeeper? I know I am. I try, but I—"

"Oh, no, that's not it. Though we do have a lot of restaurant meals and that counts, of course. But I wasn't thinking of that. It's Ma—you know how she—well, we—have always babied Vivian—"

Did she KNOW? Wait till she wrote that to Aunt Julia!

"Well, Vivian has been reading boarding school stories and has got hipped on the subject of boarding school. Now Ma thinks the kid ought to go—"

"And you ought to pay for it, I suppose!"

"She asked Uncle Joe. He worked up quite a temper over it."

"I don't blame him," Val said dryly.

"Now he wants me to come to see him, and bring you, next Sunday. Will you mind, awfully? He's likely to be pretty nasty!"

He put his arm around her, holding her to him with sudden, yearning tenderness. Poor Val, poor little girl, coming way out here to be with him, and burning her poor little hands cooking, and now having to be shouted at by Uncle Joel.

And she surprised him, saying naturally, "Heavens, Joe! I don't mind. He won't bite me!"

DULL PARTIES

Joe thought it was wonderful of her to take it that way, and she saw that he did, and didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He thought it was wonderful because she didn't mind going once, to visit a harmless if cantankerous old man, who after all had given Joe his start in life. And he never seemed to guess how she suffered going around to all these miserable, dull parties that he liked so much.

The Willowes. Crane and Stella Willowes. Crane, bald and a victim of halitosis. Stella, given to nervous laughter, and readings from the latest dramas. The dramas were all right—she did get marvelous plays to read, but she spoiled them for you, reading all the parts "with ex-

SHE FOUND THE WAY

REGULARLY—once a month—many a girl decides to do something about it. Surely there must be something to help such pain, such weakness ::: some way to get relief.

Then the period passes. She forgets. But next month she suffers again.

Now—today—is the time to do something. Buy a bottle of this Vegetable Compound. Keep it ready. It has been a godsend to thousands. 98 out of 100 women who try it report benefit. Through its tonic action it built them up and relieved the pain. They depend on it. You can depend on it too.

Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Marry-Go-Round

By HELEN ROWLAND

Mixed Grill

There are three things which ie average man appears to think ere made just to be broken—h trays, traffic rules and wedng vows.

* * *

Most modern young couples an to have the automobile first and the baby when they "can ford it."

* * *

Lots of happily married couples ve lived to celebrate their lden weddings. But, you'll probly find that they never took rns driving the car, never were rtners in a bridge game and ver snitched each others cigats.

When a man has spent a whole ening wondering IF, how and hen, it gives him "that sickish eling" to discover that the girl just waiting to be kissed.

* * *

When a girl guesses a man's oughts, before marriage, he is onished at her marvelous "in-tion;" after marriage, when e keeps on guessing them, he is noyed at her "hallucinations."

* * *

A man can't help liking a man who frankly admires him. starts them right off on the me trolley, with a mutual enusiasm for the same thing.

A man will sometimes carry a l's letter in the pocket over his art for a whole week—then put in his desk and wonder (when comes across it, the next sumer) who it was that signed herf "Your Blue-eyed Baby."

* * *

Most of these startling new eories about nudism and free ve were in vogue among the vages long before the dawn of elf-expression."

* * *

Some women cling to their husnds for love, some for convenice—and some appear to cling them just for spite.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Isn't It So?

Read a page and think an age.

Content is the true philosopher's ne.

never knew a man to be ought less of because he had ney.

The average woman's aim in life usually good, especially if she using a rolling pin.

A breakfast nook is where the nily eats three times a day—less there is company.

EUROPE DAY BY DAY

By O. O. McIntyre

PARIS, Sept. 27.—Paris is a bit droopy. The vaunted sparkle lacks lustre. A changed tempo is apparent in stepping from Gare St. Lazarre into the usual noisy milieu. Many of the corrugated shutter go-downs in front of shops are down permanently, black splotches in the glitter.

Thus does La Belle France and her jetty fouettes, for the moment, suggest a toothless, worn-out frump. Yet, with all, it is Paree! Paree! and for most boys from the creek crotches there is no other European city comparable. I scribble in morning pajamied ease on an awninged portico.

Below, under gay-topped umbrellas of a tea garden with a rosarium slit in pebbled paths, noon-day crowds chatter blithely of inconsequentials—the ever present symbol. France knows its leisure. Too much leisure, I fear, is its besetting sin. It is cut to a pattern for the E. Berry Walls of life.

In a circle of the spacious Place Vendome I met a number of Americans—Jerome Beatty and wife, the Watterson Rothackers and Mrs. Samuel Rothapfel and daughter. Hotels are not doing so well. Prices have been shaved. "For rent" signs hang over the luxurious lintels of rue de la Paix.

A pronounced backwash of a world in turmoil is eddied among the sidewalk tables of the Cafe de la Paix. At busiest periods, they are only one-third filled. The army of waiters has become a mere corporal's guard. Ike Meltzger, ex-Brooklyn newsboy, chirped: "Battery Park at dawn."

* * *

There always is a chuckle at French customs in the local press. Figaro today first pages the divorce of a Parisian wife who learned her husband, before marrying her, abandoned his mistress. The judge granted the decree in five minutes.

* * *

My espionage forces are derelict in reporting the ravages silver-topped Harry Silvey has made along the rues. Any hour I expect news that he has the avenues, the boulevards and even the faubourgs in cinders.

* * *

A bewilderingly lovely lady with honey brown eyes is a hotel neighbor. She has the glacial glamor of the born aristocrat. Yet a faulty trans-Atlantic phone connection, in the middle of the night, kept us awake and bared a family skeleton. She had to yell to be heard, and I began to fear for the peace of Napoleon, in his royal crypt a few kilometers away. "You catch the next boat," she screamed, "and get that red headed huzzy out of our apartment at once."

* * *

But I'd like to etch a contrasting picture of domestic serenity. Under the sturdy porticoes of rue de Rivoli, my venerable friend, Monsieur Malabier, his wife and maiden sister conduct a box-like glove shop. Their contentment, in the heart of the Parisian uproar, has interested me for years. He is a book figure come to life, the French Papa of the novels. Late last evening, walking the dog, I peered into the cozy, red-carpeted sitting room in rear of the darkened botique. Mamma Malabier was reading in the twitching glow of a kerosene lamp. Papa, cat on his lap, was nodding, while the sister-in-law industriously knitted. A minute later around the corner in rue de Castiglione, a vulture of the night swooped from the shadows and threw open his coat for a furtive peep at the fan-like spread of filthy postcards. Such are the sharp Parisian contrasts.

* * *

At Foquets on Champs Elysees, I was introduced to the French way of serving pineapples. The fruit, Vesuvius like, in a mountain of ice, is peeled at the table, sliced expertly with a razor-edged knife, powdered with sugar and sprinkled with kirsch. The ritual at your plate gives an exquisite savour. I felt need of an oilcloth bib.

* * *

In Guy de Maupassant's favorite two-block strip, that most impressive street in Paris—sweepingly wide rue Royale—Maxim's, with its cherry red front, struggles forlornly. Only two customers occupied the terrasse last night. But Phillips, the pock-marked little chasseur, still is about. From tips for inglorious chores for tipsy Americans, in Maxim's opulent past, he has a fortune in gold bars.

* * *

As gray dawn suffused it's morning pink, I watched that ancient cavalcade of market wagons clump, clump, clumping toward Les Halles, tired drivers in a coil of sleep on top. On a nearby balcony was another watcher. As I stepped through the French windows, he hallooed: "Some groceries, fella!"

(Copyright, 1932, McNaught Synd., Inc.)

LISTEN, WORLD

By Elsie Robinson

You're boasting about that new dress.

It's wonderfully pretty—a gay, figured print, smartly designed, with trick trimmings. Any one who knows sewing can see at a glance that it was no small job to make that bright bit of fluff.

"And the wonderful part of it is," you cry, "it only cost $4.98. Why, I could hardly have bought the material for that amount, and it would have taken at least two days to make it. Isn't it gorgeous to be able to buy things so cheaply!"

Yes, as far as your wardrobe and mine are concerned, sister, it's probably gorgeous. But when it comes to the rest of the world, I suspect that "cheap prices" are about the worst thing that could happen.

You're amazed. You don't believe it.

"Think how many more dresses we all can have," you say. "When I was a girl, I could only have one or two dresses every season. Now I can get a new one almost every week."

That's true. You can get a new one almost every week. But how about the girl who makes that $4.98 dress? Ever stop to think about her?

"But can't she buy more dresses, too?" you say, a little tired of all this debating.

No she can't. When you get dresses for $4.98, it cuts out that girl's chance to get any dress at all. The reduction must come out of somebody's pocket. Actually it comes out of many pockets.

Hundreds of workers and business people have to live on less if you buy a dress for $4.98. When they live on less, that cuts out their margin for spending. If they can't spend, somebody can't manufacture, and somebody can't rent, and somebody can't put money in the banks.

And so it goes, on and on, in a vicious circle; and, presently, stores are standing empty and banks are failing and 11,000,000 people are out of a job.

Then does that mean you shouldn't buy that new dress?

Not at all. Buy a dozen of them, if you can. Buy some of those that are advertised in this paper today and urge every woman you know to do so. If enough of us will buy dresses and other merchandise, AT ANY PRICE, good times will come back in a hurry.

But, as you buy, don't forget what that cheap dress really means. It doesn't mean merely a lucky break for you. It means hard times all along the line, from the little working girl to the big business man. It means depression.

"I suppose that's right," you say reluctantly. "But that isn't the only reason. I hear a lot of people say it's the fault of the workers, too." They say the workers want too high wages, and that things can't get started until they are willing to work for less; but they aren't willing.

"For example, yesterday a young fellow came by our place asking for work. The garden looked awful and I said I'd give him a dollar if he'd clean it up. We used to pay our old gardener $4.00 a day. I thought I was lucky to get this fellow for $1.00, but what he did wasn't even worth that. He went about it as if he didn't care. Didn't seem to have any pride in doing it right. And my friends tell me that that's the way with most of these fellows who want a job."

Yes I suppose it is. And can you blame them? I suspect that I, too, would "go about things as if I didn't care," if I had to accept starvation wages and discard all my standards of living.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Text for Today How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him.—Hebrews, ii:3.

(Today's text is suggested by the Rev. J. Paul Graham, pastor, Wallace Memorial United Presbyterian Church, Greentree.)

Mark Hellinger's 'All In

'Forgotten Men'

By Claude G. Bowers

Author of "The Struggle for Democracy in America," "Founders of the Republic," "Jefferson and Democracy," "The Tragic Era" and other important works, now sitting for the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

Lest people able to help get a wrong impression from the open campaign propaganda intended to convey the impression that "the crisis has passed," with the jobless flocking into factories, as shown in some pictures at a leading picture theater in New York, we call attention to the appeal just issued by the Red Cross.

It announces that it faces "a great emergency," because "millions are without employment." The truth is that the need this winter will be greater than last and everyone, still in position to help, should contribute to the Red Cross to the extent of their capacity. The millions, including women and children who are in dire distress, must not be "forgotten" even to make a Hoover holiday.

* * *

No Men Have Been 'Forgotten'!

Pat Hurley, who "saved American institutions" by ordering the Army with its tanks, its gas, its bayonets and its torches into Washington to bayonet and gas the jobless veterans and fire their miserable shacks, announces that no men have been "forgotten" by the administration.

True, Mr. Hurley, referring to the jobless recently, smugly expressed the opinion that they must "shift for themselves." True, the administration for two years not only forgot the jobless but by deliberate misrepresentations and juggling with the census figures sought to show that not one jobless man in three was out of work. True, it made a virtue of its contention that not one penny of federal money should be used to feed the hungry. True, it fought the Wagner bills, lobbying against them, and vetoing some. True, it opposed an adequate program of public construction to create jobs; and, being forced at length by Wagner and Garner to agree to something, consented to some measure of relief.

But it is equally true that the administration now is putting but a small part of the resources furnished on the demand of Congress into operation—and that only after repeated appeals and denunciations from Senator Wagner.

The "forgotten men" of the administration has been the unemployed and the farmer.

* * *

Mr. Hoover Shocked At the Idea

Mr. Hoover has remembered the railroads with money from the public Treasury, but he has forgotten the railroad workers in the making of these advances. That is the reason the railroad men's organization has been forced to remind him of their existence. They ask that hereafter in the making of these loans that they be given on condition that the wages be maintained.

A great army of railroad workers have been discharged upon the streets. Others' wages have been cut once; and now it is proposed to cut 20 per cent more. The railroad workers have not had the benefit from the loans out of the public Treasury. They are the "forgotten men."

But Mr. Hoover takes the position in his letter to Gov. Pinchot that he has "no influence or control" over finance corporation loans.

The man who has the money to loan generally has some influence and control. When banks loan money to corporations they make a certain influence and control the condition of the loan. Just now the banks in Wall street are demanding control in the management of municipal business as a condition for loans.

When Garner proposed that the average businessman, having orders to fill and needing money to fill them, should have the same access to the public Treasury, he provided that the loans should be given only on absolutely sound security, and on condition that men should be taken from the breadlines and put to work.

Mr. Hoover was utterly shocked at the idea. The administration press, and tiraders instantly denounced Garner as a "radical" and "wild eyed."

Garner thought that the man with the money could exercise influence and control, and that it should be used for the benefit of the "forgotten" men in the streets. He also remembered another "forgotten man" of the administration—the average businessman.

* * *

Packed Against the Public Interest

Meanwhile Roosevelt's fight for the "forgotten" men and women—the millions who use electrical energy in their homes and businesses, is not making the Hoover administration group any more comfortable.

Throughout his eight years in the Department of Commerce Mr. Hoover appeared almost regularly in the conventions of the utilities and power people to denounce the idea of federal regulation. He spoke so accurately the language of these people that they printed his speeches at their expense by the hundreds of thousands and circulated them over the country.

But the defense is made—and this is amusing,—that Mr. Hoover has a Federal Power Commission. He has; and it is packed against the public interest. There is not a real friend of the consumers, of the public, who does not know it is packed.

* * *

How Can Such Things Be?

Mr. Roosevelt not only proposes to do something the Hoover Administration stubbornly has opposed—to protect the consumers—but to do something for the protection of innocent investors in utility stock from the common swindling processes through which the Insull interests were built up. He proposes a plan of publicity and laws to make impossible in the future the wholesale taking in of the unwary in Insull enterprises.

As Senator Hull has said, millions of hard-working people who have been bankrupted and ruined by yielding to the high-pressure salesmanship of the insulls would have been saved under the measures Roosevelt now proposes to prevent it; and should have been impossible under any administration. It would have been impossible under the laws of England.

Which reminds us that when that huge swindling organization collapsed, making one of the most sensational business tragedies in American history, the administration press told the story on back pages and in few words. That is something for the "forgotten man" to think about. How can such things be?

Not only has the administration its "forgotten men;" it wants to make sure there are forgotten things; and the forgotten man this year will do well to remember himself and his own interests and also to remember strange things that have occurred during the last four years of human misery and human neglect.

* * *

Dr. Poling to Take the Stump

Meanwhile arrangements have been made, Mr. Hoover consenting for Dr. Poling, head of the prohibition forces, to take the stump for Mr. Hoover and Mr. Hoover's prohibition views. He will speak in New York City, Chicago and Boston, and direct attention to the Democratic stand for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead act. He will stand foursquare with Mr. Hoover and Mr. Curtis, the bone-dry nominee, and pay tribute, perhaps, to Ogden Mills for the bitter fight he waged for the Allied Forces in the Republican convention.

P. S.—After writing this, we note with surprise that New York City, Boston and Chicago are not in Dr. Poling's itinerary. This evidently is an oversight. No doubt it will be corrected.

(Copyright, 1932.)

The Rhyming Optimist

By ALINE MICHAELIS

To Beauty

Oh, beauty, beauty beauty,
That blesses all the world
With banners of the east at dawn
And sunset's flags unfurled:
That lurks, a thing of wonder,
Within a maiden's glance,
And on the moonlit river
Where silver ripples dance!

Oh, beauty, hear me calling!
Veil not yourself from me,
Who once was your most willing slave,
Most ardent votary.
Come back to me, oh, beauty,
To give me peace again,
And let me glimpse your glamour
In starlight and in rain.

For love and work and laughter
Are winds that stir and die;
And I would cling to beauty
And let the rest go by!

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

By S. H. Connolly

Match correctly:

1. He that toucheth pitch shall be defiled therewith — "Romeo and Juliet."
2. I am the very pink of courtesy — Scott, "Lady of the Lake."
3. Come one, come all! This rock shall fly From its firm base, as soon as I — Bible.
4. To see what is right and not to do it is want of courage — "Hamlet."
5. It is a custom More honored in the breach than the observance — Confucius.

Fill each blank:

6. _____ invented bifocal glasses.
7. In Russia, sacred pictures are called _____.
8. "Stonewall" Jackson was an officer in the _____ War.
9. The katydid is a species of _____.
10. The Bodleian Library is at _____.
11. The "City of David" is _____.
12. The chief magistrate of Venice when it was a republic was called the _____.
13. Mr. Squeers is a schoolmaster in Dickens' "_____."
14. The projecting cut-water of a ship is called the _____.
15. A _____ is sometimes referred to as "God's Acre."

Answers to today's tests:

1. Bible. 2. "Romeo and Juliet." 3. Scott, "Lady of the Lake." 4. Confucius. 5. "Hamlet." 6. Benjamin Franklin. 7. Ikons. 8. Civil. 9. Locust. 10. Oxford University, England. 11. Jerusalem. 12. Doge. 13. "Nicholas Nickleby." 14. Figureheads. 15. Cemetery.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)